IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SHELL ET AL-ISENSEE-FLATO TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 9, 1937, BY JAMES W. TAIT COMPANY, INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the form of schedule filed does not conform to the schedule prescribed by Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, which Rule became effective as of June 1, 1937;

(2) In that the information concerning the gross production of water from the tract involved is not set forth in percentages by months, nor is the information, as given, believed to be correct;

(3) In that some of the figures set forth in Division II, Items 16 (c) and (d), may not be correct;

(4) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance, attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit "B", is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is omitted;

(5) In that in Division III, the average estimated recovery per acre of 19,567.25 barrels, has not been "established."

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest offered is not stated in terms of the total production from the tract involved as is required in Division II, Item 1;

(2) In that the legal description of the tract involved, required to be stated in Division II, Item 2 (c), is incomplete;

(3) In that it appears from information contained in Division II, Item 5, that payment for oil produced from the tract involved is made to the interest holders in an indirect manner, which information, if correct, requires that the text and answers required to be given in Division II, Item 12 (a) to (c), inclusive, shall be included in the offering sheet;

(4) In that the depth of the well located upon the tract involved, as set forth in Division II, Item 19 (c), does not agree with the depth of the well shown on the plat attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit "A";

(5) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance, attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit "B", is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is omitted, and the complete legal description of the property is not given;

(6) In that the statement contained in Division II, Item 13, relative to the date as of which the discovery well was "plugged back" is not believed to be correct.

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD.

DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL RECORDS AND INFORMATION

It being found by the Social Security Board (hereinafter referred to as the Board) that the public interest and the efficient administration of the functions with which the Board is charged under the Social Security Act require that the confidential nature of all wage records and other records or information in possession of the Board, pertaining to any person, be preserved.

Now, therefore, pursuant to authority contained in Section 1102 of the Social Security Act the Board hereby adopts and promulgates the following regulation:

(1) No member, officer, or employee of the Board, except as authorized by this regulation or otherwise expressly authorized by the Board, shall produce or disclose to any person or before any tribunal, directly or indirectly, whether in response to a subpoena or otherwise, any record (including any file, letter, application, claim, return, report, or other paper or document) or any information acquired therefrom or otherwise officially acquired, pertaining to any person.

(2) Any request or demand for any such record or information, disclosure of which is forbidden by this regulation, shall be declined upon the authority of this regulation. If any member, officer, or employee of the Board is sought to be required, by subpoena or other compulsory process, to produce such record or give such information, he shall respectfully decline to present such record or divulge such information, basing his refusal upon this regulation.

(3) Disclosure of such records or information is hereby authorized, in such manner as the Board may by instructions prescribe, in the following cases:

(a) To any claimant or prospective claimant for benefits under Title II of the Social Security Act, or his duly authorized representative, as to matters directly concerning such claimant or prospective claimant;

(b) To any officer or employee of the Treasury Department of the United States lawfully charged with the administration of Title VIII or Title IX of the Social Security Act, for the purpose of such administration only;

(c) To any official, body or commission lawfully charged with the administration of any State unemployment compensation law or tax levied in connection therewith, for the purpose of such administration only.

(4) Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the disclosure by the Board, or any member, officer or employee thereof, of any such record or information in any formal proceeding under the Social Security Act; nor shall anything herein be construed to prohibit the publication of statistical data or other information not relating to any particular person; nor shall this regulation apply to personnel information relating to employees of the Board.

(5) As used in this regulation, the term "person" includes an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation; the term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies; the term "State" includes Alaska, Hawaii and the District of Columbia.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

CONVEYING TO THE PEOPLE OF PUERTO RICO CERTAIN LAND HERETOFORE RESERVED FOR PURPOSES OF THE UNITED STATES

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the President of the United States, under an act of Congress approved March 2, 1917 (39 Stat. 951–968), entitled "AN ACT To provide a civil government for Porto Rico, and for other purposes," is authorized to convey to the people of Puerto Rico from time to time, in his discretion, such lands, buildings, or interests in land or other property now owned by the United States and within the territorial limits of Puerto Rico as in his opinion are no longer needed for purposes of the United States; and

WHEREAS the island within the territorial limits of Puerto Rico known as Desecheo Island, heretofore reserved by Executive Order No. 1669 of December 19, 1912, as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds, is no longer needed for purposes of the United States; and

WHEREAS this island is desired by the Insular Government of Puerto Rico for use as a forest reserve and as a preserve and breeding ground for native birds, and may be advantageously used by the people of Puerto Rico;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim and make known that Desecheo Island, located in Mona Passage, Puerto Rico, approximately in latitude eighteen degrees twenty-three minutes north, longitude sixty-seven degrees twenty-nine minutes west from Greenwich, as indicated upon the diagram hereto attached and made a part hereof,[1] is hereby transferred and conveyed, subject to the reservations and conditions hereafter mentioned, to the people of Puerto Rico to be used for forest reserve and native bird preserve purposes only.

There is reserved to the United States the right to occupy such areas of Desecheo Island as may be needed for the establishment of aids to navigation, together with rights for landing and ingress and egress to the areas so occupied by the United States.

In the event that Desecheo Island shall cease to be used for forest reserve and native bird preserve purposes, or be devoted to any other than forest reserve and native bird preserve purposes, the same shall revert to the United States.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

LOCAL SUBSIDIARY REGULATIONS

The following subsidiary regulations, issued under the authority of the Rules and Regulations approved by the Secretary of the Interior June 18, 1936 (1 F. R. 672), have been recommended by the superintendent and approved by the Director of the National Park Service, and are in force and effect within the boundaries of Yellowstone National Park:

Fishing.—The following waters are permanently closed to fishing:

Indian Creek.
Panther Creek.
Glen Creek.
Gardiner River for its entire length above the Mammoth water supply intake.
White Lake, Fern Lake, and Tern Lake, on the Mirror Plateau.
Duck Lake, near West Thumb.
Buck Lake, Fish Lake, and Shrimp Lake, near Soda Butte.

All streams trapped by the Bureau of Fisheries shall be closed from the mouths of the streams to a distance of three miles above the traps, during the spawning season. Such closed streams will be posted by the Bureau of Fisheries: all other closed waters will be posted by the National Park Service.

Open Season.—The fishing season in Yellowstone National Park shall be from sunrise on May 23 to sunset on October 20 of each year, except in special areas as hereinafter specified.

Special Areas:

Grebe Lake, near Canyon, shall be open to fishing from August 20 to October 20, inclusive.

The Yellowstone River, from a point 150 yards above Fishing Bridge to the Upper Falls at Canyon, shall be open to fishing from July 1 to October 20, inclusive.

Campanula, Cougar, Duck, Maple, Gneiss, and Grayling Creeks shall be open to fishing from May 23 to July 10, inclusive.

The Madison River, for its entire length within the park shall be open to fishing from May 23 to September 30, inclusive.

Heart, Lewis, and Shoshone Lakes, and the Yellowstone River from the mouth of the Lamar River to the north boundary of the park shall be open to fishing from May 1 to October 31, inclusive.

Limit of Catch.—The limit of catch per day for each person fishing in the waters of Yellowstone National Park shall be 15 pounds of fish (dressed weight with heads and tails intact) plus one fish, not to exceed a total of 10 fish, except as hereinafter specified.

Special Limits:

On the following waters, the limit of catch per day for each person fishing shall be 10 pounds of fish (dressed weight with heads and tails intact) plus one fish, not to exceed a total of five fish:

(a) Within a one-mile radius of the boat docks at West Thumb.

(b) All waters of Yellowstone Lake inclosed by a line from Gull Point to the extreme north end of Stevenson's Island and continued to the mouth of Pelican Creek.

(c) The Yellowstone River from the outlet of Yellowstone Lake at Fishing Bridge to the Upper Falls at Canyon.

Restriction on Use of Bait:

No salmon eggs or other fish eggs, either fresh or preserved, shall be used as bait. The possession of such salmon eggs or other fish eggs is prohibited within the park.

Size and weight limits for vehicles—

Load Limits:

It shall be unlawful for any person to operate, or move upon any public highway in Yellowstone National Park, any vehicle which has a gross weight, including vehicle and load, in excess of that set forth in the following regulations:

(a) Any two axle vehicle, whose gross weight, including vehicle and load, exceeds 24,000 pounds (12 tons).

(b) Any vehicle whose gross weight, including vehicle and load, exceeds 30,000 pounds (15 tons).

Dimensions of Vehicles and Loads:

No vehicle shall be moved or operated on any of the public highways of Yellowstone National Park when the total outside width and length, including the load thereon, exceeds eight feet in width and thirty-three feet in length for a single vehicle or sixty feet in length for a combination of vehicles, or when the total height of a vehicle, including the load thereon, exceeds twelve feet and six inches.

Speed.—The maximum speed of automobiles and other vehicles in Yellowstone National Park shall not exceed the following prescribed limits:

(a) In all areas which are so posted and on dangerous curves, 15 miles per hour.

(b) On the Norris Junction-Canyon Junction road, 25 miles per hour.

CUSTOMS DUTY ON POSTAGE STAMPS FOR NEWFOUNDLAND

JUNE 10, 1937.

The Postal Administration of Newfoundland has advised this Department that postage stamps imported into Newfoundland by merchants and collectors of postage stamps are liable to customs duty.

Consequently, ordinary or registered letters containing such stamps should bear the green (customs) label—Form 2976, and have inclosed therein the paper form of customs declaration—Form 2976-A, (see page 221 of the current Annual Postal Guide). The customs declaration (Form 2976-A) should be accurately filled in and show the correct value of the postage stamps inclosed.

Letters which contain postage stamps and do not bear the green label are liable to confiscation or the payment of a fine by the addressee upon delivery.

Postmasters will cause due notice of the foregoing to be taken at their offices and the widest publicity, without expense to the Department, to be given thereto.

[Order No. 2]

ORDER FOR AND NOTICE OF HEARING UPON CLAIM THAT SUBSTANTIALLY ALL TRANSACTIONS IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN CERTAIN LOCALITIES DIRECTLY AFFECT INTERSTATE COMMERCE AND PRODUCE OTHER RESULTS DETRIMENTAL TO INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL

It being claimed by various responsible producers and producers' organizations that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the several localities hereinafter named directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and cause, and will cause, undue and unreasonable advantage, preference and prejudice as between such commerce in such localities on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937; and it appearing to the Commission after investigation that there is substantial support in fact for such claim; and the Consumer's Counsel of the National Bituminous Coal Commission, having requested that a proceeding be instituted under the provisions of Section 4-A of such Act for the purpose of investigating the aforesaid claim and for the purpose of determining which, if any, of such transactions in intrastate commerce in such coal are subject to, and ought to be made subject to, the provisions of Section 4 of such Act; Now therefore, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, under authority of the provisions of such Section 4-A, hereby orders and directs as follows:

On the 12th day of July, 1937, commencing at the hour of 10:00 A. M., at the hearing room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., a hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the localities hereinafter named and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice will exist between localities in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

The localities, concerning which hearings will be held, and above referred to, are as follows: The States of Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wyoming and the Territory of Alaska.

Following the commencement of the hearing at Washington, D. C., the Commission will in its discretion designate the times and places for further hearings at points convenient to the respective localities named in this order and further notice thereof will be given to producers of bituminous coal by publication of a notice in newspapers of general circulation in such manner as the Commission shall hereafter direct.

Any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4–A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

Failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Washington, D. C., on July 12th, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

This order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

The respective acting district secretaries, as designated in Order No. 1 of the Commission, shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission, forthwith mail a copy of this notice to each known producer of bituminous coal in each of the localities aforesaid and shall publish at the expense of the Commission a copy of this order and notice upon three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of such localities. Each notice published need contain only the name of the particular locality affected in which such publication is made and need not contain this paragraph.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 19th day of June 1937.

[Order No. 3]

NOTICE AND ORDER EXTENDING TIME FOR PRODUCERS IN THE TERRITORY OF ALASKA TO FILE ACCEPTANCES OF BITUMINOUS COAL CODE

At a regular session of the National Bituminous Coal Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of June, 1937,

It appearing to the Commission that producers of bituminous coal in the territory of Alaska have not received the documents issued and published by the Commission on the 21st day of May, 1937, entitled "Notice of Intention to Promulgate the Bituminous Coal Code" and "Promulgation of Form of Acceptance for Membership in the Bituminous Coal Code", in sufficient time to enable such producers to file such acceptance with the Commission at Washington, D. C., and it appearing to the Commission that such producers are entitled to special relief, now therefore, pursuant to authority of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937,

It is hereby ordered, and notice is hereby given, as follows:

1. All acceptances of membership in such code, filed with the Commission at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on or before August 1, 1937, by producers of bituminous coal in the territory of Alaska, in compliance with each of the aforesaid documents and with such Act, shall be considered to have been filed, and shall be effective, nunc pro tunc, as of date of June 21, 1937 All such acceptances filed after August 1, 1937, shall be effective only as of date of actual filing.

2. The Secretary of the Commission is directed to forthwith mail a copy of this order to each of the following addressees, addressed to them at the address, or addresses, stated after their respective names:

D. S. Hanley, Acting District Secretary, 2010 Smith Tower, Seattle, Washington.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C.

Delegate Anthony J. Dimond, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

Edward F. Medley, 1010 American Bank Building, Seattle, Washington.

[Order No. 4]

AN ORDER PROMULGATING THE BITUMINOUS COAL CODE

Pursuant to act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, by said Act duly established, does hereby promulgate and publish, pursuant to section 5 (a) of said Act, the Bituminous Coal Code as provided for in section 4 of said Act.

The Bituminous Coal Code herein promulgated is as follows, to-wit:

BITUMINOUS COAL CODE

Part I. Organization

(a) Twenty-three district boards of code members shall be organized. Each district board shall consist of not less than three nor more than seventeen members. The number of members of the district board shall, subject to the approval of the Commission, be determined by the majority vote of the district tonnage during the calendar year 1936 represented at a meeting of the code members of the district called for the purpose of such determination and for the election of such district board: and all code members within the district shall be given notice of the time and place of the meeting. All but one of the members of the district board shall be code members or representatives of code members truly representative of all the mines of the district. The number of such producer members shall be an even number. One-half of such producer members shall be elected by the majority in number of the code members of the district represented at the aforesaid meeting. The other producer members shall be elected by votes cast in the proportion of the annual tonnage output of the code members in the district, for the calendar year preceding the date of the election: Provided, That not more than one officer or employee of any code member within a district shall be a member of the district board at the same time. The remaining member of each district board shall be selected by the organization of employees representing the preponderant number of employees in the industry of the district in question. The term of district board members shall be two years and until their successors are elected. The Commission shall have power to remove any member of any district board upon its finding, after due notice and hearing, that said member is guilty of inefficiency, willful neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.

The district boards shall have power to adopt bylaws and rules of procedure, subject to approval of the Commission, and to appoint officers from within or without their own membership, to fix their terms and compensation, to provide for reports, and to employ such committees, employees, arbitrators, and other persons necessary to effectuate their purposes. Members of the district board shall serve as such, without compensation but may be reimbursed for their reasonable expenses. The territorial boundaries or limits of the twenty-three districts are set forth in the schedule entitled "Schedule of Districts" and annexed to this code.

Whenever the Commission upon investigation instituted upon its own motion or upon petition of any code member, district board, State or political subdivision thereof, or the consumers' counsel, after hearing finds that the territorial boundaries or limits of any district or minimum-price area are such as to make it substantially impracticable to establish minimum prices in accordance with all the standards set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of part II of this code, and that a change in such territorial boundaries or limits or a division or consolidation of such districts or minimum-price areas would render the establishment of minimum prices in accordance with all such standards more practicable, it shall by order make such changes, divisions, and consolidations as it finds will substantially aid in such establishment of minimum prices.

(b) The expense of administering this code by the respective district boards shall be borne by the code members in the respective districts, each paying his proportionate share, as assessed, computed on a tonnage basis, in accordance with regulations prescribed by such boards with the approval of the Commission. Such assessments may be collected by the district board by action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Nothing contained in the Act shall constitute the members of a district board partners for any purpose. Nor shall any member of a district board or officer thereof be liable in any manner to anyone for any act of any other member, officer, agent, or employee of the district board. Nor shall any member or officer of a district board, exercising reasonable diligence in the conduct of his duties under the Act, be liable to anyone for any action or omission to act under the Act except for his own willful misfeasance or for nonfeasance involving moral turpitude.

(d) No action complying with the provisions of this code taken while the Act is in effect, or within sixty days thereafter, by any code member or by any district board, or officer thereof, shall be construed to be within the prohibitions of the antitrust laws of the United States.

Part II. Marketing

The Commission shall have power to prescribe for code members minimum and maximum prices, and marketing rules and regulations, as follows:

(a) All code members shall report all spot orders to such statistical bureau hereinafter provided for as may be designated by the Commission and shall file with it copies of all contracts for the sale of coal, copies of all invoices, copies of all credit memoranda, and such other information concerning the preparation, cost, sale, and distribution of coal as the Commission may authorize or require. All such records shall be held by the statistical bureau as the confidential records of the code member filing such information.

For each district there shall be established by the Commission a statistical bureau which shall be operated and maintained as an agency of the Commission. Each statistical bureau shall be under the direction of a manager, who shall be appointed by the Commission. No producer, employee, or representative of a producer, and, except as the Commission may specifically approve, no member of a district board or employee or representative thereof shall be an employee of any statistical bureau.

Each district board shall, from time to time on its own motion or when directed by the Commission, propose minimum prices free on board transportation facilities at the mines for kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in said district, and classification of coal and price variations as to mines, consuming market areas, values as to uses and seasonal demand. Said prices shall be proposed so as to yield a return per net ton for each district in a minimum price area, as such districts are identified and such area is defined in the subjoined table designated "minimum-price-area table", equal as nearly as may be to the weighted average of the total costs, per net ton, determined as hereinafter provided, of the tonnage of such minimum price area. The computation of the total costs shall include the cost of labor, supplies, power, taxes, insurance, workmen's compensation, royalties, depreciation and depletion (as determined by the Bureau of Internal Revenue in the computation of the Federal income tax) and all other direct expenses of production, coal operators' association dues, district board assessments for Board operating expenses only levied under this code, and reasonable costs of selling and the cost of administration.

MINIMUM-PRICE-AREA TABLE

Area 1: Eastern Pennsylvania, district 1; western Pennsylvania, district 2; northern West Virginia, district 3; Ohio, district 4; Michigan, district 5; Panhandle, district 6; Southern numbered 1, district 7; Southern numbered 2, district 8; that part of Southeastern district 13, comprising Van Buren, Warren, and McMinn Counties in Tennessee.

Area 2: West Kentucky, district 9; Illinois, district 10; Indiana, district 11; Iowa, district 12.

Area 3: Southeastern, district 13, except Van Buren, Warren, and McMinn Counties in Tennessee.

Area 4: Arkansas-Oklahoma, district 14.

Area 5: Southwestern, district 15.

Area 6: Northern Colorado, district 16; southern Colorado, district 17; New Mexico, district 18.

Area 7: Wyoming, district 19; Utah, district 20.

Area 8: North Dakota and South Dakota, district 21.

Area 9: Montana, district 22.

Area 10: Washington and Alaska, district 23.

The minimum prices so proposed shall reflect, as nearly as possible, the relative market value of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, shall be just and equitable as between producers within the district, and shall have due regard to the interests of the consuming public. The procedure for proposal of minimum prices shall be in accordance with rules and regulations to be approved by the Commission.

A schedule of such proposed minimum prices, together with the data upon which they are computed, including, but without limitation, the factors considered in determining the price relationship, shall be submitted by the district board to the Commission, which may approve, disapprove, or modify such proposed minimum prices to conform to the requirements of this subsection, which shall serve as the basis for the coordination provided for in the succeeding subsection (b): Provided, That all minimum prices proposed for any kind, quality, or size of coal for shipment into any consuming market area shall be just and equitable, as between producers within the district: And provided further, That no minimum price shall be proposed that permits dumping.

As soon as possible after its creation, each district board shall determine, from cost data submitted by the proper statistical bureau of the Commission, the weighted average of the total costs of the ascertainable tonnage produced in the district in the calendar year 1936. The district board shall adjust the average costs so determined, as may be necessary to give effect to any changes in wage rates, hours of employment, or other factors substantially affecting costs, exclusive of seasonal changes, so as to reflect as accurately as possible any change or changes which may have been established since January 1, 1936. Such determination and the computations upon which it is based shall be promptly submitted to the Commission by each district board in the respective minimum-price area. The Commission shall thereupon determine the weighted average of the total costs of the tonnage for each minimum-price area in the calendar year 1936, adjusted as aforesaid, and transmit it to all the district boards within such minimum-price area. Said weighted average of the total costs shall be taken as the basis, to be effective until changed by the Commission, for the proposal and establishment of minimum prices. Thereafter, upon satisfactory proof made at any time by any district board of a change in excess of 2 cents per net ton of two thousand pounds in the weighted average of the total costs in the minimum-price area, exclusive of seasonal changes, the Commission shall increase or decrease the minimum prices accordingly. The weighted average figures of total cost determined as aforesaid shall be available to the public.

Each district board shall, on its own motion or when directed by the Commission, propose reasonable rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution, by code members within the district, of coal. Such rules and regulations shall not be inconsistent with the requirements of this code and shall conform to the standards of fair competition hereinafter established. Such rules and regulations shall be submitted by the district board to the Commission with a statement of the reasons therefor, and the Commission may approve, disapprove, or modify the same, for the purpose of coordination.

(b) District boards shall, under rules and regulations established by the Commission, coordinate in common consuming market areas upon a fair competitive basis the minimum prices and the rules and regulations proposed by them, respectively, under subsection (a) of part II of this code. Such coordination, among other factors, but without limitation, shall take into account the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal, and transportation charges upon coal. All minimum prices proposed for any kind, quality, or size of coal for shipment into any common consuming market area shall be just and equitable, and not unduly prejudicial or preferential, as between and among districts, shall reflect as nearly as possible, the relative market values, at points of delivery in each common consuming market area, of the various kinds, qualities, and sizes of coal produced in the various districts, taking into account values as to uses, seasonal demand, transportation methods and charges and their effect upon a reasonable opportunity to compete on a fair basis, and the competitive relationships between coal and other forms of fuel and energy; and shall preserve as nearly as may be existing fair competitive opportunities. The minimum prices proposed as a result of such coordination shall not, as to any district, reduce or increase the return per net ton upon all the coal produced therein below or above the minimum return as provided in subsection (a) of part II of this code by an amount greater than necessary to accomplish such coordination, to the end that the return per net ton upon the entire tonnage of the minimum price area shall approximate the weighted average of the total cost per net ton of the tonnage of such minimum price area. Such coordinated prices and rules and regulations, together with the data upon which they are predicated, shall be submitted to the Commission. The Commission shall thereupon establish, and from time to time, upon complaint or upon its own motion, review and revise the effective minimum prices and rules and regulations in accordance with the standards set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of part II of this code.

(c) When, in the public interest, the Commission deems it necessary to establish maximum prices for coal in order to protect the consumer of coal against unreasonably high prices therefor, the Commission shall have the power to establish maximum prices free on board transportation facilities for coal in any district. Such maximum prices shall be established at a uniform increase above the minimum prices in effect within the district at the time, so that in the aggregate the maximum prices shall yield a reasonable return above the weighted average total cost of the district: Provided, That no maximum price shall be established for any mine which shall not yield a fair return on the fair value of the property.

(d) If any code member or district board or member thereof, or any State or political subdivision of a State, or the consumers' counsel, shall be dissatisfied with such coordination of prices or rules and regulations, or by a failure to establish such coordination of prices or rules and regulations, or by any minimum or maximum prices established or (c) of part II of this code, he or it shall have the right, by petition, to make complaint to the Commission, and the Commission shall, under rules and regulations established by it, and after notice and hearing, make such order as may be required to effectuate the purpose of subsections (b) and (c) of part II of this code. Pending final disposition of such petition, and upon reasonable showing of necessity therefor, the Commission may make such preliminary or temporary order as in its judgment may be appropriate, and not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act.

(e) No coal subject to the provisions of this code shall be sold or delivered or offered for sale at a price below the minimum or above the maximum therefor established by the Commission, and the sale or delivery or offer for sale of coal at a price below such minimum or above such maximum shall constitute a violation of this code: Provided, That the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to a lawful and bona fide written contract entered into prior to June 16, 1933.

The making of a contract for the sale of coal at a price below the minimum or above the maximum therefor established by the Commission at the time of the making of the contract shall constitute a violation of this code, and such contract shall be invalid and unenforceable.

From and after the date of approval of the Act, until prices shall have been established pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) of part II of this code, no contract for the sale of coal shall be made providing for delivery for a period longer than thirty days from the date of the contract.

No contract shall be made for the sale of coal for delivery after the expiration date of the Act at a price below the minimum or above the maximum therefor established by the Commission and in effect at the time of making the contract.

The minimum prices established in accordance with the provisions of this code shall not apply to coal sold and shipped outside the domestic market. The domestic market shall include all points within the continental United States and Canada and car-ferry shipments to the island of Cuba. Bunker coal delivered to steamships for consumption thereon shall be regarded as shipped within the domestic market. Maximum prices established in accordance with the provisions of this code shall not apply to coal sold and shipped outside the continental United States.

(f) All data, reports, and other information in the possession of any agency of the United States in relation to coal shall be available to the Commission and to the office of the consumers' counsel for the administration of the Act.

(g) The price provisions of the Act shall not be evaded or violated by or through the use of docks or other storage facilities or transportation facilities, or by or through the use of subsidiaries, affiliated sales or transportation companies or other intermediaries or instrumentalities, or by or through the absorption, directly or indirectly, of any transportation or incidental charge of whatsoever kind or character, or any part thereof. The Commission is hereby authorized, after investigation and hearing, and upon notice to the interested parties, to make and issue rules and regulations to make this subsection effective.

(h) The Commission shall, by order, prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to persons (whether or not code members), herein referred to as "distributors", who purchase coal for resale and resell it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots; and shall require the maintenance and observance by such persons, in the resale of such coal, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations established under this code.

UNFAIR METHODS OF COMPETITION

(i) The following practices with respect to coal shall be unfair methods of competition and shall constitute violations of this code:

1. The consignment of unordered coal, or the forwarding of coal which has not actually been sold, consigned to the producer or his agent: Provided however, That coal which has not actually been sold may be forwarded, consigned to the producer or his agent at rail or track yards, tidewater ports, river ports, or lake ports, or docks beyond such ports, when for application to any of the following classes: Bunker coal, coal applicable against existing contracts, coal for storage (other than in railroad cars) by the producer or his agent in rail or track yards or on docks, wharves, or other yards for resale by the producer or his agent.

2. The adjustment of claims with purchasers of coal in such manner as to grant secret allowances, secret rebates, or secret concessions, or other price discrimination.

3. The prepayment of freight charges with intent to or having the effect of granting a discriminatory credit allowance.

4. The granting in any form of adjustments, allowances, discounts, credits, or refunds to purchasers or sellers of coal, for the purposes or with the effect of altering retroactively a price previously agreed upon, in such manner as to create price discrimination.

5. The predating or postdating of any invoice or contract for the purchase or sale of coal, except to conform to a bona-fide agreement for the purchase or sale entered into on the predate.

6. The payment or allowance in any form or by any device of rebates, refunds, credits, or unearned discounts, or the extension to certain purchasers of services or privileges not extended to all purchasers under like terms and conditions, or under similar circumstances.

7. The attempt to purchase business, or to obtain information concerning a competitor's business by concession, gifts, or bribes.

8. The intentional misrepresentation of any analysis or of analyses, or of sizes, or the intentional making, causing, or permitting to be made, or publishing, of any false, untrue, misleading, or deceptive statement by way of advertising, invoicing, or otherwise concerning the size, quality, character, nature, preparation, or origin of any coal bought, sold, or consigned.

9. The unauthorized use, whether in written or oral form, of trade-marks, trade names, slogans, or advertising matter already adopted by a competitor, or any deceptive approximation thereof.

10. Inducing or attempting to induce, by any means or device whatsoever, a breach of contract between a competitor and his customer during the term of such contract.

11. Splitting or dividing commissions, brokers' fees, or brokerage discounts, or otherwise in any manner directly or indirectly using brokerage commissions or jobbers' arrangements or sales agencies for making discounts, allowances, or rebates, or prices other than those determined under the Act, to any industrial consumer or to any retailers, or to others, whether of a like or different class.

12. Selling to, or through, any broker, jobber, commission account, or sales agency, which is in fact or in effect an agency or an instrumentality of a retailer or an industrial consumer or of an organization of retailers or industrial consumers, whereby they are[1] any of them secure either directly or indirectly a discount, dividend, allowance, or rebates, or a price other than that determined in the manner prescribed by the Act.

13. Employing any person or appointing any sales agent, at a compensation obviously disproportionate to the ordinary value of the service or services rendered, and whose employment or appointment is made with the primary intention and purpose of securing preferment with a purchaser or purchasers of coal.

It shall not be an unfair method of competition or a violation of this code or any requirement of the Act (1) to sell to or through any bona-fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States whether or not such organization grants rebates, discounts, patronage dividends, or other similar benefits to its members; (2) to sell through any intervening agency to any such cooperative organization; or (3) to pay or allow to any such cooperative organization or to any such intervening agency any discount, commission, rebate, or dividend ordinarily paid or allowed, or permitted by this code to be paid or allowed, to other purchasers for purchases in wholesale or middleman quantities.

[1] So in original act.

(j) The Commission shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine written complaints made by any code member, district board, or member thereof, State or political subdivision of a State, or the consumers' counsel, which charge any violation of this code specified in part II thereof. It shall make and publish rules and regulations for the consideration and hearing of any such complaint, and all interested parties shall be required to conform thereto. The Commission shall make due effort toward adjustment of such complaints and shall endeavor to compose the differences of the parties, and shall make such order or orders in the premises, from time to time, as the facts and the circumstances warrant. Any such order shall be subject to review as are other orders of the Commission.

(k) In the investigation of any complaint or violation of this code, or of any rule or regulation the observance of which is required under the terms hereof, the Commission shall have power by order to require such reports from, and shall be given access to inspect the books and records of, code members to the extent deemed necessary for the purpose of determining the complaint. Any such order shall be subject to review as are other orders of the Commission.

(l) The provisions of this code shall not apply to coal consumed by the producer or to coal transported by the producer to himself for consumption by him.

As used in this Code—

The term "Act" means the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

The term "Commission" means the National Bituminous Coal Commission established by said Act.

The term "code" means this Bituminous Coal Code.

Producers accepting membership in this code as provided in section 5 (a) of the Act shall be, and are herein referred to as, "code members", and the provisions of this code shall apply only to such code members, except as otherwise provided by subsection (h) of part II of section 4 of the Act.

The term "coal" means bituminous coal.

The term "bituminous coal" includes all bituminous, semibituminous, and subbituminous coal and shall exclude lignite, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place in the mine of 30 per centum or more.

The term "producer" includes all individuals, firms, associations, corporations, trustees, and receivers engaged in the business of mining coal.

The term "interstate commerce" means a commerce among the several States and Territories, with foreign nations, and with the District of Columbia.

The provisions of this code and all rules, regulations, and orders of the Commission made pursuant thereto shall be applicable to all interstate commerce in coal, and shall also apply to all transactions in coal in intrastate commerce by any person or in any locality which the Commission shall by order, pursuant to section 4–A of the Act, declare to be subject to the provisions of section 4 of the Act and this code.

[Order No. 5]

AN ORDER DESIGNATING THE EMPLOYEES' MEMBER OF THE RESPECTIVE DISTRICT BOARDS

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, after investigation and upon due consideration, finds and orders as follows:

1. The Commission finds that the United Mine Workers of America is the organization of employees in the bituminous coal industry representing the preponderant number of employees in such industry in each of the twenty-three districts, as defined in said Act.

2. The Commission finds that the following named persons have been duly selected by such organization for membership in the respective district boards provided for under said Act:

District 1—Eastern Pennsylvania.—James Mark, Miners, Building, Clearfield, Pennsylvania.

District 2—Western Pennsylvania.—P. T. Fagan, 1208 Commonwealth Building, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

District 5—Michigan.—John Hatton, 1527 Marquette Street, Saginaw, Michigan.

District 6—Panhandle.—G. W. Savage, 85 East Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio.

District 7—Southern Numbered 1.—William Blizzard, Box 1332, Charleston, West Virginia.

District 8—Southern Numbered 2.—Samuel Caddy, 1408 First National Bank Building, Lexington, Kentucky.

District 9—West Kentucky.—Ed. J. Morgan, Madisonville, Kentucky.

District 10—Illinois.—Ray Edmundson, United Mine Workers' Building, Springfield, Illinois.

District 11—Indiana.—Frank Barnhart, 210 Odd Fellows Building, Terre Haute, Indiana.

District 13—Southeastern.—William Mitch, 517 Comer Building, Birmingham, Alabama.

District 14—Arkansas-Oklahoma.—David Fowler, 722 Metropolitan Building, Muskogee, Oklahoma.

District 15—Southwestern.—Henry Allai, Box 436, Pittsburg, Kansas.

District 16—Northern Colorado.—O. F. Nigro, Box 1466, Denver, Colorado.

District 17—Southern Colorado.—Frank Hefferly, 315 Security Building, Denver, Colorado.

District 18—New Mexico.—Rudolph Hefferly, Box 127, Gallup, New Mexico.

District 19—Wyoming.—James Morgan, 3210 Dillon Avenue, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

District 20—Utah.—John M. Ross, Box 904, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

District 23—Washington.—Richard Francis, Box 299, Renton, Washington.

3. It is hereby ordered that the above named persons be and they are hereby confirmed as members of the district boards for the several districts set opposite their respective names, and are entitled to the rights and privileges and subject to the obligations of district board members.

4. Any organization of employees in the bituminous coal industry, other than the organization named in this order, claiming to represent the preponderant number of employees in such industry in any district, may obtain a review of this order by the Commission upon filing with the Commission at Washington, D. C., on or before the 21st day of July, 1937, a written petition setting forth the district in which the protestants claim to represent the preponderant number of employees in the industry, the total number of such employees in said district, and the number of such employees who are members of the protestant organization, and such other facts as are pertinent to the determination of the question of representation, which said petition shall be verified by affidavit of an officer or officers of said organization. If any such petition is filed, the Commission may, in its discretion, conduct a hearing thereon.

5. The acting district secretary of the Commission for each district shall forthwith publish, at the expense of the Commission, a copy of this order once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in said district, and shall thereafter file with the Commission proof of such publication in the customary form.

6. The term of district board members appointed hereunder shall become effective upon the confirmation by the Commission of the producer members of the respective district boards and shall be for two years from said date and until their successors are qualified, unless such appointments are previously terminated by further order of the Commission in accordance with the provisions of this order or of said Act.

7. A copy of this order, duly certified by the Secretary of the Commission, shall constitute the credentials of each district board member named herein.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 21st day of June, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-49 O-49]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN FALL RIVER, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, Marketing Area;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, in the Watuppa Grange Hall, North Westport, Massachusetts, on June 28, 1937, at 1:00 p. m., daylight saving time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of milk in the Fall River, Massachusetts, Marketing Area as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such milk. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) selection of a Market administrator; (b) classification of milk; (c) minimum prices; (d) payments to producers through the use of a marketwide equalization pool with a base rating plan; (e) deductions from payments to producers for marketing services by market administrator; (f) reports of handlers; (g) expense of administration.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of milk in the aforesaid area which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

Copies of the proposed marketing agreement and proposed order may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

[Docket No. A-50 O-50]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, under Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposed marketing agreement or a proposed order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, provide for such notice; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has reason to believe that the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order will tend to effectuate the declared policy of said act with respect to the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area;

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said act and said general regulations notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, in the Armory, St. Johnsbury, Vermont, on June 29, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., eastern standard time; the Senate Chamber, State House, Augusta, Maine, on June 30, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., eastern standard time, and the Gardner Auditorium, State House, Boston, Massachusetts, on July 1, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., daylight saving time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the general economic conditions which may necessitate regulation in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and as to the specific provisions which a marketing agreement and order should contain.

The proposed marketing agreement and the proposed order each embodies, in similar terms, a plan for the regulation of such handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in such milk. Among other things, the proposed marketing agreement and order provide for: (a) selection of a market administrator; (b) classification of milk; (c) minimum prices; (d) payments to producers through the use of a marketwide equalization pool; (e) deductions from payments to producers for marketing services by market administrator; (f) reports of handlers; (g) expense of administration.

It is hereby declared that an emergency exists in the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, which requires a shorter period of notice than fifteen (15) days; and it is hereby determined that the period of notice given is reasonable under the circumstances.

1936 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—SOUTHERN DIVISION

BULLETIN NO. 1, REVISED

Supplement (y)

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Southern Region Bulletin No. 1, Revised, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

I

Section 6 of Part II is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

In cases where any deduction computed pursuant to this section 6 cannot be made in full on the computation schedule prepared for the application for payment covering the farm in question and the multiple-farm provisions of sections 5, 6, and 7 of Part V, Southern Region Bulletin No. 1, Revised, are not applicable to the producer in question, the portion of such remaining part of such deduction which shall be applied against any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to rice in the State shall be in the proportion that his portion of the minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to all soil-depleting bases bears to the total minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to the farm. (The minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops required with respect to each soil-depleting base shall be multiplied by the percentage of the class I payment to which such person would be entitled with respect to that soil-depleting base, if there were a class I payment, in order to determine such person's portion of the soil-conserving crops required with respect to that soil-depleting base.) No deduction on account of any such remaining part shall be made except as provided herein.

II

Section 7 of Part II is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(e) In cases where any deduction computed pursuant to this section 7 cannot be made in full on the computation schedule prepared for the application for payment covering the farm in question and the multiple-farm provisions of sections 5, 6, and 7 of Part V of Southern Region Bulletin No. 1, Revised, are not applicable to the producer in question, the portion of such remaining part of such deduction which shall be applied against any payment which otherwise would be made to such person with respect to rice in the State shall be in the proportion that his portion of the deduction for excess acreage of soil-depleting crops with respect to all soil-depleting bases in connection with which there is a deduction for excess acreage bears to the total deduction for excess acreage of soil-depleting crops with respect to the farm. (The deduction for excess acreage with respect to each soil-depleting base in connection with which there is excess acreage shall be multiplied by the percentage of the class I payment to which such person would be entitled with respect to that soil-depleting base, if there were a class I payment, in order to determine such person's portion of the deduction for excess acreage with respect to that soil-depleting base.) No deduction on account of any such remaining part shall be made except as provided herein.

The provisions of this Supplement (y) shall be effective as of October 26, 1936, so as to be included within the conditions mentioned in the "Order with Respect to Payments Under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program—Southern Region", issued October 7, 1936, as amended October 26, 1936, and the conditions mentioned in the "Order with Respect to Payments Under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program—Southern Region", issued January 6, 1937 (see FEDERAL REGISTER, January 6, 1937, page 38).

In testimony whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 18th day of June, 1937.

WR—B-1, Revised—Supplement (j). Issued June 18, 1937

1936 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

BULLETIN NO. 1 REVISED, SUPPLEMENT (J)

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 1 Revised, as amended by Supplements (a) to (i), inclusive, is hereby further amended by this Supplement (j), as follows:

Part II. Rates and Conditions of Payment, Section 7, Minimum Acreage of Soil-Conserving Crops, is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 7. Minimum Acreage of Soil-Conserving Crops.—If the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on cropland on the farm in 1936 does not equal or exceed an acreage equal to the sum of—

(a) 15 percent of the general soil-depleting base;
(b) 20 percent of the cotton soil-depleting base;
(c) 20 percent of the tobacco soil-depleting base;
(d) 25 percent of the sugar beet soil-depleting base;[3] and
(e) 20 percent of the flax soil-depleting base;[4] a deduction will be made from any payment other than any soil-building payment which would otherwise be made to any person with respect to the farm pursuant to any provisions herein in an amount equal to the sum obtained as follows: Multiply the number of acres by which the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on cropland on the farm in 1936 is less than the total acreage specified in this section by an amount equal to 1½ times the rate per acre determined for the farm under Section 2 (a) of Part II, and multiply this result by the percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop to which such person is entitled (such percentage to be determined pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of Part VI.)

[3] Such acreage must be adapted to the production of sugar beets.
[4] In the States of California, Arizona, and New Mexico, winter cover crops planted between July 15, 1936, and December 1, 1936, and turned under before reaching maturity with a minimum of 90 days' unpastured growth may be substituted at a rate of 1 acre of such winter cover crops for 1 acre of soil-conserving crops (specified in Sec. 2, Part IV, Classification of Crops) although such winter cover crops are planted on land from which a soil-depleting crop is harvested in 1936.

Part II. Rates and Conditions of Payment, Section 8, Increase in Acreage of Soil-Depleting Crops, is amended by adding the following paragraph (d) at the end thereof:

(d). Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, the amount of the deductions therein provided which shall be made from the payment which otherwise would be made to any person with respect to the farm shall be equal to the sum obtained by multiplying the amount of deductions obtained pursuant to the foregoing provisions of this Section by the percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop to which such person is entitled (such percentage to be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 3, Part VI.)

Part VII. Range Lands, Section 2, Range-Building Payment, is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 2. Range-Building Payments.—Payment will be made for the carrying out of such range-building practices on range land in 1936 at such rates in any State, and upon such conditions as are recommended by the State committee for such State, or by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and approved by the Secretary. Such payments shall not be subject to the deductions provided in Sections 5, 7, and 8 of Part II for failure to have a minimum acreage of soil-conserving crops and for increase in acreage of soil-depleting crops. Such practices, rates of payment, and conditions will be contained in Western Region Bulletin No. 2, as amended for the State.

The provisions of this Supplement (j) shall be effective as of October 7, 1936, so as to be included within the conditions mentioned in the "Order with Respect to Payments under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program—Western Region", issued October 7, 1936, (See FEDERAL REGISTER, October 8, 1936, p. 1545), and the conditions mentioned in the "Order with Respect to Payments under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program—Western Region", issued January 6, 1937, (See FEDERAL REGISTER, January 8, 1937, p. 38).

Done at Washington, D. C., this 18th day of June, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

[Order No. 7-E]

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR TELEPHONE COMPANIES

RELIEF AND PENSIONS ACCOUNT

The Telephone Division at its regular meeting held on June 16, 1937, adopted the following order:

ORDER NO. 7-E

The Telephone Division having under consideration its Order No. 7-C promulgating the "Uniform System of Accounts for Telephone Companies, Issue of June 19, 1935, Effective January 1, 1936", as amended by Order No. 7-D, effective January 1, 1937, and the text of account 672, "Relief and pensions", of said system of accounts;

It is ordered, That the following sentence be added to paragraph (D) of the text of account 672, "Relief and pensions", page 107:

Each company that has adopted the accrual plan of accounting for pensions shall make no change in the accounting therefor or in the method of computing the amounts of the accruals recorded in the accounts under the plan without first submitting full particulars of the proposed changes and a detailed statement of the reasons therefor to this Commission for its consideration and approval.

It is further ordered, That each company that has adopted the accrual plan of accounting for pensions shall, within 30 days from the effective date of this order, submit to this Commission for its consideration and approval a detailed statement of the reasons for and full particulars concerning (a) any changes that have been made (or have become effective in the accounts) since December 31, 1936, in the accounting for the plan or in the method of computing the amounts of the accruals recorded in the accounts under the plan, (b) the amounts of the estimated increases or decreases in the annual accruals occasioned by each such change, and (c) the accounts affected by each such change.

It is further ordered, That Order No. 7-E shall become effective on the 16th day of June, 1937.

By the Commission, Telephone Division.

RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE DISPLAY OF IDENTIFICATION PLATES BY MOTOR CARRIERS SUBJECT TO THE MOTOR CARRIER ACT, 1935

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 7th day of May, 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF DISPLAY OF IDENTIFICATION PLATES ACCORDING TO THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 224, MOTOR CARRIER ACT, 1935.

It is ordered, That the following rules and regulations be, and they are hereby, approved and prescribed, and from and after the 1st day of October 1937 shall be observed by motor carriers subject to the Motor Carrier Act, 1935:

I

(a) On and after the 1st day of October 1937 an identification plate issued by this Commission shall be carried without obstruction on the rear of each motor vehicle when operated.

(1) as authorized by a certificate or permit issued by this Commission,

(2) as authorized by a State certificate conforming with the second proviso of section 206 (a) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and duly registered with this Commission, or

(3) as described by an application filed in compliance with those provisions of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, according to which a motor carrier may continue operations pending consideration of an application for a certificate or permit.

No motor vehicle shall display any such identification plate at any other time or on any other occasion.

(b) An identification plate shall be displayed only upon motor vehicles operated by and under the control, supervision, and responsibility of the motor carrier to whom such plate is issued. No motor carrier shall transfer any identification plate to any other person or persons.

II

(a) Application for identification plates shall be in the form B. M. C. 71, attached hereto and made part hereof. The application shall be signed and verified under oath by the motor carrier, or by a duly authorized agent of the motor carrier, to whom the plates shall be issued.

(b) The application shall be accompanied by payment of twenty-five cents (25¢) for each plate as the reasonable cost thereof. Payment shall be made by New York draft, certified check, express or postal money order, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States.

(c) Except as replacement for identification plates lost, totally destroyed, stolen, or returned to the Commission, the total number of identification plates issued to a motor carrier shall not be more than the number of vehicles operated in interstate or foreign commerce by such motor carrier at the time any application is made for such plates.

III

Identification plates shall be surrendered voluntarily or upon written direction of this Commission by sending the plates at the expense of the motor carrier to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Washington, D. C., when and if the motor carrier no longer engages in operations subject to the provisions of sections 206 or 209 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, by reason of

(1) the suspension or revocation of any such certificate or permit,

(2) a determination that the motor carrier is not entitled to a certificate or permit for which application has been made,

(3) the transfer of rights to a certificate or permit issued or to be issued, or

(4) the permanent cessation of such operations by the motor carrier.

IV

(a) In the event of loss, total destruction, or theft of an identification plate, the motor carrier shall, within 10 days after learning of such loss, destruction, or theft, place in the United States mails, in a closed envelope properly stamped and addressed, a notice to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Washington, D. C., stating the number upon the plate, the time and place of such loss, destruction, or theft (giving the approximate time or place if the exact fact is not known), and the motor carrier's opinion as to the cause of such loss, destruction, or theft.

(b) If a motor carrier learns of the location of a lost or stolen identification plate, such carrier must diligently pursue all lawful means to secure such plate.

By the Commission, Division 5.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE ANDERSON & KERR ET AL.-ROSE TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 15, 1937, BY LOUIS BERNSTEIN, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the statement made in Division II, Item 10, is incomplete by reason of the fact that the names of the persons by whom the various taxes are assessed are omitted;

(2) In that portions of the text required to be stated in Division II, Item 17, are omitted, nor is any information given in subdivision (c) of this Item relative to the percentage of production allotted the tract involved;

(3) In that by reason of the apparent conflict between the information as to the price of oil given in Division II, Item 16 and that set forth in Division II, Item 20 (g), it is not possible to determine that the figures set forth in Division II, Item 20 (e) show the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered;

(4) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit "B" is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is not set forth.

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SINCLAIR-PRAIRIE-BAGBY TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 15, 1937, BY GEORGE C. CREAGER, INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the date upon which the effectiveness of the offering sheet will expire, as set forth in Division I, Paragraph 5, is incorrect;

(2) In that the depth of the Bagby #4 Well, as set forth in Division II, Item 19 (c), is not believed to be correct by reason of the fact that it does not agree with the depth of the same well as set forth in the plat attached to the offering as Exhibit "A";

(3) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit B is incomplete for the reason that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is not set forth.

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF OIL PAYMENTS IN THE GRAND-MARTIN LEASE, FILED ON JUNE 11, 1937, BY GRAND PETROLEUM CORPORATION, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that from information disclosed by the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B", it appears that the interests proposed to be offered are not "oil payments" as defined under Rule 300 (f) of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, and for such reason the form and contents of the offering sheet, as filed, are incorrect;

(2) In that from information disclosed by the offering sheet in question it appears that an exemption from registration is not available for the reason that it is believed the operating lessee will own, unencumbered, upon completion of the sale of the offering, less than 40% of 100% of all oil, gas, or other hydrocarbon substances to be produced from the tract involved;

(Note: See Rule 314.)

(3) In that in Division II, Item 16, no statement is made as to the amount of taxes which may be assessed against the smallest interest proposed to be offered;

(4) In that in Division II, Items 21 (d), (e) and (f), no statement is made as to the distance of the tract involved from the nearest oil pipe line, gas pipe line, and railroads, respectively;

(5) In that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed, as set forth in Exhibit B, does not agree with the smallest interest proposed to be offered, as disclosed by Division II, Item 1;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the depth at which #1 Mayo well was completed, as set forth in Division II, Items 19 (c) and (e), does not agree with the depth of said well as stated in the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(2) In that the second signature form required to be included as a part of the offering sheet is omitted;

(3) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest proposed to be offered is not set forth;

(4) In that the statement made in Division II, Item 13, relative to the date as of which the discovery well was "plugged back" is not believed to be correct;

(5) In that certain information disclosed by Division II, Item 13, may be misleading by reason of the fact that reference is made to "present developed area", which infers that the limits of the field have not yet been defined;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that in Division II, Item 13, no statement is made as to the number of drilling wells, which information is required to be given in this item;

(2) In that the total production of oil from the tract, as set forth in Division II, Item 15, is not believed to be correct by reason of the fact that it does not agree with the actual gross production of oil from the tract as set forth by months in Division II, Item 20 (a);

(3) In that the figure given for the month of February, 1937, in Division II, Item 20 (e), is not believed to be correct;

(4) In that the second signature form required to be included as a part of the offering sheet is omitted;

(5) In that a copy of the proposed instrument of conveyance required to be attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PHILLIPS "L" COMMUNITY TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 11, 1937, BY SUPREME OIL INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the offering sheet, as filed, does not comply as to form with the schedule required to be filed if the interests offered are producing landowner's royalty interests, pursuant to Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission;

(2) In that the present price of oil, as set forth in Division II, Item 1, of the offering sheet, as filed, does not agree with the price of oil given in Division II, Item 20 (g);

(3) In that the area in acres of the tract involved, as set forth in Division II, Item 2 (d), does not agree with like information contained in the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B";

(4) In that the price of oil, as stated in Division II, Item 6, is not believed to be correct if the gravity of the oil produced from the tract as set forth in Division II, Item 16, is considered, which statement may also be made relative to the information given in Division II, Item 7;

(5) In that in Division II, Item 10, no statement is made as to the basis of computation of the taxes mentioned, nor the dates as of which such taxes are payable; there is also a failure to state that the smallest interest proposed to be offered is subject to a proportionate deduction for the payment of said taxes;

(6) In that the price of oil as set forth in Division II, Item 16, does not agree with similar information required to be given in Division II, Item 20 (g);

(7) In that in Division II, Item 19 (c), it is required that the depth of each completed well be stated, whereas such information is omitted;

(8) In that the figure given in Division II, Item 20 (d), for the month of August, 1936, is not believed to be correct;

(9) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas it appears that the prorata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted from the amounts set forth;

(10) In that the second signature form required to be included in the offering sheet is omitted;

(11) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

[1] Approved April 26, 1937—Public, No. 48, Seventy-fifth Congress.

These regulations relate to the taxes on the sale or other disposal of bituminous coal imposed under section 3 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (Public, No. 48, Seventy-fifth Congress), approved April 26, 1937.

Chapter I defines terms that are used in the Act and in these regulations.

Chapter II deals with the effective date and the geographical scope of the taxes.

Chapter III deals with the tax which applies to all producers (imposed under subsection (a) of section 3).

Chapter IV deals with sales that are exempt from the tax imposed under subsection (a) of section 3.

Chapter V deals with the tax imposed under subsection (b) of section 3, which is applicable to producers who are not members of the coal code but whose transactions in coal come within the conditions and the provisions prescribed in the code or directly affect interstate commerce in bituminous coal.

Chapter VI deals with the exemption from the tax imposed by subsection (b) of section 3 which is allowed to code members.

Chapter VII deals with exports and shipments to possessions of the United States.

Chapter VIII deals with administrative and other general provisions, including those relating to the return and the payment of taxes.

The sections of law quoted, except as otherwise indicated, are contained in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

For convenient reference the complete text of the sections of the Act relating specifically to the taxes imposed under the Act are set forth in an Appendix to these regulations.

CHAPTER I

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 17

As used in this Act—

(a) The term "coal" means bituminous coal.

(b) The term "bituminous coal" includes all bituminous, semi-bituminous, and subbituminous coal and shall exclude lignite, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place in the mine of 30 per centum or more.

(c) The term "producer" includes all individuals, firms, associations, corporations, trustees, and receivers engaged in the business of mining coal.

(d) The term "interstate commerce" means commerce among the several States and Territories, with foreign nations, and with the District of Columbia.

(e) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

SECTION 3 (A)

* * * * * *

The term "disposal" as used in this section includes consumption or use (whether in the production of coke or fuel, or otherwise) by a producer, and any transfer of title by the producer other than by sale.

ARTICLE 1. Meaning of terms.—As used in these regulations—

(a) The terms defined in the applicable provisions of law shall have the meaning so assigned to them.

(b) The term "Act" means the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

(c) The term "tax" means the tax imposed under section 3 (a) or the tax imposed under section 3 (b), accordingly as indicated by the context of the article.

(d) The term "sale" includes an agreement whereby the seller transfers the property (that is, the title or the substantial incidents of ownership) in coal to the buyer for a consideration called the price, which may consist of money, services, or other property.

(e) The term "sale price at the mine" means the amount received, or to be received, by the producer upon the sale of any quantity of coal, not including the amount of any transportation or delivery charges from the mine where produced.

(f) The term "fair market value" in the case of coal disposed of otherwise than by sale at the mine, and coal sold otherwise than through an arms' length transaction, means the current market price at the mine of coal of a comparable kind, quality, and size produced for market in the locality where the coal so disposed of is produced.

(g) The term "Commission" means the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

(h) The term "code" means the Bituminous Coal Code promulgated by the Commission.

(i) The term "code member" means a producer who has accepted membership in the code.

(j) The term "taxpayer" means any person subject to the taxes imposed by the Act.

(k) The term "person" includes a natural person, a corporation, a partnership, a company, a trust or estate, a joint-stock company, an association, or other unincorporated organization or group. It includes a guardian, committee, trustee, executor, administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, conservator, or any person acting in a fiduciary capacity.

(l) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Treasury.

(m) The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

(n) The term "collector" means a collector of internal revenue.

(o) The terms "includes" and "including" when used in a statement contained in these regulations, shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of such statement.

CHAPTER II

EFFECTIVE DATE AND THE GEOGRAPHICAL SCOPE

SECTION 18

Section 3 of this Act shall become effective on the first day of the second calendar month after the enactment of this Act, unless the Commission shall not at that time have promulgated the code and forms of acceptance for membership therein, in which event section 3 of this Act shall become effective from and after the date when the Commission shall have promulgated the code and such forms of acceptances, which date shall be promulgated by Executive order of the President of the United States. All other sections, except section 20 (a), of this Act shall become effective on the day of the approval of this Act.

SECTION 19

This Act shall cease to be in effect (except as provided in section 13 of the Revised Statutes) and any agencies and offices established thereunder shall cease to exist on and after four years from the date of the approval of this Act.

ART. 11. Effective date.—The taxes attach to sales or other disposals of coal made by the producer thereof on and after the effective date, which will be announced by the Commissioner.[1]

ART. 12. Geographical scope.—The taxes attach to sales or other disposals of coal produced within the United States, which is defined in the Act to include only the States, the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia, regardless of where the sales or other disposals occur.

CHAPTER III

TAX IMPOSED UNDER SUBSECTION (A) OF SECTION 3

SECTION 3 (A)

There is hereby imposed upon the sale or other disposal of bituminous coal produced within the United States when sold or otherwise disposed of by the producer thereof an excise tax of 1 cent per ton of two thousand pounds.

* * * * * *

The taxes imposed by this section shall be paid to the United States by the producer * * *.

ART. 21. Rate and measure of tax.—A tax of 1 cent per ton of 2,000 pounds is imposed by section 3 (a) upon the sale or other disposal of coal by the producer thereof.

ART. 22. Liability for tax.—The tax imposed by section 3 (a) is payable by the producer of the coal, and applies to all producers regardless of code membership. (For definition of producer see section 17 of the Act.)

ART. 23. When the tax attaches.—The tax attaches immediately upon sale or other disposal of the coal by the producer. (See article 1 (d) and section 3 (a) of the Act.)

CHAPTER IV

SALES NOT SUBJECT TO TAX

SECTION 3 (E)

(e) The tax imposed by subsection (a) of this section shall not apply in the case of a sale of coal for the exclusive use of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of any of them, for use in the performance of governmental functions. Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, a credit against the tax imposed by subsection (a) of this section or a refund may be allowed or made to any producer of coal in the amount of such tax paid with respect to the sale of coal to any vendee, if the producer has in his possession such evidence as the regulations may prescribe that such coal was resold by any person for the exclusive use of the United States or of any State, Territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of any of them, for use in the performance of governmental functions.

ART. 31. Sales to the United States, any State or Territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of any thereof.—The tax imposed by section 3 (a) will not attach to a sale of bituminous coal for the exclusive use of the United States or of any State, or Territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or any political subdivision of any of them, for use in the performance of essential governmental functions. To establish the exempt character of such sale when made by the producer direct to any of the above-mentioned governmental units, the producer must obtain from his vendee prior to or at the time of sale, and retain in his possession, an exemption certificate in the form prescribed later in this article.

If coal, upon the sale of which the producer has paid the tax, is resold by any person to any of the governmental units mentioned above for the exclusive use in the performance of essential governmental functions, the producer of such coal, if he has in his possession a properly executed exemption certificate establishing the exempt character of such resale, may take credit on his monthly return, or claim refund on Form 843, for the amount of such tax paid.

The certificate required by this article shall be in substantially the following form:

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

[For use by the United States, States, Territories, or political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia]

_____, 193--

The undersigned hereby certifies that he is the _____
_____ of _____
(United States, State, Territory, or political subdivision, or District of Columbia) and that he is authorized to execute this certificate and that the bituminous coal specified in the accompanying order or contract, or on the reverse side hereof, is purchased from _____ for the exclusive
use _____ of _____ (Governmental unit) (United States, State, Territory, or political subdivision, or District of Columbia) for use in the performance of essential governmental functions.

It is understood that the exemption from tax in the case of sales of bituminous coal to the United States, States, etc., is limited to such coal purchased for their exclusive use for use in the performance of essential governmental functions, and it is agreed that if coal purchased tax-free under this exemption certificate is used otherwise or is sold to employees or others, the vendee will report such fact to the vendor. It is also understood that the fraudulent use of this certificate to secure exemption will subject the undersigned and all guilty parties to a fine of not more than $10,000 or to imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

The exemption certificates and proper records of invoices, orders, etc., relative to tax-free sales must be retained by the producer for a period of at least four years and must be readily accessible for inspection by internal revenue officers. If upon inspection it is found that a producer's records with respect to any sale claimed to be tax-free do not contain a proper exemption certificate, as above outlined, with supporting invoices and such other evidence as may be necessary to establish the exempt character of the sale, the producer shall be liable for the tax upon such sale.

CHAPTER V

TAX IMPOSED UNDER SUBSECTION (B) OF SECTION 3

(b) In addition to the tax imposed by subsection (a) of this section, there is hereby imposed upon the sale or other disposal of bituminous coal produced within the United States, when sold or otherwise disposed of by the producer thereof, which would be subject to the application of the conditions and provisions of the code provided for in section 4, or of the provisions of section 4-A, an excise tax in an amount equal to 19½ per centum of the sale price at the mine in the case of coal disposed of by sale at the mine, or in the case of coal disposed of otherwise than by sale at the mine, and coal sold otherwise than through an arm's length transaction, 19½ per centum of the fair market value of such coal at the time of such disposal or sale. In the case of any producer who is a code member as provided in section 4 and is so certified to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by the Commission, the sale or disposal by such producer during the continuance of his membership in the code of coal produced by him shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this subsection.

SECTION 3 (C)

(c) The taxes imposed by this section shall be paid * * * by the producer * * *.

SECTION 3 (D)

(d) In the case of coal disposed of otherwise than by sale at the mine, and coal sold otherwise than through an arm's length transaction, the Commissioner of Internal Revenue shall determine the market value thereof. Such market value shall equal the current market price at the mine of coal of a comparable kind, quality, and size produced for market in the locality where the coal so disposed of is produced.

ART. 41. Rate and measure of tax.—The tax imposed by section 3 (b) is 19½ per cent of the sale price at the mine, or in the case of coal disposed of otherwise than by sale at the mine and coal sold otherwise than through an arm's length transaction 19½ per cent of the fair market value of such coal at the time of sale or disposal. (See article 1 (f) for definition of fair market value.)

If, because of special arrangements between a producer and purchaser (as in the case of intercompany transfers at cost or at a fictitious price), the price for which coal is sold by the producer does not represent a fair market price, the sale will be presumed to be one made otherwise than through an arm's length transaction. In such case the tax shall be computed upon the fair market value of the coal.

ART. 42. Application of tax.—The tax imposed by section 3 (b) is applicable with respect to (a) the sale or other disposal of coal in interstate commerce by a producer while he is not a member of the code and (b) to the sale or other disposal of coal by a producer in intrastate commerce while he is not a member of the code, if the Commission shall have by order declared that such transactions in intrastate commerce cause an undue or unreasonable advantage, preference, or prejudice as between persons and localities in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce in coal on the other, or any undue, unreasonable, or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in coal, or in any manner directly affect interstate commerce in coal, as provided by section 4-A of the Act. (See section 4-A for the provision regarding exemption from the liability imposed by section 4.)

ART. 43. Liability for tax.—The tax imposed by section 3 (b) is payable by the producer of the coal. (See article 51 for exemption.)

ART. 44. When the tax attaches.—The tax imposed by section 3 (b) attaches immediately upon the sale or other disposal by the producer. (See article 1 (d) and section 3 (a).)

CHAPTER VI

EXEMPTION ALLOWABLE TO CODE MEMBERS

SECTION 3 (B)

* * * In the case of any producer who is a code member as provided in section 4 and is so certified to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue by the Commission, the sale or disposal by such producer during the continuance of his membership in the code of coal produced by him shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this subsection.

* * * * * * *

SECTION 5

(b) The membership of any such coal producer in such code and his right to an exemption from the taxes imposed by section 3 (b) of this Act, may be revoked by the Commission * * *.

(c) Any producer whose membership in the code and whose right to an exemption from the tax imposed by section 3 (b) of this Act shall have been revoked and canceled may apply to the Commission and shall have the right to have his membership in the code restored * * *.

ART. 51. Exemption of code members.—The sales or other disposals of coal made by producers during the existence of their status as code members are not subject to the tax imposed under subsection (b) of section 3.

ART. 52. Producers entitled to exemption.—To be entitled to the exemption provided for in section 3 (b) from the tax imposed thereunder a producer must have been a member of the code during that part of the taxable period covered by his monthly return for which the exemption is claimed, and his membership in the code certified by the Commission to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. (See article 71.) No exemption is allowable (1) to a producer with respect to coal sold or disposed of prior to the time he acquired membership in the code or (2) after the Commission has revoked or canceled the code membership in the manner provided in the Act.

CHAPTER VII

EXPORTS AND SHIPMENTS TO POSSESSIONS OF THE UNITED STATES

SECTION 1121 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 627 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932 AND SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

Under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary may prescribe, the taxes imposed under the provisions of Title IV or VI or of section 903 shall not apply in respect of articles sold or leased for export or for shipment to a possession of the United States and in due course so exported or shipped. Under such rules and regulations the amount of any internal-revenue tax erroneously or illegally collected in respect of such articles so exported or shipped may be refunded to the exporter or shipper of the articles, instead of to the manufacturer, if the manufacturer waives any claim for the amount so to be refunded.

ART. 61. Sales for export.—To be exempt from taxes imposed under section 3 (a) and section 3 (b) it is necessary that two conditions be met, (1) that the coal be sold for export, and (2) that it be exported in due course.

Coal will be regarded as having been sold for export if the producer has in his possession at the time that title passes or at the time of shipment (whichever is prior), (a) a written order or contract of sale showing that the producer is to ship the coal direct to a foreign destination or (b), where delivery is to be made within the United States, a sworn statement from the purchaser showing (1) that the coal is purchased to fill a particular order or contract then held by the purchaser for foreign shipment, or to fill future orders for delivery to a foreign destination, and (2) that such coal will be transported to its foreign destination in due course prior to use or resale.

In these cases the producer, for a period of six months from the date when title passes or the date of shipment (whichever is prior), shall not be required to pay tax on the coal so sold. If within such period the producer has not received and attached to the order or contract proper "proof of exportation" (see article 62), then the producer shall include the tax on the sale of such coal in his return for the month in which the 6-month period expires.

ART. 62. Proof of exportation.—Exportation may be evidenced by (1) a copy of the export bill of lading, or (2) a certificate by the agent or representative of the export carrier showing actual exportation of the coal, or (3) a certificate of landing signed by a customs officer of the foreign country to which the coal is exported, or (4) if such foreign country has no customs administration a sworn statement of the foreign consignee covering receipt of the coal, or (5) if the purchaser, and not the producer, is the exporter, an affidavit from the purchaser for export stating that the coal was in fact exported in due course prior to use or resale within the United States and specifying the evidence referred to under (1), (2), (3), or (4) which he has in his possession covering exportation of the coal, and that such evidence is available for inspection by Government officers.

In all cases the sales records, together with the evidence of the proof of exportation, shall be preserved by the producer for a period of at least four years from the last day of the month following the sale, and must be readily accessible for inspection by internal revenue officers.

In any case in which the producer does not have in his possession and available for inspection within the 6-month period proof of exportation as outlined herein, the producer shall pay the tax involved. If later the producer secures proof of exportation, a claim for refund of any tax paid may be filed or a credit may be taken upon any subsequent monthly return, but such action must be taken within the 4-year period of limitation prescribed by section 3228, United States Revised Statutes, as amended. (See article 84.)

ART. 63. Shipments to possessions of the United States.—The same provisions which relate to sales of coal for export and proof of exportation will apply to sales for shipment to a possession of the United States. (See articles 61 and 62.)

CHAPTER VIII

ADMINISTRATIVE AND OTHER GENERAL PROVISIONS

Returns and Payment of Taxes

SECTION 3 (C)

(c) The taxes imposed by this section shall be paid to the United States by the producer, and shall be payable monthly for each calendar month on or before the first business day of the second succeeding month, under such regulations and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

SECTION 7

All provisions of law, including penalties and refunds, applicable in respect of the taxes imposed by Title IV of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended, shall, insofar as applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be applicable with respect to taxes imposed under this Act.

SECTION 1102 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 627 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932 AND SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

(a) Every person liable to any tax imposed by this Act, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations, as the Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may from time to time prescribe.

(b) Whenever in the judgment of the Commissioner necessary he may require any person, by notice served upon him, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as the Commissioner deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable to tax.

(c) The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, may by regulation prescribe that any return required by any internal revenue law (except returns required under income or estate tax laws) to be under oath may, if the amount of the tax covered thereby is not in excess of $10, be signed or acknowledged before two witnesses instead of under oath.

(d) Any oath or affirmation required by the provisions of this Act or regulations made under authority thereof may be administered by any officer authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States or of any State, Territory, or possession of the United States, wherein such oath or affirmation is administered, or by any consular officer of the United States.

ART. 71. Returns.—Every producer made liable to the taxes imposed by section 3 of the Act shall prepare for each calendar month a return in duplicate on Form 1 (Coal) in accordance with the instructions thereon and in accordance with these regulations. The return shall be under oath and verified before an officer duly authorized to administer oaths. If the amount of the tax shown by the return to be due is $10 or less, the return may be signed and acknowledged before two subscribing witnesses instead of under oath.

ART. 72. Time for filing returns.—The return for each calendar month shall be filed in duplicate with the collector for the district in which is situated the principal place of business of the person filing the return, on or before the first business day of the second succeeding month. For example, the return for the month of June, 1937, is due on or before August 2, 1937 (August 1, 1937, falling on Sunday).

ART. 73. Time of payment of tax.—The amount of tax shown on the return to be due shall be paid to the collector at the time fixed for filing the return, without assessment by the Commissioner or notice from the collector.

SECTION 626 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

* * * * * *

(b) * * * If the tax is not paid when due, there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 1 per centum a month from the time when the tax became due until paid.

SECTION 404 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1935

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, interest accruing during any period of time after the date of the enactment of this Act upon any internal-revenue tax (including amounts assessed or collected as a part thereof) or customs duty, not paid when due, shall be at the rate of 6 per centum per annum.

ART. 81. Interest on delinquent taxes.—If the tax is not paid when due there shall be added as part of the tax interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the time when the tax became due until paid.

Penalties

SECTION 3176, UNITED STATES REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 1103 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926 AND SECTION 619 (D) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1928, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

* * * In case of any failure to make and file a return or list within the time prescribed by law, or prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or the collector in pursuance of law, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 25 per centum of its amount, except that when a return is filed after such time and it is shown that the failure to file it was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect, no such addition shall be made to the tax. In case a false or fraudulent return or list is willfully made, the Commissioner shall add to the tax 50 per centum of its amount.

The amount so added to any tax shall be collected at the same time and in the same manner and as a part of the tax unless the tax has been paid before the discovery of the neglect, falsity, or fraud, in which case the amount so added shall be collected in the same manner as the tax.

SECTION 406, REVENUE ACT OF 1935

In the case of a failure to make and file an internal-revenue tax return required by law, within the time prescribed by law or prescribed by the Commissioner in pursuance of law, if the last date so prescribed for filing the return is after the date of the enactment of this Act, if a 25 per centum addition to the tax is prescribed by existing law, then there shall be added to the tax, in lieu of such 25 per centum: 5 per centum if the failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per centum for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues, not to exceed 25 per centum in the aggregate.

SECTION 3184, UNITED STATES REVISED STATUTES

Where it is not otherwise provided, the collector shall in person or by deputy, within ten days after receiving any list of taxes from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, give notice to each person liable to pay any taxes stated therein, to be left at his dwelling or usual place of business, or to be sent by mail, stating the amount of such taxes and demanding payment thereof. If such person does not pay the taxes within ten days after the service or the sending by mail of such notice, it shall be the duty of the collector or his deputy to collect the said taxes with a penalty of five per centum additional upon the amount of taxes, and interest at the rate of one per centum a month.

ART. 82. Penalties.—A failure to file a return as required by these regulations causes to accrue a penalty of 5 per cent of the amount of the tax if such failure is for not more than 30 days, with an additional 5 per cent for each additional 30 days or fraction thereof during which failure continues. In no case, however, shall the penalty exceed 25 per cent in the aggregate.

If assessment is made of the tax, penalty, or interest, and payment is not made within 10 days after the issuance of the form for first notice and demand, based on assessment approved by the Commissioner, there will accrue a 5 per cent penalty, and interest at the rate of 6 per cent a year computed upon the entire assessment (including penalty and interest, if any) from 10 days after issuance of said form until date of payment. In cases where assessment is settled by partial payments, interest is to be computed from the expiration of the first 10-day notice through the date of the first payment and from the next succeeding day to the date of the next payment, until the assessment is paid in full.

If a claim for abatement is filed with the collector within 10 days after the date of the issuance of the first notice and demand, the 5 per cent penalty does not attach. If the assessment is not paid within 10 days after receipt of notice of rejection of the claim, the 5 per cent penalty applies. The filing of the claim does not stay the running of interest, which continues to run for the full period that intervenes between the date of expiration of the first notice and demand and the date of payment.

If a false or fraudulent return be willfully made, the penalty under section 3176 of the Revised Statutes is 50 per cent of the total tax due.

Records

SECTION 1104 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 618 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1928, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 627 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932 AND SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

The Commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, is hereby authorized, by any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, designated by him for that purpose, to examine any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the matters required to be included in the return, and may require the attendance of the person rendering the return or of any officer or employee of such person, or the attendance of any other person having knowledge in the premises, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons.

ART. 83. Records.—Every producer shall keep on file at the principal place of business, or at some other convenient or safe location, accurate records and accounts of all transactions involving the sale or other disposal of bituminous coal. Evidence with respect to sales for export, and sales to the United States, States, Territories, or political subdivisions thereof, or the District of Columbia, shall also be maintained. (See articles 31 and 62.)

The records shall contain sufficient information to enable the Commissioner to determine whether the correct amount of tax has been paid. Such records shall at all times be open for inspection by internal revenue officers, and shall be maintained for a period of at least four years from the date the tax became due or, in the case of tax-free sales, for a period of at least four years from the 1st day of the second succeeding month following the month in which the sale was made.

SECTION 606 (A) AND (B) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1928

(a) Authorization.—The Commissioner (or any officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, including the field service, authorized in writing by the Commissioner) is authorized to enter into an agreement in writing with any person relating to the liability of such person (or of the person or estate for whom he acts) in respect of any internal-revenue tax for any taxable period ending prior to the date of the agreement.

(b) Finality of agreements.—If such agreement is approved by the Secretary, or the Undersecretary, within such time as may be stated in such agreement, or later agreed to, such agreement shall be final and conclusive, and, except upon a showing of fraud or malfeasance, or misrepresentation of a material fact—

(1) the case shall not be reopened as to the matters agreed upon or the agreement modified, by any officer, employee, or agent of the United States, and

(2) in any suit, action, or proceeding, such agreement, or any determination, assessment, collection, payment, abatement, refund, or credit made in accordance therewith, shall not be annulled, modified, set aside, or disregarded.

SECTION 1105 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 510 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1934

(a) If the Commissioner believes that the collection of any tax (other than income tax, estate tax, and gift tax) under any provision of the internal-revenue laws will be jeopardized by delay, he shall, whether or not the time otherwise prescribed by law for making return and paying such tax has expired, immediately assess such tax (together with all interest and penalties the assessment of which is provided for by law). Such tax, penalties, and interest shall thereupon become immediately due and payable, and immediate notice and demand shall be made by the collector for the payment thereof. Upon failure or refusal to pay such tax, penalty, and interest, collection thereof by distraint shall be lawful without regard to the period prescribed in section 3187 of the Revised Statutes, as amended.

(b) The collection of the whole or any part of the amount of such assessment may be stayed by filing with the collector a bond in such amount, not exceeding double the amount as to which the stay is desired, and with such sureties, as the collector deems necessary, conditioned upon the payment of the amount collection of which is stayed, at the time at which, but for this section, such amount would be due.

Refunds

SECTION 3220 OF THE UNITED STATES REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 1111 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926 AND SECTION 619 (B) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1928

Except as otherwise provided * * * the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized to remit, refund, and pay back all taxes erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, all penalties collected without authority, and all taxes that appear to be unjustly assessed or excessive in amount, or in any manner wrongfully collected; * * *.

SECTION 3228 (A) OF THE UNITED STATES REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 1112 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926, SECTION 619 (C) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1928, AND SECTION 1106 (A) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932

All claims for the refunding or crediting of any internal-revenue tax alleged to have been erroneously or illegally assessed or collected, or of any penalty alleged to have been collected without authority, or of any sum alleged to have been excessive or in any manner wrongfully collected must, * * * be presented to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue within four years next after the payment of such tax, penalty, or sum. The amount of the refund * * * shall not exceed the portion of the tax, penalty, or sum paid during the four years immediately preceding the filing of the claim, or if no claim was filed, then during the four years immediately preceding the allowance of the refund.

SECTION 621 (C) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, AS AMENDED BY SECTION 401 (C) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1935, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT.

(c) Interest shall be allowed at the rate of 6 per centum per annum with respect to any amount of tax under this title credited or refunded * * *.

ART. 84. Refunds.—A tax (including any penalty or interest) erroneously, illegally, or otherwise wrongfully collected may be refunded by the Commissioner. A claim for such refund shall be made on the prescribed form in accordance with the instructions printed on such form and in accordance with these regulations. Copies of the prescribed forms may be obtained from the collector. The claim shall set forth clearly in detail the reasons and facts relied upon in support of the claim, shall be made under oath, and presented within four years next after payment of such taxes.

SECTION 621 (D) OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

(d) No overpayment of tax under this title shall be credited or refunded (otherwise than under subsection (a), in pursuance of a court decision or otherwise, unless the person who paid the tax establishes, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, (1) that he has not included the tax in the price of the article with respect to which it was imposed, or collected the amount of tax from the vendee, or (2) that he has repaid the amount of the tax to the ultimate purchaser of the article, or unless he files with the Commissioner written consent of such ultimate purchaser to the allowance of the credit or refund.

ART. 85. Limitation on refunds.—No credit or refund shall be allowed, whether in pursuance of a court decision or otherwise, unless the taxpayer files a sworn statement explaining satisfactorily the reason for claiming the credit or refund and establishing (1) that he has not included the tax in the price of the article with respect to which it was imposed, or collected the amount of tax from the vendee, or (2) that he has either repaid the amount of the tax to the ultimate purchaser of the article or has secured the written consent of such ultimate purchaser to the allowance of the credit or refund. In the latter case the written consent of the ultimate purchaser must accompany the sworn statement filed with the credit or refund claim. The statement supporting the credit or refund claim must also show whether any previous claim for credit or refund covering the amount involved, or any part thereof, has been filed with the collector or Commissioner.

Additional Penalties

SECTION 1123 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1926, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 627 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932 AND SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

Whoever in connection with the sale or lease, or offer for sale or lease, of any article, or for the purpose of making such sale or lease, makes any statement, written or oral, (1) intended or calculated to lead any person to believe that any part of the price at which such article is sold or leased, or offered for sale or lease, consists of a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, or (2) ascribing a particular part of such price to a tax imposed under the authority of the United States, knowing that such statement is false or that the tax is not so great as the portion of such price ascribed to such tax, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both.

SECTION 35 OF THE CRIMINAL CODE OF THE UNITED STATES, AS AMENDED BY ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED JUNE 18, 1934 (PUBLIC, NO. 394, SEVENTY-THIRD CONGRESS)

Whoever shall make or cause to be made or present or cause to be presented, for payment or approval, to or by any person or officer in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States, or any department thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, any claim upon or against the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent; or whoever shall knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal or cover up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent statements or representations, or make or use or cause to be made or used any false bill, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition, knowing the same to contain any fraudulent or fictitious statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States or of any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder; * * * or whoever shall enter into any agreement, combination, or conspiracy to defraud the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, by obtaining or aiding to obtain the payment or allowance of any false or fraudulent claim; * * * shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both. * * *

SECTION 628 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1932, MADE APPLICABLE BY SECTION 7 OF THIS ACT

The Commissioner, with the approval of the Secretary, shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this title in so far as it relates to the taxes * * *.

SECTION 3 (C) OF THE ACT

The taxes imposed by this section shall be paid to the United States by the producer, and shall be payable monthly for each calendar month on or before the first business day of the second succeeding month, under such regulations and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury.

ART. 86. Promulgation of regulations.—In pursuance of the provisions of section 3 (c) of the Act and the other provisions of the internal revenue laws, the foregoing regulations are hereby prescribed.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 6]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR PROVISIONAL APPROVAL OF MARKETING AGENCIES AND REPORTS REQUIRED IN CONNECTION THEREWITH

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, having on June 21, 1937, promulgated the Code provided for in Section 4 of said Act, directs the attention of all producers to certain provisions of Section 12 of said Act, which provide as follows:

Any combination between producers creating a marketing agency for the disposal of competitive coals in interstate commerce or in intrastate commerce directly affecting interstate commerce in coal at prices to be determined by such agency, or by the agreement of the producers operating through such agency, shall, after promulgation of the code provided for in section 4, be unlawful as a restraint of interstate trade and commerce within the provisions of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, known as the Sherman Act, and Acts amendatory and supplemental thereto, unless such producers have accepted the code provided for in section 4 and shall comply with its provisions.

Subject to the approval of the Commission, a marketing agency may, as to its members, or such marketing agencies may, as between and among themselves, provide for the cooperative marketing of their coal, at prices not below the effective minimum prices nor above the effective maximum prices prescribed in accordance with section 4: Provided, That no such approval shall be granted by the Commission unless it shall find that the agreement under which such agency or agencies propose to function (1) will not unreasonably restrict the supply of coal in interstate commerce, (2) will not prevent the public from receiving coal at fair and reasonable prices, (3) will not operate against the public interest, and (4) that each such agency and its members have agreed to observe the effective marketing regulations and minimum and maximum prices from time to time established by the Commission and otherwise to conduct the business and operations of the agency in conformity with reasonable regulations for the protection of the public interest, to be prescribed by the Commission.

Pursuant to the authority of said Act, it is hereby ordered that the following requirements applicable to marketing agencies shall be effective as of this date:

Any marketing agency as defined in said Section 12 may, pending the establishment by the Commission of rules providing for formal approval of such agencies and regulations governing their business and operations, secure provisional approval by the Commission upon compliance with the following requirements:

1. Any such agency organized and engaged in business on or prior to June 21, 1937, the date of promulgation of the Bituminous Coal Code, may, on or before July 15, 1937, make application for provisional approval of its continued operation.

2. Any marketing agency which proposes to commence operations after June 21, 1937, may, before engaging in the cooperative marketing of bituminous coal for producers or others, make application to the Commission for provisional approval.

3. It shall be a condition precedent to every such application and approval that all producers who are financially or otherwise interested in said marketing agency and all producers for whom the marketing agency proposes to sell coal, whether as agent, factor, wholesale distributor or otherwise, shall, on or prior to June 21, 1937, in the case of agencies operating on or before that date, or prior to the date of application for approval in other cases, have accepted the Bituminous Coal Code as promulgated by the Commission under said Act.

4. Each application shall be verified by a principal officer or officers of the applicant and shall be accompanied by the following documents:

(a) A statement listing the name and post office address of each producer or distributor of coal for whom the applicant proposes to act whether as agent, factor, wholesale distributor or otherwise, together with the date upon which each producer member filed formal acceptance of the code.

(b) A statement listing the name and post office address of each agent and subagent of each producer member and of the applicant.

(c) A statement listing the name, location and 1936 tonnage of each mine operated by each producer member specifying the current tonnages of each mine subject to the provisions of the marketing agency agreement.

(d) A copy of the articles of association and by-laws of such marketing agency if a corporation, or a copy of the agreement creating such marketing agency if the applicant is unincorporated.

(e) A copy of all forms of contract or contracts entered into or proposed to be entered into between applicant and its producer members, together with a copy of all forms of subagency agreement of the marketing agency, if any.

(f) A brief description of the producing field or fields in which the applicant is established or proposes to be established, together with such statement of facts as will enable the Commission to determine whether the agreement under which the applicant proposes to function:

(1) Will not unreasonably restrict the supply of coal in interstate commerce;

(2) will not prevent the public from receiving coal at fair and reasonable prices; and

(3) will not operate against the public interest.

(g) A brief description of the consuming market or markets in which applicant operates or proposes to operate.

(h) A written stipulation by the applicant that such agency and its members agree to observe the effective marketing regulations and minimum and maximum prices from time to time established by the Commission, and otherwise to conduct the business and operations of the agency in conformity with reasonable regulations for the protection of the public interest, to be prescribed by the Commission.

(i) A statement listing the names and addresses of applicant's officers, directors, and managing agents.

(j) A certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors or other governing body of applicant, authorizing the filing of such application for provisional approval with the National Bituminous Coal Commission.

Twelve (12) copies of the application shall be filed with the Commission.

5. The Commission shall conduct a hearing upon notice upon any such application and shall thereafter make findings of fact and enter its order provisionally approving or disapproving such agency.

Orders of approval of such marketing agencies making application under paragraph one (1) of this order shall extend and apply to such agencies from and after the 21st day of June 1937. In all other cases the order of approval shall be effective on the date of publication. Orders of disapproval shall be effective on the tenth day following publication of such order.

6. No producer who has accepted the Bituminous Coal Code shall continue to be financially or otherwise interested in, or be a member of, a marketing agency which fails to make application for approval as provided for in this order, or to secure such approval, nor shall any code member directly or indirectly market any coal through any such agency which fails to make such application or to secure such approval.

7. The failure of any code member to terminate relations with any agency which has failed to make application on or before July 15, 1937, or before commencement of operations, as provided in paragraphs one (1) and two (2) of this order, or which has been subjected to an order of disapproval, within ten (10) days after the date of publication of such order in the FEDERAL REGISTER, shall be deemed a violation of the rules and regulations of the Commission as prescribed under the provisions of the Code and of said Act.

8. No marketing agency shall enter into any agreement with any other marketing agency relating to the marketing of coal subject to the provisions of the Code and the Act except with the approval of the Commission first obtained.

9. The provisional approval of the Commission, when granted, shall extend and apply to the organization and general plan of operation of the marketing agency and shall not be construed as an approval of specific acts of the marketing agency with reference to the classification of coals and the determination of prices for specific coals.

10. All contracts and agreements entered into by marketing agencies shall be submitted to the Commission and such contracts and agreements shall be made subject to review and the further order of the Commission.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 21st day of June, 1937.

[Order No. 7]

AN ORDER PRESCRIBING A RULE FOR QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES OF DISTRICT BOARDS

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders, makes and promulgates the following rule relating to the qualification of members and employees of District Boards:

1. All district board members and all employees of the several District Boards shall, before entering upon their respective duties, qualify for such duties by taking an oath of office in the form hereinafter prescribed. The term "employee" shall include all persons engaged or appointed to perform, whether for compensation or gratuitously, any service for the District Board or any agency including committees of the District Boards.

2. In the case of employees of district boards the oath of office shall be filed with the secretary of the board, and in the case of members of the district boards the oath of office shall be executed in duplicate, one copy thereof to be filed with the National Bituminous Coal Commission and one copy with the secretary of the district board.

3. The form of oath of office shall be as follows:

OATH OF OFFICE

BITUMINOUS COAL PRODUCERS BOARD FOR DISTRICT NO._____

I, _____ a member of the District Board, an employee thereof (District No._____), do solemly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true and faithful allegiance to the same; that I will well, faithfully and impartially observe and comply with the obligations imposed by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and by the Commission upon officers and employees performing duties thereunder; that I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that neither I nor anyone acting in my behalf have given, promised, or paid any consideration for the purpose of securing election or appointment, and that I am subject to no obligation to any producer, distributor or consumer of bituminous coal relating to the performance of the duties of my office.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____ A. D., 193__, at _____ (City or place)

[SEAL]

NOTE.—This oath is to be taken before a notary public or any other public official authorized to administer an oath. All employees of District Boards shall execute the said oath of office (one copy only) and file the same with the Secretary of the District Board.

Failure to comply with this order shall disqualify a person for membership in, or employment by, the District Board.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 21st day of June, 1937.

and having filed a declaration and amendments thereto, pursuant to Section 7 of said Act, regarding the issuance and sale by States Electric & Gas Corporation, as part of the consideration for said acquisition, of the following securities:

(1) Five secured notes to be dated as of the issuance thereof and to be payable on or before May 1, 1942, being for the amounts of $445,000, $485,000, $550,000, $410,000 and $200,000.

(2) 15,000 shares of $1.00 par common stock, Series B.

(3) 4,800 shares of $1.00 par common stock, Series A, 200 shares of such stock being now outstanding.

A hearing on said application and declaration having been duly held for appropriate notice; the record in this matter having been duly considered; and the Commission having filed its findings and opinion;

It is ordered that the acquisition by applicant of said securities in accordance with the terms and conditions and for the purposes represented by such application, as amended, be and the same hereby is approved, and that said declaration shall be and become effective as of the date of this order, subject, however, to the condition that no alteration be made in the terms of the agreements between States Electric & Gas Corporation and the vendor companies, and the other interested parties, as such agreements are set forth in said application and declaration, other than modifications resulting in a reduction of the release values assigned to the various securities to be acquired by States or any arrangements which may be entered into to permit States to re-acquire at a discount any of the aforesaid notes to be issued by it, and except such further modifications as may be expressly authorized by order of the Commission.

States Electric & Gas Corporation having, in connection with said declaration and application, presented for the consideration of the Commission, as a possible condition to said order, the question of what, if any, restrictions should be imposed upon it with respect to causing or permitting the payment of any dividends by its proposed subsidiary companies, said subsidiary companies being now advised of the pendency of said question and offering no objection thereto, and the Commission finding it necessary and appropriate to protect the financial integrity of the companies which will become companies of the States Electric & Gas Corporation holding company system and to safeguard the working capital of the public-utility companies in said system and to prevent the payment of dividends out of capital or unearned surplus by such companies and to prevent the circumvention of the conditions of this order;

It is further ordered, pursuant to Section 12 (c) of the Act, and as a condition to the foregoing order, that applicant shall not cause or permit Oklahoma Electric & Water Company to declare or pay any dividend unless such dividend shall first be expressly authorized by order of the Commission; that so long as any of the following companies shall remain subsidiaries of the applicant, such holding company shall not cause or permit New Mexico Public Utilities Corporation, Peoples Gas Company, South Carolina Utilities Company, St. Johnsbury Gas Company, Vermont Lighting Corporation, The Home Natural Gas Company, Oklahoma Electric & Water Company, The Kansas-Oklahoma Natural Gas Company, New Hampshire Power Company, East Hanover Light & Power Company, Goodrich Falls Electric Company, Meredith Electric Company, Pemigewasset Electric Company, Wanoat Associates, North Attleboro Gas Company or Ware Gas Company, to declare or pay any dividend, unless, from and after the time when it became a subsidiary of the applicant, such subsidiary shall have applied a sum equal to 15 per cent of its gross revenues as an aggregate provision for maintenance and depreciation, or shall have retained in its capital or surplus accounts such portion of said sum as may be in excess of the maximum permitted to be charged against earnings by applicable State law or by any requirement of any State commission; that applicant shall not cause or permit The Kansas-Oklahoma Natural Gas Company to declare or pay any dividend unless said subsidiary shall first have set apart a sum equal to 10 per cent of its gross revenues for such purposes; and that none of said subsidiary companies referred to in this paragraph, so long as it continues to be a subsidiary company of applicant, shall declare or pay any dividend otherwise than in compliance with the foregoing conditions of this paragraph; provided, however, that none of the restrictions contained in this paragraph shall be applicable to any dividend declaration or payment if concurrently with the declaration and payment thereof applicant, or any subholding company of applicant entitled to receive such dividend, shall subscribe and pay for additional capital stock of the subsidiary company paying such dividend in an amount equal to all or such part of such dividend as to which any of such restrictions may be applicable.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE GULF-HOUSTON-CAMPBELL TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 14, 1937, BY JOHN G. ELLINGHAUSEN, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest offered as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not expressed in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 2 (e), no statement is made as to whether or not the interest offered is perpetual;

(3) In that the depth of the A. F. Houston #1 well, as set forth in Division II, Item 19 (c), does not agree with the depth of the same well as disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the second signature form required to be included as a part of the offering sheet is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact neccessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest offered, as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not expressed in terms of the total production from the entire tract, nor is the number of barrels of oil which must be produced before the smallest fractional interest offered will be entitled to one barrel, believed to be correctly stated;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 2 (e), no statement is made as to whether or not the interest offered is perpetual;

(3) In that the depth of well #1-A, as set forth in Division II, Item 19 (c), does not agree with the depth of said well as disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the second signature form required to be included as a part of the offering sheet is omitted;

(5) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" may be misleading unless the information set forth in Division II, Item 21, is included as a part of such conveyance;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

NCR—B-101, as Amended, Supplement No. 2

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTH CENTRAL REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101, AS AMENDED, SUPPLEMENT NO. 2

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, North Central Region Bulletin 101, as Amended, is further amended as follows:

Part I—Definitions

1. The definition of Area "A" is amended by deleting the following counties in Nebraska: Merrick, Nance, Polk, and York.

2. The definition of "operator" is amended to read as follows:

Operator means a person who as owner or share-tenant is operating a farm and is entitled to receive all or a portion of the crops produced thereon, or the proceeds thereof.

3. The definition of a "diversion farm" is amended to read as follows:

Diversion farm means (1) any farm in a county operated by a person who operates a farm or farms in such county with respect to which farm or farms the sum of the general soil-depleting bases established therefor is 20 acres or more, and (2) any farm in a county owned and operated by a person and any contiguous farm or farms owned by such person in such county which are field rented by such person to any other persons if the sum of the general soil-depleting bases established for all such farms is 20 acres or more, and (3) any farm for which a cotton or final tobacco soil-depleting base is established.

4. The definition of "New Conserving Acreage" is amended to read as follows:

New conserving acreage means the acreage of cropland in the farm upon which there is, on the date as of which final inspection of the farm is made for the purpose of determining performance, a good stand of a crop listed in Section 2 (a) of Part III which was seeded in accordance with good farming practices between November 1, 1936, and October 31, 1937, inclusive, and which acreage is classified as soil-conserving in 1937. New conserving acreage also means the acreage of cropland used in accordance with subsection (b) of Section 2 of Part III. No acreage can be classified as new conserving if any of the crops listed in Section 1 of Part III are harvested as grain or hay from such acreage in 1937.

5. The definition of "Old Conserving Acreage" is amended to read as follows:

Old conserving acreage means the acreage of cropland in the farm which was seeded prior to November 1, 1936, and upon which acreage there was a good stand of a crop listed in Section 2 (a) of Part III on or after July 1, 1937, and which acreage is classified as soil-conserving in 1937. Old conserving acreage also means any acreage of cropland on the farm upon which there was a good stand of a crop listed in Section 2 (a) of Part III on or after July 1, 1937, which was self-seeded in the fall of 1936 and which acreage is classified as soil-conserving in 1937. Old conserving acreage also means the acreage of cropland used in accordance with Section 2 (c) of Part III. No acreage can be classified as old conserving if on such acreage any crop listed in Item 1 of Section 1 (b) of Part III: (1) Is seeded for harvest in 1937 at a rate in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain; (2) is seeded in 1937 at a rate not in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain and is cut for grain or hay; (3) is a volunteer stand, which volunteer stand it would be practical to cut for grain or hay if such crop were growing alone; (4) is seeded in 1936 at a rate not in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain if it would be practical to cut such crop for grain or hay if such crop were growing alone.

6. The definition of "Diversion Payment" is amended to read as follows:

Diversion payment means a payment for the diversion of acreage from any soil-depleting base. A diversion payment is not made with respect to a nondiversion farm.

7. The definition of "Conserving Payment" is amended to read as follows:

Conserving payment means a payment for the increase of soil-conserving acreage. A conserving payment is not made with respect to a farm which is either a dryland farm or nondiversion farm.

8. The definition of "Maximum Conserving Payment" is amended to read as follows:

Maximum conserving payment for a farm means the largest amount of payment which may be earned for an increase in the acreage classified as soil-conserving on such farm. For any farm which does not have a cotton or tobacco soil-depleting base, such amount shall be computed by multiplying the rate for conserving payments for such farm by the acreage for which diversion payments are computed with respect to such farm. For any farm which has a cotton or tobacco soil-depleting base, such amount shall be computed by multiplying the rate per acre for conserving payments by the acreage obtained by subtracting the total acreage classified as soil-depleting from the total soil-depleting base, or the acreage for which diversion payments are computed with respect to such farm, whichever is the smaller.

9. Part I, Definition, is amended by the addition of the following new definitions:

Combination farm means any farm, other than a cotton farm or sharecropper farm, rented partly on shares and on which farm part or all of the new conserving acreage is rented for cash.

County means the political or civil division of a State designated as a county, except for the purposes of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the North Central Region the political or civil divisions of Polk, Ottertail, and St. Louis in Minnesota, and Pottawattamie in Iowa shall not be deemed counties. For the purposes of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the North Central Region, the townships of Badger, Brandzvold, Chester, Columbia, Eden, Garden, Garfield, Godfrey, Grove Park, Gully, Hill River, Johnson, King, Knute, Kessor, Queen, Rosebud, Sletten, Tilden, Winger, and Woodside in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as Polk shall be a county known as East Polk County; the townships of Andover, Angus, Belgium, Brandt, Brislet, Bygland, Crookston, Esther, Euclid, Fairfax, Fanny, Farley, Fisher, Gentilly, Grand Forks, Hammond, Helgeland, Higdem, Hubbard, Huntsville, Kertsonville, Keystone, Liberty, Lowell, Nesbit, Northland, Onstad, Parnell, Reis, Rinehart, Roome, Russia, Sandsville, Scandia, Sullivan, Tabor, Tynsid, and Vineland in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as Polk shall be a county known as West Polk County; the townships of Blowers, Bluffton, Butler, Candor, Compton, Corliss, Dead Lake, Deer Creek, Dora, Eastern, Edna, Folden, Elmo, Girard, Gorman, Henning, Hobert, Homestead, Inman, Leaf Lake, Newton, Oak Valley, Ottertail, Otto, Paddock, Parkers Prairie, Perham, Pine Lake, Rush Lake, Star Lake, and Woodside in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as Ottertail shall be a county known as East Ottertail County; the townships of Aastad, Amor, Aurdal, Buse, Carlisle, Clitherell, Dane Prairie, Dunn, Eagle Lake, Effington, Elizabeth, Erhards Grove, Everts, Fergus Falls, Friberg, Leaf Mountain, Lida, Maine, Maplewood, Nidaros, Norwegian Grove, Orwell, Oscar, Pelican, St. Olaf, Scambler, Sverdrup, Tordenskjold, Trondhjem, Tumuli, and Western in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as Ottertail shall be a county known as West Ottertail County; the townships of Alborn, Alden, Arrowhead, Brevator, Canosia, Cedar Valley, Cotton, Dulver, Duluth, Duluth City, Elmer, Fine Lakes, Floodwood, Fredenburg, Gnesen, Grand Lake, Holden, Herman, Industrial, Kelsey, Lakewood, Meadowlands, Midway, Ness, New Independence, Normania, Northland, Payne, Prairie, Lake, Rice Lake, Solway, Stoney Brook, Troivola, Van Buren, 52—21, 53—16, and 54—15 in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as St. Louis shall be a county known as South St. Louis County; the townships of Alango, Angora, Argo, Balkan, Biwabik, Cherry, Clinton, Clovin, Elisburg, Embarrass, Fayal, Field, Great Scott, Kugler, Lovelle, Lledeing, Linden Grove, McDavitt, Nichols, Owens, Pike, Sandy, Stuntz, Sturgeon, Vermillion, Waasa, Worcom, White, Willow Valley, Wucuri, 50—14, 56—15, 56—18, 55—21, 56—14, 56—16, 56—17, 57—14, 57—16, 59—16, 59—18, 59—21, 60—18, 60—19, 62—17, 62—21, 63—19, 63—21, and 64—21 in the political or civil division in Minnesota known as St. Louis shall be a county known as North St. Louis County; the townships of Belknap, Carson, Center, Grove, James, Knox, Layton, Lincoln, Macedonia, Pleasant, Valley, Waveland, and Wright in the political or civil division in Iowa known as Pottawattamie shall be a county known as East Pottawattamie County; the townships of Boomer, Crescent, Garner, Hardin, Hazel Dell, Kane, Keg Creek, Lake, Lewis, Mindan, Neola, Norwalk, Rockford, Silver Creek, York, and Washington in the political or civil division in Iowa known as Pottawattamie shall be a county known as West Pottawattamie County.

Sown corn means corn planted in such manner that the corn plants are so close together that under no circumstances will kernels form on the ears. Such corn may be (1) sown broadcast or close-drilled; or (2) planted in rows one-half the normal distance apart with at least the normal number of plants to the hill; or (3) planted in rows the normal distance apart but with at least seven plants to the hill; or (4) listed in rows the normal distance apart but with at least twice the normal number of plants to the row.

Part II—Establishment of Limits, Bases, Grazing Capacities, Productivity Indexes, and Yields

10. The second paragraph of Section 4 of Part II is amended to read as follows:

If the acreage planted to any specified type of tobacco in 1937 on any farm is less than fifty percent of the preliminary soil-depleting base established for such farm for such type of tobacco, the preliminary soil-depleting base for such farm for such type of tobacco shall be adjusted downward so that the final soil-depleting base established for such farm for such type of tobacco does not exceed an acreage equal to twice the acreage of such type of tobacco planted on such farm in 1937.

11. Section 8 of Part II is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 8. Pasture grazing capacities.—There shall be established for each farm containing noncrop plowable pasture land a pasture grazing capacity for such farm expressed in terms of animal units. Such grazing capacity for any farm shall represent the total number of animal units which the noncrop plowable pasture in such farm will carry during the normal pasture season. Such grazing capacity for any farm shall be determined by first establishing the pasture grazing capacity for an average acre of noncrop plowable pasture land in such farm by making such deviation from the pasture grazing capacity established by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration for an average acre of noncrop plowable pasture land in the county as is justified by the composition, palatability, density of vegetative growth, degree of erosion, and topographic features of the noncrop plowable pasture land in such farm. The pasture grazing capacity so determined for an average acre of noncrop plowable pasture land in such farm shall be multiplied by the acreage of noncrop plowable pasture land in such farm not used in 1937 as specified in Sections 1 and 3 (exclusive of items (3) and (5) of Section 3 (a) of Part III) of Part III. The result so obtained shall be the pasture grazing capacity of such farm.

Part III—Classification of Farmland

12. Item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(1) Corn (including field, sweet, and popcorn but not including sown corn).

13. Item (2) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(2) Grain sorghums.

14. Item (3) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(3) Cotton (including idle cropland not in excess of the acreage obtained by subtracting the acreage planted to cotton in 1937 from 65 percent of the cotton soil-depleting base, which idle cropland was not planted to cotton in 1937 because of abnormal weather conditions).

15. Item (7) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(7) Field beans.

16. Item (2) of subsection (b) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(2) Any of the following crops harvested for seed: Sudan grass, millet, and sweet sorghums.

17. Item (3) of subsection (b) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(3) Field peas for seed: soybeans and cowpeas for grain or seed except in Area "B".

18. The first sentence of subsection (c) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(c) The acreage by which the sum of the idle cropland (not including any idle cropland considered as cotton under item (3) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of this Part III), and the acreage planted to any of the following crops and used as specified herein, exceeds the acreage obtained by subtracting the old conserving acreage from the soil-conserving base.

19. The first sentence of item (1) of subsection (c) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any of the following crops not harvested for grain: Wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, emmer, speltz, sown corn, and mixtures of any such crops.

20. Item (2) of subsection (c) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(2) Field peas, soybeans, cowpeas, and buckwheat not harvested as grain or seed. (This item (2) does not include any acreage planted to soybeans, cowpeas, and buckwheat and used as specified in item (1) of Section 2 (b) of Part III.) This item (2), insofar as it relates to soybeans and cowpeas, is not applicable to Area "B".

21. Item (3) of subsection (c) of Section 1 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(3) Any of the following crops not harvested for seed: Sudan grass, millet, sweet sorghums, and rape.

22. Item (4) of subsection (c) of Section 1 of Part III is deleted.

23. The parenthetical expression immediately preceding subsection (a) of Section 2 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(This Section 2 does not exclude any acreage planted in the fall of 1936 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III if such crop is not harvested as grain or hay and a seeding in 1937 of any of the crops listed in this Section 2 or the first cultivation meeting the requirements set forth in item (1) of Section 3 (a) of this Part III is completed on such acreage before July 1, 1937, except such seeding or first cultivation must be completed by May 15 in Nebraska.)

24. Subsection (a) of Section 2 of Part III is amended by the addition of the following new item:

(7) Crimson clover, bur-clover, vetch (except vetch harvested for seed), black medica and yellow treefoil (hop clover).

25. Item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 3 of Part III is amended by striking out the names of Ottertail, Polk, and St. Louis and substituting for Ottertail the names "East Ottertail" and "West Ottertail" and substituting for Polk the names "East Polk" and "West Polk" and substituting for St. Louis the names "North St. Louis" and "South St. Louis."

26. The first sentence of item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(1) Land summer fallowed on which the first tillage operation is completed by the date hereinafter specified and which land is properly cultivated until August 1, 1937, in such a manner as will tend to prevent wind erosion, water erosion, and weed growth.

27. Item (4) of subsection (a) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(4) Noncropland such as waste land, roads, lanes, lots, yards, noncrop pasture land, land reverting to permanent pasture, and noncrop woodland, provided it is not planted to a crop listed in subsections (a) and (b) of Section 1 of this Part III.

27a. The parenthetical expression appearing at the end of item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(This item (1) includes any acreage planted in the fall of 1936 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III if such crop is not harvested for grain or hay in 1937 and such acreage otherwise meets the requirements of this item (1). If any acreage can be classified as neutral under this item (1) and conserving under Section 2 of this Part III, such acreage shall be classified as conserving.)

27b. Subsection (a) of Section 2 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(a) Cropland upon which there was a good stand on or after July 1, 1937, of any of the following crops seeded before November 1, 1936; and cropland upon which there is, on the date as of which final inspection is made for the purpose of determining performance, a good stand seeded in accordance with good farming practices which, with the exception of the crops listed in item (4) hereof, would normally survive the winter of 1937–38, of any of the following crops seeded between November 1, 1936, and October 31, 1937, inclusive, provided, there is evidence that the nurse crop, if any, was seeded at a rate not in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain.

27c. The sentence in parenthesis in item (3) of Section 3 (a) of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(This item (3) includes any acreage planted in the fall of 1936 to any of the crops listed in item (1) of Section 1 (b) of this Part III if such crop is not harvested as grain or hay and a seeding in 1937 of any of the crops listed in this Section 2 or a first cultivation meeting the requirements set forth in item (1) of Section 3 (a) of this Part III is completed on such acreage before July 1, 1937, except such seeding or first cultivation must be completed by May 15 in Nebraska, and (2) such acreage otherwise meets the requirements of this item (3).)

28. Item (6) of subsection (a) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows.

(6) Land planted to rye, sweet sorghums, or Sudan grass on sandy loam or coarser soils such as Valentine sand, Dune sand, and Dickinson loamy sand in Antelope, Arthur, Banner, Blaine, Boone, Brown, Box Butte, Boyd, Chase, Cherry, Cheyenne, Custer, Dawes, Deuel, Dundy, Garden, Garfield, Grant, Greeley, Hayes, Holt, Hooker, Keith, Keyapaha, Kimball, Lincoln, Logan, Loup, Madison, McPherson, Merrill, Perkins, Pierce, Rock, Scotts Bluff, Sheridan, Sioux, Thomas, Valley and Wheeler Counties in Nebraska, and on sandy loam or coarser soils such as Barnes, Boarden, Sioux, Valentine, and Fargo in Aurora, Beadle, Bennett, Brown, Campbell, Clark, Corson, Davison, Day, Dewey, Fall River, Gregory, Haakon, Harding, Jackson, Jerauld, Kingsbury, Lyman, Marshall, Meade, Pennington, Perkins, Potter, Sanborn, Shannon, Spink, Todd, Tripp, Washabaugh, Washington, Walworth, and Ziebach Counties of South Dakota, provided (1) such crops are seeded before July 1, 1937, at the normal rate of seeding for grain, (2) a good growth of such crops is obtained and not harvested for grain or hay, or pastured, and (3) the county committee after inspection has approved and designated such cropland.

29. The first sentence of subsection (b) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(b) The acreage equal to the sum of the idle cropland (not including any idle cropland considered as cotton under item (3) of subsection (a) of Section 1 of this Part III), and the acreage planted to any of the following crops and used as specified herein, not in excess of the acreage obtained by subtracting the old conserving acreage from the soil-conserving base.

30. The first sentence of item (1) of subsection (b) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(1) Any of the following crops not harvested for grain: Wheat, oats, barley, rye, flax, emmer, speltz, sown corn, and mixtures of any such crops. If oats, barley, and flax, or mixtures of any of these crops are cut for hay, not more than an average of 10 percent of the kernels on the plants in the field can have advanced beyond the milk stage of maturity and at the time of cutting all parts of the plant must be of a uniform green appearance; except that under dry conditions the lower part of the plants may be yellowish green or yellow in color. If wheat, rye, emmer, and speltz, or mixtures of any of these crops are cut for hay, none of the kernels on the plants in the field can have advanced beyond the milk stage of maturity and at the time of cutting all parts of the plants must be of a uniform green appearance; except that under dry conditions the lower part of the plants may be yellowish green or yellow in color.

31. Item (2) of subsection (b) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(2) Field peas, soybeans, cowpeas, and buckwheat not harvested as grain or seed. If field peas, soybeans, cowpeas, and buckwheat are cut for hay, the seed cannot have advanced beyond the half grown stage of maturity and at the time of cutting the plant must have a uniform green appearance; except that under dry conditions the lower part of the plants may be yellowish green or yellow in color. (This item (2) does not include any acreage planted to soybeans, cowpeas, and buckwheat and used as specified in item (1) of Section 2 (b) of Part III.) This item (2), insofar as it relates to soybeans and cowpeas, is not applicable to Area "B."

32. Item (3) of subsection (b) of Section 3 of Part III is amended to read as follows:

(3) Any of the following crops not harvested for seed: Sudan grass, millet, sweet sorghums, and rape.

33. Item (4) of subsection (b) of Section 3 of Part III is deleted.

Part IV—Rates and Conditions of Payment

34. Section 2 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2. Person's Percentage of Payments, Allowances and Deductions.—The percentage of any payments, allowances, or deductions to which any person is entitled with respect to any farm, shall be determined as set forth in this Section 2. The term "principal soil-depleting crop", as used herein, means the soil-depleting crop, exclusive of sugar beets, to which the greatest number of acres on the farm is devoted in 1937. For the purpose of this Section 2, all small grains, or the proceeds thereof, which are divided in the same percentage shall be considered as one soil-depleting crop. If there is no soil-depleting crop, other than sugar beets, which has a larger acreage than any other soil-depleting crop on the farm, the principal soil-depleting crop shall be the soil-depleting crop on the farm which is of major importance in terms of acreage in the county in which such farm is located.

(a) If the operator of a farm is the owner of such farm, which farm is not operated with the aid of sharecroppers, such person's percentage of any payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm shall be 100 percent.

(b) The percentage for the owner and for the operator of a share-rented farm, which farm is not a combination, cotton, or sharecropper farm, of any diversion payment, conserving payment, soil-building payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm, shall be such person's percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop, or the proceeds thereof, under the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm. If no soil-depleting crop, other than sugar beets, is planted in 1937 on a share-rented farm, which farm is not a combination, cotton, or sharecropper farm, the percentage for the owner and for the operator of such farm of any diversion payment, conserving payment, soil-building payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm shall be 50 percent. If no soil-depleting crop is planted for harvest in 1937 on a share-rented farm on which all the cropland is entirely summer fallowed in 1937, and which farm is not a combination, cotton, or sharecropper farm, the percentage of any diversion payment, conserving payment, soil-building payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm for the operator thereof shall be 66⅔ percent and for the owner thereof shall be 33⅓ percent.

(c) The percentage for the operator of a combination farm of any diversion payment, conserving payment, soil-building payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm, shall be determined as follows:

(1) Multiply the new conserving acreage in such farm rented for cash by the operator by 100%;

(2) Multiply the new conserving acreage in such farm rented on shares by the operator's percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop on such farm;

(3) Add the results obtained under items (1) and (2) of this subsection (c);

(4) Divide the result obtained under item (3) of this subsection (c) by the sum of the new conserving acreage on such farm and multiply this result by 100. The percentage for the owner of a combination farm of any diversion payment, conserving payment, soil-building payment, soil-building allowance, or deduction computed with respect to such farm, shall be computed by subtracting from 100 percent the percentage obtained for the operator of such farm under item (4) of this subsection (c).

(d) The percentage for the owner and for the operator of a share-rented farm, which farm is not operated with the aid of sharecroppers, of any sugar beet payment computed with respect to such farm, shall be such persons's percentage of the sugar beets, or the proceeds thereof, under the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm.

(e) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton farm, such person's percentage of any diversion payment computed with respect to such farm pertaining to the soil-depleting base for a crop which was planted on such farm for harvest in 1937, shall be the sum of the percentages determined for such person under items (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection (e):

(1) 37½ percent to the person who furnished the land;

(2) 12½ percent to the person who furnished the workstock and equipment. If more than one person furnished the workstock and equipment for such farm, the percentage to each person who furnished workstock and equipment in connection with the acreage used for the production of the crop with respect to which such diversion payment is computed, shall be obtained by dividing the acreage of such crop for which such person furnished workstock and equipment by the total acreage of such crop on such farm and multiplying this result by 12½ percent;

(3) 50 percent to be divided among the persons who are parties to the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm in the proportion in which such persons are entitled to share under such lease or operating agreement in the crops grown on such farm in 1937, or the proceeds thereof, with respect to which any diversion payment is made.

(f) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton farm, such person's percentage of any diversion payment computed with respect to such farm pertaining to the soil-depleting base for a crop which is normally planted on such farm but which was not planted on such farm in 1937, shall be the sum of the percentages determined for such person under items (1) and (2) of this subsection (f):

(1) 37½ percent to the person who furnished the land;

(2) 62½ percent to be divided in accordance with an agreement among the persons who are parties to the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm, which agreement is approved by the county committee. If there is no such agreement approved by the county committee, the 62½ percent of such payment shall be divided equally among the persons who are parties to the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm.

(g) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a sharecropper farm, the percentage for such person of any diversion or sugar beet payment computed with respect to such farm shall be the percentage in which such person is entitled to share under the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm in the crops grown on such farm in 1937, or the proceeds thereof, with respect to which any such payments are computed with respect to such farm. If on such farm no crop was planted in 1937 with respect to which any diversion payment is computed with respect to such farm, such person's percentage of such payment shall be his share specified in an agreement among the persons who are parties to the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm, which agreement is approved by the county committee. If no such agreement is approved by the county committee, such payment shall be divided equally among the persons who are parties to the lease or operating agreement relating to such farm.

(h) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, such person's percentage of any conserving payment computed with respect to such farm shall be the percentage that the sum of all diversion payments computed for such person with respect to such farm is of the sum of all diversion payments computed for such farm.

(i) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, the total computed soil-building payment for such person with respect to such farm shall be the sum of the share of such person of the soil-building payment for each soil-building practice carried out on such farm, computed as follows: The soil-building payment for any practice shall be made to the person, determined by the county committee, who has incurred the expense in 1937 with respect to which the soil-building payment is to be made; where two or more persons are determined by the county committee to have incurred the expense in 1937 with respect to such practice, the soil-building payment for such practice shall be divided equally among such persons.

(j) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, such person's percentage of any deduction computed with respect to such farm shall be the percentage that the sum of all payments computed for such person with respect to such farm is of the sum of all payments computed for such farm. If there is no payment computed for a person who is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, and there is a deduction computed with respect to such farm, such person's percentage of such deduction shall be such person's percentage of the principal soil-depleting crop on such farm.

(k) If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, such person's percentage of the soil-building allowance for such farm shall be the percentage that the total soil-building payments computed for such person with respect to such farm is of the total soil-building payments computed with respect to such farm. If there is no soil-building payment computed with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, the percentage of the soil-building allowance for such farm of a person who is both the owner and operator of such farm shall be 100 percent. If there is no soil-building payment computed with respect to a cotton or sharecropper farm, the percentage of the soil-building allowance for such farm of a person who is either a share-tenant of such farm or such share-tenant's landlord shall be 50 percent.

The term "person's percentage" as used in this bulletin with reference to a person who is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to any farm and also as used with reference to any payment, deduction, or allowance for such person with respect to such farm shall mean the percentage of such payment, deduction, or allowance determined for such person for such farm under this Section 2.

Any share of payments shall be computed and paid without regard to questions of title under State law, without deductions of claims for advances, and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or the proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any creditor. If the Secretary, upon the basis of an investigation by the State Committee, finds that any person has for 1937 made any change from any previous leasing or cropping arrangement for the farm, for the purpose of, or which would have the effect of, diverting to such person any payment to which any tenants or sharecroppers would be entitled if the previous leasing or cropping arrangements were in effect for 1937, the amount of any payment which would otherwise be made to such person may be withheld in whole or in part.

35. Subsection (h) of Section 6 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

(h) The total general diversion payments which shall be made to such person with respect to such farms shall be the amount obtained by subtracting the amount obtained under subsection (d) of this Section 6 from the amount obtained under subsection (b) of this Section 6, or the amount obtained under subsection (f) of this Section 6, whichever is the smaller.

36. Subsection (h) of Section 7 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

(h) The total diversion payments for such type of tobacco which shall be made to such person with respect to such farms shall be the amount obtained by subtracting the amount obtained under subsection (d) of this Section 7 from the amount obtained under subsection (b) of this Section 7, or the amount obtained under subsection (f) of this Section 7, whichever is the smaller.

37. Subsection (h) of Section 8 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

(h) The total cotton diversion payments which shall be made to such person with respect to such farms shall be the amount obtained by subtracting the amount obtained under subsection (d) of this Section 8 from the amount obtained under subsection (b) of this Section 8, or the amount obtained under subsection (f) of this Section 8, whichever is the smaller.

38. Subsection (b) of Section 10 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

(b) If such farm is a diversion farm and if the 1937 corn acreage on such farm exceeds the larger of (1), the corn limit for such farm, or (2), 15 acres, the amount of deduction for such person for such excess shall be computed by multiplying such number of excess acres by the rate per acre for general diversion payments for such farm and multiplying this result by such person's percentage.

39. Section 10 of Part IV is amended by the addition of the following subsections (g) and (h):

(g) If such farm is a nondiversion farm and if tobacco is planted on such farm in 1937, the amount of deduction for such person for each type of tobacco planted on such farm in 1937 shall be computed by multiplying the number of acres planted on such farm to each type of tobacco by the rate per acre for diversion payments for such type of tobacco which would be determined for such farm if it had a soil-depleting base for such type of tobacco and multiplying this result by such person's percentage.

(h) If such farm is a nondiversion farm and if cotton is planted on such farm in 1937, the amount of deduction for such person shall be computed by multiplying the number of acres planted on such farm to cotton by the rate per acre for cotton diversion payments which would be determined for such farm if it had a cotton soil-depleting base and multiplying this result by such person's percentage.

40. The last paragraph of Section 10 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to more than one nondiversion farm in a county, upon which the 1937 general acreage is in excess of twenty acres, the deduction for such person for such excess on each such farm shall be computed for each farm as set forth under subsection (e) of this Section 10. If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to more than one nondiversion farm in a county in Area "A", upon which the 1937 corn acreage is in excess of twenty acres, the deduction for such person for such excess on each such farm shall be computed for each farm as set forth under subsection (f) of this Section 10. If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to more than one nondiversion farm in a county, upon which farm tobacco is planted in 1937, the deduction for such person for such acreage on each such farm shall be computed for each farm set forth under subsection (g) of this Section 10. If a person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper with respect to more than one nondiversion farm in a county, upon which farm cotton is planted in 1937, the deduction for such person for such acreage on such farm shall be computed for each farm as set forth under subsection (h) of this Section 10.

41. Subsection (c) of Section 11 of Part IV is amended to read as follows:

(c) Multiplying for each diversion farm in Area "A" with respect to which such person is an owner, operator, or sharecropper, the larger of (1), the corn limit for such farm, or (2), 15 acres, by the rate per acre for general diversion payments for such farm and multiplying the result by such person's percentage.

43. The last sentence of the second paragraph of Section 13 of Part IV is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

A soil-building payment for any practice hereinafter set forth will not be made with respect to any acreage on the farm for which all or any portion of the labor, seed, or materials used for any practice is furnished free or paid for by any State or Federal agency, except that in the case of the soil-building practices designated under subsections (c), (g), and (p) hereof, payment will be made at the stipulated rates on an acreage or quantity, which bears the same proportion to the total acreage or quantity with respect to such practice as the quantity of materials used, or the value of the labor and materials furnished, by the owner, operator, or sharecropper bears to the total quantity of materials or the total value of labor and materials used in carrying out such practice. If trees are purchased from a Clark-McNary cooperative State nursery, such purchase shall not be deemed to be paid for in whole or in part by a State or Federal agency.

44. The third and fourth paragraphs of Section 13 of Part IV are amended to read as follows:

Where several soil-building practices are adopted on the same acreage on a farm which is not a dryland farm, payment will not be made for: (1), more than one of the practices listed in the same subsection in the case of subsections (c) to (k), inclusive, of this Section 13; and (2), more than one practice twice, or any two practices of the fourteen soil-building practices listed in subsections (a), (b), (x), (y), and (z) of this Section 13. Where several soil-building practices are adopted on the same acreage on a dryland farm, payment will not be made for: (1), more than one of the practices listed in subsections (l), (m) and (n) of this Section 13; (2), more than two of the following: A practice listed in either subsection (l), (m), or (n) of this Section 13, a practice listed in either subsection (a) or (b) of this Section 13, and the increased rate of payment for dryland farms specified in the sixth paragraph of this Section 13.

Except as otherwise provided, the soil-building practices listed in subsections (a) to (k), inclusive, will be applicable to all farms; the soil-building practices listed in subsections (l) to (s), inclusive, will be applicable only to dryland farms; the soil-building practices listed in subsections (t) to (w), inclusive, will be applicable only to orchards, and the practices listed in subsections (x) to (z), inclusive, will be applicable only to cropland used for the growing of commercial vegetables.

45. Section 13 of Part IV is amended by changing the location of the subtitles preceding subsections (k), (s), and (w), respectively, to precede subsection (l), (t), and (x), respectively.

46. Item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 13 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Alfalfa, (seeded alone or in mixtures with the perennial grasses listed under subsection (b) hereof, provided, that such alfalfa is seeded at the full rate of seeding alfalfa alone)—$2.50 per acre.

46. Item (1) of subsection (a) of Section 13 is amended to read as follows:

(1) Application of ground limestone or its equivalent—$1.25 per ton. (The ground limestone should not be coarser than that obtained by grinding calcareous or dolomitic limestone so that not less than 90 percent with all finer particles obtained in the grinding process included, will pass through a ten-mesh sieve. It must contain calcium and magnesium carbonate equivalent to not less than 80 percent of calcium carbonate. The following quantities of other calcareous substances are equivalent to one ton of ground limestone in the following designated States: 1,400 lbs. of hydrated lime or 2 cubic yards of marl, in the entire North Central Region; 2 cubic yards of sugar beet refuse lime in Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Ohio, and Wisconsin; 2 cubic yards of calcium carbide refuse lime in Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, and Wisconsin; 2 cubic yards of paper mill refuse lime in Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin; 2 cubic yards of water softening process refuse lime in Illinois and Iowa; 2 cubic yards of commercial wood ashes in Michigan and Wisconsin; ½ ton of commercial burnt lime and 4 cubic yards of calcareous clay in Wisconsin; one ton of burnt lime waste in Iowa and Wisconsin; 1 ton of agricultural limestone meal in Ohio; 2,700 lbs. of limestone screenings, or 1,400 lbs. of pulverized limestone in Ohio and Wisconsin; 3 tons of tailings from zinc mines in Wisconsin.)

47. Subsection (j) of Section 13 is amended to read as follows:

(j) Restoration of Noncrop Plowable Pasture.—Restoration by nongrazing until November 1, 1937, of noncrop plowable pasture—$2.00 per animal unit of the pasture grazing capacity of such noncrop plowable pasture, provided, (1) the county committee, after inspection, has approved and designated in writing the area on which such practice is to be carried out, (2) no hay or seed is harvested from such pasture land, (3) such pasture land is not tilled for any purpose other than to improve the stand of pasture grasses and legumes thereon, and (4) the maturing of noxious weed seeds on such pasture is prevented by the clipping of such pasture.

48. Section 13 of Part IV is amended by designating subsections (k), (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), (r) as subsections (l), (m), (n), (o), (p), (q), (r), (s), respectively, and by adding the following new subsection as subsection (k):

(k) Contour Strip Cropping.—Growing in 1937 on slopes of three percent or more of small grain crops, sweet sorghums, Sudan grass, legumes, perennial grasses, or mixtures of any of these, all close drilled or broadcast, and intertilled crops in alternate strips, running on the contour—$1.00 per acre, provided, (1) the county committee after inspection has approved and designated in writing the area and manner in which such practice is carried out, (2) the strips shall be planted on the contour, (3) the deviation of the strips from the true contour shall not exceed at any point a percentage equal to three-fourths of the percentage slope of the land, but in any case the maximum deviation shall not exceed four percent, (4) no deviation of strips from the true contour shall be for a greater continuous distance than 60 feet, (5) the width of any strip on land with a slope of three percent shall not exceed 120 feet, and (6) the width of any strip on land with a slope of more than three percent shall not exceed 120 feet less 5 feet for each percent by which the slope is greater than three percent.

49. Subsection (l), (lettered (k) prior to amendment numbered 47) is amended to read as follows:

(l) Protected Strip Fallow.—$2.00 per acre in fallow, provided, (1) the first tillage operation is completed before May 15, 1937, if such farm is in Nebraska and the first tillage operation is completed before June 1, 1937, if such farm is in South Dakota, (2) tillage operations are carried out until August 1, 1937, in such a manner as will prevent weed growth, wind erosion, and water erosion, (3) the slope on the land to be fallowed is not in excess of eight percent, (4) the land on which the slope is in excess of three percent is listed on the contour, (5) the fallow is in alternate strips with small grain crops, sorghums, Sudan grass, or millet, all close drilled or broadcast, or sorghums in rows of approximately the same width, not less than 3 rods and not more than 20 rods in width, running at right angles to the prevailing winds or running on the contour, (6) the stubble is left on the strips devoted to crops in such a manner as will prevent wind erosion.

50. Subsection (m) (lettered (l) prior to amendment numbered 49) is amended to read as follows:

(m) Protected Summer Fallow and Basin Listing.—$2.00 per acre in fallow, provided, (1) basin listing is practical to preserve moisture and will prevent water erosion, (2) the first tillage operation is completed before May 15, 1937, if such farm is in Nebraska, and the first tillage operation is completed before June 1, 1937, if such farm is in South Dakota, (3) tillage operations are carried out until August 1, 1937, in such a manner as will prevent weed growth, wind erosion, and water erosion, (4) the slope on the land to be fallowed and basin listed is not in excess of eight percent, (5) land on which the slope is in excess of three percent is listed on the contour, (6) adjoining furrows, not less than 8 inches in width and not less than 4 inches in depth are constructed, maintained, and dammed at intervals of not more than twenty feet, (7) the land is seeded in the fall to a cover crop or lister ridges are left over the winter to prevent wind erosion.

51. Subsection (n) (lettered (m) prior to amendment numbered 47) is amended to read as follows:

(n) Protected Summer Fallow.—$1.50 per acre in fallow, provided, (1) block fallow is practical on the land fallowed, (2) the first tillage operation is completed before May 15, 1937, if such farm is in Nebraska, and the first tillage operation is completed before June 1, 1937, if such farm is in South Dakota, (3) tillage operations are carried out until August 1, 1937, in such a manner as will prevent weed growth, wind erosion, and water erosion, (4) the slope on the land to be fallowed is not in excess of eight percent, (5) the land on which the slope is in excess of three percent is listed on the contour, (6) the land is seeded in the fall to a cover crop, or lister ridges are left over the winter to prevent wind erosion.

52. Subsection (r) (lettered (q) prior to amendment numbered 47) is amended to read as follows:

(r) Contour Furrows on Permanent Pasture Land.—Construction of contour furrows on permanent farm pasture land with slopes not in excess of eight percent, except permanent farm pasture land that is sufficiently sandy and porous to absorb normal precipitation—$0.50 per acre for the area contour furrowed, provided, (1) the contour furrows are constructed on the contour level not less than 8 inches in width and four inches in depth, (2) the contour furrows are dammed at intervals of not more than 100 feet, (3) the width of the furrows on any land with a slope of three percent or less shall not exceed 25 feet, (4) the width between the furrows on any land with a slope of more than three percent shall not exceed 25 feet less three feet for each percent by which the slope is greater than three percent.

53. Section 13 of Part IV is amended by deleting subsections (s), (t), (w), (x), (y), (z) and adding the following new sections:

(t) Winter Cover Crops:

1. Incorporation into the soil by plowing or discing between March 1, 1937, and June 30, 1937, inclusive, of a good vegetative growth of any of the following crops: wheat, rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, Sudan grass, millet, annual legumes, or mixtures of any of these seeded in the late summer or fall of 1936—$1.00 per acre, provided, such crop has attained at least 60 days' growth and is not pastured or harvested for grain or hay.

2. Seeding after May 1, 1937, of any of the crops listed under item (1) of this subsection (t), except soybeans and cowpeas—$1.00 per acre, provided (1) a good vegetative growth of any of such crops is on the land on the date as of which final inspection of the farm is made for the purpose of determining performance, and (2) such crop is not pastured or otherwise taken from the land.

(w) Sanding Cranberry Bogs.—Application of not less than the following quantities of sand, free from stones and loam, on fruiting cranberry bogs to prevent soil deterioration and decline in productive capacity of the land:

1. One-half inch of sand, evenly distributed—$7.50 per acre.
2. Three-fourths inch of sand, evenly distributed—$11.25 per acre.
3. One inch of sand, evenly distributed—$15.00 per acre.

(x) Nonleguminous Green Manure Crop on Vegetable Land.—

1. Incorporation into the soil as green manure by plowing or discing of the entire vegetative growth of rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, annual grasses, mixtures of these, or corn sown broadcast, grown on land used for production of vegetable crops in 1935 and 1936—$1.00 per acre, provided, (1) such green manure crop has attained at least 60 days' growth, and (2) a good vegetative growth of such crop is incorporated into the soil.

2. Incorporation into the soil as green manure by plowing or discing of the entire vegetative growth of rye, oats, barley, buckwheat, annual grasses, mixtures of these, or corn sown broadcast, grown on land used for the production of vegetable crops in 1935 and 1936—$2.00 per acre, provided, (1) such green manure crop has attained at least 60 days' growth, (2) a good vegetative growth of such crop was incorporated into the soil, and (3) at least one less soil-depleting crop is grown on such land in 1937 than the 1935–1936 annual average number of soil-depleting crops grown on such land.

(y) Leguminous Green Manure Crop on Vegetable Land.—

1. Incorporation into the soil as green manure by plowing or discing of the entire vegetative growth of a legume, or mixture of legumes grown on land used for the production of vegetable crops in 1935 and 1936—$2.00 per acre, provided, (1) such green manure crop has attained at least 60 days' growth, and (2) a good vegetative growth of such crop is incorporated into the soil.

2. Incorporation into the soil as green manure by plowing or discing of the entire vegetative growth of a legume, or mixture of legumes grown on land used for the production of vegetable crops in 1935 and 1936—$4.00 per acre, provided, (1) such green manure crop has attained at least 60 days' growth, (2) a good vegetative growth of such crop was incorporated into the soil, and (3) at least one less soil-depleting crop is grown on such land in 1937 than the 1935–1936 annual average number of soil-depleting crops grown on such land.

(z) Seeding of Rye on Vegetable Land on a Nondiversion Farm.—Seeding after May 1, 1937, of rye on a nondiversion farm on land used for the production of vegetable crops in 1935 and 1936—$1.00 per acre, provided, (1) a good vegetative growth of such crop is on the land on the date as of which final inspection of the farm is made for the purpose of determining performance, and (2) such crop is not pastured or otherwise taken from the land.

54. The third sentence of Section 16 of Part IV is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

On any farm where a program is carried out in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service or the Resettlement Administration, payment shall not be made for any soil-building practice carried out on such farm unless, (1) the cooperating agency has approved in writing on Form ACP–35 the carrying out of any such practice on such farm, (2) the cooperating agency has not furnished any labor, seed, or materials for the carrying out of such practice, provided, if labor, seed, or materials are furnished by the Soil Conservation Service or the Resettlement Administration for a practice specified in either subsection (c), (g), or (p) of Section 13 of this Part IV, and such cooperating agency has approved in writing the carrying out of such practice, payment will be made to the extent specified in the third paragraph of Section 13 of Part IV.

54a. Subsection (s) (lettered (r) prior to amendment numbered 47) is amended to read as follows:—

(s) Restoration to Native Grass of Noncropland.—Restoration to native grass of noncropland plowed at least once between January 1, 1930, and December 31, 1936, inclusive, which in accordance with good farming practices should be permanently devoted to grass—$0.25 per acre, provided, (1) both the operator and owner have designated the acreage and have stated in writing their intention to let such acreage revert to grass, (2) written approval has been obtained from the county committee, and (3) such land is not pastured or tilled in 1937 and no crop is harvested therefrom.

Part V—Miscellaneous Provisions

55. The first sentence of Section 1 of Part V is amended to read as follows:

A farm shall include all irrigated or nonirrigated land in a county under the same ownership which is farmed by the same operator as all or part of one farming unit.

56. Subsection (f) of Section 1 of Part V is amended to read as follows:

(f) If the major portion of the cropland operated as all or part of one farming unit by an operator is rented on shares from a landlord and the remaining portion of the land rented from such landlord and operated by such operator is rented for cash, such share-rented and cash-rented land shall be regarded as one farm.

57. Subsection (g) of Section 1 of Part V is deleted.

58. The first sentence of Section 3 of Part V is amended to read as follows:

An owner is a person who owns farm land constituting all or part of a farming unit which is not entirely rented to another for cash or for a fixed commodity payment or who rents farm land constituting all or part of a farming unit from another for cash or for a fixed commodity payment or who is purchasing land constituting all or part of a farming unit for cash or for a fixed commodity payment.

59. The fourth paragraph of Section 5 of Part V is amended by the addition at the end thereof of the following:

In determining the ownership of a farm where an offer to purchase, option, or similar instrument has been executed with respect to such farm, the person executing the offer to purchase or holding the option shall not be deemed to be the owner of such farm unless on or before June 30, 1937, the sale is completed by payment of the stipulated down payment by the vendor and delivery of the deed or land contract by the vendee.

60. The fifth paragraph of Section 5 of Part V is amended to read as follows:

A person who has no interest or right in the farming operations on a farm in 1937 except to harvest a crop or crops which he planted in the fall of 1936 shall not be regarded as the operator of such farm and the person who operates the farm other than for the purpose of harvesting a crop therefrom which was planted by another person in the fall of 1936 and who operates the remainder of the farming unit of which such farm is a part shall be regarded as the operator of such farm. A person who has the right in 1937 to harvest a crop or crops on a farm which he planted in the fall of 1936 as well as the right to the possession of such land until such crop is harvested shall be deemed the operator of such farm.

Part VI—Range Lands

61. Subsection (b) of Section 5 of Part VI is amended to read as follows:

(b) Contouring.—Construction of contour furrows on range land with slopes not in excess of eight percent and not sufficiently sandy and porous to absorb normal precipitation—$0.50 per acre for the area contour furrowed, provided, (1) the contour furrows are constructed on the contour level, not less than 8 inches in width and 4 inches in depth and are dammed at intervals of not more than 100 feet, (2) the width between the furrows on any land with a slope of three percent or less shall not exceed 25 feet, less three feet for each percent by which the slope is greater than three percent.

62. Part VI is amended by the addition of the following new sections:

SECTION 7. Ranch or Ranching Unit Located in More Than One County.—If a ranch is located in two or more adjacent counties, such ranch shall be regarded as located in the county in which the base of operations of such ranch is located. If a ranching unit is located in two or more adjacent counties, such ranching unit shall be regarded as located in the county in which the base of operations of such ranching unit is located.

SECTION 8. Association Expenses.—In determining the amount of payments under the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, there shall be deducted from any payment computed for any person with respect to any ranch or ranches in a county, all of such person's pro-rata share, or such part thereof as may be determined by the Secretary, of the estimated total administrative expenses incurred and to be incurred by the Association of such county in cooperating in carrying out the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act. Such pro-rata share shall be determined by multiplying the total payments computed for such person with respect to any ranch or ranches in such county by the percentage that the estimated total of administrative expenses of the Association for such county as approved by the North Central Division for 1937 is of the total payments estimated by the North Central Division which will be made with respect to farms in such county in 1937. As provided in the Articles of Association, as amended, any person who previously has not become a member of the Association of the county in which his ranch or ranches are located shall become a member thereof by his signing an application for payment with respect to such ranch or ranches.

63. The definition of "Range Land" is amended to read as follows:

Range land means any land containing more than 640 acres operated by persons in Nebraska and South Dakota other than that owned or controlled by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, which produces forage without cultivation or general irrigation, ten acres or more of which on the average are required to sustain one animal unit for a period of twelve months.

64. The first sentence of Section 17 of Part V is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 Program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made. Payments will not be made for changes in the use of any acreage which involve the destruction of foods, fibre, or feed grains.

In testimony whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 22nd day of June, 1937.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Issued June 22, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—WEBER AND DAVIS COUNTIES, UTAH, SUPPLEMENT 1

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Weber and

Davis Counties, Utah, is amended by this supplement as follows:

The definition of "Range land" in part I is amended to read as follows:

Range land means any land other than that owned or controlled by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, in which a ranch operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof which produces forage for range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation ten acres or more of which, on the average for the ranching unit, are required to graze one animal unit.

Part IV, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Range-Building Practices and Rates.—Payment will be made for carrying out on range land in 1937 such of the following range-building practices as are approved by the county committee for the ranching unit prior to their institution, provided that the range-building payment with respect to any ranching unit shall not exceed the range-building allowance for such ranching unit.

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart; all posts, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part IV, Section 1, is amended by adding the following range-building practice at the end thereof:

K. Mountain Meadow Land Practices Applicable Only if an Acreage Allowance for Mountain Meadow Land is Established under Section 2 of this Part IV.

1. Reseeding Mountain Meadow Land.

For reseeding depleted mountain meadow land with good seed of adapted varieties of the following perennial grasses, and legumes or mixtures thereof, brome grass, red top, timothy, alsike clover, meadow fescue, medium red clover, and such other perennial grasses and legumes, except alfalfa, or mixtures thereof as are recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division: $0.20 per pound of seed sown, but not in excess of $2.00 per acre.

2. Earthen Dams for Erosion Control on Mountain Meadows.

For constructing, according to specifications recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division, earthen dams for the exclusive purpose of diverting flood water of intermittent streams to prevent soil erosion on mountain meadow land: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill, not in excess of $50.00 for each dam.

Part IV, Section 2, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2. Range-Building Allowance.—The range-building allowance for any ranching unit shall be equal to $1.50 times the grazing capacity thereof. However, if the Director of the Western Division determines, upon the basis of the recommendations of the county and State committees, that the mountain meadow land practices specified in Part IV, Section 1, Practice K are necessary and effective in promoting land conservation in either Weber or Davis County, or both, the range-building allowance shall be equal to $1.50 times the grazing capacity thereof, plus 40 cents times the number of acres of mountain land in the ranching unit from which hay is normally harvested for feeding on the ranching unit to range livestock owned by the operator of the ranching unit. In determining the grazing capacity of any ranching unit with respect to which an acreage allowance for mountain meadow land may be made, the grazing capacity of such acreage of mountain meadow land shall not be considered.

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch-operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary. In the event of the death, disappearance or legal incompetency of an applicant for payment, any payment which has not been received by such applicant prior to his death, disappearance or legal incompetency and which would otherwise be made to such applicant shall be made to the person who, under rules prescribed by the Secretary, is determined to be eligible to receive such payment.

Part VIII, Section 1, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Soil-Depleting Crops.—Land devoted to any of the following uses or crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and cover and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to soil-conserving crops following summer fallow:

a. Corn (field, sweet, and popcorn).
b. Potatoes.
c. Sugar Beets for sugar or seed.
d. Cultivated sunflowers.
e. Annual truck, canning, and vegetable crops, and their seeds.
f. Melons.
g. Sorghums, including grain sorghums, sweet sorghums, and Sudan grass for seed, grain, hay, or pasture.
h. Sweet sorghums for syrup.
i. Small grains, including flax.
j. Millets.
k. Soybeans, field beans, cowpeas, field peas, and seed peas, for grain, hay, pasture or canning purposes.
l. Root crops grown for feed or seed.
m. Fiber plants.
n. Annual cut flowers and their seeds.
o. Rape.
p. Cultivated fallow (summer fallow) including approved summer fallow.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. Soil-Conserving Crops.—Cropland devoted to any of the following uses or crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1 of Part VIII), shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year, and except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to soil-conserving crops following summer fallow.

Part VIII, Section 2, Subsection b, is amended to read as follows:

b. Cover and green manure crops consisting of annual, biennial and perennial legumes; rye, barley, oats, and grain mixtures; vetches; and such other crops as may be approved by the Director of the Western Division; when turned under in 1937, after attaining at least two months' growth; except when followed by summer fallow on non-irrigated cropland.

Part X is added to read as follows:

PART X—COUNTY AVERAGE RATES

SECTION 1. County Average Rates for Computing Diversion Payments and Soil-Building Allowances.—The county average rates per acre for computing diversion payments and the county average rates per acre to be used in computing those portions of the soil-building allowance which vary as the productivity of the cropland on the farm varies from the average productivity of all such cropland in the United States shall be as follows:

| County | Average Rate per Acre for Diversion From Soil-Depleting Base [1] | Average Soil-Building Allowance Rate per Acre on Acreage Diverted for Payment [2] | Average Soil-Building Allowance Rate per Acre on all Cropland on Non-Diversion Farms and Commercial Orchard Land on Diversion Farms [3] |
|---|---|---|---|
| Davis | $10.60 | $7.05 | $1.41 |
| Weber | 9.70 | 6.45 | 1.29 |

[1] Pursuant to Section 1, Part II of WR Bulletin No. 101—Weber and Davis Counties, Utah.

[2] Pursuant to Subsection A-2, Section 2, Part III of WR Bulletin No. 101—Weber and Davis Counties, Utah.

[3] Pursuant to Subsection A-3 and B-1 of Section 2, Part III of WR Bulletin No. 101—Weber and Davis Counties, Utah.

SECTION 2. Rates as Applied to Individual Farms.—For any individual farm the rate of payment for diversion from the soil-depleting base and the rates to be used in computing those portions of the soil-building allowance which vary as the productivity of the cropland on the farm varies from the average productivity of all such cropland in the United States shall be those rates determined by multiplying the applicable average rate per acre for the county in which the farm is located by the productivity index established for the farm and by dividing the result by 100, except that for any farm on which normal summer fallow acreage represents a part of the soil-depleting base established for such farm, a downward adjustment must be made in the farm rates, so determined, in proportion to the amount of acreage normally devoted to summer fallow which has been included in the soil-depleting base established for the farm.

The productivity index for the farm shall be determined on the basis of the farm yield as compared with the county yield of a crop which is generally grown throughout the county or, on such other basis as the Director of the Western Division may authorize for the purpose of obtaining an accurate reflection of the productivity of the cropland on the farm. The average of the productivity indexes for all farms for which work sheets are filed in a county, weighted by the respective crop acreages for such farms, shall not exceed 100, unless a variance therefrom is recommended by the State committee and approved by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Part XI is added to read as follows:

PART XI—MULTIPLE FARM HOLDINGS

SECTION 1. Determination of Class I Payment for Diversion.—The amount of class I payment to be made to any person for diversion from the soil-depleting base shall be determined on the basis of the performance on all diversion farms owned or operated by such person in the county as follows:

A. Compute for each such farm the applicant's share [1] of class I payment with respect to the decrease from the soil-depleting base and total the amounts thus obtained;

B. Compute for each such farm the applicant's share of deduction with respect to the 1937 acreage of all soil-depleting crops in excess of the soil-depleting base, and total the amounts thus obtained;

C. Compute for each such farm the applicant's share of the maximum possible class I payment for diversion from the soil-depleting bases respectively and total the amounts thus obtained;

D. Subtract the total obtained under subsection B from the total obtained under subsection A. The result, not in excess of the amount obtained under subsection C shall, subject to other applicable provisions of this part XI, be the class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base; Provided, however, that, if the total obtained under subsection B is larger than the total obtained under subsection A, the difference shall be deducted from any payment other than a range-building payment which otherwise would be made to the applicant.

SECTION 2. Non-diversion Farms.—A. The foregoing provisions of section 1 of this part XI are not applicable to non-diversion farms, Provided, however, that any non-diversion farm upon which there has been an increase in the 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops in excess of the soil-depleting base or 20 acres, whichever is the larger, shall be considered a diversion farm.

SECTION 3. Determination of Class II Payments.—The amount of class II payments to be made to any person for carrying out approved soil-building practices shall be computed on all diversion and non-diversion farms owned or operated by such person in the county as follows:

A. For each farm multiply the number of acres devoted to an approved soil-building practice by the rate specified for such practice; multiply this result by the percentage to which the applicant is entitled, and total the amounts thus obtained.

B. Compute the applicant's share of the soil-building allowance as follows:

1. Multiply the class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, Subsection D, of this Part XI, by 66⅔ percent;

2. On each farm individually, determine the applicant's share of the soil-building allowance (without regard to the minimum soil-building allowance) computed in accordance with the provisions of Part III, Section 2, except that, item 2 in subsection A of said part and section shall not be used in such computation;

3. To the amount obtained under item 1, above add the amount obtained under item 2, above, and the result shall be the soil-building allowance for all farms owned or operated by the applicant in the county.

C. The amount obtained under Subsection A of this Section 3, not in excess of the soil-building allowance obtained under Subsection B of this Section 3 shall, subject to the applicable provisions of this Part XI, be the amount of the class II payment to the applicant.

SECTION 4. Adjustment of Payments.—In the event that any person who makes application for payment with respect to any diversion farm has an interest as owner or operator in another farm or farms in the same State upon which the aggregate 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops exceeds the soil-depleting base acreage for such farm or farms, the applicant's share of any payment may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be adjusted to offset such increase in soil-depleting acreage.

In testimony whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 22nd day of June 1937.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,

[F. R. Doc. 37-1892; Filed, June 23, 1937; 12: 41 p. m.]

[1] The applicant's share of any payment, deduction, acreage, etc., shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Part V governing the applicant's share of payment.

SR—B-101, Amendment 14

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—SOUTHERN REGION

BULLETIN 101—AMENDMENT 14

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Part IX, Revised, of Southern Region Bulletin 101, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Section 111 is amended to read as follows:

Preliminary Payment.—On a preliminary application made on Form SR-114, any producer whose soil-building allowance has been established in accordance with section 108 may receive preliminary payment for carrying out one or more of the soil-building practices numbered 21, 22, 23, 31, 32, and 33 covered by such application which he has carried out before July 1, 1937, on land of the type described in paragraph (a), section 108. Such payment shall be 85 percent of the amount computed at the respective rate fixed in the statement of the soil-building practices. Only one such preliminary application may be submitted respecting any particular farm. The amount of such payment will be deducted from the total amount computed as due such producer under the complete and final application made by him on Form SR-109 for payment under the provisions of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program, which application shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Bulletin 101, and under such application the appropriate deduction shall be made for administrative expenses in connection with the producer's preliminary application.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of June, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF LACLEDE POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission by Laclede Power & Light Company, a subsidiary of Utilities Power & Light Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 10 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of the acquisition by applicant of voting trust certificates from Utilities Power & Light Corporation issued by Morris E. Feiwell, Emanuel M. Goodman and Edward P. Allen, voting trustees, for 233,112 shares of common stock of Granite City Generating Company, pursuant to the Second Amended Plan of Reorganization of St. Louis Gas & Coke Corporation.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on June 28, 1937, at 9:30 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 915, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

It is further ordered that Charles S. Lobingier, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SKELLY-METROPOLITAN LIFE TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 16, 1937, BY LOUIS BERNSTEIN, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that in Division II, Item 10, the names of the persons by whom the taxes mentioned in this item are assessed, are omitted;

(2) In that the figures set forth in Division II, Items 20 (d) and (e), are not believed to be correct;

(3) In that on the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A", some of the wells surrounding the tract involved are not identified by name nor number;

(4) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted from the amounts set forth;

(5) In that the second signature form required to be included as a part of the offering sheet is omitted;

(6) In that the estimation of recoverable oil contained in Division III of the offering sheet is incomplete in the following respects:

(a) the engineer fails to show that this lease is comparable to the average lease in the Hendricks as to structural position;

(b) the engineer fails to show why he considers that the 600 ft. contour on top of the white line marks the limit of commercial production;

(c) the engineer fails to submit reasonable evidence that the area of commercial production will extend over three-fourths the area of the lease in question;

(7) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance required to be attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete by reason of the fact that the legal description of the tract involved and the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed, are omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SHELL-SANGER TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 16, 1937, BY PARK T. GRIMES, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the offering sheet, as filed, is not in the form prescribed by Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, which Rule became effective June 1, 1937;

(2) In that the statement, "Of importance in this Pool was the recent discovery of the Wilcox Sand, first called Burgen Sand, at the Moore Atkins #3", in Division II, Item 13, is misleading for the reason that the extent of the Wilcox productive area has been fully defined and it is known definitely that it does not underlie the tract involved; nor is the statement, "recent discovery of the Wilcox," believed to be correct by virtue of the fact that the Wilcox was discovered September 11, 1935;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE OPENING OF DRAWBRIDGES ACROSS NAVIGABLE STREAMS FLOWING INTO RARITAN BAY (EXCEPT RARITAN RIVER AND ARTHUR KILL), THE SHREWSBURY RIVER AND ITS TRIBUTARIES, AND ALL INLETS ON THE ATLANTIC OCEAN INCLUDING THEIR TRIBUTARIES AND CANALS BETWEEN SANDY HOOK AND BAYHEAD, NEW JERSEY

THE LAW

The River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894, contains the following section:

SEC. 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating, and tending the drawbridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public interests require to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall willfully fail or refuse to open, or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall unreasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than two thousand dollars nor less than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That the proper action to enforce the provisions of this section may be commenced before any commissioner, judge, or court of the United States, and such commissioner, judge or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States: Provided further, That whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the public interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

THE REGULATIONS

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following regulations are prescribed to govern the opening of drawbridges across navigable streams flowing into Raritan Bay (except Raritan River and Arthur Kill), the Shrewsbury River and its tributaries, and all inlets on the Atlantic Ocean including their tributaries and canals between Sandy Hook and Bayhead, New Jersey.

1. The owners of, or agencies controlling, drawbridges shall provide the appliances and the personnel necessary for the safe, prompt and efficient operation of the draws.

2. Drawbridges shall be opened promptly for the passage of any vessel or other water craft unable to pass under the closed spans, except as hereinafter provided.

3. Signals—Call Signals for Opening of Draw.—

Sound Signal: Three distinct blasts of a whistle, horn or megaphone, or 3 loud and distinct strokes of a bell, sounded within a reasonable hearing distance of the bridge.

Visual Signal: To be used in conjunction with sound signals when conditions are such that sound signals cannot be heard.

A white flag by day, a white light by night, swung in full circles at arm's length in full sight of the bridges and facing the draw.

Acknowledging Signals—By bridge operator.—

Sound Signals: Draw to be opened immediately: Same as call signal.

Draw cannot be opened immediately, or, if open, must be closed immediately: 2 long distinct blasts of a whistle, horn or megaphone, or 2 loud and distinct strokes of a bell, to be repeated at regular intervals until acknowledged by the vessel.

Visual Signals: To be used in conjunction with sound signals when conditions are such that sound signals cannot be heard.

Draw to be opened immediately: A white flag by day or a green light at night swung up and down vertically a number of times in full sight of the vessel.

Draw cannot be opened immediately, or, if open, must be closed immediately: A red flag by day, a red light by night, swung to and fro horizontally in full sight of the vessel, to be repeated until acknowledged by the vessel.

By the vessel.—Vessels or other water craft having signaled for the opening of the draw and having received a signal that the draw cannot be opened immediately, or if open must be closed immediately, shall acknowledge said signal by one long blast followed by a short blast, or by swinging to and fro horizontally a red flag by day and a red light by night.

4. Trains, automobiles, trucks, and other vehicles, vessels or other water craft shall not be stopped or manipulated in a manner hindering or delaying the operation of these drawbridges, but all passage over draw spans or through draw openings shall be so as to expedite both land and water traffic.

5. The owners of, or agencies controlling, these bridges shall provide and keep in good legible condition two board gauges painted white, with black figures not less than 8 inches high, to indicate the headroom clearance under the closed draw span at all stages of the tide. The gauges shall be so placed on the bridge that they will be plainly visible to the operator of the vessel approaching the bridge either up or downstream.

6. These drawbridges shall not be required to open for craft carrying appurtenances unessential for navigation which extend above the normal superstructure. Military masts shall be considered as part of the normal superstructure.

Upon request, the district engineer in charge of the locality will cause inspection to be made of the superstructure and appurtenances of any craft habitually frequenting those waterways, with a view to adjusting any differences of opinion in this matter between the vessel owner and the bridge owner.

7. Copies of these regulations shall be conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridges in such manner that it can be easily read at any time.

8. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof.

9. The regulations to govern the operation of the Ocean Avenue bridge across the mouth of the Shark River between Belmar and Avon-by-the-Sea, and to govern the operation of drawbridges across Manasquan River, its navigable tributaries and the Bayhead-Manasquan Canal, New Jersey, prescribed under dates of March 29, 1933, and January 18, 1937, respectively, and all parts of the regulations to govern the opening of drawbridges across Raritan Bay, Arthur Kill, and their navigable tributaries, and Shrewsbury River, prescribed August 19, 1905, in conflict with these regulations are hereby revoked.

Approved, June 11, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 8]

AN ORDER DIRECTING ALL DISTRICT BOARDS TO PROPOSE STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION OF COALS AS TO KINDS, QUALITIES AND SIZES PRODUCED IN SAID DISTRICTS AND STANDARD METHODS AND RULES OF MAKING AND APPLYING SUCH CLASSIFICATIONS AND DIRECTING SAID DISTRICT BOARDS TO FILE THE SAME WITH THE NATIONAL BITUMINOUS COAL COMMISSION AT ITS OFFICE IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, D. C., SUBJECT TO REVIEW, MODIFICATION AND FINAL DETERMINATION THEREOF BY THE COMMISSION; AND ORDERING A PUBLIC HEARING FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMINING AND FIXING SUCH STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION, METHODS AND RULES, FIXING THE TIME AND PLACE OF SUCH HEARING AND PRESCRIBING THE NOTICE TO BE GIVEN THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong. 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and the Bituminous Coal Code promulgated under authority of said Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission is directed to prescribe for code members minimum prices and marketing rules and regulations.

In order to comply with said directions, it is requisite that there be established standards of classification of coal as to kinds, qualities and sizes produced in the several districts, and standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications.

Pursuant to the authority of said Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders that:

1. All District Boards of the several districts created by said Act are hereby directed to propose standards of classification of coal as to kinds, qualities and sizes produced in said districts and standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications and to file the same with the National Bituminous Coal Commission at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on or before the 7th day of July, 1937, the same to be considered and reviewed by said National Bituminous Coal Commission in a hearing hereinafter provided.

2. It is hereby further ordered by the National Bituminous Coal Commission that a public hearing be held on the 8th day of July, 1937, commencing at the hour of 10:00 A. M. in a hearing room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., to determine and establish standards of classification of coal as to kinds, qualities and sizes produced in the several districts and standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications. At said hearing Consumers' Counsel, code members and all other interested parties may appear and be heard before the Commission. Thereafter, the Commission shall, by appropriate order, fix and establish standards of classification of coal as to kinds, qualities and sizes produced in the several districts and standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications as determined at said hearing.

Notice of said hearing shall be given under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission by mailing copies of this order to Consumers' Counsel and to the Secretaries or Acting Secretaries of the respective districts, and by publication of notice upon three consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of said districts. The notice published in said newspaper shall contain the date and place of the hearing and a concise statement of the subject matter of the hearing.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 24th day of June, 1937.

[Order No. 9]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO RECEIVE EVIDENCE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ENABLING THE COMMISSION TO DETERMINE THE PERSONS REFERRED TO IN SECTION 4, PART II (H) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937 AS "DISTRIBUTORS"; TO DETERMINE FARMERS' COOPERATIVE ORGANIZATIONS ENTITLED TO RECEIVE DISCOUNTS UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SUBSECTION (I) 13 OF PART II OF SECTION 4 OF SAID ACT; TO DETERMINE DUE AND REASONABLE MAXIMUM DISCOUNTS OR PRICE ALLOWANCES BY CODE MEMBERS TO PERSONS ENTITLED THERETO UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT; AND TO DETERMINE AND PRESCRIBE REASONABLE RULES AND REGULATIONS GOVERNING "DISTRIBUTORS" ENTITLED TO DISCOUNTS UNDER SAID ACT SO AS TO REQUIRE THE MAINTENANCE AND OBSERVANCE BY SUCH PERSONS, IN THE RESALE OF COAL SUBJECT TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE ACT, OF THE PRICES AND MARKETING RULES AND REGULATIONS ESTABLISHED BY THE COMMISSION

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders and directs as follows:

1. Section 4 of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 provides that producers accepting membership in the Code as provided in section 5 (a) shall be, and are herein referred to as code members, and that the provisions of such Code shall apply only to such code members except as otherwise provided by subsection (h) of Part II of said section.

Section 4, subsection (h) of part II provides:

The Commission shall by order, prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to persons (whether or not code members), herein referred to as "distributors", who purchase coal for resale and resell it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots; and shall require the maintenance and observance by such persons, in the resale of such coal, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations established under this section.

Section 4, subsection (i) 13 provides:

It shall not be an unfair method of competition or a violation of the code or any requirement of this Act (1) to sell to or through any bona-fide and legitimate farmers' cooperative organization duly organized under the laws of any State, Territory, the District of Columbia, or the United States whether or not such organization grants rebates, discounts, patronage dividends, or other similar benefits to its members; (2) to sell through any intervening agency to any such cooperative organization; or (3) to pay or allow to any such cooperative organization or to any such intervening agency any discount, commission, rebate, or dividend ordinarily paid or allowed, or permitted by the code to be paid or allowed, to other purchasers for purchases in wholesale or middleman quantities.

2. Pursuant to the authority of said Act, the Commission orders that a hearing be held on the 19th day of July, 1937, commencing at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., in a hearing room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., to receive evidence for the purpose of:

(a) Enabling the Commission to determine the persons (whether or not code members), referred to in section 4, part II (h) of said Act as "distributors", who purchase coal for resale and resell it in not less than cargo or railroad carload lots;

(b) Enabling the Commission to determine the farmers' cooperative organizations which are entitled to receive discounts under the provisions of subsection (i) 13 of part II of section 4 of said Act;

(c) Enabling the Commission to determine and prescribe due and reasonable maximum discounts or price allowances that may be made by code members to persons entitled thereto under the provisions of said Act; and

(d) Enabling the Commission to prescribe reasonable rules and regulations governing "distributors" entitled to discounts under said Act so as to require the maintenance and observance by such persons, in the resale of coal subject to the jurisdiction of the Act, of the prices and marketing rules and regulations established by the Commission.

3. Notice of the time, place and purpose of said hearing shall be given by the Secretary of the Commission by publishing in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the districts created under the Act a copy of this order on three (3) successive days, and by mailing to the Secretary or Acting Secretary of each District Board and to each known code member in all of said districts a copy of this order.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 24th day of June, 1937.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

[Docket No. A-51 O-51]

NOTICE OF HEARING WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSAL TO AMEND ORDER NO. 4 REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK IN GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA, AND WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSAL TO AMEND MARKETING AGREEMENT TENTATIVELY APPROVED JANUARY 18, 1936

Whereas, under section 8 c of Title I of Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter called the Secretary, issued an order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, effective 12:01 a. m., eastern standard time, February 9, 1936; and

Whereas, the Secretary tentatively approved a marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area on January 18, 1936; and

Whereas, the Secretary has reason to believe that an amendment should be made to said order and said marketing agreement; and

Whereas, under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and further amends Public No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, notice of hearing is required in connection with a proposal to amend an order, and the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, provide for notice and opportunity for hearing upon marketing agreements and orders:

Now, therefore, pursuant to the said acts and the General Regulations, notice is hereby given of a hearing to be held on a proposal to amend the order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area and the tentatively approved marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, in the Armory, St. Johnsbury, Vermont, on June 30, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., eastern standard time; the Gardner Auditorium, State House, Boston, Massachusetts, on July 1, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., daylight saving time; and the House of Representatives, State House, Augusta, Maine, July 2, 1937, at 9:30 a. m., eastern standard time.

This public hearing is for the purpose of receiving evidence as to the necessity for (1) revising the minimum prices set forth in said order and said marketing agreement, (2) deleting from said order and said marketing agreement the base rating provisions, and (3) amending any other provisions in, or adding any other provisions to, said order and said marketing agreement.

Copies of the proposal to amend the order and the marketing agreement may be inspected in or procured from the office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 0318, South Building, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

[Docket No. A-50 O-50]

ORDER CANCELLING HEARINGS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, issued, on June 19, 1937, a notice of hearings with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, Marketing Area, to be held at the following places on the dates set forth herein opposite such respective places:

St. Johnsbury, Vermont, June 29, 1937
Augusta, Maine, June 30, 1937
Boston, Massachusetts, July 1, 1937

and

Whereas, it is deemed necessary and advisable to cancel such hearings;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered that the hearings hereinabove set forth be cancelled and it is further ordered that the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, take appropriate steps to inform interested parties of such cancellation in accordance with the manner prescribed by the General Regulations, Series A, No. 1, as amended, of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, for giving notice of hearings with respect to the issuance of marketing agreements and orders.

In witness whereof, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, does hereby execute this order in duplicate and does cause the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed hereto in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 24th day of June, 1937.

ORDER TERMINATING THE ORDER SUSPENDING ORDER NO. 4 REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE GREATER BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, MARKETING AREA

Whereas, H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under the provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, executed an order on August 1, 1936, suspending Order No. 4, regulating the handling of milk in the Greater Boston, Massachusetts, marketing area; and

Whereas, the Secretary of Agriculture has determined to terminate said order of suspension;

Now, therefore, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, acting under the authority vested in him by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and further amends Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, hereby terminates, effective as of 12:01 a. m., daylight saving time, July 1, 1937, the suspension of Article 1, Article 2, Article 3, Article 5, Article 6—section 1, Article 12, Article 13, Article 14, Article 15, and Article 16 of said Order No. 4, and hereby terminates, effective as of 12:01 a. m., daylight saving time, August 1, 1937, the suspension of the remaining provisions of said Order No. 4, and the entire Order No. 4 is hereby declared to be effective on and after the last mentioned date.

In witness whereof, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, has executed this termination of suspension of said order as aforesaid and has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 25th day of June 1937.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of June, A. D. 1937.

[File No. 32-67]

IN THE MATTER OF THE NARRAGANSETT ELECTRIC COMPANY

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by The Narragansett Electric Company pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by the applicant of 40,000 shares of capital stock (par value of $50 per share) of the aggregate par value of $2,000,000, it being stated in said application that such issue and sale are solely for the purpose of financing the business of the applicant, that the proceeds of such issue will be used for the purpose of capitalizing and reimbursing the applicant's treasury for expenditures made by the applicant for capital assets as to which no stock or capital obligations have been issued, and that such issue and sale have been expressly authorized by the Division of Public Utilities of the State of Rhode Island, the State in which the applicant is organized and doing business.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 14, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1101, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 8, 1937.

It is further ordered that Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that in Division II, Item 10, the names of the persons by whom the taxes are assessed, are omitted; nor are the amounts of the Federal tax and excise tax given;

(2) In that a portion of the text in Division II, Item 17 (c), is omitted, as is also the information required to be given relative to the percentage of production allowed the tract involved;

(3) In that the depth of well #5 as set forth in Division II, Items 19 (c) and (e), does not agree with the depth of same well as shown by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the information given in Division II, Item 20 (b), relative to the percentage of water in fluid produced from the tract involved is not believed to be correct;

(5) In that one of the signature forms included as a part of the offering sheet does not appear to be properly included;

(6) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete for the reason that the smallest interest to be conveyed is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that from the information disclosed by Division II, Items 7 (a) and (b), it appears that the person filing the offering sheet intends to offer for sale interests in excess of those owned by such person upon the date of the execution of said offering sheet;

(2) In that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed as set forth in Exhibit B is not believed to be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the Rules and Regulations and the form of offering sheet prescribed by the Commission as "Schedule A", require that the percentage of water in fluid produced from the tract involved be stated by months in Division II, Item 20 (b), whereas such information as is given for the months of March, April and May, 1937, is set forth in a footnote following said item;

(2) In that the smallest interest to be conveyed as set forth in the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is not believed to be correct and does not agree with like information contained in Division II, Item 1, of the offering sheet;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promply given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 24th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PHILLIPS "L" GENERAL COMMUNITY TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 17, 1937, BY T. G. WYLIE & CO., INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340(A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest offered as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not stated in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 10, the names of the persons by whom the taxes mentioned in said item are assessed, are omitted; as are also the times of payment of said taxes;

(3) In that the information contained in Division II, Item 13, is inaccurate and incomplete for the reason that the date upon which the discovery well was "plugged back" and the number of producing wells in the Oklahoma City field are not believed to be correctly stated; nor is the number of drilling wells, which information is required to be stated in this item, given;

(4) In that the second signature form which is required to be included in the offering sheet is omitted;

(5) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete for the reason that the smallest interest proposed to be conveyed is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promply given by the Commission.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

SPECIALLY DENATURED ALCOHOL FORMULA NO. 23-G

To District Supervisors, Chemists in Charge, Authorized Chemists, and Others Concerned:

Treasury Decision 4541, approved April 17, 1935, as amended by Treasury Decision 4555, approved May 24, 1935, is hereby modified to read as follows:

Pursuant to authority conferred by the Act of June 7, 1906 (U. S. C., 1934 Ed., Title 26, Sec. 1320), and Title III of the National Prohibition Act, specially denatured alcohol Formula No. 23-G must be compounded on and after September 1, 1937 as follows:

To every 100 gallons of ethyl alcohol add
3.5 gallons of methyl propyl ketone
0.5 gallon of methyl isobutyl ketone

SPECIFICATIONS FOR METHYL PROPYL KETONE

Purity.—Consists of at least 97 per cent of ketones.
Specific Gravity 20/20° C.—0.807 to 0.811.
Color.—Water-white.
Water.—Miscible without turbidity with 19 volumes of 60° Be. Gasoline at 20° C.
Acidity (Free acid as acetic acid).—Less than 0.003 per cent.
Distillation Range (According to A. S. T. M. Specifications D268-33).—More than 90 per cent distills over between 100° and 103° C.
Non-volatile matter.—Less than 0.005 per cent.

SPECIFICATIONS FOR METHYL ISOBUTYL KETONE

Specific Gravity 20/20° C.—0.799 to 0.804.
Color.—Water-white.
Acidity.—Not more than 0.02 per cent as acetic acid.
Boiling Range (760 mm.).—None should come over below 111° C. or none above 117° C. when distilled by the A. S. T. M., method D 268-33.

On and after September 1, 1937 all rubbing alcohol compounds or preparations coming under the general classifications of rubbing alcohols must be manufactured with specially denatured alcohol Formula No. 23-G as revised herein, and they must contain 70 percent absolute ethyl alcohol by volume, or as near 70 per cent as is practicable to be obtained by the ordinary commercial methods used for compounding alcohol preparations. In order that the finished products shall contain 70 per cent absolute ethyl alcohol by volume, the manufacturer should use 98.1 fluid ounces of specially denatured alcohol Formula No. 23-G to which must be added ½ ounce of sucrose octa acetate, and then made up to 1 gallon with water.

STANDARD FORMULA FOR RUBBING ALCOHOL COMPOUNDS

| Specially Denatured Alcohol Formula No. 23-G | 98.1 fluid ounces. |
|---|---|
| Sucrose Octa Acetate | ½ avoirdupois ounce. |
| Water q. s. | 1 gallon. |

The manufacturer of rubbing alcohol compounds may also add to the standard formula such other odorous constituents or medicaments as is desired, provided they are shown in the formula submitted for approval and that the finished product contains 70 percent absolute alcohol by volume.

The supervisor will notify all permittees in his district manufacturing rubbing alcohol compounds to submit revised formulae and labels for their rubbing alcohol compounds to him on Form 1479-A, in quadruplicate, complying with the requirements set forth herein. The supervisor will examine the formulae and labels submitted by the permittee, and if they comply with the provisions of this Treasury Decision, he will note his approval on each copy of Form 1479-A. After approval, one copy will be returned to the permittee, one copy furnished the chemist in charge, one copy retained in the supervisor's office, and the remaining copy forwarded to the Commissioner. If the formulae or labels are disapproved, all copies of Form 1479-A will be returned to the permittee with a statement of the reason for the disapproval.

Effective July 1, 1935 the second paragraph of Article 146 of Regulations #3 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Any product manufactured with specially denatured alcohol Formula No. 23-G under permit issued pursuant to these regulations and labeled and sold as a rubbing alcohol compound must be put up and sold by the manufacturer thereof in containers or packages in which it is to be delivered to the ultimate consumer. Such containers or packages shall not exceed one pint in capacity, and must be labeled to show name and address of the manufacturer. Where rubbing alcohol compounds are manufactured and bottled under the name of a dealer for resale to the legitimate trade, the manufacturer must place his name and address or his permit number on the labels of the containers in type of sufficient size to be clearly legible. No misleading statement will be permitted on labels which would give the impression that the product is pure alcohol, and a product which is not marketed under a trade name must be labeled RUBBING ALCOHOL COMPOUND, in type of the same size and color. A caution notice must also be placed on each label to the effect that the preparation is for external use only and is medicated so that if taken internally serious gastric disturbance will result. Labels or facsimiles thereof must be submitted for approval before use. The sales of this product must be confined to persons legitimately engaged in a bona fide drug trade, or to hospitals, sanitariums, turkish baths or other establishments or stores where such compounds have customarily been sold, or used for massage or other external purposes. Failure to comply with these requirements and to confine sales to such persons, or the making of sales to such persons in quantities in excess of their reasonable requirements will constitute bad faith on the part of the permittee and grounds for the revocation of his permit.

RESTAMPING PACKAGES OF DISTILLED SPIRITS, TOBACCO, CIGARS, SNUFF, CIGARETTES, FERMENTED MALT LIQUORS, OLEOMARGARINE, AND WINES.

To Collectors of Internal Revenue, District Supervisors and Other Officers and Employees of the Bureau of Internal Revenue Concerned:

1. Section 3315, Revised Statutes, as amended, (U. S. C. 1934 ed., Title 26, Secs. 803 (b), 812 (b), 1152 (b), 1300 (b), and 1332 (d)) provides that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may, under regulations prescribed by him with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, issue stamps for restamping packages of tobacco, snuff, cigarettes, cigars, distilled spirits, wines, and fermented liquors, which have been duly stamped, but from which the stamps have been lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident.

2. Section 8 of the Act of August 2, 1886, as amended, (U. S. C. 1934 ed., Title 26, Secs. 982–983) provides with respect to oleomargarine stamps that "the provisions of existing law governing the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, are hereby made to apply to stamps provided for by this section."

3. The following regulations are prescribed in conformity with the provisions of law above cited:

APPLICATIONS FOR RESTAMPING

4. Applications for restamping should be made in writing to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the packages to be restamped are situated. With respect to containers of distilled spirits required to bear strip stamps by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 (Title 26, Sec. 1152 (c), U. S. C. 1934 ed.) the procedure outlined in Paragraphs 11, 12, and 13 hereof should be observed. The applicants should state in detail the number of packages, description of the contents, where the packages are located, the kind and denomination of the stamps lost or destroyed, and the nature of the applicant's interest in the property.

5. If the stamps were lost or destroyed in transit, the application should be accompanied by an affidavit of the consignor that the packages were properly stamped when shipped and, if possible, the affidavit of some one having knowledge of the facts attending their loss or distruction en route.

6. In the event the stamps were lost or destroyed either before or after shipment and while in the possession of the applicant, the application should be accompanied by an affidavit of the applicant or some one in his employ stating that the packages were once duly stamped or properly stamped when received, as the case may be, and detailing all the circumstances connected with the destruction of the stamps.

INSPECTION

7. When an application is received, the Collector will examine it and the supporting affidavits for the purpose of determining whether all of the papers have been correctly prepared. If so, the Collector will order an immediate inspection of the packages by one of his deputy collectors, who will make a written report to the Collector of the number of packages which need restamping, the condition and contents of each, and the kind of stamps or fragments of stamps still attached thereto.

8. In the case of spirits in barrels, the inspection should be made by a storekeeper-gauger, if possible, or by some other representative of the District Supervisor's office. A full report of regauge on the prescribed gauging form and a statement of the marks and brands found upon the bung stave and stamp head of the packages must be made.

9. If this inspection cannot be made without substantial expense to the Government, the Collector will, before expenses are incurred, forward to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for consideration the application and accompanying papers as well as an estimate of the cost of completing the examination.

ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

10. In the following cases where stamps for spirits and wine have been lost or destroyed, Collectors of Internal Revenue will procure and forward to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue with the application, report of inspection, and report of regauge, additional evidence as follows, according to the nature of the case:

(a) For tax-paid spirits in original packages: Certified copy of the report on the prescribed gauging form showing the contents of the packages at the time they were gauged for tax payment. Certificate of the Collector in whose district the missing or mutilated stamps were purchased, which should contain all of the information shown on the stubs from which the original stamps were detached.

(b) For rectified spirits in bulk packages: Certified copy of the rectifier's "Notice of Completion of Rectification and Return of rectified Spirits, Wines, or other Liquors Gauged, Marked, and Stamped." Certificate of the Collector in whose district the missing or mutilated stamps were purchased, which should contain all of the information shown on the stubs from which the original stamps were detached.

(c) For export spirits in bulk packages: Certified copy of the prescribed gauging form showing the contents of the packages at the time they were gauged for withdrawal and exportation. This certificate should contain all of the information shown on the stubs from which the original stamps were detached.

(d) For wholesale liquor dealer's packages of spirits: Certified copy of the application for the stamps on the prescribed form.

(e) For wine: Affidavit from the taxpayer showing the contents of the cases or packages when stamped, value of stamps affixed to the cases or packages, taxable grade of wine, serial numbers of the cases or packages, and date on which the stamps were affixed to the packages.

(f) For rectified products required to bear wine stamps: Affidavit of the taxpayer and a certified copy of the prescribed form showing the serial numbers and the contents of the cases or packages when stamped, value of stamps affixed to the cases or packages, and the date of affixing.

APPLICATIONS FOR RESTAMPING BOTTLES REQUIRED TO BEAR STAMPS BY THE LIQUOR TAXING ACT OF 1934

11. Applications under oath for restamping containers of distilled spirits required to be stamped by the Liquor Taxing Act of 1934 (Title 26, Sec. 1152 (c), U. S. C. 1934 ed.), from which the original strip stamps have been lost or destroyed, shall be made to the local Collector of Internal Revenue. The applicant in every case will state the cause of the loss or destruction of the original stamps, and submit evidence that the spirits have been tax-paid. Such evidence may consist of the invoices covering the purchase of the spirits, in addition to other available documents. Where the stamps, which it is claimed have been destroyed, or any portion thereof, have become detached from the containers and recovered, they shall be submitted with the application.

12. Each application for new stamps, without cost, to replace those which have been lost or destroyed by unavoidable accident, shall be executed in duplicate and addressed to the local Collector of Internal Revenue. It will be forwarded to the Collector through the office of the appropriate District Supervisor. If the evidence presented shows conclusively that the tax on the spirits has been paid and if the loss or destruction of the strip stamps has been satisfactorily explained, the District Supervisor will approve the application and forward the original copy, together with supporting papers, to the local Collector of Internal Revenue. The duplicate copy of the application shall be retained by the District Supervisor for record purposes. The Collector will transmit the application and accompanying evidence to the Bureau for consideration as required by Paragraph 19 hereof. If the Bureau approves the application, an appropriate authorization on Form 7706 will be mailed to the Collector to cover the issuance of the duplicate strip stamps. Such stamps will then be sent to the District Supervisor, who, after making suitable notations on the duplicate copy of the application filed in his office, will deliver the stamps to the applicant, either by mail or by a representative of his office, together with instructions in regard to marking and affixing them to the containers.

13. If in connection with any application for duplicate strip stamps to be affixed to containers of distilled spirits, the District Supervisor has doubt, from the evidence submitted, as to whether the tax on the spirits has been paid or if the loss or destruction of the strip stamps has not been satisfactorily explained, he will cause the necessary investigation to be made before approving and forwarding such application to the Collector.

FERMENTED MALT LIQUORS

14. With respect to fermented malt liquors, upon receipt of an application, supported by an affidavit of tax payment and loss of stamps, and after report of inspection by a deputy collector, the Collector may, if the evidence is satisfactory, issue the stamps necessary to replace those lost or destroyed without securing formal authorization so to do from the Bureau. Such stamps will be affixed to containers under the direct supervision of a deputy collector. These reports by deputy collectors are required in all cases of applications for restamping packages, except where an officer working under the jurisdiction of the District Supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit discovers an unstamped package. The Collector may act upon the report and recommendation of such officer without requiring a further investigation by a deputy collector. The Collector should transmit all the papers in each case, including a signed report on Form 7706–A in duplicate, to the Bureau with his monthly stamp report, in order that credit may be allowed in his stamp account.

FAILURE TO MAKE VOLUNTARY APPLICATION FOR RESTAMPING CONTAINERS OF LIQUORS

15. Where an unstamped container of distilled spirits, fermented malt liquor, or wine, from which the original stamp has been lost or destroyed, is discovered and it is ascertained that no application for the restamping thereof has been made, such container will be detained pending appropriate action. If, upon investigation, it develops that the container has been tax-paid, the officer who made the discovery shall secure an affidavit from the proper party, setting forth the reason for the loss or destruction of the stamp, as well as documentary evidence, if any, in support thereof. He shall then require the party involved to execute a suitable restamping application to be submitted through the office of the District Supervisor to the local Collector of Internal Revenue, accompanied by a statement of the facts and the officer's recommendation. Such officer will inform the possessor of the unstamped container of liquor that it is his privilege to submit an offer in compromise. In the event a suitable offer in compromise is tendered, the procedure shall thereafter conform with the procedure governing cases in which an application for restamping was made without the intervention of a Government officer. When received, the stamp may be issued and affixed, and the container of liquor may be released from detention without awaiting action on the offer in compromise. Where no offer in compromise is submitted, the container of liquor shall be seized for forfeiture.

REPACKING CONTENTS OF PACKAGES OF TOBACCO, CIGARS, SNUFF, CIGARETTES AND OLEOMARGARINE

16. Where packages of tobacco, cigars, snuff, cigarettes, or oleomargarine are found to be in such condition that they require repacking before new stamps can be attached, the deputy collector will in such cases include in his report of inspection the exact number, denomination, and class of stamps to be used.

17. If the Collector is satisfied that the packages were once duly stamped and there appears to be no evidence of fraud, he will authorize their immediate repacking in new packages not before used for that purpose and of a size to contain a statutory quantity or number of articles, under the supervision of a deputy collector. The packages will then be held until the Collector is authorized to issue the required stamps, which must be attached to the packages under the supervision of a deputy collector.

18. The work of repacking and restamping these packages must not be done within the factory premises of any manufacturer of articles subject to internal revenue taxes.

ISSUANCE OF STAMPS

19. With the exception of applications for the restamping of containers of fermented malt liquors, as set forth in Paragraph 14 hereof, the Collector will forward all applications, together with supporting evidence, to the Accounts and Collections Unit of the Bureau for consideration and an appropriate authorization on Form 7706, prior to issuing any duplicate stamps.

CREDIT FOR STAMPS ISSUED

20. The issuance of all stamps under these regulations should be reflected in the appropriate monthly record of stamps received, issued, etc., in column headed "Issued by Order of the Commissioner", and credit for the stamps should be taken on the proper line of the Collector's monthly stamp report.

21. In every case, the Collector should obtain a receipt from the party receiving duplicate stamps and transmit such receipt to the Bureau with his stamp report for the month in which the stamps were issued.

22. The regulations herein promulgated supersede those contained in Treasury Decisions 1869 and 4580 dated, respectively, August 5, 1913, and August 20, 1935.

SALE OF ETHYL ACETATE AND LACQUER THINNERS

To District Supervisors and Others Concerned:

Paragraph (6), of Section 2, Title I, of the "Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act," reads as follows:

(6) The term "regulation" shall mean any regulation prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury for carrying out the provisions of this title or of Title III of the National Prohibition Act, and the Commissioner is authorized to make such regulations.

Pursuant to authority conferred by the statute above quoted, the last paragraph of Article 136, Regulations 3, is hereby revoked and the following substituted in lieu therof:

Ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners may be sold by producers thereof to (1) legitimate users for solvent or other manufacturing purposes, and (2) reputable dealers engaged in a bona fide paint or chemical trade for resale in manufacturers' original packages to legitimate users and retailers.

Sales by producers to dealers shall be in containers of a capacity of not more than 55 gallons, and shall not exceed a total of 550 gallons to any dealer during any calendar month. Sales by dealers shall not exceed 550 gallons during a calendar month and not more than 55 gallons shall be sold to a customer at any one time: Provided, that such sales to dealers and by dealers may exceed the above maximum sales limitations of 550 gallons, and 550 gallons and 55 gallons, respectively, upon the production of evidence satisfactory to the District Supervisor that there is need for ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners by such dealers and their customers in greater quantities to supply their legitimate needs.

Producers and dealers will be responsible for delivery of the product direct to their customers and must satisfy themselves that the purchaser is engaged in a lawful business and that the quantity purchased is intended for legitimate purposes.

Containers of ethyl acetate and lacquer thinners, irrespective of size, must have marked thereon the name of the product, the quantity, and the name and address of the producer, or in lieu thereof, the name and address of the dealer and the permit number and state of the producer.

Producers of ethyl acetate shall continue to file daily reports of shipments of ethyl acetate.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

Division of Grazing.

WITHDRAWAL FOR PROPOSED MONTANA GRAZING DISTRICT NO. 5 VACATED IN PART

JUNE 18, 1937.

Under authority of Departmental order of July 6, 1936, pursuant to section 1 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat.

1269), as amended by the act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976), notice was published on July 16, 1936, that a hearing would be held at Dillon, Montana, on August 12, 1936, or at any place or time to which said hearing might be adjourned for the purpose of considering the establishment of Grazing District No. 5 to include the following lands:

MONTANA

Counties of Beaverhead, Madison,
Silver Bow, and Jefferson.

The publication of such notice had the effect, in accordance with the provisions of aforesaid act of withdrawing all public lands within the entire boundaries of the proposed district from all forms of entry and settlement.

It has been determined that the public lands within the area proposed for withdrawal are not appropriate for administration in a grazing district under the Taylor Grazing Act except those lands which are included in Montana Grazing District No. 5, established November 3, 1936, as modified. The withdrawal, therefore, is hereby vacated except as to those lands in the grazing district.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 10]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR ASSESSMENTS BY DISTRICT BOARDS ON CODE MEMBERS AND SUBMISSION OF BUDGETS BY DISTRICT BOARDS

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. Each district board, immediately following the confirmation by the Commission of the election of such district board, shall assess and levy an initial assessment upon all the code members subject to its jurisdiction as provided in said Act.

Such initial assessment shall be in an amount approximating the expense of administering the code by the respective district boards during the period ending August 31, 1937, as estimated by the district boards, and may include necessary expenditures for the rental of quarters for the use of the district board, purchase of office machinery, equipment and supplies, salaries of employees and all other reasonable expenses incidental to the organization of the district board, and the operation thereof during such period.

Such initial assessment shall be computed and apportioned on a basis of the tonnage of each code member for the calendar year 1936, as established pursuant to part I, subsection (a) of section 4 of said Act and shall be assessed and collected pursuant to the provisions of part I, subsection (b) of said section 4, provided that in no event shall the minimum initial assessment levied upon any code member be less than the amount of five ($5.00) dollars.

2. An initial assessment in like amount per ton and on the same basis as provided in paragraph one (1) of this order shall be levied by the district board upon any producer whose acceptance of the code is filed subsequent to the date of the assessment herein authorized and directed.

3. The assessments provided for under this order shall be paid by the code members subject thereto on or before a date specified by the district board, but in no event shall such assessment be required to be paid in less than fifteen (15) days from the date of such assessment and levy.

4. Within fifteen (15) days following the assessment and levying of the initial assessment herein authorized and directed, each district board shall make a report to the Commission of its action, setting forth the amount of such levy, the per ton rate thereof computed upon the code member tonnage against which the levy is apportioned, and a statement of the amounts of various expenditures proposed to be made by the district board from the proceeds of such assessment and levy.

5. At least ten (10) days prior to the date on which a district board proposes to levy any assessment other than the initial assessment, said board shall file such proposed assessment with the Commission for approval.

6. On or before the fifteenth day of each month each district board shall file with the Commission a statement of the total amount of cash collected during the preceding calendar month, together with a separate statement of account showing expenses incurred and expenditures made by the district board during said period on account of each of the items set forth in the budget approved by the Commission.

7. On or before August 1, 1937, each district board shall file with the Commission, for approval, disapproval, or modification and approval, a proposed budget of the expense of administering the code by said district board during the twelve-month period beginning September 1, 1937, together with a statement of the proposed method and rate of apportionment of such expense among those subject to its jurisdiction, and the proposals of the board as to the time for levying and collecting assessments to defray such expense.

8. The Secretary of the Commission shall immediately send a copy of this order, together with a copy of the "Suggested Budget Form", and memorandum pertaining thereto, to the secretaries of all district boards.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 24th day of June, 1937.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE AREAS INCLUDED IN THE FLATHEAD, MISSION, AND JOCKO VALLEY IRRIGATION DISTRICTS HAVING CONTRACTS WITH THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR AND ORGANIZED UNDER STATE LAWS ON THE FLATHEAD INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, MONTANA

MAY 27, 1937.

Water Delivery.—For all water delivered to any farm unit, allotment or tract in excess of the duty allowable for that tract, under the minimum charge assessment, there shall be made a charge of 75 cents per acre foot in addition to the minimum charge as fixed by the District levy, and such additional charge shall be added to the minimum advance levy for the following irrigation season; provided further that the maximum charge for water delivered to any farm unit or allotment during the irrigation season shall not exceed an amount equal to two dollars ($2) per acre for the entire irrigable area of the farm unit or allotment.

The United States reserves the right to refuse to deliver water to an irrigation district, in the event of the default by such district or landowner for a period of more than one year in any payment due the United States.

An irrigation district may make such rules and regulations as it may find necessary in regard to the delivery of water to a landowner of the district who is delinquent in payment of any assessment to the district, and such rules and regulations will be enforced by the Project Engineer when it appears to be to the best interests of both the United States and the district to do so.

At any time during the irrigation season when it shall appear, in the judgment of the Project Engineer, that there shall not be sufficient water available to deliver the amount specified in this regulation to the entire irrigable area for which application for delivery of water has been made and approved, then the Project Engineer shall be authorized to reduce such amounts to the extent that there shall, in his judgment, be sufficient water available to make proportionate delivery to each farm unit, allotment or tract; and when any farm unit, allotment or tract shall have had delivered to it the amount so fixed, it shall not be entitled to further delivery of water except when it shall appear that there is a surplus of water available.

Application for Water Service.—No water will be delivered except under an approved application. The irrigation season for this project covers the period from April 15 to October 15 inclusive. To receive full recognition for an irrigation season, application for water service should be filed in the office of the Indian Irrigation Service at St. Ignatius, Montana, sufficiently early so that the same may be approved by the Project Engineer on or before the opening of the irrigation season. Every application accepted by the United States after May 1 shall be approved with the understanding that water will be delivered thereunder for the then current season only after requirements of lands covered by applications previously approved shall have been fully provided for. Applications must describe the entire area which will be irrigated during the season.

The proper officials of the respective Irrigation Districts shall levy a minimum charge assessment against the irrigable area of the individual tracts included in the District, which minimum charge assessment shall result in a sum sufficient to provide for the payment of the assessment against the District. Payment of the assessment so levied shall entitle a water user to the delivery of water without further charge up to 1½ acre feet per acre of irrigable assessable land included in the farm unit, allotment or tract of land, provided that after an agreement has been reached by the Commissioners of the Irrigation District and the Project Engineer as to duty of water on individual tracts where water users claim excess requirements on account of porous or gravelly soils, the Project Engineer shall have authority, pending further orders, to increase the quantity of water to be delivered under the minimum charge levy to such porous or gravelly tracts provided it shall not exceed 4 acre feet of water per acre for the assessable irrigable area of the tract.

Provided further that upon agreement between the Commissioners of the District and the Project Engineer as to duty of water on any individual tracts within the Moiese subdivision of the project, which is supplied entirely through the lower Crow Reservoir, the owners of which tracts claim excessive water requirements because of extremely porous or gravelly soils, the Project Engineer is authorized, pending further orders, to increase the quantity of water to be delivered under the minimum charge levy provided it shall not exceed 6 acre feet per acre of assessable irrigable land; provided further that this special provision regarding tracts within the Moiese subdivision shall be applicable only in the event the water supply available from the stored water supply in the Lower Crow Reservoir is ample to allow such excess use without drawing on the water supply of other portions of the Mission Valley Division of the Flathead Project.

All assessments duly authorized shall be paid on the due date to the properly designated officer of the Indian Irrigation Service at St. Ignatius, Montana, and on all such assessments not paid on the due date the irrigation district shall pay a penalty at the rate of 6 per centum per annum during the period of delinquency.

Any deficit or surplus arising by reason of the costs being more or less than the assessments shall be adjusted in an equitable manner by taking it into account when fixing future assessment rates.

Care of Waste Water.—All applicants for water shall be required to construct and maintain in good order and repair upon their lands such ditches as may be necessary to catch and conduct to some waste canal, ditch, lateral or natural drainage channel any water flowing upon or from such lands. No waste water will be allowed to collect within 20 feet of any canal or lateral belonging to the United States, nor shall any waste ditches be constructed or maintained within 10 feet of any canal or lateral belonging to the United States, except at points of intersection or crossing, which shall be located only by order and under the direction of the proper officer of the United States. No water will be furnished to any applicant during such time as he fails to comply with the provisions of this paragraph.

ORDER PERMITTING THE SHOOTING OF CERTAIN BLACKBIRDS WHEN FOUND SERIOUSLY INJURIOUS TO AGRICULTURAL OR OTHER INTERESTS

Information having been furnished to the Secretary of Agriculture that yellow-headed blackbirds, red-wing blackbirds, bicolored red-wing blackbirds, tricolored red-wing blackbirds, and Brewer's blackbirds, by reason of heavy seasonal concentrations in their respective ranges in the United States, have become seriously injurious to agricultural crops and ornamental or shade trees, and an investigation having been made to determine the nature and extent of the injury and whether the birds should be killed and if so during what times and by what means, and the Secretary having determined that the aforesaid birds, under the conditions stated, have become seriously injurious as aforesaid and that the only practical means of safeguarding such crops and trees from such injury is to shoot the birds under the conditions and restrictions hereinafter prescribed.

By virtue of authority conferred upon the Secretary of Agriculture by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755) as amended by the Act of June 20, 1936 (49 Stat. 1555),

It is ordered that the owner or custodian of any agricultural crop or of ornamental or shade trees is hereby authorized to shoot the aforesaid birds when found committing or about to commit serious depredations upon such crop or trees owned by or in his custody, but not by means of any gun to which a silencer or any other like device has been attached or otherwise affixed, nor from any blind, sink, pit, or any other device or means of concealment, whether natural or artificial.

No birds killed pursuant to this Order shall be shipped or transported or sold or offered for sale except that they may be transported to such place within the vicinity as may be necessary to bury or otherwise destroy their carcasses; Provided, however, that State agricultural departments, colleges, or other public institutions and the United States Department of Agriculture may requisition such numbers of the birds so killed as they may need for scientific investigations.

This Order does not permit the killing of any of the aforesaid birds in violation of any State law or regulation and if a State permit to kill the birds is required such permit must be procured before exercising the privileges conferred by this Order.

Every person availing himself of the privileges of this Order shall at all reasonable times, and particularly during any operations thereunder, permit any Federal or State game or deputy game agent, warden, protector, or other game law enforcement officer free and unrestricted access to the premises on which such operations have been or are being conducted and shall promptly furnish such officer all such information touching his operations as such officer shall require.

On or before January 1 of each year during the continuance of this Order every person who kills any of the aforesaid birds under the authority hereby conferred shall submit to the Chief, Bureau of Biological Survey, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., a report of his operations.

This Order is not effective in California, provision having previously been made for handling such depredations by the County Agricultural Commissions.

FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION.

AMENDMENT TO REGULATIONS OF SEPTEMBER 1, 1936, OF THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATION

The Regulations of the Federal Housing Administration, issued September 1, 1936 are hereby amended as follows:

Section 6 of Article VI is amended to read as follows:

6. At any time within one year from the date of default the mortgagee, at its election, shall either—

(a) with, and subject to, the consent of the Administrator, acquire by means other than foreclosure of the mortgage, possession of, and title to, the mortgaged property; or

(b) commence foreclosure of the mortgage; provided, that if the laws of the state in which the mortgaged property is situated do not permit the commencement of such foreclosure within such period of time, the mortgagee shall commence such foreclosure within thirty (30) days after the expiration of the time during which such foreclosure is prohibited by such laws.

The mortgagee shall promptly give notice in writing to the Administrator of the institution of foreclosure proceedings and shall exercise reasonable diligence in prosecuting such proceedings to completion.

For the purposes of this section, the date of default shall be considered as thirty (30) days after the first uncorrected failure to perform a covenant or obligation, or the first failure to make a monthly payment which subsequent payments by the mortgagor are insufficient to cover when applied to the overdue monthly payments in the order in which they became due.

If after default and prior to the completion of foreclosure proceedings, the mortgagor shall pay to the mortgagee all monthly payments in default and such expenses as the mortgagee shall have incurred in connection with the foreclosure proceedings, notice shall be given to the Administrator, and the insurance shall continue as if such default had not occurred.

Wherever a mortgagee so desires, the provisions of said Section 6 of Article VI, as hereby amended, shall become a part of any contract of insurance incorporating, and made pursuant to any previous regulations.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 24th day of June, 1937.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C. on the 26th day of June, A. D. 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF RAINBOW LUMINOUS PRODUCTS, INC. CLASS A COMMON, NO PAR VALUE CLASS B COMMON, NO PAR VALUE

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND FOR HEARING DESIGNATING OFFICER AND TIME AND PLACE FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

Whereas, Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., a corporation, is the issuer of Class A No Par Common Stock and of Class B No Par Common Stock; and

Whereas, said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., registered both such securities on the New York Curb Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing, on or about May 16, 1935, an application with the said Exchange and with the Commission, pursuant to Section 12 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and pursuant to Rule JB1 as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder; and

Whereas, said Rule JB1, as amended, at the time said application was filed and at all subsequent times did and does require such applications to be filed on Form 10 for Corporations; and

Whereas, Item 36 of said Form 10 for Corporations, at the time said application was filed and at all subsequent times did and does require the registrant to submit financial statements in accordance with the Instructions and Rules and Regulations of the Commission supplemental thereto, as amended, as to the use of said Form 10 for Corporations; and

Whereas, said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., has failed to comply with the provisions of said Section 12 (b) of said Securities Exchange Act, as amended, with the provisions of said Rule JB1, as amended, and with the provisions of said Form 10 for Corporations, and with the provisions of said Instructions and Rules and Regulations of the Commission supplemental thereto, as amended, in that neither the application filed by it for registration of said securities on said Exchange pursuant to said Section 12 (b), nor any amendment thereto

Contains a certificate of an independent public or independent certified public accountant or accountants, which states the accountant's opinion in respect of the financial schedules required to be filed as parts of said application, although required by the Rules and Regulations of the Commission; and

Whereas, Section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that every issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall file such annual reports as the Commission may by rule and regulation prescribe; and

Whereas, said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., filed on or about July 1, 1936, an annual report on Form 10K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1935, pursuant to Section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules KA1 and KA2 promulgated by the Commission thereunder; and

Whereas, said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., has failed to comply with the provisions of said Section 13 (a) and (b), said Rules KA1 and KA2 and with the provisions of said Form 10K and with the provisions of the said Instructions and Rules and Regulations of the Commission supplemental thereto, as amended, in that neither the Annual Report filed by it for the year ended December 31, 1935 nor any amendment thereto contains a certificate of an independent public or independent certified public accountant covering the financial statements and supporting schedules required to be filed by Item 8 and the Instructions thereto, and in that Item 8 of said Form 10K does not contain the financial schedules required by the instructions to Item 8 and the Rules and Regulations of the Commission to be furnished thereunder; and

Whereas, said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., has failed to comply with Section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act, as amended, and with Rules KA1 and KA2 promulgated by the Commission thereunder in that as issuer of said Class A Common No Par Stock and said Class B Common No Par Stock, it has failed to file information and documents required by Rule KA1, adopted by the Commission pursuant to said Section 13 (a) and has failed to file its annual report for the year ended December 31, 1936, on Form 10K as required by Rule KA2, adopted by the Commission pursuant to said Section 13 (b);

It is ordered that pursuant to Section 19 (a) (2) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing be held to determine whether said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., has so failed to comply with said Provisions of said Section 12 (b) (1) and said Section 13 (a) and (b) and said Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission thereunder, or with any provision of either of said Sections or of any Rule or Regulation promulgated by the Commission under either of said Sections, and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months or to withdraw the registration of said Class A Common No Par Stock and said Class B Common No Par Stock, on said New York Curb Exchange; and

It is further ordered that said Rainbow Luminous Products, Inc., appear before an officer of the Commission and show cause why the registration of said Class A Common No Par Stock and said Class B Common No Par Stock on said New York Curb Exchange should not be suspended for a period not exceeding 12 months or withdrawn as provided in Section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and

It is further ordered, that for the purpose of such proceeding, Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and hereby is designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered that a public hearing for the taking of testimony begin on the 7th day of July, 1937, at 10:00 A. M., in room number 1103 at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and continue thereafter at such times and places as such officer may determine.

By direction of the Commission.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF A ROYALTY INTEREST IN THE SINCLAIR-PRAIRIE-MARVEL TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 4, 1937, BY G. D. TERRIEN, RESPONDENT

ORDER TERMINATING PROCEEDING AFTER AMENDMENT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, finding that the offering sheet described in the title hereof has been amended to cure the objections specified in the Temporary Suspension Order previously entered in this proceeding;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 354 (c) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the amendment received at the office of the Commission on June 18, 1937, be effective as of June 18, 1937.

It is further ordered that the Temporary Suspension Order heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding is terminated as of the effective date of said amendment.

By the Commission.

ROPE GYM SETS, ALSO KNOWN AS INDOOR GYM SETS OR COMBINATION SWING SETS DUTIABLE AT THE RATE OF 45% AD VALOREM UNDER PARAGRAPH 397 OF THE TARIFF ACT OF 1930

COMPLAINT OF A DOMESTIC MANUFACTURER UNDER SECTION 516 (B) OF THE TARIFF ACT OF 1930

JUNE 23, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Under date of February 26, 1937, Mr. E. J. Mordt, 78 Mackey Avenue, Port Washington, L. I., N. Y., a domestic manufacturer of rope gym sets, also known as indoor gym sets or combination swing sets, requested that he be advised under the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1516) as to the rate of duty which is assessed on rope gym sets, also known as indoor gym sets or combination swing sets, suitable for the use of children.

The Bureau in a letter dated April 24, 1937, advised Mr. E. J. Mordt that articles of the class or kind described by him are, when imported into the United States, assessed with duty under paragraph 397 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1001, par. 397) at the rate of 45% ad valorem as articles or wares composed wholly or in chief value of metal.

Following the receipt of the Bureau's letter Mr. Mordt filed with the Bureau a complaint against the classification of the above-mentioned articles under paragraph 397 and claimed that as the articles are for the use of children they are, therefore, toys, and are properly dutiable under paragraph 1513 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1001, par. 1513) at the rate of 70% ad valorem.

In (1933) Abstract 25835 the Customs Court held that similar merchandise which had been assessed with duty as toys, or articles chiefly used for the amusement of children, at 70% ad valorem under paragraph 1513 of the Tariff Act of 1930, was not toys and was dutiable under paragraph 397 of the tariff act at the rate of 45% ad valorem.

In view of the decision cited, the Bureau is of the opinion that the rope gym sets, also known as indoor gym sets or combination sets, now under consideration are properly dutiable under paragraph 397 of the Tariff Act of 1930 at the rate of 45% ad valorem.

In view of the foregoing, and in accordance with the provisions of section 516 (b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, notice is hereby given that the classification of and the rate of duty on merchandise of the character described imported or withdrawn from warehouse after the expiration of 30 days after the date of the publication of this letter in the weekly Treasury Decisions will be subject to the decision of the United States Customs Court in the event that a protest is filed under the provisions of that subsection.

Very truly yours,

[SEAL] J. H. MOYLE,
Commissioner of Customs.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—INFORMATION AS TO VALUES IN RESPONSE TO ORAL OR WRITTEN REQUEST MADE BY IMPORTER

To Collectors of Customs and others concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 487 and 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1487 and 1624), article 782 of the Customs Regulations of 1931, as amended by T. D. 48234, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

ART. 782. Furnishing information as to values.—The appraiser may, in his discretion, furnish to importers the latest information as to values in his possession, subject to the following conditions:

(a) Information shall be given only in response to a specific request therefor by an importer, and in no circumstances shall be volunteered by a customs employee.

(b) Information shall be given only on merchandise to be entered at his port, and after its arrival, or upon satisfactory evidence that it has been exported and is en route to the United States, and then only on presentation of invoices and all papers, documents, or other information in the possession of the importer or available to him relative to the value of the merchandise.

(c) The request for information may be made orally or in writing (if in writing it shall be in duplicate on such form as the appraiser may prescribe) and the information shall be given only if the appraiser is satisfied that the importer is unable to obtain any definite information as to market value on the date of exportation due to unusual conditions, and with the understanding and agreement that the information, if given, is in no sense an appraisement nor binding upon the appraiser's action on appraisement, as appraisement of merchandise must be made at the market value prevailing on the date of exportation, in accordance with the law, irrespective of any information given before the invoice or the merchandise has come under the observation of the appraiser for the purpose of appraisement.

(d) The privilege of securing information from the appraiser before the invoice or the merchandise has come under his observation for the purpose of appraisement is predicated on cooperation by the importer. When the appraiser suspects that the importer is withholding information in his possession, or that the importer has not exercised due diligence to obtain the information requested, or otherwise questions the importer's good faith, he shall, prior to furnishing any information, request the importer to call at his office for questioning. If, after such questioning, and after such other investigation as he deems necessary, the appraiser is still not satisfied as to the importer's good faith, he shall refuse to give any information to such importer.

(e) Upon receipt of a request for information, the examiner shall give the latest information in his possession effective on the date of exportation, stating also the basis of his conclusion, or, in the absence of information as to values on or about the date of exportation of the shipment, shall advise the importer to that effect. If the request is in writing, a copy containing the conclusion of the examiner, if approved by the appraiser, or such other officer as he may designate for that purpose, shall be retained in the appraiser's files for consideration by the examiner when examining the merchandise, and the other copy given to the importer.

(f) If the appraiser does not have the information requested, he may, if the importer so desires, refer the request to the Customs Information Exchange for advice.

Commissioner of Customs.

REGULATIONS FOR ENTRY OF ARTICLES FOR THE GREAT LAKES EXHIBITION TO BE HELD AT CLEVELAND, OHIO, IN 1937

JUNE 24, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Attention is invited to the provisions of Public Resolution no. 37 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved May 28, 1937, which read as follows:

That all articles which shall be imported from foreign countries for the purpose of exhibition at the international exposition to be held at Cleveland, Ohio, beginning in May 1937, by Great Lakes Exposition, or for use in constructing, installing, or maintaining foreign buildings, or exhibits at the said exhibition, upon which articles there shall be a tariff or customs duty shall be admitted without payment of such tariff, customs duty, fees, or charges under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe; but it shall be lawful at any time during or within three months after the close of the said exposition to sell within the area of the exposition any articles provided for herein, subject to such regulations for the security of the revenue and for the collection of import duties as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: Provided, That all such articles, when withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, shall be subject to the duties, if any, imposed upon such articles by the revenue laws in force at the date of their withdrawal; and on such articles which shall have suffered diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure the duties, if payable, shall be assessed according to the appraised value at the time of withdrawal from entry hereunder for consumption or entry under the general tariff law: Provided further, That imported articles provided for herein shall not be subject to any marking requirements of the general tariff laws, except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall not be released from customs custody until properly marked, but no additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not sufficiently marked when imported into the United States: Provided further, That at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, whereupon any duties on such article shall be remitted: Provided further, That articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond and imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be accorded the privilege of transfer to and entry for exhibition at the said exposition under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe: And provided further, That Great Lakes Exposition shall be deemed, for customs purposes only, to be the sole consignee of all merchandise imported under the provisions of this Act, and that the actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision, custody of, and accounting for articles imported under the provisions of this Act, shall be reimbursed by Great Lakes Exposition to the Government of the United States under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and that receipts from such reimbursements shall be deposited as refunds to the appropriation from which paid, in the manner provided for in section 524, Tariff Act of 1930.

(1) All packages containing imported merchandise to be entered under the provisions of the joint resolution shall be plainly marked "Great Lakes Exposition" and with the name of the country of origin and shall bear separate serial numbers.

(2) All importations of articles of a class requiring a consular invoice, intended for exhibition under the provisions of the joint resolution and valued at more than $100, must be covered by consular invoices certified as provided in article 271 of the Customs Regulations of 1931. Such invoices shall contain the information prescribed under section 481 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1481) and shall show that the articles covered thereby are destined to the port of Cleveland and are intended for exhibition or use at the Great Lakes Exposition, Cleveland, Ohio.

(3) The Great Lakes Exposition shall give to the collector of customs at Cleveland, Ohio, such security for compliance with the joint resolution and these regulations as may be approved by the Commissioner of Customs.

(4) The collector of customs at Cleveland shall detail an officer to act as her representative at the Great Lakes Exposition and shall station inside the exhibition buildings as many additional customs officers and employees as may be necessary to properly protect the revenue.

(5) All actual and necessary customs charges for labor, services, and other expenses in connection with the entry, examination, appraisement, release, or custody of imported articles, together with the necessary charges for salaries of customs officers and employees in connection with the supervision and custody of, and accounting for, articles imported for exhibition at the Great Lakes Exposition or transferred thereto for exhibition, shall be reimbursed by the Great Lakes Exposition to the Government, payment to be made monthly to the collector of customs, Cleveland, Ohio, for deposit to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States as a refund to the appropriation "Collecting the revenue from customs".

(6) Articles to be entered under these regulations which arrive at ports other than Cleveland shall be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement to the latter port in the manner provided by the general customs regulations.

(7) Articles which have been admitted without payment of duty for exhibition under any tariff law and which have remained in continuous customs custody or under a customs exhibition bond may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the Great Lakes Exposition in the manner prescribed in article 446 (c) of the Customs Regulations of 1931, except that in each case an entry under paragraph (8) of these regulations shall be filed, which shall supersede any previous entry, and no new bond other than that specified in paragraph (3) shall be required. Imported articles in bonded warehouses under the general tariff law may be transferred to entry for exhibition at the Great Lakes Exposition in the manner prescribed in article 318 of the Customs Regulations of 1931, as amended by (1934) T. D. 47021 and (1936) T. D. 48505.

(8) Upon the arrival at the port of Cleveland of articles to be entered under these regulations the same should be entered on a special form of entry to read substantially as follows:

ENTRY FOR EXHIBITION ENTRY NO.

Entry at the port of Cleveland of articles consigned or transferred to the Great Lakes Exposition under ---------- I. T. No. ---------- ex S. S. ---------- from ---------- on the ---------- day of ---------- 1937, for exhibition purposes under Public Resolution No. 37 of the Seventy-fifth Congress, approved May 28, 1937.

(9) Upon such entry being made, the collector shall issue a special permit for the transfer of the articles covered thereby to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used, or, in the discretion of the collector, to the appraiser's stores for examination and subsequent transfer to the buildings in which they are to be exhibited or used. Upon the receipt of the articles at such buildings or at the appraiser's stores, the same shall be given a tentative appraisal prior to their exhibition or use. All imported exhibits so received in such buildings shall be kept segregated from domestic articles and imported duty-paid articles and shall not be removed from the exhibition building except in accordance with paragraph (11) of these regulations.

(10) If for any reason articles imported for entry under these regulations are not upon their arrival to be delivered immediately at an exhibition building, the importer should so indicate to the collector in writing, who will cause such articles to be placed in a bonded warehouse under a "general order permit" at the importer's risk and expense, and such articles may be entered at any time within one year from the date of importation for exhibition, as herein provided, or under the general tariff law, or for exportation. If not so entered within such a period they will be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(11) Any articles entered under these regulations may be withdrawn for exportation, for abandonment to the Government, destruction under customs supervision, or for consumption or entry under the general tariff law, but not otherwise, at any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition. Upon the withdrawal of such articles for consumption or for entry under the general tariff law, or at the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition in the case of articles not previously so withdrawn, they shall be appraised with due allowance made for diminution or deterioration from incidental handling or exposure. Such appraisal shall be final in the absence of an appeal to reappraisement, as provided in section 501 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1501). In the case of such articles withdrawn for entry under the general tariff law under a warehouse bond or a bond conditioned upon exportation, the statutory period of the bond and any extension thereof shall be computed from the date of withdrawal.

(12) At any time during or within three months after the close of the exposition, any article entered hereunder may be abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, as provided in article 810 of the Customs Regulations of 1931, as amended by (1936) T. D. 48099.

(13) Any articles entered under these regulations which have not been withdrawn for consumption, entry under the general tariff law, exportation, or which have not been abandoned to the Government or destroyed under customs supervision, before the expiration of three months after the close of the exposition, shall be regarded as abandoned to the Government.

(14) All entries under these regulations shall be made in the name of the Great Lakes Exposition, which shall be deemed for customs purposes the sole consignee of the merchandise entered under the act and which shall be held responsible to the Government for all duties and/or charges due the United States on account of such entries; but, in the case of merchandise withdrawn from entry under these regulations, an entry under the general tariff law, in the name of any person duly authorized in writing by the Great Lakes Exposition to make such entry, may be accepted by the collector, and the bond of the Great Lakes Exposition shall thereafter be considered as collateral security for any duties and/or charges accruing on the merchandise covered by any such entry, unless the entry is for permanent exhibition, in which case the liability of the Great Lakes Exposition under its bond with respect to the articles covered by such entry, shall be terminated when the security required by the general tariff law has been given.

(15) The marking requirements of the Tariff Act of 1930 and the regulations promulgated thereunder will not apply to articles imported under these regulations except when such articles are withdrawn for consumption or use in the United States, in which case they shall be released from customs custody only upon a full compliance with the marking requirements of the tariff act and the regulations promulgated thereunder. No additional duty shall be assessed because such articles were not properly marked when imported into the United States.

AUTHORITY

By virtue of the authority vested in it by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), hereinafter referred to as the Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, hereinafter referred to as the Commission, has adopted and hereby issues the following Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission, which it deems reasonable and necessary for carrying out the provisions of the Act:

I. OFFICE AND ADDRESS OF THE COMMISSION; OFFICE HOURS

All communications to the Commission must be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., unless otherwise specifically directed. Pleadings and other papers required to be filed with the Commission may be transmitted by mail or express or otherwise delivered, but must be received for filing at its office within the time limit, if any, for such filing.

The office is open from 8:30 A. M. until 4:30 P. M. of each business day except Saturday upon which day it is open from 8:30 A. M. to 12:30 P. M., unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

II. PUBLIC SESSIONS AND HEARINGS; NOTICE

Public sessions of the Commission or divisions thereof for hearing evidence or oral arguments or for public conferences, investigations and hearings before any commissioners, examiners, or other representatives of the Commission, will be held as set upon notice by the Commission, subject to change upon such notice as may be practicable. All matters requiring formal hearing will be given a place upon the Commission's calendar in their regular order of filing unless the Commission shall otherwise expressly order.

III. APPEARANCES

Appearances by Individual Parties, Partnerships, Officers, Attorneys, or Practitioners Other Than Attorneys.—Any individual or a member of a partnership which is a party to any proceeding may appear for himself or such partnership upon adequate identification. Any corporation or association may be represented by a duly designated officer thereof. Any person or party to any proceeding may appear and be represented by an attorney or other practitioner who is qualified and admitted to practice before the Commission. Any agency of the Federal government or of any State or political subdivision thereof, and any district board created under the Act may appear through a duly accredited representative.

IV. ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

1. Registration of Practitioners.—The Commission will maintain a register in which will be entered the names of all persons entitled to represent parties and to practice before the Commission.

2. Classes of Persons Who May Be Admitted to Practice Before the Commission.—The following classes of persons whom the Commission finds upon their applications to be of good moral character and to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others may be admitted to practice before the Commission:

(a) Attorneys at law and persons not attorneys, possessing legal or technical qualifications.—Attorneys at law who are admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States or the highest court of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia. Any person not an attorney at law who is a citizen or a resident of the United States and who shall file proof to the satisfaction of the Commission that he is possessed of the necessary legal and technical qualifications to enable him to render valuable service before the Commission and is otherwise competent to advise and assist in the presentation of matters before the Commission.

b. Applications for admission; certificates as to qualifications.—An application under oath for admission to practice shall be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, Washington, D. C., and must state the name, residence address, and business address of the applicant, and the time and place of his admission to the bar, and the nature of his qualifications. Such application of attorneys shall also state whether the applicant has ever been suspended or disbarred as an attorney in any court, or his right to practice suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction. Such applications shall be accompanied by a certificate of the clerk of the court in which the applicant is admitted to practice to the effect that he has been so admitted and is in good standing. In the case of applications from persons not attorneys, the application should contain recommendations to the effect that the applicant possesses the necessary legal or technical qualifications under this rule.

3. Oath.—Upon being admitted, each applicant shall subscribe to an oath or affirmation that he will demean himself, as a practitioner before this Commission, uprightly, and according to law; and that he will support the Constitution of the United States.

4. Denial of Admission, Suspension, or Disbarment.—The Commission may, in its discretion, deny admission, suspend or disbar any member who, it finds, does not possess the legal qualifications to represent others, or is lacking in proper professional conduct. Any person who has been admitted to practice may be disbarred only after he is afforded an opportunity to be heard.

a. Any person, partnership, corporation, public officer, labor organization or association or other entity entitled under the Act to invoke the exercise by the Commission of any of its powers may do so by instituting a proceeding as provided herein and not otherwise.

b. The parties to proceedings before the Commission are classified as complainants, applicants, consumers' counsel, petitioners, defendants, interveners, protestants, and respondents, according to the nature of the proceedings and their relation thereto.

c. Complainants.—Persons entitled by the Act or Code (promulgated June 21, 1937) so to do, who complain to the Commission of anything done or omitted to be done in violation of the provisions of the Act or Code by any person subject to the Act are styled "complainants", except that the consumers' counsel in any proceeding shall appear as the consumers' counsel of the National Bituminous Coal Commission in accordance with the Act.

d. Applicants.—Producers seeking exemption in accordance with the second paragraph of section 4–A of the Act are styled "applicants."

e. Petitioners.—Persons seeking relief, not otherwise designated herein, are styled "petitioners."

f. Defendants.—Persons subject to the Act against whom any complaint is filed are styled "defendants".

g. Interveners.—Persons permitted to intervene as hereinafter provided are styled "interveners".

h. Protestants.—Persons other than the consumers' counsel objecting on the ground of personal or public interest to any action which the Commission is authorized to take under proceedings pending before it are styled "protestants". (See Rule X.)

i. Respondents.—Persons subject to the Act, to whom an order or notice is issued by the Commission in a proceeding or investigation instituted by it or others as enumerated in first paragraph of Section 4–A of said Act, are styled "respondents".

VI. COMPLAINTS

a. Complaints may be informal or formal and shall be submitted to the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., addressed to the Secretary.

b. Informal Complaints.—Informal complaints may be made by letter or other writing and will be filed as received. Matters informally presented will, if their nature so warrants, be taken up by correspondence or conference with the persons complained of in an endeavor to bring about satisfaction of the complaint without formal hearing.

c. Substance of Informal Complaints.—No form of informal complaint is prescribed, but in substance the letter or other writing must contain the essential elements of the complaint, including name and address of complainant, the name of the party against whom the complaint is made and his place of doing business, a statement of the specific provisions of the Act violated, a brief statement of the facts claimed to constitute such violation, and the specific relief sought. While the filing of an informal complaint is without prejudice to complainant's right to file formal complaint, only formal complaints submitted and prosecuted in the manner hereinafter prescribed will entitle any person, natural or artificial, to initiate formal proceedings or to become a party to any proceedings already initiated, and only formal complaints will be admitted to the record of formal proceedings. It is desirable that the informal complaint be accompanied by sufficient copies to enable the Commission to transmit one to each party complained of and retain twelve (12) for its own use. The informal complaint may be accompanied by supporting papers.

d. Formal complaints, form and style, number of copies.—Formal complaints must conform to the requirements of rules XII and XIII. The names of all parties complainant and defendant must be stated in full without abbreviations and the address of the complainant with the name and address of his attorney or other authorized agent, if any, must appear. The complaint must set out the name and place of doing business and the person, corporation, or organization against whom complaint is made. Each formal complaint must be accompanied by twelve (12) copies for the use of the Commission and the Consumers' Counsel, and in addition thereto, a sufficient number to enable the Commission to serve one upon each defendant complained of.

e. Joiner of complaints or complainants.—Two or more grounds of complaint involving the same purpose, subject, or state of facts may be included in one complaint. Each ground should be separately stated and numbered. Two or more complainants may join in one complaint if their respective causes of complaint are against the same defendant or defendants and involves substantially the same purpose, subject, and a like state of facts.

f. Substance of formal complaints.—Formal complaints should be so drawn as to fully and completely advise the parties defendant and the Commission wherein the provisions of the Act or of the Code or of any order of the Commission have been or are violated by acts or omissions complained of, or will be violated by future acts or omissions intended by the defendant or defendants or by a continuance thereof, and should set forth briefly and in plain language the facts claimed to constitute such violations, wherein the complainant is or will be injured thereby and the relief sought. In case of violation of two or more sections or parts thereof of the Act or Code, or a general order is alleged, the facts claimed to constitute violations of each should be stated separately.

g. Subscription and Verification.—Every formal complaint must be personally subscribed and verified under oath either (1) by the complainant, or by each of the complainants if there be more than one; or (2) by a duly designated officer, if it be a corporation, an association or other organization; or (3) for the complainant by its or their attorney or registered practitioner. If subscription and verification be by other than the complainant, the power of attorney or authority authorizing such affiant to prosecute the complaint or make the verification must be filed with the complaint.

h. Supplemental Complaints.—Supplemental complaints may be submitted for filing by the parties complainant against the parties defendant in the original complaint, setting forth and causes of action alleged to have accrued in favor of the complainants and against the defendants since the filing of the original complaint. Upon leave granted in the discretion of the Commission such supplemental complaint will be filed and heard, considered and disposed of therewith in the same proceedings if practicable.

i. Amended Complaints.—Formal complaints may be amended in the discretion of the Commission upon good cause shown.

VII. APPLICATIONS FOR EXEMPTION; SUBSCRIPTION AND VERIFICATION

Applicants seeking exemption in accordance with the second paragraph of Section 4–A of the Act must file with the Commission an application setting forth the facts upon which claim is based. This application should be so drawn as to fully and completely advise the Commission of the facts upon which such claim is based. The form of such application should be in the same order as a formal complaint and should contain the facts for each ground for relief in a separate paragraph. Such application shall be subscribed and verified by oath or affirmation in the same manner as provided for formal complaints in Rule VI, subsection g.

a. Petitions seeking relief (other than application for exemption under Section 4–A) within the powers of the Commission should state clearly and concisely the interest of the petitioner and the subject matter of the petition and the relief sought, and cite by appropriate references, provisions of the Act, Code or orders relied upon for relief, and must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII.

b. Intervening petitions.—Anyone entitled under the Act to complain to the Commission and having an interest in any pending procedure may petition to intervene therein, prior to or at the time it is called for hearing, and such petition may be granted in the discretion of the Commission. If such petition to intervene is submitted to the Commission after the time said proceeding has been called for hearing, permission to intervene will not be granted except for good cause shown. Petitions for intervention must set forth the grounds of the proposed intervention, the position and interest of the petitioner in the proceeding and, if affirmative relief is sought, must conform to the requirements of a formal complaint and must be subscribed and verified in the same manner as a formal complaint. If leave is granted, the petitioner thereby becomes an intervener and a party to the proceeding.

a. Answers to Formal Complaints.—Answers to formal complaints must be filed with the Commission within twenty (20) days after the date on which such complaint was served. The period so fixed may be shortened or extended by the Commission when it deems advisable. Any defendant failing to file answer within such period will be deemed in default, and issue as to such defendant will be thereby joined. All answers should be so drawn as to fully and completely advise the parties and the Commission of the nature of the defense, and should admit or deny specifically and in detail, each material allegation of the pleading answered and must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII. Answers shall conform to the requirements of Rule VI, subsection g as to subscription and verification.

b. Answers to Petitions in Intervention, and Amended Complaints.—Answers to petition in intervention may be filed and served upon leave granted. Answers to amended complaints may be filed and served if the defendants so elect. If amended answers are not filed all new matter set forth in the amended complaint shall be deemed denied by the defendant or defendants.

c. Satisfaction of Complaints.—If the defendant satisfies a formal complaint either before or after answering, a statement to that effect, signed by the opposing parties, must be filed, setting forth when and how the complaint has been satisfied. The Commission may notwithstanding such statement retain jurisdiction of the complaint and make such order thereon as it deems appropriate.

X. PROTEST

a. Contents.—Protests must set forth the position and interest of the protestant in the proceeding and must be so drawn as to fully and completely advise the parties and the Commission of the acts or omissions complained of and should in other respects conform to the requirements of complaints.

b. Form and Style, Service.—Protests must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII.

XI. AMENDMENTS

a. Allowance or Refusal Discretionary.—Amendments to any pleading will be allowed or refused by the Commission in its discretion.

b. Subscription and Verification.—Whenever by these rules a principal pleading is required to be subscribed and verified, an amendment thereto must be similarly subscribed and verified, in conformity with Rule VI, subsection g.

c. Directed cmendments.—The Commission may direct a party to state by way of amendment his case with greater particularity.

XII. SPECIFICATIONS AS TO COMPLAINTS, APPLICATIONS, PETITIONS, ANSWERS, PROTEST BRIEFS, ETC.

a. Typewritten or Printed Only.—All papers filed under these rules must be typewritten or printed.

b. Size and Legibility.—Except as to informal complaints, if typewritten, they must, unless otherwise specifically provided, be on paper not more than 8½ inches wide by 11 inches long, weighing not less than 16 pounds to the ream, with left hand margin not less than 1½ inches wide. The impression must be on only one side of the paper and must be double spaced, except that long quotations should be single spaced and indented. Mimeographed, multigraphed, planographed or photographed or carbon copies will be accepted as typewritten, but hectographed copies or white line blue prints or copies prepared by similar processes, will not be accepted. All copies must be clearly legible.

c. Sizes of Printed Papers.—If printed, they must be not less than 10 point type on good unglazed paper 5⅞ inches wide by 9 inches long, with inside margin not less than one inch wide and with double leaded text and single leaded citations.

d. Signature.—Applications, complaints, answers, petitions, protests and notices must be signed in ink by the party in interest, by a duly designated officer thereof or by his or its duly authorized attorney and must show the office and post office address of the same.

XIII. SERVICE, NUMBER OF COPIES

a. Formal complaints, petitions in intervention, supplimental complaints, amended complaints, protests, answers, briefs, notice and all other papers in proceedings must show and prove service upon all other parties to the proceeding. Such service in all cases other than formal complaints filed pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act shall be made by delivering in person or by mailing, properly addressed with postage prepaid, one copy to each party. Proof shall be by affidavit of the person making service. In the case of formal complaints filed pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act, service must be made by delivery in person to the party against whom complaint is made, and the affidavit of service shall be made by the person making such service.

b. Service upon Attorneys or Practitioners other than Attorneys.—Whenever any party has appeared in a proceeding by attorney or practitioner, service upon such attorney or practitioner will be deemed service upon the party.

c. Number of Copies.—Except as to informal complaints, twelve (12) copies of all papers shall be filed with the Commission.

a. None other than a party who has become such in conformity with these rules will be heard.

b. How Ordered.—Hearings may be heard by the Commission in its discretion, either upon its own motion or upon the motion of any party to the proceeding. Witnesses will be examined orally unless the testimony is taken by deposition as provided in Rule XVI or the facts are stipulated in the manner provided in Rule XVIII.

c. Notice of Hearings.—Appropriate notice of hearing shall be given. The notice shall state the nature of the matters to be heard, the time and place of the hearing, and, if designated, the name of the Commissioner, examiner, or other representative before whom the testimony is to be taken or the evidence adduced. Such notice in the case of the institution of an action pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act against individuals, partnerships, associations, or corporations shall be by personal service. All other notices will be served by mail or otherwise, as prescribed by the Commission. Notice shall be served upon all the parties to the proceeding, including the consumers' counsel, state or other governmental authorities having official interest in the proceedings, and such other persons as may be deemed to have a substantial interest therein.

d. The presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission before whom the hearing is held shall enter upon the record all appearances with a notation in whose behalf the appearance is made.

e. Order of Procedure.—At hearings on formal complaints the complainant or complainants shall open and close; at hearings on petitions the petitioner shall open and close; interveners shall follow the parties in whose behalf the intervention is made, and in all cases where the intervention is not in support of either original party, the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission shall designate at what stage of the proceeding such intervener shall be heard. At hearings in all other cases the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative shall direct who shall open and close.

f. Calling for Further Evidence.—In any case, at or after the close of testimony, or at any stage of the hearing the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission may call for further evidence upon any issue and require such evidence to be presented by any party concerned or by the staff of the Commission either at that hearing or at a further hearing. At the hearing the presiding officer may require any party to the proceeding to file specific and documentary evidence as a part of the record within a time to be fixed by him, but which shall expire not less than ten (10) days before the date fixed for filing and serving briefs.

g. Closing of Record.—Except as provided in "f" above, the presiding officer will not receive in evidence or consider as part of the record any testimony, document, letter or other writing submitted after the close of the hearing and arguments.

XV. CONTINUANCES, EXTENSIONS OF TIME

a. Application for continuance; contents; time of filing.—Applications for continuances or for the extension of time in which to file any pleadings or briefs shall be by petition in writing, stating the facts on which the request rests, and must be filed with the Commission at least seven (7) days before the date set for hearing or the time fixed for filing such pleadings or briefs and must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII.

b. Discretion in Granting or Denying.—Continuances and extensions of time will be granted or denied at the discretion of the Commission.

XVI. DEPOSITIONS

a. When Permissible.—The testimony of any witness may be taken by deposition, at the instance of a party to any proceeding pending before the Commission, at any time before the hearing is closed, upon approval by the Commission in compliance with these rules but not otherwise.

b. Officer Before Whom Taken.—Such depositions may be taken before a commissioner, examiner, or other authorized representative of the Commission; any judge, commissioner or clerk of any Court of the United States; any chancellor, judge or justice of a State Court; mayor or chief magistrate of a city; or any notary public not being of counsel or attorney to either of the parties, or interested in the proceeding or investigation, according to such designation as the Commission may make in its order in the premises. Where such deposition is taken in a foreign country, it may be taken before an officer or person designated by the Commission or agreed upon by the parties by stipulation in writing to be filed with the Commission. The magistrate, person, or officer so designated in this rule will be referred to as the officer.

c. Notice of Application; Service; Order for Taking.—Reasonable notice of not less than 10 days, and when the deposition is to be taken in a foreign country, of not less than 20 days, must first be given in writing by the party or his attorney proposing to take such deposition to the opposing party or his attorney of record and to the Commission. In such notice, there should be stated the name and post-office address of the witness; the subject matter concerning which the witness is expected to testify; the time and place of taking the deposition and the name and post-office address of the officer before whom it is desired that the deposition be taken. The opposing party may within the time stated above make any appropriate response to such notice. Thereupon, if the application so warrants, the Commission will make and serve upon the parties or their attorneys an order wherein the Commission will name the witness whose deposition is to be taken and specify the time, place, and the officer before whom the witness is to testify, but such time and place and the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, so specified in the Commission's order, may or may not be the same as those named in said notice to the Commission.

d. Oath; Reduction to Writing.—Every person whose deposition is so taken shall be sworn (or affirmed if he so requests) to testify the whole truth and nothing but the truth concerning the matter about which he shall testify and shall be carefully examined. His testimony shall be reduced to typewriting by the officer before whom the deposition is taken, or under his direction, after which the deposition shall be subscribed by the witness and certified in usual form by the officer. After the deposition has been so subscribed and certified it shall, together with two copies thereof made by such officer or under his direction, be forwarded by such officer, under seal, in an envelope addressed to the Secretary of the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C. Upon receipt of the deposition and copies, the Commission will file the deposition in the record in said proceeding and forward one copy to the party at whose instance the deposition has been taken or his attorney, and the other copy to the opposing party or his attorney. When the deposition is taken at the instance of more than one party or there is more than one opposing party, the copies will be forwarded by the Commission to the parties or their attorneys designated for that purpose in advance.

e. Fees of Officers and Witnesses.—Witnesses whose depositions are taken and the officers taking same shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States, which fees shall be paid by the party at whose instance the depositions are taken.

XVII. DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

a. Designation.—When relevant and material matter offered in evidence by any party is embraced in a book, paper or document containing other matter not material or relevant, the party offering the same must plainly designate the matter so offered. If other matter is in such volume as would necessarily cumber the record, such book, or document will not be received in evidence but may be marked for identification, and, if properly authenticated, the relevant or material matter may be read into the record, or, if the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative so directs, a true copy of such matter, in proper form, shall be received as an exhibit, and like copies delivered by the party offering the same to opposing parties or their attorneys appearing at the hearing who shall be afforded an opportunity to examine the book, paper, or document, and to offer in evidence in like manner other portions thereof if found to be material and relevant.

b. Commission's Files.—In case any matter contained in a report or other document on file with the Commission is offered in evidence, such report or other document need not be produced or marked for identification, but in other respects the provisions of the foregoing subdivision a of this Rule will apply.

c. Records in Other Proceedings.—In case any portion of the record in any proceeding other than the one on hearing is offered in evidence, a true copy of such portion shall be presented for the record in the form of an exhibit unless:

(1) The party offering the same agrees to supply such copies later at his own expense, if and when required by the Commission; and

(2) The portion is specified with particularity in such manner as to be readily identified; and

(3) The parties represented at the hearing stipulate upon the record that such portion may be incorporated by reference, and that any portion offered by any other party may be incorporated by like reference subject to (1) and (2); and

(4) The presiding commissioner, examiner or other representative directs such incorporation.

d. Objections.—Any documentary evidence offered, whether in the form of exhibit or by reference, shall be subject to appropriate objection.

e. Copies to Opposing Counsel.—When exhibits of a documentary character are offered in evidence, copies must be furnished to opposing counsel unless the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative otherwise directs.

f. Size, Form.—Whenever practicable, all exhibits of a documentary character received in evidence must be on paper of good quality and so prepared as to be plainly legible and durable, whether printed or typewritten; if typewritten, they must conform to the requirements of Rule XII.

g. Copies for the Commission.—Unless the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission shall otherwise direct, three copies of each exhibit of a document must be furnished for the use of the Commission, in addition to the copies provided for under "e" hereof.

XVIII. STIPULATIONS

a. Subpoenas, Who May Issue.—Subpoenas requiring the writing, filed with the Commission or presented at the hearing, agree upon any facts involved in the proceeding; but such stipulation between the parties shall not bind the Commission as to such facts unless expressly approved by the Commission.

b. Form and Style, Service.—Stipulations must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII.

XIX. WITNESSES AND SUBPOENAS

a. Subpoenas, Who May Issue.—Subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses from any place in the United States at any designated place of hearing may be issued by any member of the Commission.

b. Subpoenas duces tecum.—Subpoenas for the production of books, papers, or documents unless directed by the Commission upon its own motion will issue only upon application in writing. Applications to compel witnesses to produce documentary evidence must be verified and must specify, as nearly as may be, the books, papers or documents desired and the facts to be proved by them.

c. Fees of Witnesses.—Witnesses who are summoned are entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the Courts of the United States, such fees to be paid by the party at whose instance the testimony is taken, and the Commission before issuing subpoena may require a deposit of an amount adequate to cover the fees and mileage involved.

d. Subpoenas, Service, Return.—If service of subpoena is made by a United States Marshal or his deputy, such service shall be evidenced by his return thereon. If made by any other persons such person shall make affidavit thereof, describing the manner in which service is made and return such affidavit on or with the original subpoena. In case of failure to make service, the reason, for the failure shall be stated on the original subpoena. In making service, the original subpoena shall be exhibited and read to the person served and a copy thereof shall be left with him. Original subpoena, bearing or accompanied by the required return, affidavit, or statement, shall be returned forthwith to the Secretary of the Commission, or if so directed on the subpoena, to the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission before whom the person named in the subpoena is required to appear.

XX. PETITIONS FOR FURTHER HEARINGS, REHEARINGS, REARGUMENTS, RECONSIDERATION OR MODIFICATION OF ORDERS

a. Petition, Filing, Service.—An application for further hearing in a proceeding before final submission, for reopening a proceeding after final submission, or for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration after decision must be made by petition stating specifically the grounds relied upon, filed with the Commission and served by the petitioner upon all parties to the proceeding or their attorneys. (See Rule XIII.)

b. Statement as to New Evidence.—If the petition be for further hearing before final submission or for reopening the proceeding to take further evidence the nature and purpose of the evidence to be adduced must be briefly stated and it must appear not to be merely cumulative.

c. Specification of Errors.—If the petition be for rehearing, reargument, or reconsideration, the matters claimed to have been erroneously decided must be specified and the alleged errors briefly stated. If the order of the Commission is sought to be vacated, reversed, or modified by reason of matters which have arisen since the hearing, or of consequences which would result from compliance therewith, the matters relied upon by the petitioner must be set forth in the petition.

d. Time of Filing.—A petition for rehearing, reargument, reconsideration, or modification of an order must be filed within 30 days after service of the order therein.

e. Form and Style; Service.—Petitions under this Rule must conform to the requirements of Rules XII and XIII.

either upon its own motion or upon petition by such associations of this district, and to the first paragraph of

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

XXI. TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONY

Copies not Furnished by the Commission.—The Commission will make provisions for a stenographic record of the proceeding and for such copies of the transcript as it requires for its own purposes. The Commission assumes no obligation to furnish copies gratuitously to parties of record or other interested persons.

XXII. BRIEFS AND ORAL ARGUMENT

a. Oral Argument.—If oral argument before the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission is desired, he should be so notified before or at the hearing and he may arrange to hear the argument at the close of the testimony. He may impose such limits of time on the argument as he may determine, having regard for other assignments for hearing before him. Such argument will be transcribed and bound with the transcript of testimony and will be available to the Commission for consideration in deciding the case.

b. Forms and Style of Briefs.—Briefs must comply with the requirements of Rule XII. The date of each brief must appear on the front cover or title page. Each brief should contain an abstract of the evidence relied upon by the party filing it, preferably assembled by subjects with reference to the pages of the record or exhibit where the evidence appears. It should include requests for such specific findings as the party thinks the Commission should make.

c. Arrangements of Contents.—The brief should contain a concise statement of the case which should precede the abstract of evidence. The abstract of evidence should precede the argument. Exhibits should not be reproduced in the brief, but if desired may be reproduced in an appendix of the brief. Analysis of such exhibits should be included in the abstract of evidence under the subjects to which they pertain. Every brief of more than twenty pages should contain on its front leaves a subject index with page references, and a list of all cases cited alphabetically arranged with reference to the pages where the citations appear.

d. Filing, Service, Number of Copies.—At the close of the testimony in each case, the presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission will within his discretion, fix the time for filing and service of the respective briefs, depending upon the magnitude of the issues involved. All briefs should be filed simultaneously. Only one brief shall be filed by each party. All briefs must be accompanied by notice showing service upon all parties or their attorneys who appeared at the hearing or on brief, and 15 copies of each brief shall be furnished for the use of the Commission.

e. Reply Briefs.—The presiding commissioner, examiner, or other representative of the Commission shall fix for all parties the same time within which to file their reply briefs. Parties who fail to file an opening or intial brief as required by this rule will not be permitted, except upon leave granted, to file reply to the brief of an opposing party.

XXIII. COMPUTATION OF TIME

When the time prescribed by these rules for doing any act expires on a Sunday or legal holiday, such time shall extend to and include the next succeeding day that is not a Sunday or legal holiday.

XXIV. CHANGE IN AND WAIVER OF RULES

Change.—The rules of procedure adopted by the Commission are subject to be changed by order of the Commission without notice to any person. The Secretary shall publish the rules of practice and procedure from time to time as they shall then exist and shall furnish a reasonable number of copies thereof to any interested person upon application to him without charge therefor.

Waiver.—The Commission may waive conformance with these rules or any of them by any person in its discretion either upon its own motion or upon petition by such person.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 23rd day of June, 1937.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 44]

PRODUCTION CREDIT CORPORATION OF LOUISVILLE

[Fourth District: Ohio-Indiana-Kentucky-Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky]

PCA BULLETIN #218: CLASS A STOCK CONVERSIONS AND TRANSFERS

JUNE 10, 1937.

1. Your attention is invited to the first paragraph of Section 104 J (1) of the revised Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations, which reads as follows:

Class A Stock.—Upon the authorization of a loan to a holder of class A stock, the board of directors may permit the conversion of any or all such class A stock at the fair book value thereof (not to exceed par) into class B stock, in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the corporation so long as it is the holder of any stock of the associations.

2. In instances where a class A stockholder desires to convert his class A stockholdings into class B stock for the purpose of obtaining a loan, the association should, after approval by the executive committee or the board of directors, convert the necessary number of shares of class A stock into class B stock to enable the holder to own sufficient class B stock for the approved loan. The association may, however, convert a sufficient number of shares of class A stock into Class B stock to provide also for additional advances which may later be required by the borrower. One conversion may be made to cover both transactions, but should be limited to an excess of not more than ten shares over the number required for the original approved loan.

3. If the application of the above procedure would result in the ownership of only one or a fractional share of class A stock, the association may allow the conversion of the full amount of class A stock.

4. In cases where a class A stockholder arranges to sell and transfer his stock to another individual who intends to convert it into class B stock for use in obtaining an association loan, it is only necessary for the transferee of the class A stock certificate to submit it to the association from which he desires to obtain a loan, with a request to convert it into class B stock of the association, whereupon the association, after approval by its executive committee or its board of directors, will forward such request to the Corporation on a properly prepared Advice of Stock Transfer, Retirement and/or Conversion (PCA 112–B) with the class A stock certificate. The Corporation will, as transfer agent of class A stock, record the transaction on its records, and the Secretary-Treasurer of the association will record the ownership of class B stock.

5. Nothing contained herein alters or amends the current Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations.

PRODUCTION CREDIT CORPORATION OF BALTIMORE

CAPITAL STOCK, CLASS A

To All Production Credit Associations in the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and Puerto Rico:

The following regulation is prescribed pursuant to Section 26 (d) of the bylaws adopted by the production credit associations of this district, and to the first paragraph of Section 104 (j) 1 of the Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations:

In instances where a class A stockholder arranges to sell and transfer his stock to another individual who intends to convert it into class B stock for use in obtaining an association loan, it is necessary only for the transferee of the original class A stock certificate to submit it to the association from which he desires to obtain a loan, with an order to convert it into class B stock of the association, whereupon the association will forward such order and certificate to the Production Credit Corporation, with a request on form PCA–112–B for conversion, after approval by the Board of Directors of the conversion.

The secretary-treasurer will then issue the class B stock in the name of the stockholder and record the transaction on the books of the association.

In the event that a holder of class A stock desires to convert his class A stock to class B stock for use in obtaining a loan, the association should give approval to the conversion of only the number of shares necessary to enable the holder to obtain sufficient class B stock.

There may be cases in which proper compliance with this principle would result in the ownership by the stockholder-borrower of only one or a fractional share of class A stock, and in instances of this kind, we would recommend that the association allow the conversion of the full amount of his class A stock holdings.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

AMENDMENT TO RULE AN21

The Securities and Exchange Commission, deeming it necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors so to do, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, particularly Sections 3 (a) (12), 10 (b) and 23 (a) thereof, hereby amends paragraph (a) of RULE AN21 by deleting the words "four hundred and sixth" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "four hundred and ninety-eighth."

Paragraph (a), as amended, reads as follows:

(a) Evidences of indebtedness (1) which have been issued by any foreign state that is presently governed by an interim government which is holding office temporarily and which is to continue to hold such office only until the assumption thereof by a regular government which has been elected and (ii) as to which temporary exemption from the operation of Section 12 (a) shall expire pursuant to the terms of Rule AN7 on May 15, 1936, and as to which registration shall not be effective on that date, shall be exempt from the operation of said Section 12 (a) to and including the four hundred and ninety-eighth day following the assumption of office by such elected regular government.

The foregoing action shall be effective immediately upon publication.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF A ROYALTY INTEREST IN THE HOLLENBACK ET AL.-NORMAN TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 4, 1937, BY ALEX MACDONALD, RESPONDENT

ORDER CONSENTING TO WITHDRAWAL OF OFFERING SHEET AND TERMINATING PROCEEDING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having received from respondent an application for an order consenting to withdrawal of the offering sheet described in the title hereof, and respondent having represented to the Commission in writing that none of the securities described in said offering sheet have been sold, and it appearing in view of such representation that withdrawal of said offering sheet is not inconsistent with the public interest.

It is ordered that consent of the Commission to withdrawal of such offering sheet be, and hereby is, granted, but the Commission does not consent to removal of said offering sheet or any papers relating thereto from the files of the Commission, and

It is further ordered that the Temporary Suspension Order heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding terminated.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF NAYBOB GOLD MINES, LIMITED

STOP ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard by the Commission on the registration statement of registrant Naybob Gold Mines, Limited, of Toronto, Province of Ontario, Canada, after confirmed telegraphic notice by the Commission to said registrant that it appears that said registration statement includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein and omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and upon evidence received upon the allegations made in the notice of hearing duly served by the Commission on said registrant, and the Commission having duly considered the matter, and finding that said registration statement includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein and material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, all as more fully set forth in the Trial Examiner's report in this matter which is hereby adopted as the Commission's Findings of Fact herein, and being now fully advised in the premises, and the registrant having consented to the entry of a stop order,

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 8 (d) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the registration statement filed by Naybob Gold Mines, Limited, of Toronto, Province of Ontario, Canada, be and the same hereby is suspended.

By direction of the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PAT HILL-CLEMENTS TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 21, 1937, BY P. R. KNICKERBOCKER, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that the offering sheet, as filed, is not in the form prescribed by Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, which Rule became effective June 1, 1937;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF NON-PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE BIG WEST-ENGLE TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 21, 1937, BY LANDOWNERS ROYALTIES COMPANY, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the second paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

(2) In that the information contained in the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A", is not believed to be correct by reason of the fact that said plat shows a producing well adjacent to the tract involved, whereas from information disclosed by Division II, Item 11 (e), it appears that said well is now abandoned;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

WITHDRAWAL OF PUBLIC LAND FOR USE AS A RIFLE RANGE UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT

Idaho

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the act of June 25, 1910, ch. 421, 36 Stat. 847, as amended by the act of August 24, 1912, ch. 369, 37 Stat. 497, it is ordered as follows:

SECTION 1. Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended, temporarily withdrawing all public lands in certain states for classification and other purposes, is hereby revoked in so far as it affects the following-described tracts of land in Idaho:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 2 N., R. 2 W., sec. 26, W½SW¼, S½SW¼NW¼, 100 acres.

SECTION 2. Subject to valid existing rights, and the conditions set forth in section 3 of this order the tracts of land described in section 1 hereof are hereby withdrawn from settlement, location, sale, or entry and reserved for use as a rifle range by the Nampa Rod and Gun Club of Nampa, Idaho, under the supervision of the War Department, in furtherance of the provisions of the act of June 7, 1924, 43 Stat. 477, 510.

SECTION 3. The said S½SW¼NW¼, section 26, having been withdrawn December 22, 1903, under second-form reclamation withdrawal under the act of June 17, 1902, 32 Stat. 388, is primarily under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior. The withdrawal of this tract is made subject to the said reclamation withdrawal, and the rifle range operations on this land shall be conducted in such manner that they will not interfere with the purposes of such withdrawal.

SECTION 4. The withdrawal made by section 2 of this order shall continue in force until revoked by the President or by act of Congress.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

[Manual Amendment]

ARRANGEMENTS WITH PARTIES UPON SUSPENSION OR WITHDRAWAL OF FORECLOSURE

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643-647) and particularly by sections 4-a and 4-k of said Act as amended, a new section be added to Chapter VI of the Manual to be numbered 605 (1) which shall likewise be inserted as a new paragraph of Section 203 (d) of Chapter II of said Manual, which shall read as follows:

Suspension and Withdrawal.—At any time prior to the acquisition of complete title by the Corporation, the General Manager, with the advice of the General Counsel may, on such terms and conditions as he may determine to be for the best interest of the Corporation, including the cancellation of the old indebtedness and the taking of new loan instruments where necessary, provided no loss to the Corporation is involved in the transaction, direct that foreclosure proceedings or negotiations for a Deed in Lieu of Foreclosure be suspended or withdrawn, and with like advice may arrange and determine the terms and conditions for a reinstatement of the loan or a reacquisition of title by the borrower. The authority herein vested in the General Manager may be exercised also by the Regional Manager with the advice of the Regional Counsel or by the State Manager with the advice of the State Counsel under procedure and limitations prescribed by the General Manager with the approval of the General Counsel.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on June 29, 1937.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF A ROYALTY INTEREST IN THE INLAND-HOWES-CAPITOL FARM, FILED ON MAY 20, 1937, BY SUPREME OIL INC., RESPONDENT

ORDER TERMINATING PROCEEDING AFTER AMENDMENT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, finding that the offering sheet described in the title hereof has been amended to cure the objections specified in the Temporary Suspension Order previously entered in this proceeding;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 354 (c) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the amendment received at the office of the Commission on June 25, 1937, be effective as of June 25, 1937.

It is further ordered that the Temporary Suspension Order heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding is terminated as of the effective date of said amendment.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE AMERICAN STATES OIL COMPANY—SKELLY-DITTMERS FARM, FILED ON DECEMBER 15, 1936, BY AMERICAN STATES OIL COMPANY, RESPONDENT

PERMANENT SUSPENSION ORDER

The Securities and Exchange Commission initiated this proceeding pursuant to the provisions of Rule 340 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to determine whether or not an order should be entered suspending the effectiveness of the filing of an offering sheet of producing landowners' royalty interests in the American States Oil Company—Skelly-Dittmers Farm, located in Rice County, Kansas, which offering sheet was filed with the Commission on December 15, 1936, by American States Oil Company, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the respondent herein.

This matter having come on regularly for hearing before the Commission at Washington, D. C., on January 21, 1937, February 9, 1937, February 23, 1937, and March 23, 1937, and due notice thereof having been given to the said respondent, and the said respondent having failed to appear, and oral and documentary evidence having been introduced, and the hearing having been closed, and the Commission having found upon the evidence that said offering sheet is incomplete and inaccurate in material respects, and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein, and fails to comply with certain material requirements of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission, all as set forth in the Findings and opinion of the Commission filed in this proceeding, and it appearing appropriate in the public interest so to do;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (b) of the Commission's General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be and the same hereby is permanently suspended.

By the Commission.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

NER—B-101—Pennsylvania, Supplement (11) Issued June 30, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—PENNSYLVANIA, SUPPLEMENT (11)

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Bulletin No. 101—Pennsylvania, as amended by supplements (1) to (10) thereto, is hereby further amended as follows:

Section 2 (Soil-Conserving) of Part VI (Classification of Land Use and Crops) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(l) Hay following abandonment of a soil-conserving crop: Small grains, annual grasses, or annual legumes, whether or not harvested for hay provided they are not harvested for grain or seed, if seeded in 1937 as an emergency feed crop for the purpose of replacing another soil-conserving crop which was abandoned because of unusual weather conditions, provided (1) that the acreage of such crops which may be thus classified as soil-conserving shall not be larger than the acreage of soil-conserving crops which were so abandoned and (2) that the State Committee, after investigation, shall designate the counties, if any, in the State where, because of unusual weather conditions, the amount of planted acreage abandoned in 1937 was abnormally large, and the classification provided in this pragraph (l) shall apply only in the counties so designated.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

IN THE MATTER OF BOWER ROLLER BEARING COMPANY

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING TO TERMINATE UNLISTED TRADING PRIVILEGES ON THE NEW YORK CURB EXCHANGE

The Common Stock, $5 Par Value, of Bower Roller Bearing Company having been listed and registered on the Detroit Stock Exchange and unlisted trading privileges therein having been continued on the New York Curb Exchange pursuant to Clause (1) of Section 12 (f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and

Such company, pursuant to Rule UB2, having withdrawn such stock from listing and registration on the Detroit Stock Exchange on June 25, 1936; and

The Commission having, therefore, held a hearing to determine whether unlisted trading privileges in such stock on the New York Curb Exchange should be terminated, pursuant to Section 12 (f) of the Act; and

Such company having reconsidered its decision to delist and having reapplied for listing and registration of such stock on the Detroit Stock Exchange, such listing and registration having become effective on March 29, 1937, and the issues involved in the proceeding under Section 12 (f) thereby becoming moot;

It is ordered, that the said proceeding be and the same hereby is dismissed.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF NON-PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE CENTRAL ROYALTIES COMPANY—CENTRAL-SOOY FARM FILED ON FEBRUARY 3, 1937 BY CENTRAL ROYALTIES COMPANY, RESPONDENT

PERMANENT SUSPENSION ORDER

The Securities and Exchange Commission initiated this proceeding pursuant to the provisions of Rule 340 of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, to determine whether or not an order should be entered suspending the effectiveness of the filing of an offering sheet of nonproducing landowners' royalty interests in the Central Royalties Company—Central-Sooy Farm, located in Barton County, Kansas, which offering sheet was filed with the Commission on February 3, 1937, by Central Royalties Company, of Tulsa, Oklahoma, the respondent herein.

This matter having come on regularly for hearing before the Commission at Washington, D. C., on March 10, 1937, and due notice thereof having been given to the said respondent, and the said respondent having failed to appear, and documentary evidence having been introduced, and the hearing having been closed, and the Commission having found upon the evidence that said offering sheet is incomplete, inaccurate and misleading in material respects, and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein, and fails to comply with certain material requirements of the Rules and Regulations of the Commission, all as set forth in the Findings and Opinion of the Commission filed in this proceeding, and it appearing appropriate in the public interest so to do;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (b) of the Commission's General Rules and Regulations promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be and the same hereby is permanently suspended.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 11]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDER NO. 8 BY EXTENDING THE TIME FOR DISTRICT BOARDS TO FILE STANDARDS OF CLASSIFICATION OF COAL AND PROPOSED STANDARD METHODS AND RULES OF MAKING AND APPLYING SUCH CLASSIFICATIONS AND CONTINUING THE HEARING THEREIN SET

Pursuant to act of Congress, entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders as follows:

1. That the date before which the District Boards of the several districts shall file with the Commission at its office in Washington, D. C., proposed standards of classification of coal and proposed standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications, is hereby extended from the 7th day of July, 1937, as provided in Order No. 8, to the 13th day of July, 1937.

2. That the public hearing set by the Commission in paragraph 2 of said Order No. 8, to be held on the 8th day of July, 1937, is continued to the 15th day of July, 1937, to commence at the hour of 10:00 A. M. on said date in a hearing room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C.

Notice of the extension of time for filing proposed standards of classification of coal and proposed standard methods and rules of making and applying such classifications, and the continuance of the hearing set in Order No. 8 shall, under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission, be given by mailing copies of this order to Consumers' Counsel and to the Acting District Secretaries or the Secretaries of the respective District Boards and by publication of this order upon three consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of said districts.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 1st day of July, 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

WR—B-101—Montana, Supplement 2 Issued July 2, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—MONTANA, SUPPLEMENT 2

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Montana, as amended, is hereby further amended:

Part III, section 1, practice J, is amended to read as follows:

J. Establishment of strip-cropping and fallow.—1. The fallow strips (two or more strips of fallow) to be not les sthan 5 rods nor more than 20 rods in width with intervening strips of small grain crops or small grain stubble the width or twice the width of the fallow strips. The first tillage operation must be completed before June 1, 1937, strips to be approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds. Payment to be made on the acreage of fallow land only and then only when additional to the acreage used for that practice in 1936: $1.00 Per Acre.

2. In designated drouth countries[1] the fallow strips (two or more strips of fallow) to be not less than 5 rods nor more than 20 rods in width with intervening strips of small grain crops, small grain stubble, or natural protective vegetative growth, the width or twice the width of the fallow strips, strips to be approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds. The first tillage operation must be completed before July 15, 1937. Payment to be made on the acreage of fallow land only and then only when additional to the acreage devoted to this practice in 1936: $1.00 Per Acre.

Part III, section 1, practice N is amended to read as follows:

N. Diking for flood water diversion.—1. When practiced on non-irrigated cropland in 1937, in accordance with specifications approved by the Director of the Western Division.

2. When practiced on non-crop pasture land in 1937 in designated emergency drouth counties in accordance with specifications approved by the Director of the Western Division: provided, that after inspection of the proposed diking area the county committee approves such practice: $1.00 Per Acre diked for flooding.

Part III, section 1, is amended by the addition of practice T.

T. Earthen pits or reservoirs for holding run-off and impounding precipitation in counties designed as emergency drouth counties.[1] For constructing earthen pits or reservoirs, with spillways adequate to prevent dams from washing out, in accordance with specifications issued by the Director of the Western Division: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill or excavation.

Part IV, section 1, practice F, as amended in Supplement 1, Western Region Bulletin 101—Montana, is further amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braces on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 Per Rod.

Part VI, section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program: No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 Program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

[1] Big Horn, Blaine, Broadwater, Carbon, Carter, Cascade, Chouteau, Custer, Daniels, Dawson, Fallon, Fergus, Garfield, Glacier, Golden Valley, Hill, Judith Basin, Lewis and Clark, Liberty, McCone, Meagher, Musselshell, Park, Petroleum, Phillips, Pondera, Powder River, Prairie, Richland, Roosevelt, Rosebud, Sheridan, Stillwater, Sweetgrass, Teton, Toole, Treasure, Valley, Wheatland, Wibaux, and Yellowstone.

Par VI, section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, section 1, first paragraph as amended by Supplement 1, WR—B-101—Montana, is further amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Soil-Depleting Crops.—Land devoted to any of the following uses or seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to summer fallow and emergency forage crops.

Part VIII, section 2, first paragraph as amended by Supplement 1, WR—B-101—Montana, is further amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2. Soil-Conserving Crops.—Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937, excluding such cropland upon which no stand of a soil-conserving crop is secured, shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except as provided in Item e, Section 3, of this Part VIII, with respect to legumes and grasses; and except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1, Part VIII of this bulletin) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year.

Part VIII, section 3, is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:

a. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, bush fruits, hops, and perennial vegetables, regardless of the use of the land between the rows.

b. Idle cropland.

c. Bulbs and nursery stock.

d. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

e. Any acreage on which perennial or biennial legumes or perennial grasses have been seeded following summer fallow when no soil-depleting crop has been seeded on such land for harvest in 1937.

f. Emergency Forage Crops.

1. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936, provided, such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to May 1, 1937.

2. In counties designated as emergency drouth counties,[2] any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, sorghums, close drilled corn, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936, provided such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to July 15, 1937.

Part XI, section 3, as amended by Supplement 1, Western Region Bulletin 101—Montana, is further amended by amending subsection B-1 to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I Payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection D, of this Part XI by 66.7 percent.

In testimony whereof H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 2nd day of July, 1937.

[SEAL] H. A. WALLACE,
Secretary of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—North Dakota, Supplement 2 Issued July 2, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—NORTH DAKOTA, SUPPLEMENT 2

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—North Dakota, as amended, is hereby further amended:

The definition of "Range Land" in Part I is amended to read as follows:

Range Land means any land other than that owned or controlled by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, in which a ranch operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof which produces forage for range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation ten acres or more of which, on the average for the ranching unit, are required to graze one animal unit.

Part III, section 1, practice J, is amended to read as follows:

J. Establishment of strip cropping and fallow.—1. The fallow strips (two or more strips of fallow) to be not less than 5 rods nor more than 20 rods in width with intervening strips of small grain crops or small grain stubble the width or twice the width of the fallow strips. The first tillage operation must be completed before June 1, 1937, strips to be approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds. Payment to be made on the acreage of fallow land only and then only when additional to the acreage used for that practice in 1936: $1.00 per acre.

2. In designated drouth counties,[1] the fallow strips (two or more strips of fallow) to be not less than 5 rods nor more than 20 rods in width with intervening strips of small grain crops, small grain stubble, or natural protective vegetative growth, the width or twice the width of the fallow strips, strips to be approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds. The first tillage operation must be completed before July 15, 1937. Payment to be made on the acreage of fallow land only and then only when additional to the acreage devoted to this practice in 1936: $1.00 per acre.

Part III, section 1, is amended by the addition of practice Q:

Q. Earthen pits or reservoirs for holding run-off and impounding precipitation in counties designated as emergency drouth counties.[1] For constructing earthen pits or reservoirs, with spillways adequate to prevent dams from washing out, in accordance with specifications issued by the Director of the Western Division: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill or excavation.

Part IV, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Range-Building Practices and Rates.—Payment will be made for carrying out on range land in 1937 such of the following range-building practices as are approved by the county committee for the ranching unit prior to their institution, provided that the range-building payment with respect to any ranching unit shall not exceed the range-building allowance for such ranching unit.

Part IV, Section 1, practice F, as amended in Supplement 1, WR—B-101—North Dakota, is further amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braces on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together, with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program: No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, as amended by Supplement 1, WR—B-101—North Dakota, is further amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Soil-Depleting Crops.—Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to emergency forage crops.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph, as amended by Supplement 1, WR—B-101—North Dakota, is further amended to read as follows:

SECTION 2. Soil-Conserving Crops.—Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937, excluding such cropland upon which no stand of a soil-conserving crop is secured, shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1, Part VIII of this bulletin) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year.

Part VIII, Section 3, is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:

a. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, bush fruits, hops, and perennial vegetables, regardless of the use of the land between the rows.
b. Idle cropland.
c. Bulbs and nursery stock.
d. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930 and January 1, 1934.
e. Cultivated fallow (Summer fallow).
f. Emergency Forage Crops.

1. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936, provided, such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to May 1, 1937.

2. In counties designated as emergency drouth counties,[2] any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, sorghums, close drilled corn, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936, provided such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to July 15, 1937.

Part XI, Section 3, as amended by Supplement 1, Western Region, Bulletin 101, North Dakota, is further amended by amending subsection B–1 to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection D, of this Part XI, by 66.7 percent.

In testimony whereof H. A. Wallace, Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 2nd day of July 1937.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD.

RULES GOVERNING EMPLOYERS' REPORTS OF MONTHLY COMPENSATION OF EMPLOYEES

To All Employers Subject to the Railroad Retirement Act:

To facilitate administration of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, and in order to make possible compliance with Section 8 thereof, it is necessary that a record be maintained by the Railroad Retirement Board showing the monthly earnings of each individual for employment covered by the Act in any calendar month subsequent to December 31, 1936.

The Board desires to cooperate with the employers in every way possible in order to reduce to a minimum the cost of reporting compensation. Subject to limitations imposed by available funds for administrative purposes, the Board may accept certified copies of monthly payrolls or punched tabulating cards in substitution of report forms hereinafter prescribed. The Board cannot permit substitution of report forms which would materially increase the cost of recording, or provide for reporting at longer intervals than those prescribed herein for regular reports.

Unless otherwise specifically agreed in writing approved by the Director of the Bureau of Accounts of the Railroad Retirement Board, every employer under the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937:

A. On or before August 31, 1937, shall forward to the Railroad Retirement Board, a report of the compensation earned by each employee for service during each of the months January, 1937, to June, 1937, inclusive. This report shall consist of:

(1) Either of the following: Form BA–2 "Report of Compensation of Employees for Six Months Ended June 30, 1937", or Form BA–3—"Report of Compensation of Employees for Three Months Ended ------, 193--" complete for each quarter.

(2) Form BA–4—"Compensation Adjustment Applicable to Service in Prior Months Included in Reports of Current Compensation Which Adversely Affect the Interest of Either the Employee or the Railroad Retirement Fund for the Three Months Ended ------, 193--"; and

(3) Form BA–5—"Summary Report of Compensation of Employees for the Three Months Ended ------, 193--", for each of the quarters ended March 31, 1937, and June 30, 1937.

(NOTE.—This section shall apply only to the period ending June 30, 1937. Thereafter, all reports shall be rendered on a quarterly basis as provided in Section B.)

B. On or before the expiration of 30 days after the close of each quarter beginning with the quarterly period ending September 30, 1937, each employer shall forward to the Railroad Retirement Board a report of the compensation earned by each employee for service during each month of such quarter. This report shall consist of:

(1) Form BA–3—"Report of Compensation of Employees for Three Months Ended ---------- 193--";

(2) Form BA–4—"Compensation Adjustments Applicable to Service in Prior Months Included in Reports of Current Compensation Which Adversely Affect the Interest of Either the Employees or the Railroad Retirement Fund for the Three Months Ended ---------- 193--"; and

(3) Form BA–5—"Summary Report of Compensation of Employees for the Three Months Ended ---------- 193--."

A brief description of the items for which provision is made follows:

1. Employer.—The corporate name of the employer shall be shown on each sheet of the report.

2. Employer Number.—The identification number assigned by the Railroad Retirement Board to the employer shall be shown on each sheet of the report.

3. Employee Account Number.—The 9-digit number assigned either by the Social Security Board or the Railroad Retirement Board and shown on the employee's account number card shall be shown.

4. Employee Name.—The last name, or surname, of the employee shall be shown in full as it appears on the account number card, together with the first name or initials. The order in which this information is shown is optional with the employer and may follow the method used in preparation of his payroll. The Board prefers the surname first, followed by either the first name and middle initial, or by both initials.

5. I. C. C. Occupation Classification.—The number of the occupational classification to be shown on each quarterly report shall be that to which the employee is assigned in reports to the Interstate Commerce Commission during the first month of each reporting period. During the calendar year 1937, this information need be reported only for the month of June, 1937.

6. Compensation.—The total compensation shown on a payroll or other disbursement document for a particular calendar month shall be shown on Form BA–3 (or Form BA–2) for every employee except for those employees in I. C. C. General Occupational Classification I, "Executives, Officials and Staff Assistants," whose earnings exceed $300 in any one month. For these latter employees, either total compensation or $300 shall be reported for each individual. The practice of reporting total compensation or $300 for each of these employees shall be constant for a particular employer and may be changed only after approval by the Director, Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board.

7. Adjustments.—Any adjustment of compensation shown on a payroll or other disbursement document for a current month and included in the report as compensation for that month which represents an adjustment of compensation shown on the payroll for the prior month shall be reported on Form BA–4, "Compensation Adjustments Applicable to Service in Prior Months Included in Reports of Current Compensation Which Adversely Affect the Interest of Either the Employee or the Railroad Retirement Fund for the Three Months Ended ------ 193--:"

(a) If it affects the service period.

Example: An employee is shown on July payrolls for $200. On October payrolls the same employee is carried for $25 omitted time for July, without any current earnings. Form BA–3 shall include $200 for July and $25 for October. Form BA–4 shall include the adjustment of both July and October reports so that no service credit will be made for earnings reported in October.

(b) If such amount shall be sufficient to cause the total compensation reported for either the current or prior month to exceed $300.

Example: An employee is shown on March payrolls for $275. On April payrolls the same employee is carried for $300 for current earnings and $25 omitted time for March, or $325. Form BA–3 shall include $275 for March and $325 for April. Form BA–4 shall include the adjustment of both March and April so that the employee's record may be corrected to include $600 creditable wages instead of $575 creditable wages inferred from Form BA–3.

(c) If such amount shall be sufficient to cause the total compensation reported as more than $300 for either the current or prior month, to be $300 or less. Example: An employee is shown on May payrolls for $320. On June payrolls the same employee is carried for $295 for current earnings less $25 overpay in May, or $270. Form BA–3 shall include $320 for May and $270 for June.

Form BA–4 shall include the adjustment of both May and June so that the employee's record may be corrected to include $590 creditable earnings instead of $570 creditable wages inferred from Form BA–3.

(d) If such adjustment represents an adjustment of compensation earned prior to January 1, 1937. Example: An employee is shown on April, 1937 payrolls for $200 for current earnings less $25 overpay for November, 1936, or $175. Form BA–3 shall include $175 for April, 1937. Form BA–4 shall include the adjustment of April, 1937 under "Current Reporting", and the month and year affected by the adjustment shall be shown under "Prior Reporting" but no amounts should be shown under that heading.

It is the intent of Sections 6 and 7 of these instructions that any adjustment of compensation shown on a payroll or other disbursement document for a current month which would not affect the amount of annuity if reported as a part of current earnings instead of as an adjustment of prior earnings, shall be reported on Form BA–3 (of Form BA–2) as a part of the compensation earned during the month covered by the payroll or other disbursement document on which the adjustment is made.

Example: An employee is shown on August payrolls for $280. On November payrolls the same employee is carried for $270 current earnings less $10 overpay for August, or $260. Form BA–3 shall include $280 for August and $260 for November. No entry is required on Form BA–4 since the employee is entitled to credit for 2 service months and $540 earnings which are credited from Form BA–3 reportings.

8. Summary and Recapitulation.—The total for each sheet of Form BA–3 shall be shown and recapitulated on additional sheets of form BA–3, using the name column for sheet number and the last three columns for the amounts. If the report is of sufficient size to justify a grand recapitulation, the same forms shall be used for that purpose. Upon submission of detailed information indicating that the amounts shown on Form BA–3 are mechanically tabulated for totals concurrently with the listing of the report, the Director of the Bureau of Accounts of the Railroad Retirement Board may authorize the substitution of departmental, divisional, or other totals for sheet totals. Similar recapitulation shall be made for reports rendered on Farm BA–2.

The grand total of the report for each carrier as shown on the recapitulation shall be shown on Form BA–5 "Summary Report of Compensation of Employees for the Three Months Ended _____ 193__." The compensation earned by individuals in each month in excess of $300 which is included in the report shall be shown in total together with the net amount or taxable earnings in each month.

The declaration shall be signed by an authorized responsible official of the employer and the jurat completed by a notary public.

All reports, correspondence, requests for extension of time, or variation of other reporting requirements, requisitions for forms, etc., relating to this order should be addressed to the Director, Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, Washington, D. C.

UNITED STATES MARITIME COMMISSION.

ORDER FOR HEARINGS ON MINIMUM-MANNING SCALES, MINIMUM-WAGE SCALES, AND REASONABLE WORKING CONDITIONS

Pursuant to the authority and direction to the Commission contained in Title III, Section 301 (a) of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, to investigate employment and wage conditions in ocean-going shipping and, after such investigation and appropriate hearings, to incorporate in contracts authorized under Titles VI and VII of said Act, minimum-manning scales, minimum-wage scales, and reasonable working conditions for all officers and crews employed on all types of vessels receiving an operating-differential subsidy, it is hereby Ordered that such investigation be made and that, for the purpose thereof and for the further purpose of affording to all interested parties an appropriate opportunity to be heard, public hearings be held to take evidence of the relevant facts concerning such employment and wage conditions in ocean-going shipping to be considered by the Commission, together with other facts obtained through its investigations, in determining what minimum manning scales and minimum wage scales and reasonable working conditions should be incorporated in contracts authorized under Title VI and VII of said Act;

Further ordered that said hearings be held at the places and commence at the times set forth in the following schedule:

Schedule of Hearings

Further ordered that the hearings set forth in said schedule under the heading "Atlantic and Gulf Ports" be conducted by Thomas M. Woodward, a member of the Commission, and that the hearings set forth in said schedule under the heading "Pacific Ports" be conducted by Edward C. Moran, Jr., a member of the Commission.

Further ordered that the member of the Commission conducting any of said hearings may change the time and place thereof, may continue or adjourn said hearing from time to time, and may conduct the same in such manner and under such rules as by him may be deemed necessary or advisable.

By the Commission.

Dated June 30, 1937.

[SEAL] W. C. PEET, Jr., Secretary.

All interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to present facts relating to the subject matter of the hearings either orally or in writing.

Without limiting the subject matters to be considered at these hearings, the following matters will be considered for the licensed and unlicensed personnel of the deck and engine departments, radio operators, and the personnel of the steward's department, respectively:

Present manning conditions and any provisions which may be proposed for the minimum-manning scales to be adopted by the Commission for various types of subsidized passenger and freight vessels;

Present wage conditions and any provisions which may be proposed for the minimum-wage scales to be adopted by the Commission for various types of subsidized passenger and freight vessels;

Present working conditions and any provisions which may be proposed for the reasonable working conditions to be adopted by the Commission for various types of subsidized passenger and freight vessels, particularly with reference to living conditions aboard ship; nature and hours of work at sea and in port; work which will constitute overtime work at sea and in port; and overtime pay or time off in lieu thereof; vacations, including provisions for determining continuous service for such purposes; and subsistence and travel allowances.

The hearings are to be confined exclusively to the presentation of facts with respect to employment conditions and wages in ocean-going shipping and any facts which tend to support the inclusion or exclusion of any provisions which may be proposed for the minimum-manning or wage scales or reasonable working conditions to be adopted by the Commission for vessels subsidized under the Act.

Immediately after the conclusion of these hearings and at a time to be later announced by the Comimssion, an opportunity for argument on the facts developed at the hearings will be afforded to all interested parties before the full Commission in Washington.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Public Health Service.

REGULATIONS OF THE SURGEON GENERAL GOVERNING ALLOTMENTS AND PAYMENTS TO STATES FROM FUNDS APPROPRIATED UNDER THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 601, SOCIAL SECURITY ACT, FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 1938

I. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW AND REGULATIONS

In order that funds allotted to the States may be of maximum use in assisting States, counties, and health districts, and other political sub-divisions of the States, in establishing and maintaining adequate public health service, payments made to a State under authority of Title VI of the Social Security Act will be certified by the Surgeon General only after such State has complied with the provisions of the Act and the Regulations authorized thereunder.

II. ALLOTMENTS

Funds appropriated by the Congress for the fiscal year 1938 and balances remaining unpaid to the States at the end of the fiscal year 1937 will be allotted to the States on the basis of (1) population, (2) special health problems, (3) financial needs, as provided in Title VI of the Social Security Act of August 14, 1935, in accordance with the following percentage distribution:

1. Population

Allotments amounting to 30.7 percent of the available appropriations will be made to the several States in the ratio which the population of each State bears to the population of the United States as shown by the last decennial federal census.

2. Special Health Problems

Allotments amounting to 38.6 percent of available appropriations will be made to the several States on the basis of special health problems including the training of personnel, as determined by the Surgeon General.

3. Financial Needs

Allotments amounting to 30.7 percent of available appropriations will be made to the States on the basis of the financial needs of such States.

III. BALANCES FROM ALLOTMENTS

Unpaid balances from allotments at the end of the fiscal year shall not be paid but shall remain in the appropriation for reallotment to the States in the succeeding fiscal year in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (b), Section 602, of the Social Security Act.

IV. BALANCES FROM PAYMENTS

Unexpended balances remaining from quarterly payments made to the States in accordance with the provisions of Subsection (c), Section 602, of the Social Security Act during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, or any previous fiscal year, may be retained by the States and utilized for carrying out the purposes for which such funds were allotted and paid, subject to the following conditions:

1. Balances required under these regulations to be matched with State or local funds must be so matched before they are expended.

2. Itemized budgets for the expenditure of such balances must be submitted and approved prior to such expenditure.

3. Where savings occur in items allocated to State or local funds in the operation of any budget in which federal funds allotted under the provisions of Title VI of the Social Security Act are used, there shall be a proportionate reduction in the amount of federal funds expended unless such savings be rebudgeted for the support of items in the budget for the particular project involved.

V. SUBMISSION OF PLANS

To be eligible to receive payments from allotments each State shall have presented: (a) a comprehensive statement of the present State health organization, programs and budget; (b) a proposed plan for extending and improving the administrative functions of the State department of health; (c) a proposed plan for extending and improving local (county, district, city) health services to be carried out with the assistance of funds available under the provisions of Title VI of the Social Security Act.

VI. SUBMISSION AND APPROVAL OF BUDGETS

Before payments shall be made to any State, the State health officer shall:

(a) Submit to the Surgeon General and secure approval of a proposed budget, for each project, on forms supplied by the Public Health Service. The budget shall show the sources, purposes, and amounts of all funds, the amounts requested from the Public Health Service for the fiscal year, together with such other information relating to such proposed project as the Surgeon General may require. The application for quarterly payment to a State shall include only those funds required for financing budgets actually in force, or which definitely will become operative, in the quarter for which payment is requested.

(b) Certify that State and local expenditures have not been replaced or curtailed through the use of federal funds.

VII. SUPPLEMENTAL AND REVISED BUDGETS

Supplemental budgets for the purpose of utilizing unpaid balances of allotments, or unexpended balances from payments made on the basis of previously approved budgets, may be submitted for any subsequent quarter after the beginning of the fiscal year, for (a) new projects or (b) adding new items to existing budgets.

Revisions of existing budgets shall be submitted whenever the rate of expenditure for any budget item is to be increased; but not when through lapses or otherwise the expenditures are to be decreased. Such savings from approved budgets may be transferred to other budgets after such revised budget is submitted for approval.

Supplemental and revised budgets submitted in any quarter after the beginning of the fiscal year shall not be made effective prior to the beginning of the next succeeding quarter; provided, that exceptions to this rule may be made, with the approval of the Surgeon General, when necessary to meet emergencies.

VIII. EXISTING APPROPRIATIONS NOT TO BE REPLACED

Payments to aid existing State or local projects will be supplemental to funds now being expended and in no case shall such payments replace existing State or local appropriations for the purpose of relieving State or local authorities from expenditures now being made. Should appropriations for the fiscal year 1938 be less than appropriations for the year 1937, the payment from funds allotted for 1938 will be reduced in a like amount.

IX. MATCHING REQUIREMENTS

Allotments to States shall be available for payment when matched by State or local public funds appropriated and expended for public health work, as hereinafter provided.

As hereinafter used, the term appropriations shall mean State and local funds (existing and new) appropriated for public health work exclusive of those sums which have been or are being used to match grants provided by federal agencies other than the United States Public Health Service.

1. States which met all matching requirements for the fiscal year 1937 will be eligible for payment of all funds allotted for the year 1938, provided 1938 appropriations are at least equal to 1937 appropriations. If 1938 appropriations are less, the reduction in payment of federal funds required under the provisions of Section VIII will apply.

2. States which did not meet all matching requirements for the fiscal year 1937, but whose total allotment for 1938 is equal to or greater than that for 1937, will be eligible for payment of all funds allotted for the year 1938, provided 1938 appropriations have been increased to meet the matching requirements for 1937.

3. States which did not meet all matching requirements for the fiscal year 1937, but whose total allotment for 1938 is less than that for 1937, are eligible for payment of all funds allotted for the year 1938, provided appropriations for 1938 are equal to appropriations for the year 1937. If 1938 appropriations are less, the reduction in payment of federal funds required under the provisions of Section VIII will apply.

4. The Surgeon General, in his discretion, may waive matching requirements in those States wherein the per capita [1] appropriation for the State health department (exclusive of funds for the maintenance of institutions) exceeds the average per capita appropriations of all of the States for the same purposes.

X. PAYMENTS ON THE BASIS OF SPECIAL HEALTH PROBLEMS

In the allotment of funds for special health problems this term shall be interpreted to mean necessity arising out of (1) high morbidity or mortality on a State-wide basis from particular causes, such as malaria, hookworm, bubonic plague, trachoma, typhus fever, and similar geographically limited diseases or other conditions that result in inequality of exposure to public health hazards among the States; (2) special industrial hazards; and (3) other special conditions which create unequal burdens in the administration of equal public health services among the States.

XI. TRAINING OF PERSONNEL

In order to meet the needs for properly qualified professional and technical personnel with which to conduct effectively the State and local health services, the sum of $1,184,175 shall be set aside for the fiscal year 1938 and allotted to the States for this purpose. Of this sum $1,003,655 shall be allotted among the several States as far as practicable to meet in full the training demands as submitted by the State health officers. The sum of $180,500 shall be allotted for approved training centers.

XII. PURPOSES FOR WHICH TRAINING FUNDS MAY BE USED

Funds paid to a State for the training of personnel may be used to pay living stipends, tuition, and traveling expenses of personnel employed or to be employed in the State and local health services, such training period not to exceed one year for any individual.

The Surgeon General will recommend to the States the maximum allowances for stipends, traveling and other permissible items of expense for the training of personnel.

These funds may also be used to aid training centers in the equipment and maintenance of training courses.

XIII. PAYMENTS ON THE BASIS OF FINANCIAL NEED

The funds to be allotted to the several States for the fiscal year 1938 on the basis of financial needs ($2,800,000) shall be distributed among the several States in accordance with the ability of the State to raise revenue expressed indirectly in terms of per capita income.

XIV. METHOD OF PAYMENT TO STATES

Payments to the States shall be made in quarterly installments, subject to approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, to the Treasurer of the State or other State official authorized by law to receive such funds.

XV. CUSTODY AND DISBURSEMENT OF FUND

All such payments shall be held by the State official to whom made in a separate fund distinct from other State funds and shall be disbursed by him solely for the purpose or purposes specified in budgets approved by the State health officer and the Surgeon General and filed with such official.

[1] To be calculated on the Census Bureau 1936 midyear estimate of population.

XVI. FINANCIAL REPORTS

The State health officer shall submit to the Surgeon General on forms provided for that purpose quarterly financial reports as follows:

(a) A quarterly project financial report for each budget in force; and

(b) A consolidated quarterly report summarizing all budgets.

The consolidated quarterly financial report must be certified also by the Treasurer or other State official charged with the responsibility for disbursing funds so far as State health department funds may be concerned. Where such officials are not authorized to certify with respect to the expenditure of local funds, the report must be accompanied by certificates from appropriate local fiscal officials.

The reports shall show the amount of Public Health Service funds actually expended, the actual expenditure of State and local funds, and such other information as the Surgeon General may from time to time require.

XVII. PROGRESS REPORTS OF ACTIVITIES

Quarterly reports of activities will be required by the Public Health Service from each State health department as follows:

(a) Activities of central administration and service projects pursuant to approved budgets shall be reported quarterly in duplicate and may be submitted in narrative form.

(b) A copy of the progress report from each local health project pursuant to approved budgets shall be furnished to the Regional Office on forms of the State health department.

(c) A consolidated summary report for all local projects pursuant to approved budgets shall be made to the Surgeon General on forms provided by the Public Health Service for that purpose.

The listing of certain items on the summary report form referred to above should not be interpreted as requiring that all such activities be carried out in every local health project. Also, other activities not listed on the report form should be reported in an appropriate manner.

Statistical reports may be submitted with narrative reports wherever considered desirable by the State health officer.

XVIII. REPORTS OF ACTIVITIES AND EXPENDITURES FROM "OTHER AGENCIES" NOT REQUIRED

No detailed accounting of expenditures and no detailed reports of activities will be required for personnel and other expenditures paid from funds supplied by other agencies unless such funds are used for purposes of meeting the matching requirements of the Public Health Service.

Approved June 30, 1937.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE USE, ADMINISTRATION, AND NAVIGATION OF THE AREA BETWEEN PORTSMOUTH HARBOR, N. H., AND THE ISLE OF SHOALS

THE LAW

Section 7 of the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, provides as follows:

That section four of the River and Harbor Act of August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, as amended by section eleven of the River and Harbor Act of June thirteenth, nineteen hundred and two, be, and is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

THE REGULATIONS

In conformity with the above law the following regulations are prescribed to govern the use, administration and navigation of the area within a thousand yard radius of a point in the State of New Hampshire lying westerly from Isle of Shoals, bearing 270° true from White Island Light, distance 6500 yards, for a period of two (2) months from June 15, 1937, to August 15, 1937, inclusive, for the performance of certain tests involving the use of explosives.

1. A notice giving a description of the area and warning the public to avoid entering it during the progress of experiments shall be published by the Hydrographic Office in each issue of the Notice to Mariners, the weekly Hydrographic Bulletin, the Daily Memorandum, and Radio Broadcasts, during the two (2) months period from June 15, 1937, to August 15, 1937, inclusive.

2. The presence, in the vicinity, of a vessel of the United States Navy bearing a red pennant as a danger signal, shall be deemed to be sufficient evidence that the tests are in progress and notice to all persons to avoid the area.

3. It shall be the duty of the United States Navy Department to maintain in the vicinity during the actual progress of the tests a suitable vessel bearing a red pennant as a danger signal and to warn away all intruders for the purpose of avoiding injury to persons or property.

4. For the purpose of enforcing the vacating of the above described area by any person or persons at such times within the above two (2) months period, during which tests are actually in progress the penalties specified in Section 4 of the above mentioned River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917, shall be applicable against any person or corporation which shall refuse after due warning to vacate the area.

Approved, June 4, 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF MARLIN-ROCKWELL CORPORATION COMMON CAPITAL STOCK, PAR VALUE $1

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND FOR HEARING DESIGNATING OFFICER AND TIME AND PLACE FOR TAKING TESTIMONY

Whereas, Marlin-Rockwell Corporation, a corporation, is the issuer of Common Capital Stock, par value $1.00; and

Whereas said Marlin-Rockwell Corporation registered such security on the New York Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange, by filing, on or about May 15, 1935, an application with the said Exchange and with the Commission, pursuant to Section 12 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and pursuant to Rule JB1 as amended, promulgated by the Commission thereunder; and

Whereas, Section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires that every issuer of a security registered on a national securities exchange shall file such annual reports as the Commission may by rule and regulation prescribe; and

Whereas, said Marlin-Rockwell Corporation filed on or about April 30, 1936 an annual report on Form 10K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1935, pursuant to Section 13 (a) and (b) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rules KA1 and KA2 promulgated by the Commission thereunder; and

Whereas, said Marlin-Rockwell Corporation has failed to comply with the provisions of said Section 13 (a) and (b), said Rules KA1 and KA2 and with the provisions of said Form 10K and with the provisions of the Instructions for said Form 10K and the Rules and Regulations of the Commission supplemental thereto, as amended, in that neither the Annual Report filed by it for the year ended December 31, 1935 nor any amendment thereto contains the amount of sales and cost of goods sold required by Item 8 of said Form 10K and the Instructions thereto and the Rules and Regulations of the Commission to be furnished as a part of any profit and loss statement submitted thereunder;

It is ordered that pursuant to Section 19 (a) (2) of said Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, a hearing be held to determine whether said Marlin-Rockwell Corporation has so failed to comply with said provisions of said Section 13 (a) and (b) and said Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission thereunder, or with either provision of said Section or of any Rule or Regulation promulgated by the Commission under said Section, and if so, whether it is necessary or appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months or to withdraw the registration of said Common Capital Stock, par value $1.00, on said New York Stock Exchange; and

It is further ordered that said Marlin-Rockwell Corporation appear before an officer of the Commission and show cause why the registration of said Common Capital Stock, par value $1.00, on said New York Stock Exchange should not be suspended for a period not exceeding 12 months or withdrawn as provided in Section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; and

It is further ordered that for the purpose of such proceeding, Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law; and

It is further ordered that a public hearing for the taking of testimony begin on the 14th day of July, 1937, at 10:00 A. M., in Room No. 1103 at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE TIDEWATER-SHAFFER TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 26, 1937, BY GEORGE C. CREAGER, INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" shows two producing oil wells and one drilling well on the tract involved, whereas from the information disclosed in Division II, Items 19 (c), (d) and (e), it appears that there is one producing well and two drilling wells on said tract;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE FLEETBORN-MORIN TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 25, 1937, BY GENERAL INDUSTRIES CORP., LTD., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

(2) In that the second paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

(3) In that the smallest fractional interest proposed to be conveyed, as set forth in the instrument attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B", may not be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PHILLIPS "L" COMMUNITY TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 25, 1937, BY GENERAL INDUSTRIES CORP., LTD., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information disclosed in Division II, Item 13, may be misleading for the reason that said item calls for the presentation of factual data only, whereas the information given in the last paragraph of said item is based upon "the opinion of the writer"; also, the information relative to the number of drilling wells, which is required to be set forth, is omitted;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 19 (c), it is believed that the depths of some of the wells are not correct for the reason that they do not agree with the depths of the wells as shown by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A." However, it is not possible to verify the information given for the reason that the names of said wells are omitted from said plat;

(3) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

(4) In that the second paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

(5) In that the numbers and depths of the wells located on blocks "O" and "R" are omitted, as is also the number of the well located on block "22";

(NOTE.—The names of the wells should be given so that they can be properly identified, and it appears that the well on block "22" should be designated as a producing well.)

(6) In that the smallest fractional interest proposed to be conveyed, as set forth in the instrument attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B", may not be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 2nd day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PURE OIL CO.-YORK TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 25, 1937, BY T. S. HOSE ASSOCIATES, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the date upon which the effectiveness of the offering sheet will expire, as set forth in Division I, paragraph 5, is not believed to be correct;

(2) In that the description of the tract involved, as set forth in Division II, Item 2 (c), is not believed to be the correct legal description for said property;

(3) In that the area in acres of the tract, as set forth in Division II, Item 2 (d), does not agree with similar information disclosed in Exhibit B;

(4) In that in Division II, Item 10, no statement is made that the interests offered are subject to a pro ration tax of ⅞ of 1¢, nor is any information given as to the time of payment of the taxes mentioned, or by whom said taxes are assessed or to whom said taxes are payable;

(5) In that the statements made in Division II, Items 11 (b) and (c), are not responsive to the questions asked;

(6) In that in Division II, Item 13, no statement is made relative to the number of drilling wells;

(7) In that in Division II, Item 17 (b), the statement made is not responsive to the question asked;

(8) In that in Division II, Item 17 (c), the percentage of allowable is not given;

(9) In that in Division II, Items 19 (c) and (e), the depths at which each of the wells located upon the tract involved were completed, are required to be given, which information is not set forth; (Note: This item does not call for the average depth, nor a statement as to the sand thickness.)

(10) In that the information given in Division II, Item 20 (b), relative to the percentage of water in fluid produced from the tract, is not responsive to the question asked, and should be set forth in percentages by months;

(11) In that the figures given for the months of November, 1936 and January, 1937, in Division II, Item 20 (d), are not believed to be correct;

(12) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

(13) In that the date which is required to be given in Division II, Item 22, is incomplete;

(14) In that the offering sheet, as filed, is not signed in the proper manner; (Note: Signature of offeror should immediately follow first paragraph of representations.)

(15) In that the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" does not show the name of the operator, nor are the depths of the wells located upon the tract involved and upon the adjoining tracts to a distance of at least ⅛ of a mile shown;

(16) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete for the reason that the smallest interest to be conveyed is omitted;

(17) In that Division III of the offering sheet, as filed, is incomplete, inaccurate, or misleading in the following respects:

(a) the appended sentence of Item 2 is not required;

(b) the data on page A–9 above Item 4 contains the data that is later given in Item 4 and is, therefore, unnecessary;

(c) computation of estimated recovery of fractional interests other than the smallest fractional interest is not required;

(d) it appears that no consideration has been given to the shrinkage of oil caused by the liberation of gas from solution;

(e) the calculations on page A–6 are incorrect, either through typographical errors or mistakes in arithmetic;

(f) there is apparently a typographical error in stating the estimated total number of barrels of oil recoverable (Division III, Item 4 (a));

(g) regarding the J. T. Thompson lease which is used for comparison, the engineer fails to state who estimated the recoverable oil to be 200,000 barrels per acre, and also what other factors and conditions in addition to sand thickness are comparable:

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matter, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the date upon which the offering sheet will expire, which is required to be given in Division I, paragraph 5, is omitted;

(2) In that the smallest fractional interest offered, as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not stated in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(3) In that the statement made in Division II, Item 3 (f), does not, without a full explanation, appear to agree with the statement set forth in Division II, Item 3 (d);

(4) In that Division II, Item 15, requires that a definite date be stated, whereas from the statement made in this item the information relative to the required date is ambiguous;

(5) In that the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" does not disclose a scale of the property, nor is the operator's name given;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE CONSTITUTION

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Constitution of the United States was signed on September 17, 1787, and had by June 21, 1788, been ratified by the necessary number of States; and

WHEREAS George Washington was inaugurated as the first President of the United States on April 30, 1789:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, hereby designate the period from September 17, 1937, to April 30, 1939, as one of commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing and the ratification of the Constitution and of the inauguration of the first President under that Constitution.

In commemorating this period we shall affirm our debt to those who ordained and established the Constitution "in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity".

We shall recognize that the Constitution is an enduring instrument fit for the governing of a far-flung population of more than one hundred and thirty million engaged in diverse and varied pursuits, even as it was fit for the governing of a small agrarian nation of less than four million.

It is therefore appropriate that in the period herein set apart we shall think afresh of the founding of our Government under the Constitution, how it has served us in the past and how in the days to come its principles will guide the nation ever forward.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

[SEAL] FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
CORDELL HULL

[T. D. 49069]

REVOCATION OF DRAWBACK AUTHORIZATIONS, PUBLISHED AND UNPUBLISHED, COVERING THE ALLOWANCE OF DRAWBACK ON IMPORTED PIECE GOODS WHICH ARE IMPERIAL FINISHED, SHRINKPROOFED OR SUBJECTED TO A SIMILAR PROCESS, SUCH AS SANFORIZING

JULY 2, 1937.

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

In the case of Howard Hardy & Co., Inc., v. United States, T. D. 48978, the United States Court of Customs and Patent Appeals affirmed the decision of the United States Customs Court in the same cause, that imported piece goods which have been Imperial finished have not been "manufactured or produced in the United States", within the meaning of section 313 (a), title III, Tariff Act of 1930, and in the case of the Frank Textile Corporation v. United States, T. D. 48562, the United States Customs Court held to the same effect in connection with imported piece goods which have been shrinkproofed. In view of these decisions, all rates and authorizations, published and unpublished, providing for the allowance of drawback on imported piece goods which are Imperial finished or shrinkproofed are hereby revoked, so far as they relate to the allowance of drawback on imported piece goods to which such processes have been applied. Entries filed under the provisions of such rates and authorizations should be liquidated in accordance with the procedure provided for in article 830 (e), Customs Regulations of 1931.

All rates and authorizations, published and unpublished, providing for the allowance of drawback on imported piece goods which are subjected to a process similar to Imperial finishing or shrinkproofing, such as the process of Sanforizing, are also revoked hereby, so far as they relate to the allowance of drawback on imported piece goods which have been subjected to such a process. Entries filed under the provisions of these rates and authorizations should be liquidated in accordance with the procedure set forth in article 830 (f) of the customs regulations.

INSTRUCTIONS UNDER THE ACT OF CONGRESS PROVIDING FOR THE SELECTION OF LANDS IN THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA FOR THE USE OF THE CALIFORNIA STATE PARK SYSTEM[1]

JUNE 22, 1937.

Register, United States Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

SIR: The act of Congress approved June 29, 1936 (49 Stat. 2027), entitled "An Act To provide for the selection of certain lands in the State of California for the use of the California State park system" reads as follows:

That subject to valid rights existing on the date of this Act, the State of California may within five years select for State park purposes by legal subdivisions all or any portion of the public land not reserved for public purposes in the following townships:

Township 9 south, range 9 east; township 9 south, range 10 east; township 10 south, range 9 east; township 10 south, range 10 east; township 10 south, range 11 east; township 11 south, range 9 east; township 11 south, range 10 east; and township 11 south, range 11 east, San Bernardino meridian.

Upon the submission of satisfactory proof that the land selected contains characteristic desert growth and scenic or other natural features which it is desirable to preserve as a part of the California State park system the Secretary of the Interior shall cause patents to issue therefor: Provided, That there shall be reserved to the United States all coal, oil, gas, or other mineral contained in such lands, together with the right to prospect for, mine, and remove the same at such times and under such conditions as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe: Provided further, That any patent so issued shall contain a provision reserving to the United States for the use of the United States and its permittees, including Imperial Irrigation District, the perpetual right to flow or permit water to flow over or pond or permit water to be ponded upon any part of the lands so patented with right to go upon same and to locate, relocate, construct, reconstruct, and maintain any works necessary or convenient to the full use thereof including telephone and electrical transmission lines, and shall also contain provision for reversion of title to the United States upon a finding by the Secretary of the Interior that for a period of more than one year the land has not been used by the State for park purposes: And provided further, That in order to consolidate park areas or to eliminate private holdings therefrom lands patented hereunder may be exchanged with the approval of and under rules prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior for privately owned lands in the area hereinbefore described of approximately equal value containing the natural features sought to be preserved hereby. The lands so acquired to be subject to all the conditions and reservations prescribed by this Act, including the reversionary clause hereinbefore set out.

The public lands in the area described, not reserved for public purposes and not embraced in entries or claims based upon rights existing on the date of the act and thereafter legally maintained are, in view of the 5-year period fixed, withheld from disposition under the public land laws other than that authorized until June 30, 1941. You will make appropriate notations as to this reservation upon the records of your office.

As shown by the records of this office, a considerable portion of the public lands within the area involved is embraced within a first form withdrawal for the Yuma Project under the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), also within Public Water Reserves Nos. 90 and 114, which reservations are protected under the terms of the act. For the purpose of this act it is not considered that the public lands involved are affected by the withdrawal made by Executive Order No. 6910 of November 26, 1934, as amended.

Applications to select lands within the area described, under this grant, should be filed in your office by the proper State officer, in accordance with the regulations governing selections of lands by states, approved June 23, 1910 (39 L. D. 39), as applying to "special grants" or "grants in quantity", except that because of the mineral reservation made by the act no non-mineral affidavit will be required. No affidavit as to springs or water holes will be required in connection with applications filed under this act. There must be furnished, however, an affidavit showing that the land is unappropriated, that it is not occupied by and does not contain improvements placed thereon by any Indian, and that no part of the land is claimed, occupied, or being worked under the mining laws. Each selection list must be accompanied with proof that the land selected contains characteristic desert growth and scenic or other natural features which it is desired to preserve as a part of the California State park system. Payment of fees will be required in the sum of $2 for each 160 acres, or fraction thereof.

The selections in any one list under said granting act should not contain more than 6,400 acres in accordance with the regulations above referred to, 39 L. D. 39, and in each selection list it should be stated that the selections are made under said act of June 29, 1936 (49 Stat. 2027). A certificate of the selecting agent of the State, showing that the selections are made under and pursuant to the laws of the State must be furnished with each selection unit.

Upon acceptance of the selections you will prepare a notice for publication thereof.

Any patent issued to the State under this act shall contain the mineral reservation and the reservation as to water rights, as well as the forfeiture provision, prescribed by the act.

No provision is made at this time for development of the reserved mineral deposits in lands to be conveyed under the terms of this act, and until such regulations shall have issued, the reserved mineral deposits will not be subject to disposition.

Under the provisions of the act, the State of California, with the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and under rules prescribed by the Secretary, may exchange lands which may be patented to the State under the provisions thereof, for privately-owned lands within the area therein described of approximately equal value, containing the natural features sought to be preserved by the act. The lands to be acquired by the State through such exchange will be subject to the same conditions and reservations prescribed by said act, including the reversionary clause.

A proposal for an exchange desired to be made by the State in accordance with these provisions of the act must be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for consideration. Such a proposal for exchange should be filed in your office together with an affidavit by the agent of the State showing that the lands patented to the State under said act and those desired to be acquired by the State in exchange, are of approximately equal value, and that the tracts to be acquired contain characteristic desert growth and scenic or other natural features desired to be preserved as a part of the California State park system.

The proposal for exchange should be in the form of a joint application signed by the proper State official and by the owner of the land which the State desires to acquire in exchange, definitely describing by legal subdivisions of the Government surveys the lands relinquished by the State and those desired by the State in exchange therefor. Such joint application should be filed in your office in triplicate, two copies of which you will transmit to this office, one copy to be given the serial number of the original selection of the State, the second copy to be assigned a new serial number under which patent would be issued to the party exchanging with the State and the third copy should be forwarded to the Division of Investigations. Such joint application should be accompanied with a deed of reconveyance to the United States of the tract patented to the State under said act of June 29, 1936 (Public, No. 839, 49 Stat. 2027), and with a deed of conveyance to the United States from the owner of the tract desired by the State in exchange, such deeds to be duly executed in accordance with the laws of the State, and both deeds to be unrecorded. There should also be filed a certificate by the proper State officer and a certificate by the county recorder showing no encumbrances of the land reconveyed by the State to the United States.

There must be filed a duly-authenticated abstract of title to the tract conveyed to the United States and desired by the State in exchange, showing title to such land in the party conveying to the United States. The certificate of authentication of the abstract must be signed by the recorder of deeds under his official seal and must show that the title memorandum is a full, true, and complete abstract of all matters of record or on file in his office, including conveyances, mortgages, or other encumbrances. The custodian of tax records must certify that all taxes levied or assessed against the land or that could operate as a lien thereon, have been paid in full, and that there are no unredeemed tax sales and no tax deeds outstanding as shown by the records of his office. The absence of judgment liens or pending suits against the grantor, which might affect the title to the land, must be shown by the official certificates of the clerks of the courts of record whose judgments under the laws of the United States or of the state constitute a lien on the land conveyed. Such abstract may be authenticated by an abstracter or abstract company approved under section 42 of the mining regulations of April 11, 1922 (49 L. D. 15, 69).

Upon receipt of a joint application for exchange in the General Land Office, accompanied with the required evidence, a report will be requested from the Division of Investigations as to the comparative values of the lands involved, those relinquished by the State, and those desired by the State in lieu thereof.

Publication of notice of the proposed exchange will not be required and payment of fees will not be required in connection therewith.

If all be regular and the report of the Division of Investigations be satisfactory, the proposed exchange will be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his consideration. Upon the approval of the exchange by the Secretary of the Interior, the deeds of conveyance will be returned for recording and the abstract of title to be brought down to show such recordation.

Upon the receipt in this office of the recorded deeds, a patent will be issued to the State for the tract desired in exchange, such patent to contain the mineral reservation, the reservation as to water rights, and the forfeiture provision prescribed by the act, and as contained in the patent issued to the State for the land originally selected. A patent also will be issued to the party exchanging with the State, for the tract reconveyed by the State to the United States, such patent to contain the reservation as to water rights and telephone and electrical transmission lines referred to in said act of June 29, 1936.

Very respectfully,

FRED W. JOHNSON, Commissioner.

Approved: June 22, 1937.

[Circular No. 1353 Revised]

REGULATIONS UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE TAYLOR GRAZING ACT, GOVERNING THE FILING OF APPLICATIONS FOR ENTRY, SELECTION, OR LOCATION

JUNE 29, 1937.

Registers, U. S. Land Offices.

SIRS: Section 7 of the act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269), as amended by the act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1976), provides:

> That the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to examine and classify any lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive order of November 26, 1934 (No. 6910), and amendments thereto, and Executive order of February 5, 1935 (No. 6964), or within a grazing district, which are more valuable or suitable for the production of agricultural crops than for the production of native grasses and forage plants, or more valuable or suitable for any other use than for the use provided for under this act, or proper for acquisition in satisfaction of any outstanding lien, exchange or scrip rights or land grant, and to open such lands to entry, selection, or location for disposal in accordance with such classification under applicable public-land laws, except that homestead entries shall not be allowed for tracts exceeding 320 acres in area. Such lands shall not be subject to disposition, settlement, or occupation until after the same have been classified and opened to entry: Provided, That locations and entries under the mining laws, including the act of February 25, 1920, as amended, may be made upon such withdrawn and reserved areas without regard to classification and without restrictions or limitation by any provision of this act. Where such lands are located within grazing districts reasonable notice shall be given by the Secretary of the Interior to any grazing permittee of such lands. The applicant, after his entry, selection, or location is allowed, shall be entitled to the possession and use of such lands: Provided, That upon the application of any applicant qualified to make entry, selection, or location, under the public-land laws, filed in the land office of the proper district, the Secretary of the Interior shall cause any tract to be classified, and such application, if allowed by the Secretary of the Interior, shall entitle the applicant to a preference right to enter, select, or locate such lands if opened to entry as herein provided.

1. Lands subject to classification and opening.—The purpose of the act of June 26, 1936, in amending Section 7 of said act of June 28, 1934, is to authorize and empower the Secretary of the Interior to classify and open to entry, selection or location under any of the public land laws, upon application or otherwise, any of the public lands withdrawn or reserved by Executive Orders of November 26, 1934, and February 5, 1935, as amended, also lands within grazing districts, and, as to such lands, after reasonable notice has been given to any permittee or permittees entitled to participate in the grazing use of the land. Lands embraced in a grazing lease shall be subject to classification and disposal thereunder, provided that before the allowance of any entry, selection or location under said section 7 evidence must be furnished that the applicant has agreed to compensate the lessee for any grazing improvements placed on the lands entered, selected or located, under the authority of the lease and for any injury caused to the lessee's grazing operations by reason of the loss of the leased lands from his lease-hold. In event the interested parties are unable to reach an agreement as to the amount of such compensation the amount shall be fixed by the Commissioner of the General Land Office subject to the right of appeal to the Secretary of the Interior, whose decision shall be final. All such agreements, to be effective, must be approved by the Commissioner of the General Land Office. It must be determined that the application is an allowable one before payment by the applicant is required, and no application will be allowed in the absence of satisfactory evidence that payment has been made. The failure of the applicant to pay the lessee in accordance with the agreement shall be just cause for rejection of the application for entry, selection or location. The authority granted by this act may be exercised by the Secretary of the Interior on his own initiation at any time.

2. Execution and filing of applications to enter.—Any person, State or company qualified to make entry, selection or location under any of the public land laws may file in the district land office an application, in duplicate, to make entry, selection or location for land located either within or without a grazing district, which is otherwise subject to disposition under the law under which the application is made, accompanied with the necessary filing fee and commissions, and the affidavits required by Circulars 1066 and 1231 and the law under which the application is filed. The entire amount paid will be carried in the "unearned money" account and will be repaid by Treasury check, if the application be not allowed. The original of the application only need be sworn to. The act precludes the entry under the homestead laws of a greater area than 320 acres.

3. Execution and filing of petitions for classification.—The petition for classification and opening to entry, selection or location, must set forth all material matter whereby it may be determined whether the lands sought are more valuable or suitable for the production of agricultural crops than for the production of native grasses and forage plants, or more valuable or suitable for any other use than for the use provided for under this Act, or proper for acquisition in satisfaction of any outstanding lien, exchange or scrip rights or land grant, and proper for acquisition under the law as applied for. All applications for entry, selection or location must be accompanied by the applicant's petition for classification and opening to entry of the lands applied for in the form of an affidavit executed in duplicate and corroborated by at least two witnesses who are familiar with the character of the land. The original of the petition only need be sworn to. No blank forms of such affidavits or petitions are issued by this office, but for convenience in filing it is desired that they be prepared on sheets not over 8½ x 11 inches in size. The petition should set forth in detail the character of each subdivision included in the application to make entry. Petitions which are defective will be returned to the applicant for correction, or he may be required to furnish supplemental evidence concerning matters not discussed or which have not been described in sufficient detail. The petition should make full disclosures as to any water holes, springs or water supply developed or improved by the holder of any grazing permit or his predecessor in interest, or by any other person. If any part or parts of the land are irrigated, their location, area, source of water supply, and other pertinent facts should be stated. If any part or parts thereof are under constructed or proposed irrigation ditches or canals, the relation of the same and whether the land is irrigable therefrom should be explained. The relation of the tract to surface streams or springs rising on or flowing across them or in their vicinity should be indicated. If such sources of water supply are inadequate for the irrigation of the lands applied for, full particulars should be given. The location and depth of wells, elevation of water plane relative to the surface, and other pertinent facts which will disclose the quantity and quality of the water supply, obtainable from either ordinary or artesian wells on the land, should be given. If there are no wells thereon such information should be furnished as to any other wells in that vicinity, and the possibility of irrigating the tract involved from underground sources should be fully discussed. If any attempts have been made to irrigate and reclaim the tract, or if it has been included in a former desert-land entry, the reasons for lack of success should be stated. Care should be exercised in the preparation of the petition as inaccuracies and omissions will tend to retard action and may lead to rejection of the application.

4. Action on applications and petitions for classification in homestead cases.—In all cases of applications to make entries, selections, or locations of public lands accompanied by the petition for classification and opening of the land to entry, selection, or location, and necessary fees and commissions, such applications should be received, assigned a serial number, and noted upon your records, and if your records show no objections you will, if the application is one for homestead entry, regardless of whether the land is within or without a grazing district, transmit the duplicate copy of the application for entry and petition for classification and opening to the Director, Division of Grazing, and the original papers will be sent to the General Land Office with your report of action taken. The Director, Division of Grazing, will make his reports and recommendations to the Commissioner of the General Land Office as to the character and classification of the lands involved; that is, whether they may be classified and opened to homestead entry without detriment to the beneficial use of the land by local interests, to the protection, orderly use and regulation of the public ranges, to the creation and maintenance of grazing districts or to the conservation and development of natural resources.

If the land applied for is inside of a grazing district, the Director, Division of Grazing, will include in his report a statement as to whether or not there are any allowed privileges in the form of licenses or permits to graze on specified lands in the form of allotments and, if so, will give the names and addresses of all citizens, groups, associations, or corporations entitled to exercise such exclusive grazing privileges. Where the license or permit is to graze in common with others, the Division of Grazing will report that fact.

If the report from the Division of Grazing indicates that there is no objection to the classification and opening of the land and that there are no grazing allotment licensees' or permittees' rights involved, the General Land Office, through the Division of Grazing, will recommend to the Secretary of the Interior that the lands be classified and opened to entry as applied for. If the recommendation is approved by the Secretary of the Interior, the General Land Office will fix a date for the opening of the land to entry, and on that date the petitioner's application for entry will be allowed, in the absence of record objections.

If the lands are within a grazing district and the Division of Grazing reports that there is no objection to the classification and opening of the lands, as applied for, and it appears that the rights of allotment licensees or permittees are involved, the General Land Office through its proper district land offices will cause proper notice to be given by registered mail of the contemplated classification and opening to entry to all allotment licensees or permittees entitled to exercise grazing privileges. Where the license or permit is to graze in common with others, notice will be given by publication in some newspaper of general circulation in the locality for the area affected. Such notice should allow a period of at least thirty days for the filing of objections to the proposed opening. If no objection be filed or if objection is made and found to be without merit, the classification and opening will be recommended by the General Land Office to the Secretary of the Interior, through the Division of Grazing and, upon approval thereof, a date will be fixed by the General Land Office for the opening of the land to entry. At least thirty days' notice shall be given by the Register to all allotment licensees or permittees that by that date their use of the land must be discontinued.

If the land involved is in a grazing lease, the General Land Office, through its proper district land office, will cause proper notice to be given to the lessee, by registered mail, of the contemplated classification and opening to entry. The lessee will be afforded due opportunity for the filing of protests, the same as is hereinabove provided for in the case of applications for lands in grazing districts. The procedure with respect to the opening of the lands to entry will also be the same as is hereinabove outlined.

5. Action on applications and petitions for classification, in cases not under homestead laws.—Where the application for entry is not under the homestead laws, the Director, Division of Investigations will be requested to cause a field examination to be made and report thereof submitted to the Commissioner of the General Land Office as to whether any reason exists why such land should be retained in Federal ownership in aid of conservation and the development of the natural resources or whether it may be classified and opened to entry as requested, without detriment to the public interests. In addition, the report should give whatever information is required by the applicable laws and regulations.

If the land is inside of a grazing district, the Division of Grazing will be requested by the General Land Office to report as to whether there is any objection to the classification and opening of the land as applied for and whether or not there are any rights of allotment licensees or permittees involved and, if so, the said Division will include in its report the names and addresses of all such licensees or permittees. Where the license or permit is to graze in common with others, the Division of Grazing will report that fact. The General Land Office, through the proper district land office, will notify all such allotment licensees or permittees of the pending application. The procedure with respect to notice to allotment licensees, permittees and lessees and to the classification and opening of the lands to entry will be the same as in homestead cases.

6. Action on applications, after classification of lands.—If the Secretary of the Interior approves the classification of the land as subject to disposal under the public land laws, the General Land Office will pass upon the qualifications of the applicant and determine whether he may be allowed to acquire title to the land under the application. If it should be determined that the land may not be disposed of under the law specified by the applicant, the application for entry, selection or location will be rejected and the applicant allowed thirty days from receipt of notice within which to file response to the notice of the report furnished him. At the applicant's option he may either appeal from the finding to the Secretary of the Interior, alleging errors of law, or he may present further showing as to the facts by affidavit, accompanied by such evidence as is desired tending to disprove the adverse conclusion reached. Such appeal or further showing will be forwarded by you to this office. If the evidence submitted warrants it, favorable action may be taken, but if the conclusion be still adverse, it will be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior with report. In cases where the applicant fails to furnish a showing or to appeal from the order of this office requiring him to furnish it within the thirty days allowed, or where the Secretary refuses to open the land to disposition, final action will be taken, and the case closed by this office. You will allow no such application until instructed to do so by this office.

7. Rights secured by filing of application.—The filing of an application for classification and opening of the land, accompanied by application to make entry, selection or location, does not give the applicant the right to occupy or settle upon the land applied for, but will segregate the lands applied for from other disposition under the public land laws, subject to prior valid adverse claim, except that at all times the mineral contents in the land shall be subject to prospecting, locating, developing, mining, entering, leasing or patenting under the provisions of the applicable laws. The applicant shall be entitled to the possession and use of the land only after his entry, selection or location has been allowed.

8. Preference rights and restoration of lands to entry by general public.—Lands classified as subject to homestead or desert land entry, under Section 7 of the act of June 28, 1934, as amended, shall be opened to entry: FIRST, by the qualified applicant on whose application the lands were classified; and, SECOND, by qualified ex-service men of the war with Germany entitled to exercise preference rights conferred by Public Resolution No. 85, approved June 12, 1930 (46 Stat. 580), under the homestead or desert land laws; and, THIRD, by the general public. If entry, selection or location by the person, State or company upon whose application the lands were classified is allowed, other applications should be promptly rejected. Of the applicants for classification, only the one upon whose request the tract is classified secures the preference right. While the preference right period of ex-service men of the war with Germany begins ninety days prior to the date of the opening of the lands to homestead or desert land entry, filings may be presented during the twenty days preceding such preference right period; that is, from the 110th to the 90th day prior to the date of the opening, and such filings will be treated as simultaneously filed at 9 A. M. on the 90th day prior to the date of opening, in the manner provided by Circular No. 324, approved May 22, 1914 (43 L. D. 254). The filings of the successful ex-service applicant may, therefore, be allowed only in event the preference right application of the party responsible for the classification is not allowable on or after the date of the opening. Applications may be filed by the general public within twenty days prior to the date of opening, and treated as simultaneously filed at 9 A. M. on the date of the opening. Later applications should be received and suspended pending action on the prior application. If withdrawal of an application under Section 7 of the act of June 28, 1934, be filed, you will promptly notify this office thereof, inviting special attention to the pendency of the petition for classification and opening and you will close the case on your records.

9. Governing laws, to earn title.—Upon allowance of an application to make entry, location or selection under this act, all the laws and regulations governing the particular kind of entry, location or selection applied for must be complied with in order to earn title to the lands sought.

10. Governing regulations in cases of conflicts with prior mineral applications.—In all proper cases of applications to make nonmineral entries or selections of public lands, filed subsequent to applications for mineral prospecting permits or leases, the instructions in Circulars Nos. 1021 (51 L. D. 167), 1031 (51 L. D. 202), and 1136 (52 L. D. 241), must be observed.

11. Prior instructions superseded.—These instructions supersede those of May 16, 1935 (55 I. D. 257), and the further revision approved October 26, 1936.

Very respectfully,

FRED W. JOHNSON, Commissioner.

CONVERSION OF CLASS B STOCK—AMENDMENT OF SECTION 104-J OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration by the Farm Credit Act of 1933, particularly section 20 thereof, and pursuant to section 23 of said Act, the last sentence of the third paragraph of part (2) of subsection j of section 104 of the Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations is hereby deleted and the following paragraph is added at the end of such third paragraph:

When any class B stockholder shall have ceased for a period of two consecutive years to be a borrower from the association, and shall not have requested a conversion of his class B stock, the secretary of the association shall inform its board of directors of that fact and shall record the conversion of such class B stock on the books of the association, and shall then send to the corporation a request for the issuance of a class A stock certificate or certificates to such stockholder, together with proper evidence that such conversion has been recorded on the books of the association. All such conversions which are due to be made during any quarter of the association's fiscal year may be effected by the association at the end of such quarter; provided, however, that when a stockholders' meeting is held, or the fair book value of class B stock is determined, during such quarter, all conversions then due to be made shall be effected prior to such meeting or such determination.

RETIREMENT OF CLASS A STOCK OF PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS—AMENDMENT OF SECTION 104-K OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS

Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration by the Farm Credit Act of 1933, particularly section 20 thereof, the following paragraph is hereby added at the end of subsection k of section 104 of the Rules and Regulations for Production Credit Associations:

Subject to the prior approval of the Production Credit Commissioner, the corporation may require an association to retire and cancel class A stock held by the corporation whenever, in the judgment of the corporation, the association has resources available for that purpose. When notified that the corporation requires retirement and cancellation of a stated amount of class A stock held by it, the association shall adopt a resolution instructing its secretary to order the corporation as transfer agent to retire and cancel class A stock in the stated amount, and to direct the corporation to pay to itself, for the account of the association, out of the funds or securities of the association in the corporation's possession, an amount equal to the par value of the class A stock so retired and cancelled. Thereupon, the secretary shall forward a certified copy of this resolution to the corporation which shall forthwith proceed, as transfer agent, to take the action indicated. The corporation shall advise the association and the Federal intermediate credit bank of the action taken, and should also advise the association of the appropriate entry to be made on the books of the association to record the transaction.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[Supplement No. 2 to Tariff Circular MF No. 1]

SUPPLEMENT NO. 2 TO REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE CONSTRUCTION AND FILING OF COMMON CARRIER FREIGHT RATE AND CLASSIFICATION PUBLICATIONS AND CONTRACT CARRIER SCHEDULES OF MINIMUM RATES OR CHARGES

ORDER

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June, A. D. 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE FORM, PUBLICATION AND INSPECTION OF SCHEDULES OF CONTRACT CARRIERS OF PROPERTY BY MOTOR VEHICLE

The matter of regulations governing the form, publication and inspection of schedules of contract carriers of property by motor vehicle, filed pursuant to section 218 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, being under consideration and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That schedules of contract carriers or property by motor vehicle, filed pursuant to section 218 of the said act, shall be constructed, published, filed, and kept open for public inspection in accordance with regulations heretofore adopted and promulgated in Tariff Circular MF No. 1, as amended, and as modified and supplemented by Supplement No. 2, to said Tariff Circular MF No. 1;

It is further ordered, That the said Supplement No. 2 to said Tariff Circular MF No. 1 be, and it is hereby, approved and made effective July 15, 1937.

By the Commission, division 5.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

SECTION 2

CONTRACT CARRIER SCHEDULES [1]

Rule 7. Publication, Filing and Posting of Schedules

(a) Schedules must be filed by contract carriers.—Effective copies of written contracts or memoranda of oral contracts or schedules previously filed by contract carriers shall, within 120 days from the effective date of this supplement, be canceled by schedules conforming to the regulations set forth herein. On and after July 15, 1937, contract carriers shall, under section 218 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, file only schedules, which schedules shall conform to these regulations. (This should not be confused with the requirement contained in Ex Parte No. MC-9 that copies of contracts shall be filed under section 220 (a).)

(b) Agency or joint schedules not permitted.—Schedules of minimum rates or charges shall be published and filed in the name of the individual carrier performing the transportation service subject to such rates or charges. Schedules may not be filed in the name of an agent, nor may contract carriers participate by concurrence in rates named in any schedule filed by another such carrier.

(c) Schedules must contain all relevant provisions.—Schedules shall contain all of the minimum rates and charges, and also the rules and other provisions applicable to services covered thereby; and reference shall not therein be made to other publications for any provision affecting the rates or charges (or the method of applying them), except that, after having secured express authority from this Commission to do so, carriers may include in schedules naming rates based on distances reference to a separate publication on file with this Commission containing such distances.

(d) Number of copies filed.—Issuing carriers shall file with the Commission three copies of each schedule, supplement, or revised page of a schedule. All copies shall be included in one package accompanied by a letter of transmittal (in duplicate if a receipt is desired) listing the publications enclosed, which shall be addressed to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Section of Traffic, Washington, D. C. All postage or other charges must be prepaid.

(e) Posting of schedules.—Schedules shall be posted in the same manner as is provided in Rule 6 of Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

(f) Special permissions.—No deviation from the regulations relative to publication and filing of schedules will be permitted, except that the Commission may in its discretion grant specific authority for waiving any of such regulations in response to an application presented in the manner set forth in Rule 9 of Supplement No. 1, Tariff Circular MF No. 1, if such application appears to present sufficient justification for such authority.

Rule 8. Form and Contents of Schedules

(a) Form and manner of preparation. All schedules and supplements thereto shall be in book, pamphlet or loose-leaf form of size 8 x 11 inches. They shall be plainly printed, mimeographed, planographed, stereotyped, or reproduced by other similar durable process on paper of good quality. Schedules and supplements thereto filed and posted shall contain no alteration or erasure of the contents of such publications. A margin of not less than five-eighths of an inch without any printing thereon shall be allowed at the binding edge of each schedule or supplement.

(b) Required notice.—Except as otherwise provided herein or unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, all schedules and supplements thereto, which supersede rates and charges previously published and filed with this Commission and which result in reductions in previously filed rates and charges shall be filed and posted at least 30 days prior to the effective date thereof.

(c) Title page.—Each schedule submitted for filing shall show on the upper right-hand corner of the front cover or title page the MF-I. C. C. number of the schedule. All schedules shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the MF-I. C. C. number next higher than the last number used on a publication of rates, charges or rules filed by the same carrier with this Commission. If the issuing carrier shall have previously filed with this Commission no publication of rates, charges or rules, the first schedule issued shall bear MF-I. C. C. No. 1 and subsequent publications shall be numbered consecutively. Schedules which supersede publications previously filed shall indicate the cancelation of the superseded publication or publications in the manner shown in Rule 2 (a), Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

(d) Name of carrier.—The name of the carrier issuing the schedule shall be shown in the upper central portion of the title page and such name shall be the same as that appearing in the carrier's permit (or application if no permit has been issued). If the carrier is not a corporation and a trade name is used, the name of the individual or partners shall precede the trade name in the manner shown in Rule 2 (c) of Tariff Circular MF No. 1. Following the carrier's name there shall be shown the permit number or, if the application shall have not been decided, the docket number of the carrier's application for a permit.

(e) Territory served.—On the title page of the schedule, immediately under the carrier's name and permit or docket number shall be shown a brief description of the territories in which, or points from and to which the minimum rates or charges named in the schedule will apply.

(f) Issued and effective dates.—Under the territorial description, on the left-hand side of the title page, the date of issue shall be shown; and on the right-hand side, opposite the date of issue, the effective date shall be shown.

(g) Issuing officer.—At the bottom of the title page, under the issued and effective dates, there shall be shown the name, title, and street address of the individual or the officer by whom the schedule is issued. The title "Agent" should not be used.

(h) Supplements.—Supplements shall be numbered consecutively beginning with number one, the supplement number being placed in the upper right-hand corner of the title page. Underneath the supplement number shall be shown the MF-I. C. C. number of the schedule amended thereby. When a supplement cancels a previous supplement (or the schedule itself), the cancelation notice shall be shown in the manner prescribed in Rule 2 (b) of Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

(i) List of parties with whom carrier has contracts.—At the top of the page immediately following the title page shall be shown the name and address of each party with whom carrier has a contract and for whom property is transported under the provisions of the schedule.

(j) Table of contents.—Following the list of contracting shippers shall be shown a table of contents arranged in alphabetical order indicating the number of the page on which each subject may be found. If the schedule contains so small a volume of matter that its title page or interior arrangement plainly discloses its contents, the table of contents may be omitted.

(k) Index of commodities.—A complete index of all the commodities on which rates and charges are shown in the schedule shall follow the table of contents and shall indicate the page number on which rates for each commodity will be found. If no table of contents appears, the index of commodities shall be shown immediately after the list of contracting parties. If the number of commodities involved is small, no index need be shown in a schedule, provided the commodities are arranged in alphabetical order in the tables of minimum rates and charges.

(m) Index of points.—When a schedule names minimum rates or charges from and to specific points, an index of the points, together with the States in which they are located, shall be shown immediately following the index of commodities, with reference to the page on which the various points will be found in the table of minimum rates or charges.

[1] Rules 7 and 8 of this supplement cancel Rules 7 and 8. Pages 4 and 5 of Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

(n) Abbreviations and symbols.—Where abbreviations, symbols or reference marks are used in a schedule, they shall be explained on each page on which they appear, except that, where the same abbreviation, symbol or reference mark is used throughout the schedule with the same explanation, this information may be shown under a general explanation following the index of points.

(o) Rules.—Any rules or other provisions affecting the application of the minimum rates or charges shall be shown following the general explanation of abbreviations, symbols and reference marks and preceding the tables of minimum rates or charges. Each rule shall be given a separate number.

(p) Tables of minimum rates or charges.—The tables of minimum rates or charges shall be shown immediately following the rules. The commodities on which the rates or charges apply shall be shown on the same page on which the rates or charges are published or there shall be shown on such page a statement of the page or item containing a list or description of such commodities. Minimum rates or charges shall be published on only such commodities and from and to only such points as are included in actual contracts for transportation. Tables of minimum rates or charges shall be arranged alphabetically by points of origin and destination, except that, if it is desired to group points by States, they may be arranged in alphabetical order by States, the points in each State also being shown in alphabetical order. The minimum rates or charges shall be stated in cents or in dollars and cents per 100 pounds, per mile, per hour, per cubic foot, per ton of 2,000 pounds, per ton of 2,240 pounds, per truckload (of stated amount), or other definable measure.

Schedules shall clearly show the points from and to which the minimum rates and charges apply, or indicate briefly by territorial description the teritory within which they apply. If minimum rates or charges are determined by use of distances, schedules shall show the distances from and to the points from and to which the minimum rates or charges apply, or shall indicate a definite method by which the distances shall be determined (see Rule 7 (c) of this supplement).

(q) Changes in minimum rates or charges.—Minimum rates or charges which have been filed with the Commission shall be permitted to become effective and remain in effect for a period of 30 days before they may be reduced by the publication and filing of a new schedule or supplement. Schedules or supplements thereto which do not reduce the minimum rates or charges formerly filed with the Commission may become effective not earlier than the date on which they are received by the Commission, but a specific effective date must be shown which shall not be prior to the effective date of rates or charges previously filed having the same application. Changes in minimum rates or charges appearing in schedules shall be indicated in the manner prescribed in Rule 5 (b) of Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

NOTICE

FILING OF CONTRACTS AND SCHEDULES OF MINIMUM CHARGES

JULY 7, 1937.

In order that there be no misunderstandings in regard to the Commission's Orders in Ex Parte Nos. MC 9 and 12, and the requirements in the recently released Supplement No. 2 to Tariff Circular MF No. 1, it should be summarized as follows:

(1) Ex Parte No. MC 12 states in effect that after July 1, 1937, contract carriers may not transport property unless they have bilateral contracts complying with that Order.

(2) Ex Parte No. MC 9 requires that a true copy of bilateral contracts (as required in Ex Parte No. MC 12) in force on July 15, 1937, must be submitted to the Commission on or before that date. If contract carriers enter into bilateral contracts on or after July 15, such contracts must be submitted within twenty days after their effective date.

(3) Ex Parte No. MC 9 requires that in addition to submitting to the Commission a true copy of such contracts (one copy is sufficient) contract carriers shall file schedules of minimum rates and charges in the manner and form required in Supplement No. 2 to Tariff Circular MF No. 1.

While the Commission requires contract carriers to submit one true copy of each and every contract in accordance with (1) and (2) above, these contracts will not be open for public inspection and are required for the Commision's information only and, therefore, such true copies submitted are not subject to the requirements as to title page, size, form or carrier's MF-I. C. C. series or any other rules contained in the Commission's Tariff Circular.

The submission of a true copy of bilateral contract does not relieve contract carriers from having their schedules of minimum rates on file with this Commission, and kept open for public inspection at their principal places of business, in accordance with Section 218 of the Act. Supplement No. 2 to Tariff Circular MF No. 1 has been issued to guide contract carriers in the preparation of schedules, or the reissuance in the form of schedules of all copies of written contracts or memoranda of oral contracts already filed under the provisions of Section 218, or the reissuance of schedules of minimum rates and charges that are now on file but do not conform to our requirements.

Carriers who have already filed copies of written contracts or memoranda of oral contracts that are in fact bilateral contracts, need not file an additional copy of such contracts as outlined in (a), though they are required to file schedules as outlined in (b), below.

Briefly, the Commission requires (a) the submission of ONE true copy of bilateral contracts that will be held in the Commission's confidential files, and (b) the filing of THREE copies of schedules of minimum rates and charges that comply with the requirements contained in Supplement No. 2 to Tariff Circular MF No. 1. These schedules will be open for public inspection as they have been in the past.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

ADOPTION OF FORM 8-C FOR REGISTRATION ON AN ADDITIONAL EXCHANGE

The Securities Exchange Commission, finding

(1) that the requirements of Form 8-C, as defined in the instructions to that form, are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and that, insofar as the information required by such form is not within the provisions of Section 12 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, it is of a character comparable to such information and is applicable to the class of issuers and securities for which such form is authorized; and

(2) that the exhibits required by Form 8-C are necessary and appropriate for the proper protection of investors and to insure fair dealing in the securities registered on such form.

pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly Sections 12 and 23 (a) thereof, hereby adopts Form 8-C.[1]

AMENDMENT TO RULE JB1

The Securities and Exchange Commission, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly Sections 12 and 23 (a) thereof, hereby amends Rule JB1 by inserting immediately after the Rule for the Use of Form 8-B the following Rule for the Use of Form 8-C:

Form 8-C for Registration on an Additional Exchange.—This form may be used for applications for registration of securities on an exchange upon which no securities of the registrant are listed and registered, if

(a) Securities of the registrant are registered pursuant to Section 12 (b), (c) and (d) on another exchange, and

(b) An application on a form other than Form 7, 8-A, 8-B, or 8-C, filed by the registrant (or by the predecessor of the registrant if the registrant had securities registered pursuant to an application on Form 8-B) became effective on such other exchange not more than three years before the filing of this application.

The foregoing action shall be effective immediately upon publication.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SHELL-MARY WHIPPLE TRACT, FILED ON JUNE 30, 1937, BY R. A. COOK, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein conained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest to be offered by means of the offering sheet, as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not stated in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(2) In that the percentage of water from fluid produced, as set forth in Division II, Item 20 (b), is not believed to be correct;

(3) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

NOTE.—It appears that the information contained in the table immediately following Division II, Item 20, should be set forth in the column of the appropriate table under Division II, Item 20 (e);

(4) In that the second paragraph of representations required to be included in the offering sheet, is omitted;

(5) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B" is incomplete by reason of the fact that the smallest interest to be offered is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

VETERANS' ADMINISTRATION.

REVISION OF REGULATIONS

DISALLOWANCE AND AWARDS

Determination of Marital Status, Custody of Child or Children, or Continuance of Dependency

R-1286. When in any case wherein compensation, pension, or emergency officers retirement benefits are being paid, it is deemed necessary to determine the current facts in regard to the marital status of the veteran, custody of child or children, or dependency of parent of parents, the necessary evidence will be requested and, when received, appropriate adjustment will be made in accordance with the facts disclosed pursuant to the provisions of law and the regulations and instructions based thereon. If the necessary information is not received within a reasonable time from the date of request therefor appropriate action will be taken to effect an adjustment on the basis of a single man without dependents, or through a discontinuance of benefits to the payee or payees, wife, child or children, or dependent parent or parents, as may be required by the facts. If the necessary evidence or information is thereafter received within one year from the date of request therefor, a readjustment may be made or the payment of benefits resumed, if otherwise in order, from the effective date of the adjustment or discontinuance previously necessitated by the non-receipt of the desired data. If the necessary evidence or information is not received within one year from the date of request therefor, the adjustment or resumption of payments will not be authorized prior to the date of receipt of the evidence or information. [FCA 49]

PRODUCTION CREDIT CORPORATION OF BERKELEY

[Bulletin No. 272]

TRANSFER OF CLASS A STOCK TO INDIVIDUALS DESIRING TO BECOME BORROWERS

To all production credit associations in the states of Arizona, California, Nevada and Utah:

The following regulation is prescribed pursuant to Section 23 of the Farm Credit Act of 1933:

In instances where a Class A stockholder arranges to sell and transfer his stock to another individual who intends to convert it into Class B stock for use in obtaining an association loan, it will not be necessary for the association to request the Corporation to issue a Class A stock certificate to the transferee-purchaser. It will only be necessary for the transferee of the original Class A stock certificate to submit it to the association from which he desires to obtain a loan with an order to convert it into Class B stock of the association. The association will thereupon forward such order and certificate to the Corporation with a request for cancellation accompanied by proper evidence of the consent of the Board of Directors to the conversion.

The Corporation will record the transaction as transfer agent and the secretary of the association will issue the Class B stock to the new borrower and make the necessary entries on the association's records. Advice of Stock Transfer, Retirement, or Conversion, Form PCA 112B, will be used covering a transaction of this kind. The transaction will be considered a conversion and the description of the Class A stock certificate will be entered in the section headed, "Stock Canceled." In the space provided for stockholder, the association will show the name of the transferee or purchaser of the stock, and immediately underneath the new stockholder's name, the following will be noted "Acquired by Purchase from (original stockholder)."

A purchaser of Class A stock under the above procedure would be limited to the conversion to Class B stock of only the amount necessary to cover his loan.

[File No. 21-301]

IN THE MATTER OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES FOR THE CONCRETE BURIAL VAULT MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

PROMULGATION OF TRADE PRACTICE RULES

Due proceedings having been had under the trade practice conference procedure in pursuance of the Act of Congress approved September 26, 1914 (38 Stat. 717),

It is now ordered that the trade practice rules of Group I which have been approved by the Commission in this proceeding and the rules in Group II which have been received by the Commission as expressions of the industry be, and the same are, hereby promulgated for the Concrete Burial Vault Manufacturing Industry.

These rules promulgated by the Commission are designed to foster and promote fair competitive conditions in the interest of the industry and the public. They are not to be used, directly or indirectly, as part of or in connection with any combination or agreement to fix prices, or for the suppression of competition, or otherwise to unreasonably restrain trade.

Group I

The unfair trade practices which are embraced in Group I rules are considered to be unfair methods of competition or other illegal practices within the decisions of the Federal Trade Commission or the courts, and appropriate proceedings in the public interest will be taken by the Commission to prevent the use of such unlawful practices in or directly affecting interstate commerce.

Rule 1.

It is an unfair trade practice for a member of the industry directly or indirectly to give or offer to give, or permit or cause to be given, money or anything of value to agents, employees or representatives of customers or prospective customers, or to agents, employees or representatives of competitors' customers or prospective customers, without the knowledge of their employers or principals, as an inducement to influence their employers or principals to purchase or contract to purchase products manufactured or sold by such industry member or the maker of such gift or offer, or to influence such employers or principals to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors, or from dealing or contracting to deal with competitors.

Rule 2.

Wilfully inducing or attempting to induce the breach of existing contract or contracts between competitors and their customers or their suppliers by any false or deceptive means whatsoever, or wilfully interfering with or obstructing the performance of any such contractual duties or services by any such means, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or prejudicing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 3.

The defamation of competitors by falsely imputing to them dishonorable conduct, inability to perform contracts, or questionable credit standing, or by other false representations, or the false disparagement of the grade, quality, composition, material, construction, durability, or process of manufacture of the products of competitors, or of their business methods, selling prices, values, credit terms, policies or services, or conditions of employment, with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving any purchasers or prospective purhasers of burial vaults, is an unfair trade pratice.

Rule 4.

Wilfully enticing away the employees of competitors, with the purpose and effect of unduly hampering, injuring or embarrassing competitors in their businesses, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 5.

The imitation of the trade-marks, trade names, brands, labels or other marks of identification of competitors, with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving any purchasers or prospective purchasers of burial vaults, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 6.

The practice of shipping or delivering products which do not conform to representations made prior to or at the time of securing an order, or the substitution of products inferior in quality to the kind ordered, without the consent of the purchaser to such substitution and with the effect of misleading or deceiving any purchasers or prospective purchasers of burial vaults, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 7.

Securing information from competitors concerning their businesses by false or misleading statements or representations or by false impersonation of one in authority, and the wrongful use thereof to unduly hinder or stifle the competition of such competitors, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 8.

The false or deceptive marking, branding or labeling of concrete burial vaults for the purpose or with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving purchasers or prospective purchasers concerning the grade, quality, composition, material, construction, durability, or process of manufacture of such vaults, or in any other material respect, or the marking, branding or labeling of such vaults by representations, statements, assertions or claims concerning the capacity, property or ability of such vaults to remain air-tight, water-proof or sweat-proof when such representations, statements, assertions or claims are not true in fact, or are misleading, or are not known to be true, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 9.

Making, or causing to be made or published, directly or indirectly, any false, untrue or deceptive statement, representation, guarantee, warranty, testimonial or endorsement, by way of advertising (through newspapers, magazines, booklets or other advertising media) or by radio, oral representation or otherwise, in connection with the sale or distribution of concrete burial vaults and concerning the grade, quality, composition, material, construction, durability or process of manufacture of such vaults, or in any other material respect, or the making of any representations, statements, assertions or claims, directly or indirectly, concerning the capacity, property or ability of such vaults to remain air-tight, water-proof or sweat-proof when such representations, statements, assertions or claims are not true in fact, or are misleading, or are not known to be true, with the tendency, capacity or effect of misleading or deceiving any purchasers or prospective purchasers of burial vaults, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 10.

Withholding from or inserting in invoices any statements or information by reason of which omission or insertion a false record is made, wholly or in part, of the transactions represented on the face of such invoices, with the purpose or effect of thereby misleading or deceiving any purchasers or prospective purchasers of burial vaults, is an unfair trade practice.

Rule 11.

The practice of selling industry products below the seller's cost, with the intent and with the effect of injuring a competitor and where the effect may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or unreasonably restrain trade, is an unfair trade practice; all elements recognized by good accounting practice as proper elements of such cost shall be included in determining cost under this rule.

Rule 12.

It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry to use the practice of shipping goods on consignment or pretended consignment for the purpose and with the effect of artificially clogging trade outlets and unduly restricting competitors' use of said trade outlets in getting their goods to consumers through regular channels of distribution, or with such purpose to entirely close said trade outlets to such competitors so as to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly or to unreasonably restrain trade; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed or used as restricting or preventing consignment shipping or marketing of commodities in good faith and without artificial interference with competitors' use of the usual channels of distribution in such manner as thereby to suppress competition or restrain trade.

Rule 13.

(a) Prohibited Discriminatory Differentials, Rebates, Refunds, Discounts, Credits and Other Allowances.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce,[1] in the course of such commerce, to grant or allow, secretly or openly, directly or indirectly, any price differentials, rebates, refunds, discounts, credits or other allowances which effectuate a discrimination in price between different purchasers of goods of like grade and quality where either or any of the purchases involved therein are in commerce[1] and where the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce[1] or to injure, destroy or prevent competition with any person who either grants or knowingly receives the benefit of such discrimination or with customers of either of them: Provided, however—

(1) That the goods involved in any such transaction are sold for use, consumption or resale within any place under the jurisdiction of the United States;

(2) That nothing herein contained shall prevent differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which such commodities are to such purchasers sold or delivered;

(3) That nothing herein contained shall prevent persons engaged in selling goods, wares or merchandise in commerce[1] from selecting their own customers in bona fide transactions and not in restraint of trade;

(4) That nothing herein contained shall prevent price changes from time to time where made in response to changing conditions affecting either (a) the market for the goods concerned, or (b) the marketability of the goods, such as, but not limited to, actual or imminent deterioration of perishable goods, obsolescence of seasonal goods, distress sales under court process, or sales in good faith in discontinuance of business in the goods concerned.

(b) Prohibited Brokerages and Commissions.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1], in the course of such commerce, to pay or grant, or to receive or accept, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, except for services rendered in connection with the sale or purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise, either to the other party to such transaction or to an agent, representative, or other intermediary therein where such intermediary is acting in fact for or in behalf, or is subject to the direct or indirect control, of any party to such transaction other than the person by whom such compensation is so granted or paid.

(c) Prohibited Advertising or Promotional Allowances, Etc.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to pay or contract for the payment of advertising or promotion allowances or any other thing of value to or for the benefit of a customer of such member in the course of such commerce as compensation or in consideration for any services or facilities furnished by or through such customer in connection with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of any products or commodities manufactured, sold, or offered for sale by such member, unless such payment or consideration is available on proportionally equal terms to all other customers competing in the distribution of such products or commodities.

(d) Prohibited Discriminatory Services or Facilities.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry engaged in commerce[1] to discriminate in favor of one purchaser against another purchaser or purchasers of a commodity bought for resale, with or without processing, by contracting to furnish or by furnishing, or by contributing to the furnishing of, any services or facilities connected with the processing, handling, sale, or offering for sale of such commodity so purchased upon terms not accorded to all purchasers on proportionally equal terms.

(e) Illegal Price Discrimination.—It is an unfair trade practice for any member of the industry or other person engaged in commerce[1] in the course of such commerce to discriminate in price in any other respect contrary to Section 2 of the Clayton Act as amended by the Act of Congress, approved June 19, 1936 (Public No. 692, 74th Congress), or knowingly to induce or receive a discrimination in price which is prohibited by such section as amended.

Group II

The trade practices embraced in Group II rules do not, per se, constitute violations of law. They are considered by the industry either to be unethical, uneconomic, or otherwise objectionable; or to be conducive to sound business methods which the industry desires to encourage and promote. Such rules, when they conform to the above specifications and are not violative of law, will be received by the Commission, but the observance of said rules must depend upon and be accomplished through the cooperation of the members of the industry concerned, exercised in accordance with existing law. Where, however, such practices are used in such manner as to become unfair methods of competition in commerce or a violation of any law over which the Commission has jurisdiction, appropriate proceedings will be instituted by the Commission as in the case of violation of Group I rules.

Rule A.

The industry approves the practice of each individual member of the industry independently publishing and circulating to the purchasing trade his own price lists fully setting forth his terms of sale.

Rule B.

It is the judgment of the industry that each member should independently keep proper and accurate records for determining his costs.

Rule C.

The industry approves the practice of handling business disputes between members of the industry and their customers in a fair and reasonable manner, coupled with a spirit of moderation and good will, and every effort should be made by the disputants themselves to compose their differences. If unable to do so, they should, if possible, submit these disputes to arbitration.

A Committee on Trade Practices is hereby created by the industry to cooperate with the Federal Trade Commission and to perform such acts as may be legal and proper to put these rules into effect.

By direction of the Commission.

RAILROAD RETIREMENT BOARD.

RULES GOVERNING DIRECT ASSIGNMENT OF ACCOUNT NUMBERS BY EMPLOYERS

JUNE 17, 1937.

To All Employers Subject to the Railroad Retirement Act:

The Railroad Retirement Board will take over the assignment of account numbers to employees covered by the Railroad Retirement Act, as of July 1, 1937, at which time the cooperative arrangement now in effect with the Post Office Department will be discontinued. In order that there may be no delay in the assignment of these account numbers, the Board requests that employers cooperate with it, as hereinafter explained, by securing supplies of pre-numbered office record forms and making direct assignments of account numbers.

The account numbers will continue to be called "Social Security Account Numbers." Form CER–1 ("Social Security-Carrier Employee Registration Application for Account Number") will continue to be used. Cards containing name and number will be furnished each employee.

It is essential that all persons who perform compensated service for an employer be assigned an account number. In the case of employees engaged in the future by employers in whose service they have not previously been engaged, situations will arise which will require filing a form with the Board.

1. Persons who have not, since January 1, 1937 had an employment requiring an account number should fill in a Form CER–1 and the employer will, as described below, make an account number assignment.

2. Persons having a number in other than the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739) will continue to use such numbers, but they should complete form CER–1, if they have not already done so, and turn it over to the employer for filing with the Board.

Persons holding account numbers of which the first three digits are in the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739), and persons holding account numbers in any series who have performed service for an "Employer" after June 30, 1937, will already have been registered on Form CER–1, and there is no necessity, so far as the Railroad Retirement Board is concerned, to secure their re-registration. But if a person with an account number in this series works for an employer after June 30, 1937 and subsequently works for another employer under the Retirement Act, such subsequent employer may wish to maintain a complete file of Forms CER–1; in such case, however, no such form need be sent to the Board.

The procedure to accomplish these purposes in the most expeditious manner and for the mutual benefit of all concerned, is prescribed hereunder.

I. "Employers" will requisition on the attached form the estimated number of Forms CER–1, "Social Security-Carrier Employee Registration Application for Account Number," needed for the period July 1, 1937, to December 31, 1937. Thereafter "Employers" will requisition additional supplies of such forms sixty days in advance of need to cover requirements for the ensuing six months.

II. "Employers" who expect to have a substantial number of new employees should request the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, to furnish a supply of prenumbered forms OA–702, "Office Record Card," which includes the employee account number cards.

III. "Employers" will secure a properly executed form CER–1 from each new employee who has not previously received an account number the first three digits of which are within the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739), unless such employee has previously completed such form. After entering the previously assigned account number on the original and duplicate of such form, the original should be promptly forwarded to the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, Washington, D. C.

IV. "Employers" who are supplied with forms OA–702 will

IV. "Employers" who are supplied with forms OA–702 will transcribe the information on form CER–1 to the form OA–702, in the case of each employee who has not previously received an account number, and will deliver the original account number card to the employee, and forward the original of form OA–702 and of form CER–1 to the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, Washington, D. C., and the copy of form OA–702 to the proper state unemployment insurance agency, if any.

V. "Employers" who do not have a supply of forms OA–702 will forward to the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, forms CER–1, covering employees who have not previously received an account number. The Board will thereupon prepare form OA–702 and forward the account number card to the "Employer" for recording the number, and delivery to the employee.

EXAMPLES

A. Condition.—An employee who holds an account number in the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739), enters service of an "Employer" subsequent to June 30, 1937.

Action.—The "Employer" takes no action other than to show that number in reports of the employee's subsequent earnings.

B. Condition.—An employee who holds an account number in other than the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739), and who has been in service of an "Employer" under the Railroad Retirement Act after June 30, 1937, enters the service of another "Employer."

Action.—The latter employer, after being assured that the employee has previously completed a form CER–1, takes no action other than to show that number in the reports of the employee's subsequent earnings.

C. Condition.—An employee who holds an account number in other than the series seven hundred (700) to seven hundred thirty-nine (739), and who has not been in service of an "Employer" covered by the Railroad Retirement Act, enters the service of an "Employer" after June 30, 1937.

Action.—The "Employer" will secure form CER–1, show the account number thereon and forward it to the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board, and show such number in the reports of the employee's subsequent earnings.

D. Condition.—An employee who holds no account number enters the service of an "Employer" not having forms OA–702 available, subsequent to June 30, 1937.

Action.—The "Employer" will secure form CER–1 and forward it to the Bureau of Accounts, Railroad Retirement Board. The employee account number card will be prepared by the Board and sent to the "Employer" who will record the number and deliver such account number card to the employee.

E. Condition.—An employee who holds no account number enters, subsequent to June 30, 1937, the service of a carrier having forms OA–702 available.

Action.—The "Employer" will secure form CER–1 and will prepare form OA–702 in duplicate. The original account number card will be detached and delivered to the employee. The original forms OA–702 and CER–1 will be forwarded to the Railroad Retirement Board, and the duplicate form OA–702, with the duplicate account number card attached, will be forwarded to the proper state unemployment insurance agency, if any. If the employee's employment is not covered by unemployment insurance legislation, both copies of form OA–702 will be forwarded to the Railroad Retirement Board.

IN THE MATTER OF THE MIDDLE WEST CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of its acquisition of 41,030.5 shares of capital stock and $54,600 principal amount of First Mortgage 5% Bonds, due August 1, 1960, of Missouri Public Service Corporation in accordance with the terms of the reorganization plan of its predecessor company, and for approval of its acquisition of $33,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Twenty-Year 5% bonds, Series A, due April 1, 1947, of Michigan Public Service Company, all of such acquisitions being made pursuant to a settlement agreement, as modified and approved by the court, entered into by the applicant with Leonard S. Florsheim, as trustee in reorganization proceedings against Inland Power & Light Corporation, and Walter Bachrach, as trustee in reorganization proceedings against Commonwealth Light & Power Company;

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 26, 1937, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day at Room 1101, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 21, 1937.

It is further ordered that Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ST. LOUIS COUNTY GAS COMPANY

[Application Pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935]

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by The St. Louis County Gas Company, a subsidiary company of The North American Company, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for exemption from the provisions of Section 6 (a) of said Act of the issue and sale by applicant to said The North American Company of 5,000 shares of its capital stock of the par value of $100 per share, for the sum of $500,000, it being stated by applicant that said issue and sale are solely for the purpose of financing its business and will be expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri, the State commission of the State in which applicant is organized and does business;

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 26, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1101 Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 21, 1937.

It is further ordered that Charles S. TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 2 (e), as to whether or not the interest offered is perpetual;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 10, the names of the persons by whom the taxes are assessed is omitted, as is also the times of payments of said taxes;

(3) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth, it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

(4) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance, attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit B, is incomplete;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the offering sheet, as filed, is not in the form prescribed by Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, which Rule became effective June 1, 1937;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE BRITISH-AMERICAN-ROANOKE-POWELL-HIGHLAND-RUSSELL TRACT, FILED ON JULY 1, 1937, BY JAMES W. TAIT CO., INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information relative to the number of wells now drilling, which is required to be given in Division II, Item 13, is omitted;

(2) In that the legal description contained in the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit B is not believed to be sufficient, nor is it possible to determine from the information contained in Exhibit B that said proposed instrument of conveyance will convey a like interest as is set forth in Division II, Item 1, of the offering sheet;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

INCOME TAX

REGULATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE TAXATION OF FRENCH CITIZENS AND FRENCH CORPORATIONS AS AFFECTED BY THE CONVENTION AND PROTOCOL ON DOUBLE TAXATION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND THE REPUBLIC OF FRANCE, PROCLAIMED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES APRIL 16, 1935, EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 1936

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Part I

PARAGRAPH A. The convention and protocol, proclaimed by the President of the United States on April 16, 1935, provides in part as follows:

ARTICLE I

Enterprises of one of the contracting States are not subject to taxation by the other contracting State in respect of their industrial and commercial profits except in respect of such profits allocable to their permanent establishments in the latter State.

No account shall be taken, in determining the tax in one of the contracting States, of the purchase of merchandise effected therein by an enterprise of the other State for the purpose of supplying establishments maintained by such enterprise in the latter State.

ARTICLE II

American enterprises having permanent establishments in France are required to submit to the French fiscal administration the same declarations and the same justifications, with respect to such establishments, as French enterprises.

The French fiscal administration has the right, within the provisions of its national legislation and subject to the measures of appeal provided in such legislation, to make such corrections in the declaration of profits realized in France as may be necessary to show the exact amount of such profits.

The same principle applies mutatis mutandis to French enterprises having permanent establishments in the United States.

ARTICLE III

Income which an enterprise of one of the contracting States derives from the operation of aircraft registered in such State and engaged in transportation between the two States is taxable only in the former State.

ARTICLE IV

When an American enterprise, by reason of its participation in the management or capital of a French enterprise, making or imposes on the latter, in their commercial or financial relations, conditions different from those which would be made with a third enterprise, any profits which should normally have appeared in the balance sheet of the French enterprise, but which have been, in this manner, diverted to the American enterprise, are, subject to the measures of appeal applicable in the case of the tax on industrial and commercial profits, incorporated in the taxable profits of the French enterprise.

The same principle applies mutatis mutandis, in the event that profits are diverted from an American enterprise to a French enterprise.

* * * * * * *

ARTICLE VII

Compensation paid by one of the contracting States to its citizens for labor or personal services performed in the other State is exempt from tax in the latter State.

ARTICLE VIII

War pensions paid by one of the contracting States to persons residing in the territory of the other State are exempt from tax in the latter State.

ARTICLE IX

The following classes of income paid in one of the contracting States to a corporation of the other State, or to a citizen of the latter State residing there, are exempt from tax in the former State:

(a) amounts paid as consideration for the right to use patents, secret processes and formulas, trade marks and other analogous rights;

(b) income received as copyright royalties;

(c) private pensions and life annuities.

ARTICLE X

* * * * * *

The Agreement shall become effective on the first day of January following the exchange of ratifications and shall remain effective for a period of five years, and thereafter until twelve months from the date on which either Contracting Party gives notice of its termination.

* * * * * *

PROTOCOL

At the moment of signing the Convention on Double Taxation between the United States of America and the Republic of France, the undersigned Plenipotentiaries, duly authorized by their respective Governments, have agreed, as follows:

(1) The taxes referred to in this Agreement are:

(a) for the United States:

the Federal income tax—but it is understood that Article 1 does not exempt from tax (1) compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States; (2) income derived from real property located in the United States, or from any interest in such property, including rentals and royalties therefrom, and gains from the sale or the disposition thereof; (3) dividends; (4) interest.

(b) for France:

in Articles I, II, III and IV, the tax on industrial and commercial profits (impot sur les benefices industriels et commerciaux); in Articles III, V and VI, the tax on income from securities (impot sur les revenus des valeurs mobilieres); in Articles VII, VIII and IX, the tax on wages and salaries, pensions and life annuities (impot sur les traitements et salaires, pensions et rentes viageres), and other schedular taxes (impots cedulaires) appropriate to the type of income specified in said articles;

(2) The provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed to affect in any manner any exemption, deduction, credit or other allowance accorded by the laws of one of the contracting States in the determination of the tax imposed by such State.

(3) As used in this Agreement:

(a) The term "permanent establishment" includes branches, mines and oil wells, factories, workshops, warehouses, offices, agencies, and other fixed places of business, but does not include a subsidiary corporation.

When an enterprise of one of the States carries on business in the other State through an agent established there who is authorized to contract for its account, it is considered as having a permanent establishment in the latter State.

But the fact that an enterprise of one of the contracting States has business dealings in the other State through a bona fide commission agent or broker shall not be held to mean that such enterprise has a permanent establishment in the latter State.

(b) The term "enterprise" includes every form of undertaking whether carried on by an individual, partnership (societe en nom collectif), corporation (societe anonyme), or any other entity.

(c) The term "enterprise of one of the contracting States" means, as the case may be, "American enterprise" or "French enterprise."

(d) The term "American enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in the United States by a citizen of the United States or by an American corporation or other entity; the term "American corporation or other entity" means a partnership, corporation or other entity created or organized in the United States or under the law of the United States or of any State or Territory of the United States.

(e) The term "French enterprise" is defined in the same manner, mutatis mutandis, as the term "American enterprise."

(f) The American corporations mentioned in Articles V and VI are those which, owing to their form of organization, are subject to Article 3 of the Decree of December 6, 1872. The present Agreement does not modify the regime of "abonnement" for securities.

(g) The term "United States", when used in a geographical sense, includes only the States and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(h) The term "France", when used in a geographical sense, indicates the country of France, exclusive of Algeria and the Colonies.

PARAGRAPH B. The Proclamation of the Treaty by the President of the United States on April 16, 1935, reads in part as follows:

And whereas, the said convention and protocol have been ratified on both parts, and the ratifications of the two Governments were exchanged at Paris on the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five;

And whereas, it is stipulated in Article X of the said convention that the convention shall become effective on the first day of January following the exchange of ratifications, that is to say on the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, have caused the said convention and the said protocol to be made public, to the end that the same and every article and clause thereof may be observed and fulfilled with good faith by the United States of America and the citizens thereof on and from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this sixteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and fifty-ninth.

[SEAL] FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:
CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

PARAGRAPH C. Section 22 (b) (7), Revenue Act of 1936, provides in part as follows:

SEC. 22. Gross Income.—

* * * * * *

(b) Exclusions From Gross Income.—The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this title:

* * * * * *

(7) Income Exempt Under Treaty.—Income of any kind, to the extent required by any treaty obligation of the United States;

Pursuant to the provisions of section 62 of the Revenue Act of 1936, the following regulations are hereby prescribed to carry into effect the quoted provisions of the Treaty between the United States of America and the Republic of France, and all regulations inconsistent herewith are modified accordingly:

Part II

Effect of the treaty upon the determination of United States taxable income of French citizens and French corporations.

ART. 1. General.—The primary purposes of the Treaty are to regulate the method of taxation of corporations of either of the contracting States carrying on industrial or commercial activities through a permanent establishment or a subsidiary corporation in the other State and to avoid double taxation upon certain special classes of income.

The specific classes of income relieved from United States income tax are:

(a) Industrial and commercial profits of a French enterprise having no permanent establishment in the United States.

(b) Income derived by a French enterprise from the operation of aircraft registered in France and engaged in transportation between the United States and France.

(c) Compensation paid by France to its citizens for labor or personal services performed in the United States.

(d) War pensions paid by France to persons residing in the United States.

(e) Income paid to a French corporation, or to a citizen of France residing in France

(1) as consideration for the right to use patents, secret processes and formulas, trade marks and other analogous rights;

(2) as copyright royalties;

(3) as private pensions and life annuities.

Except as to those items of income expressly exempted by the Treaty, the tax liability of French citizens, not residents of the United States, and French corporations, is determined in accordance with the provisions of the revenue laws of the United States and the regulations thereunder applicable generally to nonresident alien individuals and to foreign corporations.

The Treaty does not affect the liability to tax of French citizens resident in the United States unless and to the extent such citizens are entitled to the benefits of Articles VII or VIII of the Treaty. See Articles 5 and 6 of these regulations. The tax liability of a United States citizen or United States resident, a member of a French partnership carrying on a French enterprise, is not affected by Article I of the Treaty. Such citizen or resident is subject to United States income tax upon his distributive share of its net income even though the other members of such partnership are not subject to tax upon their share of the partnership's industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States.

The Treaty has no reference to the rates of taxation imposed by the respective countries and concerns only the determination of income arising in one of the contracting States to citizens or corporations of the other contracting State and subject to taxation in the former State.

These regulations are limited to a consideration of the factors involved in the application of: (a) the provisions of the Treaty alone; and (b) the provisions of the Treaty as extended by the Revenue Act of 1936. These regulations are not concerned with Articles V or VI of the Treaty as such Articles affect only the application of certain French tax laws and decrees.

ART. 2. Definitions.—Any word or term used in these regulations which is defined in the Treaty shall be given the definition assigned to such word or term in such Treaty. Any word or term used in these regulations which is not defined in the Treaty but is defined in the Revenue Act of 1936 shall be given the definition contained in the Revenue Act.

The term "permanent establishment" includes branches, mines and oil wells, factories, work shops, warehouses, offices, agencies and other fixed places of business. A French enterprise, as defined in the Treaty, carrying on business in the United States through an agent established there who is authorized to contract for its account, is considered to have a permanent establishment in the United States. However, the carrying on of business dealings in the United States by a French enterprise through a bona fide commission agent or broker does not constitute a permanent establishment in the United States. A French corporation doing business in the United States through a domestic subsidiary corporation has not, merely by reason of such fact, a permanent establishment in the United States.

The term "enterprise" means any commercial or industrial undertaking whether conducted by an individual, partnership, corporation or any other entity. It includes such activities as manufacturing, merchandising, mining, banking and insurance. It does not include the operation of, or the trading in, real property located in the United States. It does not include the rendition of personal services. Hence, a French citizen rendering personal services within the United States is not, merely by reason of such service, engaged in an enterprise within the meaning of the Treaty and his liability to Federal income tax is unaffected by Article I of the Treaty.

The term "French enterprise" means an enterprise carried on in France by a citizen of France or by a French corporation or other entity. The term "French corporation or other entity" of the treaty means a partnership, corporation or other entity created or organized in France or under the law of France. If, for example, a French citizen or French corporation does not carry on an enterprise in France it is not a French enterprise within the meaning of the Treaty even though it carries on an enterprise in some other foreign country and hence such enterprise is not relieved by the Treaty from United States income tax upon its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States even though it has no permanent establishment therein.

The term "industrial and commercial profits" means the profits arising from the industrial, mercantile, or manufacturing or like undertakings of a French enterprise, as defined in this Article. For the purpose of the exemption under Article I of the Treaty such term does not include gains from the sale or exchange within the United States of capital assets as defined in section 117 of the Revenue Act of 1936 unless it can be shown by clear and convincing evidence that such sale or exchange was incident, and had a necessary relation, to the commercial and industrial activities of the French enterprise. For treatment of such gains under the Revenue Act of 1936, see Articles 8 (b) and 9 (b). Such term does not include dividends, interest, compensation for labor or personal services, or income derived from real property or from any interest in such property including rentals and royalties therefrom and gains from the sale or disposition thereof.

ART. 3. Scope of Treaty with respect to determination of taxable income of French citizen or a French corporation carrying on a French enterprise in the United States.

(a) General.—Article I of the Treaty adopts the principle that an enterprise of one of the contracting States shall not be taxable in the other contracting State in respect of its industrial and commercial profits unless it has a permanent establishment in the latter State. Hence, a French enterprise is subject to tax upon its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States only if it has a permanent establishment within the United States. From the standpoint of Federal income taxation the Article has application only to a French enterprise and to the industrial and the commercial income thereof from sources within the United States. It has no application to compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States, nor to income derived from real property located in the United States, or from any interest in such property, including rentals and royalties therefrom, and gains from the sale or the disposition thereof, nor to dividends or interest. Such latter items of income are, except as otherwise provided in the Treaty and in these regulations, subject to tax as income of French citizens or French corporations, in the same manner and subject to the same provisions as are applicable to other nonresident aliens and foreign corporations. As to what is a "French enterprise", a "permanent establishment", and "industrial and commercial profits", see Article 2.

(b) No United States Permanent Establishment.—A French citizen or a French corporation carrying on a French enterprise but having no permanent establishment in the United States is not subject to United States income tax upon its industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States. As to what constitutes a "French enterprise" see Article 2. As to what constitutes "industrial and commercial profits" see Article 2. For example, if such French corporation sells stock in trade, such as wine or cosmetics, through a bona fide commission agent or broker in the United States, the resulting profits is, under the terms of the Treaty, relieved from United States income tax. Such French corporation, however, remains subject to tax upon all other items of income from sources within the United States and not expressly exempted from such tax under the Treaty. However, under the provisions of Article IX of the Treaty the following items, otherwise taxable, paid to citizens of France residing in France, or to French corporations, are expressly exempt from the tax:

(1) Amounts paid as consideration for the right to use patents, secret processes, and formulas, trade marks and other analogous rights;

(2) Income received as copyright royalties;

(3) Private pensions and life annuities.

The exemption as to such items does not extend to French citizens residing elsewhere than in France nor to individuals residing in France who are not citizens of France.

(c) United States Permanent Establishment.—A French citizen or a French corporation carrying on a French enterprise which has a permanent establishment in the United States is subject to tax upon his or its entire net income (including industrial and commercial profits) from sources within the United States, subject to the exemptions expressly provided for in Article IX of the Treaty. See Article 7. In the determination of the income of such French citizen or corporation from sources within the United States all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States shall be deemed to be allocable to the permanent establishment within the United States. The net income from sources within the United States of such enterprise will be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 119, Revenue Act of 1936, and regulations thereunder. In determining such income no account shall be taken of the purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise within the United States for the purpose of supplying establishments of the enterprise maintained by such citizen in France.

A French citizen or corporation carrying on a French enterprise having business dealings in the United States through a bona fide commission agent or broker therein has not, merely by reason of such transactions, a permanent establishment in the United States and hence is relieved by the Treaty from United States income tax upon his industrial and commercial profits arising from such transactions. However, a French citizen or French corporation not carrying on a French enterprise, having business dealings in the United States through a bona fide commission agent or broker is not by the Treaty relieved from United States income tax on the resulting profit. Such French citizen or French corporation is subject to tax upon the income resulting from such transactions in the same manner and subject to the same provisions and exceptions, under the Revenue Act of 1936, as are applicable to other nonresident aliens and foreign corporations. See Articles 8 (a) and 9. For definition of the terms "French enterprise", "permanent establishment", and "commercial and industrial profits", see Article 2.

ART. 4. Control of a domestic enterprise by a French enterprise.—Article IV of the Treaty provides that if a French enterprise by reason of its control of a domestic business imposes conditions different from those which would result from normal bargaining between independent enterprises, the accounts between the enterprises will be adjusted so as to ascertain the true net income of the domestic enterprise. The purpose is to place the controlled domestic enterprise on a tax parity with an uncontrolled domestic enterprise by determining, according to the standard of an uncontrolled enterprise, the true net income from the property and business of the controlled enterprise. The Treaty contemplates that if the accounting records do not truly reflect the net income from the property and business of such domestic enterprise the Commissioner shall intervene and by making such distributions, apportionments or allocations as he may deem necessary of gross income or deductions or of any item or element affecting net income as between such domestic enterprise and the French enterprise by which it is controlled or directed. The provisions of Article 45–1, Regulations 94, shall, in so far as applicable, be followed in the determination of the net income of the domestic business.

ART. 5. Compensation paid by the Republic of France to its citizens for services rendered in the United States.—Under Article VII of the Treaty, French citizens are relieved from United States income tax upon wages, fees, salary, remunerations or other amounts paid by the Republic of France to its citizens as compensation for labor or personal services performed in the United States. Such exemption is effective on and after January 1, 1936. The character of the services has no bearing upon the exemption from the tax and hence the test set forth in section 116 (h) (1) (B), Revenue Act of 1936, has no application in so far as the year 1936 and subsequent years are concerned.

ART. 6. War Pensions.—Under Article VIII of the Treaty war pensions paid by the Republic of France to persons residing in the United States are exempt from United States income tax. The term "war pensions", for the purposes of these regulations, includes pensions received under the provisions of the French Military Pensions Act of March 31, 1919, or for the services of the beneficiary or another in the military or naval forces of the Republic of France in time of war. It is not necessary that the recipient of such pension be a citizen of France. Such pension in the hands of a United States citizen recipient, if residing in the United States, is exempt from tax.

ART. 7. Patents, Formulas and Copyright Royalties, Pensions and Annuities.—The following items of income paid to a corporation organized under the laws of France or to a citizen of France residing in France are exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of Article IX of the Treaty:

(a) Amounts paid as consideration for the right to use patents, secret processes and formulas, trade marks and other analogous rights;

(b) Income received as copyright royalties;

(c) Private pensions and life annuities.

Such items are, therefore, not subject to the withholding provisions of the Revenue Act of 1936. To avoid withholding of the tax at the source the French citizen or corporation, as the case may be, should notify by letter the payor thereof that such income is exempt from taxation under the provisions of the Treaty. Such letter from a citizen of France shall contain his address and a statement that he is a citizen of France residing in France. The letter from such corporation shall contain the address of its office or place of business and a statement that it is a corporation organized under the laws of the Republic of France, and shall be signed by an officer of the corporation, giving his official title. The letter of notification, or a copy thereof, should be immediately forwarded by the recipient to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Sorting Section, Washington, D. C.

Part III

Tax liability of French citizens and French corporations under the Revenue Act of 1936, as modified by the treaty.

ART. 8. Taxation of a French citizen (not a resident of the United States) under the Revenue Act of 1936, as modified by the Treaty.

General.—A French citizen, not a resident of the United States, is subject to the provisions of the Revenue Act of 1936 applicable to nonresident alien individuals generally, but such citizen is entitled to the exemptions provided in the Treaty to which other nonresident aliens are not entitled. Section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1936 classifies nonresident alien individuals into two groups: (1) those not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein; and (2) those engaged in trade or business within the United States or having an office or place of business therein. The term "nonresident alien individuals" includes nonresident alien fiduciaries.

Whether a nonresident alien has an "office or place of business" within the United States depends upon the facts of the particular case. The term "office or place of business", however, implies a place for the regular transaction of business and does not include a place where casual or incidental transactions might be, or are, effected.

While Article I of the Treaty (in so far as concerns individuals) applies only to French citizens carrying on a French enterprise and has no application to those not carrying on such enterprise, section 211 makes no distinction between the two classes, and applies alike to both groups.

This Article treats of the taxation of French citizens, not resident in the United States, under section 211, Revenue Act of 1936, as modified by the Treaty, following the classification prescribed in that section.

(a) No United States business or office.—A French citizen, not a resident of the United States (whether or not he carries on a French enterprise), not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein at any time within the taxable year is liable to the tax at the rate of 10 percent, imposed by section 211 (a), Revenue Act of 1936, upon the gross amount of his fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income from sources within the United States. Such gains, profits and income are to be determined under the provisions of section 119, Revenue Act of 1936 and regulations thereunder. (See Articles 119–1 to 119–14, Regulations 94.) Specific items of fixed or determinable annual or periodical income are enumerated in the Act as interest (except interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business which is nontaxable under the Act), dividends, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensation, remunerations and emoluments, but other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income are also subject to the tax, as, for instance, royalties. As to the definition of "fixed or determinable annual or periodical income", see Article 143–2, Regulations 94. However, a French citizen who is a resident of France is not taxable upon those items of income enumerated in Article IX of the Treaty and in Article 3 (b) of these regulations. See Article 7.

The term "fixed or determinable annual or periodical income" within the meaning of section 211 (a) does not include industrial and commercial profits as that term is used in the Treaty. Under the Revenue Act of 1936, as modified by the Treaty, a French citizen taxable under section 211 (a) of that Act is exempt from United States income tax on industrial and commercial profits. For example, the Treaty exempts from tax profits realized by such French citizen who carries on a French enterprise from transactions in the United States in goods, wares or merchandise through a resident broker or commission agent. If, however, such citizen does not carry on such enterprise such transactions are not exempt under the Treaty and constitute engaging in trade or business within the United States and he is accordingly taxable upon the profit resulting from such transactions under section 211 (b), Revenue Act of 1936. On the other hand, a French citizen, not a resident of the United States, but taxable under section 211 (a) of the Act, whether or not he carries on a French enterprise, is not liable to United States income tax upon profits realized from transactions in stocks, securities or commodities in the United States through a resident broker, commission agent, or custodian. However, a French citizen who performs personal services in the United States at any time within the taxable year is liable to the tax upon profits arising from transactions in stocks, securities or commodities, except where it can be shown that such citizen is only temporarily present in the United States and meets the other conditions with respect to personal service laid down in section 211 (b), Revenue Act of 1936. See Article 211–7 (b), Regulations 94. As to when such profits constitute "industrial and commercial profits", see Article 2. As to withholding of the tax at the source, see section 143, Revenue Act of 1936, and regulations prescribed thereunder.

(b) United States business or office.—A French citizen not a resident of the United States and not carrying on a French enterprise, who at any time within the taxable year is engaged in trade or business within the United States or has an office or place of business therein, or a French citizen carrying on a French enterprise and who has a permanent establishment in the United States, is like other nonresident aliens, liable to the normal tax of 4 percent imposed by section 11 of the Act and to the graduated surtax imposed by section 12 (b) of the Act, upon his net income from sources within the United States (gross income from sources within the United States minus the statutory deductions provided in sections 23 and 213) less the credits against net income allowed an individual by section 25. Such net income includes all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States. Such net income is to be determined under the provisions of section 119, Revenue Act of 1936, and regulations prescribed thereunder, but in determining such income no account shall be taken of the purchase of merchandise within the United States for the purpose of supplying establishments of the enterprise, if any, maintained by such citizen in France. In the determination of the income of such French citizen from sources within the United States all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States shall be deemed to be allocable to his permanent establishment within the United States. If, however, such French citizen is a resident of France, he is not taxable upon those items of income enumerated in Article IX of the Treaty and referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article with respect to French citizens subject to tax under section 211 (a). See Article 7.

A French citizen having an office or place of business within the United States within the meaning of section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1936, shall be presumed (if he carries on a French enterprise) to have a permanent establishment in the United States within the meaning of the Treaty.

A French citizen carrying on a French enterprise who carries on business transactions through a bona fide commission agent or broker in the United States and who has no permanent establishment in the United States is not liable to income tax on the industrial and commercial profits arising to him from such transactions. However, a French citizen not carrying on a French enterprise is held to be engaged in trade or business in the United States if he sells therein, through a commission agent or broker goods, wares or merchandise (not including stocks, securities or commodities) and, hence, is liable to income tax on resulting profit. Such French citizen, whether or not he carries on a French enterprise, otherwise liable to the tax imposed by subsection (a) of section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1936 is, however, not liable to the tax upon profits arising from transactions in stocks, securities or commodities through a resident broker, commission agent or custodian. See Article 211–7 (b), Regulations 94. As to what constitutes a "French enterprise", see Article 2. As to what constitutes a "permanent establishment", see Article 2.

As to the computation of gross income, the allowance of deductions and credits, the requirements as to filing of returns and payment of the tax in the case of nonresident aliens generally, including French citizens, see sections 211 to 219, inclusive, Revenue Act of 1936, and the provisions of Regulations 94 with respect thereto.

(c) Member of French partnership.—Whether the liability to the tax of a French citizen who is a member of a partnership is affected by Article I of the Treaty depends upon the status of the partnership. Article I does not apply unless such partnership: (1) is created or organized in France; and (2) carries on a French enterprise. Thus, a partnership created or organized in the United States, even though composed in whole or in part of French citizens, is not a French enterprise and hence is not affected by the Treaty. A French citizen, not resident in the United States, a member of such partnership, is taxable under the provisions of section 211 as are other nonresident aliens. If, however, such French citizen is a member of a partnership meeting the tests set forth in this paragraph, the United States tax liability of such French citizen shall be determined as provided in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Article, whichever is applicable, dependent upon whether or not the partnership has a permanent establishment in the United States.

ART. 9. Taxation of a French corporation under the Revenue Act of 1936 as modified by the Treaty.

General.—A corporation organized under the laws of France is subject to those provisions of the Revenue Act of 1936 applicable to foreign corporations generally but such corporation is entitled to the exemptions provided in the Treaty to which other foreign corporations are not entitled.

Section 231 of the Revenue Act of 1936 classifies foreign corporations into two groups: (1) those not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein (hereinafter referred to as nonresident foreign corporations); and (2) those which at any time within the taxable year are engaged in trade or business within the United States or have an office or place of business therein (hereinafter referred to as resident foreign corporations).

Whether a foreign corporation has an "office or place of business" within the United States depends upon the facts of the particular case. The term "office or place of business", however, implies a place for the regular transaction of business and does not include a place where casual or incidental transactions might be, or are, effected.

While Article I of the Treaty, in so far as corporations are concerned, applies only to French corporations carrying on a French enterprise and has no application to those not carrying on such enterprise, section 231 makes no distinction between the two classes, such section applying alike to both groups.

This Article treats of the taxation of French corporations under that section, as modified by the Treaty, following the classification prescribed in that section.

(a) Nonresident French corporations.—A French corporation (whether or not it carries on a French enterprise) not engaged in trade or business within the United States and not having an office or place of business therein at any time within the taxable year is liable to the tax at the rate of 15 percent (10 percent in the case of dividends) imposed by section 231 (a), Revenue Act of 1936, upon the gross amount of its fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income from sources within the United States. Such gains, profits and income are to be determined under the provisions of section 119, Revenue Act of 1936, and regulations thereunder. See Articles 119–1 to 119–14, Regulations 94. Specific items of fixed or determinable annual or periodical income are enumerated in the Act as interest (except interest on deposits with persons carrying on the banking business which is nontaxable under the Act), dividends, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, but other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits and income are also subject to tax, as, for instance, royalties. As to the definition of "fixed or determinable annual or periodical income", see Article 143–2, Regulations 94. However, a French corporation is not taxable upon those items of income enumerated in Article IX of the Treaty and referred to in Article 8 (a) with respect to French citizens subject to tax under section 211 (a), Revenue Act of 1936. See Article 7.

The term "fixed or determinable annual or periodical income" within the meaning of section 231 (a), Revenue Act of 1936, does not include industrial and commercial profits as that term is used in the Treaty. Under the Revenue Act of 1936 as modified by the Treaty a French corporation taxable under section 231 (a) of that Act is exempt from United States income tax on industrial and commercial profits. For example, under the Treaty profits realized by such French corporation, which carries on a French enterprise, from transactions in the United States in goods, wares or merchandise through a resident broker or commission agent are not subject to tax. If, however, such corporation does not carry on such enterprise such transactions are not exempt under the Treaty and constitute engaging in trade or business within the United States and it is accordingly taxable upon the resulting profits under section 231 (b), Revenue Act of 1936. On the other hand, a French corporation taxable under section 231 (a), whether or not it carries on a French enterprise, is not liable to United States income tax upon profits realized from transactions in stocks, securities or commodities in the United States through a resident broker, commission agent or custodian.

(b) Resident French corporations.—A French corporation, not carrying on a French enterprise, which at any time within the taxable year is engaged in trade or business within the United States or has an office or place of business therein, or a French corporation, carrying on a French enterprise, which has a permanent establishment in the United States, is, like other foreign corporation, liable to the normal tax of 22 percent imposed by section 13, as modified by section 231 (b), Revenue Act of 1936, upon its net income from sources within the United States (gross income from sources within the United States minus the statutory deductions provided in sections 23 and 232, Revenue Act of 1936) less the credits against net income allowed by section 26 (a) and (b) for the purpose of computing the normal tax of a corporation. Such net income includes all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States. See Article 3 (c). Such net income is to be determined under the provisions of section 119, Revenue Act of 1936 and regulations prescribed thereunder, but in determining such income no account shall be taken of the purchase of goods, wares, or merchandise within the United States for the purpose of supplying establishments maintained by such corporation in France. In the determination of the income of such French corporation from sources within the United States all industrial and commercial profits from sources within the United States shall be deemed to be allocable to its permanent establishment within the United States. Such corporation is not taxable upon those items of income enumerated in Article IX of the Treaty and referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article with respect to nonresident French corporations. See Article 7.

A French corporation having an office or place of business within the United States within the meaning of section 231 of the Revenue Act of 1936, shall be presumed (if it carries on a French enterprise) to have a permanent establishment in the United States within the meaning of the Treaty.

A French corporation carrying on a French enterprise which carries on business transactions through a bona fide commission agent or broker in the United States and which has no permanent establishment in the United States is not liable to income tax on the industrial and commercial profits arising to it from such transactions. However, a French corporation not carrying on a French enterprise is held to be engaged in trade or business in the United States if it sells therein, through a commission agent or broker, goods, wares or merchandise (not including stocks, securities or commodities) and, hence, is liable to income tax on the resulting profit. Such French corporation, whether or not it carries on a French enterprise, otherwise liable to the tax imposed by subsection (a) of section 211 of the Revenue Act of 1936 is, however, not liable to the tax upon profits arising from transactions in stocks, securities or commodities through a resident broker, commission agent or custodian. See Article 211–7 (b), Regulations 94. As to what constitutes a "French enterprise", see Article 2. As to what constitutes a "permanent establishment", see Article 2. As to the computation of gross income, the allowance of deductions and credits, the requirements as to filing of returns and payment of the tax, in the case of foreign corporations generally, including French corporations, see sections 231 to 236, inclusive, Revenue Act of 1936, and the provisions of Regulations 94 with respect thereto.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

PROCLAMATION OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE WITH RESPECT TO BASE PERIOD TO BE USED FOR PURPOSE OF MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER REGULATING HANDLING OF ORANGES AND GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN CAMERON, HIDALGO AND WILLACY COUNTIES, TEXAS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, which reenacts and amends Public Act No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, the undersigned hereby finds and proclaims that, with respect to oranges and grapefruit grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, the purchasing power of such fruit during the base period, August 1909–July 1914, cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such fruit, but the purchasing power of such fruit can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period September 1924–May 1929. The period September 1924–May 1929 is, therefore, hereby declared and proclaimed to be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of oranges and grapefruit grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, for the purpose of the execution of a marketing agreement and the issuance of an order regulating the handling of such fruit.

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture has executed this proclamation in duplicate and has hereunto set his hand and caused the seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, this 9th day of July 1937.

ORDER OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE REGULATING HANDLING IN INTERSTATE AND FOREIGN COMMERCE AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE OF GRAPEFRUIT AND ORANGES GROWN IN CAMERON, HILDAGO AND WILLACY COUNTIES IN THE STATE OF TEXAS

Whereas, under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, approved June 3, 1937,[1] hereinafter referred to as the "act", reenacting and amending certain provisions of Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, it is provided that the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary", shall issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities, including citrus fruit, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodities; and

[1] Public No. 137, 75th Congress.

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, with respect to the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions in interstate and foreign commerce for citrus fruit grown in the State of Texas as would establish prices to the growers of such fruit at a level that would give such fruit a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such fruit in a certain base period, conducted a public hearing at Mercedes, Hildago County, Texas, on February 13, 1937, pursuant to due notice given to all interested parties on January 27, 1937, on a proposed order regulating such handling of such fruit as is in the current of interstate and foreign commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects such commerce in such fruit, at which hearing all interested persons in attendance were afforded due opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary has determined, upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, to limit the application of the order to grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas; and

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed that the purchasing power of grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, during the period August 1909–July 1914 cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of such grapefruit and oranges can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period September 1924–May 1929 and the period September 1924–May 1929 is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of such fruits; and

Whereas, the Secretary further finds upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. That at the time of the hearing the prices received by the growers of such grapefruit and oranges were at a level that gave such fruit a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such fruit during the base period;

2. That the marketing of such fruit has been detrimentally affected by unstable market conditions with consequent depressed prices to the growers of such fruit, and that the lack of regulation from week to week, and during the entire marketing season, has been an important factor contributing to such unstability of market conditions;

3. That the regulation of shipments by volume and by grades and sizes of the grapefruit and oranges covered by this order, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent marked fluctuations in prices to growers thereof and will establish and maintain a more stabilized market for such fruit, tending to establish prices to such growers at a level that will give such fruit a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such fruit during the base period;

4. That the continental United States and Canada comprise a uniform marketing area for the grapefruit and oranges covered by this order;

5. That the order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production and marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

6. That the pro rata contribution of handlers to the expenses of the administrative agencies herein created, based upon the quantity of grapefruit and oranges shipped, as provided in this order, is fair and equitable; and

7. That the order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to growers thereof at a level that will give such fruit a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such fruit in the base period and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest, and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to growers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds:

1. That a marketing agreement regulating the handling of grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas, executed by him on the 9th day of July 1937, upon which a hearing was held on February 13, 1937, was signed by handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who were not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping the fruit covered by this order) who handled during the 1936–1937 season not less than fifty percent (50%) of the volume of each such fruit covered by this order which was marketed during the same season in the current of interstate commerce in the continental United States and which was shipped to Canada;

2. That this order regulates the handling of such grapefruit and such oranges in the same manner as the aforesaid marketing agreement, and that it is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said marketing agreement; and

3. That the issuance of this order is favored by growers who, during the 1936–1937 season, which is hereby determined to be a representative period, have produced for market within Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties, Texas, at least two-thirds (⅔) of the volume of grapefruit and oranges, respectively, produced for market within such production area in the said season.

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that such handling of the said grapefruit and oranges as is in the current of interstate and foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such grapefruit and oranges, from and after the date hereinafter specified, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order.

ARTICLE I—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. As used in this order, the following terms have the following meanings:

1. "Person" means individual, partnership, corporation, association, and any other business unit.

2. "Citrus fruit" or "fruit" means grapefruit and oranges grown in Cameron, Hidalgo and Willacy Counties in the State of Texas.

ARTICLE II—ADMINISTRATIVE BODIES

SECTION 1. Membership and Organization.—1. A Growers Industry Committee and a Shippers Marketing Committee are hereby established which shall administer the terms and provisions of this order as hereinafter specifically provided, and the membership of which shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of this article.

2. The Growers Industry Committee shall consist of twelve (12) members whose principal business is the production of citrus fruit. The initial members and alternates shall hold office for a term beginning on the date designated by the Secretary and ending the first Monday in August, 1938, and until their successors are selected and qualified. After the first Monday of August, 1938, the term of office of members and alternates shall be one year expiring on the first Monday of August of each year. The members, their alternates and their respective successors shall be selected by the Secretary from the respective nominees of the groups of producers hereinafter designated to make nominations. If nominations are not made for any one or more of such members or alternates as herein provided, the Secretary may select any such member or alternate for whose office a nomination has not been made without regard to nominations.

3. Nominations of at least four (4) persons for a member and his alternate shall be made by each of the following groups:

(1) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Mission District;

(2) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Sharyland District;

(3) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the McAllen District;

(4) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo District;

(5) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Edinburg District;

(6) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Donna-Weslaco District;

(7) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Mercedes District;

(8) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the La Feria District:

(9) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Harlingen District;

(10) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Raymondville District;

(11) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the San Benito District;

(12) Producers of citrus fruit who during the year in which nominations are being made produced fruit in the Brownsville District.

In the year 1937, all nominations shall be submitted to the Secretary not later than thirty (30) days after the effective date of this order, and in ensuing years beginning with the first Monday in August, 1938, all nominations shall be submitted to the Secretary on or before the 20th day of July of the year in which members of the Growers Industry Committee are to be selected.

4. Nominees for members of the Growers Industry Committee and their alternates shall be selected by the above-designated groups in the following manner: The Secretary, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall cause to be held in the year 1937 within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this order, and in ensuing years not less than twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the term of office of the members of the Growers Industry Committee and their alternates, a meeting of the producers in each district who produced citrus fruit during the year in such district. Each such meeting shall select its chairman and secretary. In the selection of nominees each producer shall be entitled to cast but one (1) vote regardless of the number of districts in which he may be producing fruit. The chairman of the meeting shall publicly announce at such meeting the total number of votes cast and the names of the persons selected as nominees, and the chairman and the secretary shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary, or to such person as the Secretary may designate, their certificate as to the number of votes so cast and the names of the nominees selected.

5. The Shippers Marketing Committee shall consist of seven (7) members who shall be handlers of citrus fruit and who shall hold office for a term beginning on the date designated by the Secretary and ending with the first Monday in August, 1938, and until their successors are selected and qualified. After the first Monday of August, 1938, the term of office of members and alternates shall be one year expiring on the first Monday of August of each year. The Secretary, or such person as the Secretary may designate, shall give notice to persons who have handled fruit during the year in which nominations are being made, in the year 1937 within fifteen (15) days after the effective date of this order, and in ensuing years not less than twenty (20) days prior to the expiration of the term of office of the members of the Shippers Marketing Committee and their alternates, of the right of such person to participate in making nominations for members of the Shippers Marketing Committee and their alternates. Such notice may be given by mail to persons known to the Secretary to have handled fruit during the year in which nominations are being made or by public notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation and shall specify the dates of meetings of handlers to make nominations. Nominations for members of the Shippers Marketing Committee and their alternates shall be made as hereinafter provided.

(1) Nominations of at least nine (9) persons for three (3) members and their alternates shall be made by handlers comprising growers' marketing groups who, during the year in which nominations are being made, shipped fruit from points within the State of Texas; and

(2) Nominations of at least twelve (12) persons for four (4) members and their alternates shall be made by handlers other than handlers comprising growers' marketing groups who, during the year in which nominations are being made, shipped fruit from points within the State of Texas.

The selection of the nominees for the members and their alternates of the Shippers Marketing Committee shall be made at a meeting of each of the aforesaid groups of handlers at which each handler shall be entitled to cast but one (1) vote on behalf of himself, agents, partners, affiliates, subsidiaries and representatives which shall be weighted according to the volume of fruit shipped by such handlers during the preceding shipping season. The chairman and secretary of each meeting shall forthwith transmit to the Secretary, or to such person as the Secretary may designate, their certificate as to the number of votes so cast and the names of the nominees selected.

6. Any person selected by the Secretary as a member or alternate of the Growers Industry Committee or the Shippers Marketing Committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance of this appointment with the Secretary or his designated representative.

7. An alternate for a member of the Growers Industry Committee or the Shippers Marketing Committee shall act in the place and stead of such member (1) in his absence or (2) in the event of his removal, resignation, or disqualification.

8. In the event of the death, removal, resignation or disqualification of any member or his alternate of either committee, a successor for the unexpired term of such member or alternate shall be selected by the Secretary. Such selection may be made without resorting to the provision as to nominations of candidates for the office of member or alternate.

SEC. 2. Powers.—The Growers Industry Committee shall, in addition to the power to administer the terms and provisions of this order, as herein specifically provided, have power (a) to make, only to the extent specifically permitted by the provisions hereinafter contained, administrative rules and regulations; (b) to receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this order; and (c) to recommend to the Secretary amendments to this order.

SEC. 3. Duties.—1. It shall be the duty of the Growers Industry Committee and the Shippers Marketing Committee to keep minutes, books and records which will clearly reflect all of their acts and transactions, and such minutes, books and records shall at all times be subject to the examination of the Secretary.

2. It shall be the duty of the Growers Industry Committee (a) to act as intermediary between the Secretary and the producers and handlers;

(b) to furnish the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(c) to appoint such employees as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of any such employees;

(d) to cause the books of the Growers Industry Committee to be audited by one or more competent accountants at least once for each crop year and at such other times as the Growers Industry Committee deems necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary copies of all audit reports made; and

(e) to perform such duties in connection with the administration of Section 32 of the Act to Amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes, Public No. 320, approved by the President on August 24, 1935, as amended, as may from time to time be assigned to it by the Secretary.

SEC. 4. Procedure.—1. For any decision of the Growers Industry Committee to be valid seven (7) concurring votes shall be necessary, and for any decision of the Shippers Marketing Committee to be valid five (5) concurring votes shall be necessary. Each member, or alternate then serving in the place and stead of any member of either committee, must vote in person.

2. Eight (8) members of the Growers Industry Committee or five (5) members of the Shippers Marketing Committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum.

3. In the event the Shippers Marketing Committee fails to make a decision by five concurring votes in the performance of any of its powers or duties under this order, the Growers Industry Committee shall perform such duties or exercise such power.

4. The members, and alternates when acting in the place and stead of a member as provided by this order, of the committees functioning under the provisions of this order shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties, and each of the members of the Growers Industry Committee and of the Shippers Marketing Committee, and their alternates, when acting in their place and stead shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the Growers Industry Committee but not to exceed five ($5.00) dollars for each meeting actually attended by a member or the alternate when acting in the place and stead of the member.

5. The Committees shall give to the Secretary, or his designated agents and representatives, the same notice of meetings of the committees as is given to the members of the committees.

6. The members of each committee shall select a chairman from their membership, and all communications from the Secretary to the Committees may be addressed to the chairman at such addresses as may, from time to time, be filed with the Secretary. The committees shall select such other officers and adopt such rules for the conduct of their business as may be deemed advisable by them.

7. The members of the committees (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committees, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of both committees shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time and upon his disapproval shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith.

SEC. 5. Funds.—All funds received by the Growers Industry Committee pursuant to any provision of this order shall be used solely for the purposes herein specified and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(1) The Secretary may, at any time, require the Growers Industry Committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(2) Upon the removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the Growers Industry Committee, such member shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession to his successor in office, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor full title to all of the property, funds or claims vested in such member pursuant to this order.

ARTICLE III—EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

SECTION 1. Expenses and Assessments.—1. The Growers Industry Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out the functions of both committees under this order during a designated fiscal period. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying of assessments upon handlers as hereinafter provided.

2. The Secretary shall fix the rate of assessment per standard packed box of oranges and grapefruit. Each handler shall pay to the Growers Industry Committee a sum of money equivalent to the product of the rate per standard packed box fixed by the Secretary and the total quantity of standard packed boxes of oranges and grapefruit shipped by the handler: Provided, That if the shipment of any of the fruit mentioned, i. e., oranges or grapefruit, is not regulated during the designated fiscal period, the Growers Industry Committee shall refund to the handlers who shipped the fruit not regulated a sum of money paid by such handlers on account of such fruit: Provided, further, That in the event the shipment of none of the fruit is regulated, a sufficient sum of money shall be retained to pay the expenses incurred in administering this order.

3. The Growers Industry Committee may require that each handler pay his assessment in advance of actual shipments on the basis of the quantity of fruit shipped by him during the last shipping season. The assessment levied pursuant to this section by the Growers Industry Committee shall be due and payable at such time or times, and in such installments, if any, as may be set by the Growers Industry Committee. In the event assessments are levied in advance of actual shipment, such assessments shall be adjusted at the end of the fiscal period so that the assessment shall be based on the actual quantity of fruit shipped by the handler during the fiscal period.

If at the end of the fiscal period it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal period, unless he demands payment of the sum due him, in which case such sum shall be paid to him.

5. At any time during or after the fiscal period, the Secretary shall have the power to increase the rate of assessment so that the sum of money collected pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be adequate to cover the expenses. Such increase shall be applied retroactively as well as to future shipments.

ARTICLE IV—REGULATION OF SHIPMENTS

SECTION 1. Determination of Period Regulations and Weekly Shipments.—1. It shall be the duty of the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee to investigate demand and supply conditions with respect to fruit. The Growers Industry Committee and the Shippers Marketing Committee shall, from time to time, recommend to the Secretary the establishment of a weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods, as well as the time of commencement, duration, and termination thereof. All such recommendations shall be submitted by the Growers Industry Committee. The Growers Industry Committee shall give notice of the intention of the Shippers Marketing Committee and the Growers Industry Committee to meet to consider such recommendation by publishing a notice in a daily newspaper published in the principal place of business of the Growers Industry Committee and in one or more other daily newspapers of general circulation selected by it.

2. If upon the basis of such recommendation or other information available to the Secretary, the Secretary shall find that to establish a particular weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall establish such weekly regulation period or series of weekly regulation periods, and he shall notify the Growers Industry Committee of the establishment thereof, as well as of the time of commencement, duration and termination thereof.

3. For each weekly regulation period the Shippers Marketing Committee shall find and determine the quantity of each variety of fruit deemed by it advisable to be shipped and to be prorated in view of the prospective demand in the market areas. In making such determination, the committee shall give due consideration to the following factors: (1) current market prices, (2) fruit on hand in the market areas, as evidenced by supplies in storage, enroute to, or on track at the principal markets, (3) available supply and condition of fruit in the production areas, (4) supplies from competitive areas producing citrus fruit and other competitive fruit, and (5) trend in consumer income. The Shippers Marketing Committee shall promptly report the finding and determination so made with supporting information to the Growers Industry Committee, which committee shall in turn submit the same to the Secretary together with its own recommendations. Notice of each meeting of the Shippers Marketing Committee held for the purpose of determining the weekly quantity to be shipped shall be published, not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time set for such meeting, in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by the Growers Industry Committee.

SEC. 2. Application for Allotment Base and Allotments.—Persons, including growers, desiring to ship fruit in the current of interstate or foreign commerce shall apply for allotments and an allotment base, with respect to each variety of fruit. Each such person shall submit to the Growers Industry Committee, at such time or times as may be designated by the said committee, upon forms to be prepared by the said committee, a written application for allotments and an allotment base, substantiated in such manner as may be prescribed in such application forms. Each such application shall include information specifying the quantities of (1) early season oranges, (2) valencia type oranges, and (3) grapefruit of all varieties shipped from Texas in interstate or foreign commerce by the applicant during each of the three years immediately preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season. Such application shall also include information specifying the quantity of each of the aforesaid varieties which the applicant then controls during the current shipping season by bona fide written agreements giving him authority to ship such fruit or which he controls by having legal title thereto and intends to ship to fresh fruit markets.

SEC. 3. Allotment Base Either on Past Performance or Current Control Basis.—Allotment bases shall be computed either on a past performance basis, as provided by section 4 of this article, or on the basis of current control of fruit, as provided by section 5 of this article. Unless the applicant advises the Growers Industry Committee, at the time of filing his application, that he desires that his allotment base be computed on the basis of his current control of fruit, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute his allotment base on the basis of his past performance.

SEC. 4. Computation of Allotment Base on Past Performance.—1. For the purpose of arriving at an allotment base computed on a past performance basis, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute, from the application filed by the applicant, the three-year average quantity of each variety shipped by the applicant during the three years preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season which three-year period the Secretary finds is a representative period. The three-year average quantity so computed, as the same may be corrected or revised pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of this article, shall be the allotment base for such applicant.

2. If an applicant for an allotment base, computed on a past performance basis, shipped fruit during only a portion of the three-pear period preceding September 1st of the then current shipping season, the Growers Industry Committee shall, from the application filed by the applicant, compute the yearly average quantity of each variety shipped by the applicant during such portion of the aforesaid period as the applicant did ship. The yearly average quantity so computed, as the same may be corrected or revised pursuant to the provisions of section 6 of this article, shall be the allotment base for such applicant.

3. If an applicant for an allotment base is a new handler, the Growers Industry Committee shall compute an allotment base for him based upon his financial resources, packing facilities, quantity of fruit under control, trade outlets, and other relevant factors.

SEC. 5. Computation of Allotment Base on Current Control.—For the purpose of arriving at an applicant's allotment base computed on a current control basis, the Growers Industry Committee shall, from the application and subsequent reports filed by the applicant at the request of the Growers Industry Committee, compute the quantity of each variety controlled by such applicant during the regulation period for which the allotment base is computed and which the applicant intends to ship to fresh fruit markets. To ascertain the intention of an applicant to ship to fresh fruit markets the Growers Industry Committee shall give due regard to the past performance of the applicant. The quantity so computed, as the same may be corrected or revised pursuant to the provisions of sections 6 and 8 of this article, shall be the allotment base of such applicant.

SEC. 6. Corrections and Revisions of Allotment Bases.—The Growers Industry Committee shall check the accuracy of the information set forth in the applications for allotment bases and of all other information filed by applicants for the purpose of obtaining allotments and allotment bases, and shall check the computations made pursuant to the provisions of this article. The Growers Industry Committee shall adjust allotment bases and allotments in such a manner as to eliminate the effect of any errors, omissions, inaccuracies and misstatements upon the total amount of shipments allotted each applicant for the entire shipping season with respect to each variety of fruit. Subject to the opportunity for applicants to be heard, under such rules as the Growers Industry Committee shall establish, the said committee shall correct any errors, omissions or inaccuracies found therein, by revising the same to conform to the check.

SEC. 7. Reports and Data to be Furnished.—For the purpose of assisting the Growers Industry Committee in the performance of its duties under this article, each applicant shall furnish to the said Committee such reports and other data as it may request, substantiated in such manner as the said committee may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Notification as to Allotment Bases and Applications for Revisions of Same.—Promptly after allotment bases shall have been computed, as above provided, and fixed by the Secretary, as hereinafter provided, each applicant shall be notified, in writing, by the Growers Industry Committee of the allotment base determined for him. Any applicant may, at any time, apply, in writing, to the said committee for the revision or correction of any allotment base determined for him, and may present evidence that the allotment base determined for him is incorrect or inequitable. In such case, the said committee shall, under such rules as it shall establish, afford such applicant, a reasonable opportunity to be heard, and if the evidence reveals that such allotment base is inaccurate or inequitable, it shall correct such base. The said committee, upon its own initiative, subject to the opportunity of the person affected to be heard, may correct any allotment base if the evidence reveals such allotment base is inaccurate or inequitable.

SEC. 9. Reports by the Growers Industry Committee to Secretary.—The Growers Industry Committee shall make written reports to the Secretary of its findings and determinations with regard to the allotment bases established pursuant to this article, or any change or revisions thereof.

SEC. 10. Computation of Group Allotments.—The Growers Industry Committee shall compute for each week the portion of the total quantity of a variety of fruit found and determined pursuant to the provisions of sub-section 3 of section 1 of this article, which shall be allotted for such week to all applicants desiring allotments based on their past performance and the portion of such total quantity of a variety of fruit to be allotted for such week to all applicants desiring allotments based on their current control in the following manner:

1. The portion of the total quantity of such variety of fruit to be allotted during each week to all applicants desiring allotments based on their current control shall be that portion which, in terms of percent, shall be equal to the percentage that the aggregate of the allotment bases, with respect to such variety of all such applicants is of the total quantity of the same variety then remaining available to be shipped.

2. The portion of the total quantity of a variety of fruit to be allotted each week to all applicants desiring an allotment on a current control basis shall be deducted from the total quantity of a variety of fruit for the same week found and determined pursuant to the provisions of sub-section 3 of section 1 of this article, and the remaining quantity shall be the aggregate quantity of fruit allotted for such week to all applicants receiving allotments based on their past performance.

3. The Growers Industry Committee shall promptly report to the Secretary the computations made by it with regard to the portions of the total quantity arrived at pursuant to the provisions of this section.

SEC. 11. Fixing of Allotments by Secretary.—Upon receiving the reports from the Growers Industry Committee, made as required by sections 1, 9, and 10 of this article, the Secretary shall cause such reports to be examined, and if approved by him, he shall record such approval. The report of the total quantities, found and determined pursuant to the provisions of subsection 3 of section 1 of this article, so approved by him, shall thereupon become the basis for the total quantities of the varieties of fruit to be shipped by all applicants during the weekly regulation period included in such report. The reports showing the past performance base for each applicant desiring allotments on such basis and the portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, and the current control allotment base for each applicant desiring allotments on such a basis and the portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, so approved by the Secretary, for the weekly regulation period included in such report, shall be the basis for allotting the total quantity as between the two groups, the one receiving allotments on a past performance basis and the other on a current control basis, and for allotting the total weekly quantity among individual applicants, as hereinafter more specifically provided.

2. Thereupon the Secretary shall fix for such regulation period the allotment for each applicant who has applied for allotments, pursuant to section 2 of this article, by signing a direction that (a) the allotment for each applicant desiring allotments on a past performance basis shall be that portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, which expressed in terms of percent shall be equal to the percentage that each such applicant's allotment base is of the aggregate of the allotment bases of all such applicants, (b) the allotment for each applicant desiring allotments on a current control basis shall be that portion of the total quantity allotted to all such applicants, which expressed in terms of percent shall be equal to the percentage that each such applicant's allotment base is of the aggregate of the allotment bases of all such applicants.

3. Whenever the Secretary has fixed an allotment for every applicant, as above provided, the Growers Industry Committee shall calculate the quantity thereof, in accordance with the provisions of sub-section 2 of this section, in terms of standard packed boxes. The Growers Industry Committee shall notify each applicant of the allotment which has been fixed for him by the Secretary.

SEC. 12. Over and Undershipments.—During any week in which the Secretary fixes allotments as hereinbefore provided, every applicant, for the purpose of providing flexibility in preparation of the fruit for market, may ship, during any week when not required to reduce shipments as provided in the following sentence, in addition to his allotment, a quantity not to exceed ten (10) percent of his allotment, or a quantity equivalent to the difference between one hundred standard packed boxes and such allotment: Provided, That no applicant shall, during any week, ship, by reason of the tolerance allowed by this section, more than twenty percent of the total fruit under his control. The quantity of fruit shipped in excess of the allotment, and not exceeding the quantity permitted by the foregoing sentence, shall be offset by a reduction of an equal amount of his allotment for the next week in which proration is in effect, or if such weekly allotment be less than such permitted excess shipment, then such permitted excess shipment shall be deducted from succeeding weekly allotments until such excess shipment has been entirely offset. Any applicant shipping a quantity of fruit in excess of the allotment fixed for him by the Secretary and the quantity represented by loan transactions shall report such overshipment to the Growers Industry Committee within twenty-four (24) hours from the date thereof. If an applicant ships a quantity of fruit less than his allotment during any week, such applicant may ship, during the next week only in which such applicant is given an allotment, in addition to such allotment, a quantity equal to the undershipment: Provided, That such additional quantity shall not exceed twenty (20) percent of the total allotment of such applicant for the weekly regulation period during which the undershipment occurred: Provided further, That the applicant report the undershipment to the Growers Industry Committee within one (1) business day subsequent to the close of the weekly period when the undershipment occurred.

SEC. 13. Lending of Allotments.—Applicants may borrow allotments from one another: Provided, That an applicant borrowing an allotment agree to return to the lender an allotment at a later period during the same shipping season, in the same quantity, and covering the same variety of fruit. The lender and borrower shall report the loan transaction to the Growers Industry Committee at such time and in such manner as the said committee may prescribe.

SEC. 14. Issuance of Certificates.—The Growers Industry Committee may, subject to the approval of the Secretary, provide for the issuance of certificates by applicants holding allotments to persons who have no allotments and who purchase fruit from the applicants.

SEC. 15. Changing from Past Performance to Current Control Basis.—At any time during the shipping season of a variety of fruit, an applicant whose allotment base is computed on a past performance basis may, by informing the Growers Industry Committee, have his allotment base for the balance of such shipping season computed on a current control basis. Such change, however, may be effected only once during a shipping season of a variety of fruit.

SEC. 16. Shipment of Fruit for By-Product Use and Export and Charitable Purposes.—1. Subject to such rules and regulations as the Growers Industry Committee may establish in order to enable it to determine that such fruit will not enter fresh fruit trade channels in interstate or foreign commerce, any person may ship, free from any restriction or obligation imposed by this order, fruit that will be used solely for purposes of conversion into by-products, or for unemployment relief or for charitable purposes, or for export to foreign countries other than Canada.

2. As used in this order, the term "by-product" means and includes all processed and manufactured products of fruit and all products in the manufacturing or processing of which fruit is used, including canned or bottled fruits and juices; except that fruit shipped for conversion into juices without further processing or treatment to render the same a bona fide manufactured or processed product, as above described, shall be deemed fresh fruit subject to all regulations of such fruit herein contained and shall not be deemed fruit shipped for conversion.

SEC. 17. Equitable Treatment of Producers.—Each handler shall, insofar as practical operations permit, divide his total allotments for each variety of fruit equitably among the producers for whom he ships such fruit.

SEC. 18. Obligation as to Shipment by Persons.—During any week for which the Secretary fixes allotments for shipment of any variety of fruit, no person shall ship any such fruit without an allotment covering same, nor any quantity in excess of the allotment fixed for him, as such quantity may be increased or decreased by operation of the provisions of section 13 dealing with loans of allotments, and reported and permitted over or under shipments provided for by section 12.

ARTICLE V—REGULATION OF GRADES AND SIZES

SECTION 1. Limitation of Grade or Size Shipments.—Whenever the Secretary shall find upon the basis of the recommendations of the Growers Industry Committee and of the Shippers Marketing Committee submitted to him by the Growers Industry Committee, or other available information, that to limit the shipment of a particular grade or grades, size or sizes of any variety or varieties of fruit would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall limit the shipment of such grade or grades, size or sizes of the variety or varieties of fruit during a specified period or periods. The Growers Industry Committee shall be informed of any such determination by the Secretary, and shall, in turn, notify all persons desiring to ship fruit in the current of interstate or foreign commerce by publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by the said committee.

SEC. 2. Notice of Meeting.—The Growers Industry Committee shall give at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of any meeting to consider the recommendation of an order limiting the total quantity of particular grades or sizes of fruit that may be shipped in the current of interstate or foreign commerce during any specified period or periods by publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation selected by said committee, and no order pursuant to this article shall become effective sooner than twenty-four (24) hours after it has been issued by the Secretary.

SEC. 3. Exemptions.—In the event the Secretary regulates the shipment of any variety of fruit in accordance with section 1 of this article, thereupon whenever the Growers Industry Committee shall find that one-half (½) of the estimated crop of the same variety of fruit has been shipped or otherwise disposed of, it shall determine, with the approval of the Secretary, the percentage which has been actually shipped of the total crop of that variety and shall give notice of such fact and of the opportunity of producers to obtain exemption from the aforesaid regulation, by publication in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation. Upon application by any producer, the Growers Industry Committee shall issue to such producer a certificate if such producer proves that he has been unable, by reason of such grade or size regulation, to ship as large a portion of his crop of such variety as the percentage which the Growers Industry Committee has determined as aforesaid. Such certificate shall permit its holder to ship a stated quantity of the applicant producer's fruit of such variety, exempt from grade or size regulation made as provided by section 1 of this article, such quantity to be equal to the percentage which the Growers Industry Committee has determined has been shipped, multiplied by such producer's total crop of that variety less the quantity of fruit of grades or sizes of the same variety the shipment of which is not subject to regulation under this article which the applicant producer has available for shipment and less the quantity of fruit of such variety which said producer has disposed of in any manner whatsoever.

SEC. 4. Obligation as to Shipment by Persons.—Except as provided in section 15 of article IV and in section 3 of this article, no person shall ship fruit other than those grades and sizes or that portion of such grades and sizes which are permitted to be shipped in the current of interstate and foreign commerce by the Secretary pursuant to section 1 of this article.

ARTICLE VI—EFFECTIVE TIME AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effective Time and Termination.—This order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto and shall continue in force, subject to termination as follows:

1. The Secretary may at any time terminate this order as to all parties thereto by giving at least one (1) day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which the Secretary may determine.

2. The Secretary shall terminate this order at the end of any crop year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the producers of citrus fruit who, during the preceding crop year, have been engaged in the production for market of fruit, provided, that such majority have, during such period, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such fruit produced for market, but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before May 1.

3. This order shall in any event terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 2. Proceedings after Termination.—1. Upon the termination of this order the members of the Growers Industry Committee then functioning shall continue to function for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the Growers Industry Committee and shall keep the funds and property then in their possession as members of such Growers Industry Committee including claims for any funds unpaid or property undelivered at the time of such termination. Said members (a) shall continue to function until discharged by the Secretary, (b) shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements or deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the Growers Industry Committee to such person or persons (who at the time of termination was or were a member or members of the Growers Industry Committee) as the Secretary may direct, and (c) shall, upon the request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such person or persons full title to all of the funds, property or claims vested in the Growers Industry Committee. Any funds collected pursuant to article III of this order, over and above amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred during the operation of this order and during the liquidation period shall, as soon as practicable after the termination of this order, be returned to the handlers. The refund to each handler shall be represented by the excess of the amount paid by him over and above his pro rata share of the expenses.

2. Any person to whom funds, property or claims have been transferred or delivered by the members of the Growers Industry Committee upon direction of the Secretary as herein provided shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to the said funds, property or claims as were hereinabove imposed upon the members of said committee.

ARTICLE VII—DURATION OF IMMUNITIES

The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue of this order shall cease upon its termination, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order.

ARTICLE VIII—AGENTS

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person or persons, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

ARTICLE IX—DEROGATION

Nothing contained in this order is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (1) to exercise any power granted by the act or otherwise, or (2) in accordance with such power to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

ARTICLE X—PERSONAL LIABILITY

No member of the Growers Industry Committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, nor any member nor employee of any other committee that may be appointed or created hereunder, shall be held personally responsible, either individually, or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any other person or persons for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts of commission or omission as such member or employees, except for acts of dishonesty.

ARTICLE XI—SEPARABILITY

If any provision of this order is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this order or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance or thing shall not be affected thereby.

In witness whereof, the Secretary does hereby execute in duplicate and issue this order in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 9th day of July 1937, and, pursuant to the provisions hereof, declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., c. s. t., July 13, 1937.

SR—B-101—Kemper County, Mississippi, Amendment 1

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

SOUTHERN REGION BULLETIN 101—KEMPER COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI

[Amendment 1]

[Amends Sec. 64, Part VI]

Procedure Governing Appeals from Decisions of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee of Kemper County, Mississippi

Section 64, Southern Region Bulletin 101, Kemper County, Mississippi, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Any person who has reason to believe that any recommendation of the Kemper County Committee concerning his farm in any matter of the kind set forth herein is not equitable may request the County Committee to reconsider its recommendation. If such person fails to agree with the final recommendation of the County Committee, an appeal may be taken in accordance with the precedure set forth herein.

(a) Matters Concerning which an Appeal May Be Made:

(1) Eligibility of person(s) to submit a work sheet or an application for payment.

(2) Eligibility of land to be covered by a work sheet and/or an application for payment.

(3) Any base, yield per acre, productivity index, soil-building allowance or soil-building practice.

(4) Division of payments among interested persons.

(5) In addition to the above matters, the State Committee and the Regional Agricultural Appeals Board for the Southern Region may be called on to hear and decide other types of appeals as set forth below.

(b) Appellate Bodies: The following bodies will receive, hear, consider, and pass upon appeals cases:

(1) County Appeals Board.
(2) State Agricultural Conservation Committee.
(3) Agricultural Conservation Appeals Board for the Southern Region (hereinafter referred to as the Regional Appeals Board).

(c) Procedure Governing Appeals.—

(1) Any person interested in a farm, whether as owner or operator, and having just ground for being dissatisfied with the final recommendation of the County Committee in passing upon any one or more of the matters mentioned in subsection (a) herein regarding such farm may appeal from such recommendation of the County Committee to the County Appeals Board, which shall consist of the chairman of the County Committee and two persons selected by the Board of Directors of the County Agricultural Conservation Association from among its members who are not members of the County Committee.

(2) When any such final recommendation of the County Committee is not in accord with the contention of the interested person and such person desires to appeal his case, such person shall, within ten calendar days from the date of the final recommendation of the County Committee, give notice in writing to the County Appeals Board of his desire and intention to appeal his case. Following the hearing of any such appeal, the decision of the Board prepared in triplicate shall be concurred in by a majority of its members, and a copy delivered immediately to the appellant or forwarded immediately by mail to his address of record.

(3) If any interested person has just ground for being dissatisfied with the decision of the County Appeals Board and such person desires to appeal his case further, such person shall, within ten calendar days from the date of such decision, give notice in writing to the County Appeals Board of his desire and intention to appeal his case to the State Committee.

(4) In order to perfect his appeal, the appellant shall, within thirty calendar days from the date of the decision of the County Appeals Board, file with such Board in triplicate a detailed statement of his contentions, supported in triplicate by such material as he may have available. There shall be attached to such statement an exact copy in triplicate of each work sheet, application for payment, or other document forming the basis of or which is material to such appeal.

(5) The County Appeals Board shall, within ten calendar days from the date on which the appellant filed such detailed statement, forward the original and one copy of the same to the State Committee together with the original and one copy of its previous findings and recommendation in the case and shall also attach to such detailed statement exact copies in duplicate of all available documents material to any issue raised by the appellant, as well as any other material data available to such Board. The County Appeals Board may add to such record in duplicate its comments or observations on such detailed statement, in which case a copy of such comments or observations shall be furnished to the appellant, who shall have ten calendar days in which to send to the State Committee in duplicate any reply thereto he may desire to make, furnishing at the same time a copy of such reply to the County Appeals Board.

(6) The County Appeals Board may, for good cause shown, extend any time limit fixed in paragraphs (2) to (5) above, but the additional time granted shall not exceed the time which otherwise would obtain.

(7) Upon receipt of the appeal record the State Committee shall promptly set the appeal down for hearing at the earliest practicable date not earlier than fourteen calendar days from the date of such receipt of the appeal record. However, if both the appellant and the chairman of the County Appeals Board indicate in writing, forwarded with the appeal record, (a) that they are willing to have the appeal heard at an earlier date or alternative dates indicated by them in such writing, the appeal may be heard on such date or any one of such alternative dates, or (b) that they do not desire to appear at the hearing of the appeal, the State Committee may set the appeal down for hearing at any time reasonably convenient to it. The State Committee shall, in writing dated and forwarded to the addresses of record in the regular course of the mail on the day the date for hearing the appeal is set, give notice of the time and place of such hearing to the chairman of the County Appeals Board and the appellant. If the State Committee deems it advisable, it may further develop the case by correspondence or field investigation either before or after the formal hearing, and may hear additional evidence at the State headquarters or at a designated place in the field.

(8) The decision by the State Committee with its recommendation, prepared in quadruplicate, shall be concurred in by a majority of the members of the Committee. One copy of such decision and recommendation shall be promptly transmitted to the County Appeals Board, and one copy shall be promptly forwarded to the appellant. In case the appellant is dissatisfied with such decision and recommendation, he may finally appeal the case to the Regional Appeals Board for the Southern Region in care of the Southern Division, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., by giving written notice prepared in triplicate, to the State Committee within ten calendar days from the date notice of its decision is addressed and forwarded to such person at the address of record. Such notice must contain or be accompanied by such appellant's comments or arguments against the decision and recommendation of the State Committee. Upon such written notice being filed in duplicate with the State Committee, it shall promptly forward the complete original appeal record to the Regional Appeals Board, together with the original of its decision and recommendation in such case and such written notice and comments or arguments.

(9) The State Committee may, for good cause shown, extend any time limit fixed in paragraph (7) or (8) above, but the additional time granted shall not exceed the time which otherwise would obtain.

(10) Individual cases of complaints made by any producer, whether owner, operator, share-tenant, or share-cropper, relating to landlord-tenant questions made or appealed to the State Committee, shall be referred by the State Committee for special attention to a person appointed by the Committee with the approval of the Director of the Southern Division to make prompt investigations and recommend adjustment of landlord-tenant complaints. Upon receiving the recommendation of such investigator, unless such recommendation has been carried out by the parties concerned in the complaint, the State Committee shall promptly make and record its decision with respect to each such complaint and in writing notify the parties concerned and the County Committee of its decision. If one or more of the parties concerned is not satisfied with the decision, he may in writing, which should be in duplicate, request the State Committee to forward to the Director of the Southern Division for appropriate action the complete file in the case, including also the findings and report of such investigator. Upon receipt of such request the State Committee shall forward such file to said Director, who may refer any such case with the entire record therein to the Regional Appeals Board for final determination.

(11) The Regional Appeals Board for the Southern Region shall be composed of three members appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture upon nomination by the Director of the Southern Division. The chairman of the Board for each of its sessions shall be that one of the members present who is first named in the order appointing them.

(12) The Secretary of Agriculture upon nomination by the Director of the Southern Division may appoint one or more alternate members of said Board to serve in the order so appointed in place of any member thereof whenever and while such member is absent from duty in the Southern Division, or in case of any vacancy in the membership of said Board until such vacancy is filled and the person appointed thereto has qualified. No alternate shall serve as chairman.

(13) The Regional Appeals Board, acting for and on behalf of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall promptly and finally pass upon and decide each appeal referred to it by any State Committee within the Southern Region or by the Director of the Southern Division. Final decision of the Regional Appeals Board shall be concurred in by a majority of the members of such Board and recorded in writing. Such decision shall be promptly transmitted to the State Committee in triplicate and such Committee shall transmit one copy to the appellant and one copy to the County Committee.

(14) All decisions in appeal cases by a County Appeals Board, a State Committee, or the Regional Appeals Board shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the 1937 program. In considering any appeal case, if it appears there are no provisions approved by the Secretary applicable to such case, no decision thereon shall be rendered by any committee or board unless and until applicable provisions are approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

SR—B-101—Pulaski County, Arkansas, Amendment 1

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM

SOUTHERN REGION BULLETIN 101—PULASKI COUNTY, ARKANSAS

[Amendment 1]

[Amends Sec. 34, Part IV]

Procedure Governing Appeals from Decisions of the County Agricultural Conservation Committee of Pulaski County, Arkansas

Section 34, Southern Region Bulletin 101, Pulaski County, Arkansas, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Any person who has reason to believe that any recommendation of the Pulaski County Committee concerning his farm in any matter of the kind set forth herein is not equitable may request the County Committee to reconsider its recommendation. If such person fails to agree with the final recommendation of the County Committee, an appeal may be taken in accordance with the procedure set forth herein.

(a) Matters Concerning which an Appeal May be Made.—

(1) Eligibility of person(s) to submit a work sheet or an application for payment.

(2) Eligibility of land to be covered by a work sheet and/or an application for payment.

(3) Any base, yield per acre, productivity index, soil building allowance, or soil-building practice.

(4) Division of payments among interested persons.

(5) In addition to the above matters, the State Committee and the Regional Agricultural Appeals Board for the Southern Region may be called on to hear and decide other types of appeals as set forth below.

(b) Appellate Bodies.—The following bodies will receive, hear, consider, and pass upon appeals cases:

(1) County Appeals Board.
(2) State Agricultural Conservation Committee.
(3) Agricultural Conservation Appeals Board for the Southern Region (hereinafter referred to as the Regional Appeals Board).

(c) Procedure Governing Appeals—

(1) Any person interested in a farm, whether as owner or operator, and having just ground for being dissatisfied with the final recommendation of the County Committee in passing upon any one or more of the matters mentioned in subsection (a) herein regarding such farm may appeal from such recommendation of the County Committee to the County Appeals Board, which shall consist of the chairman of the County Committee and two persons selected by the Board of Directors of the County Agricultural Conservation Association from among its members who are not members of the County Committee.

(2) When any such final recommendation of the County Committee is not in accord with the contention of the interested person and such person desires to appeal his case, such person shall, within ten calendar days from the date of the final recommendation of the County Committee, give notice in writing to the County Appeals Board of his desire and intention to appeal his case. Following the hearing of any such appeal, the decision of the Board prepared in triplicate shall be concurred in by a majority of its members, and a copy delivered immediately to the appellant or forwarded immediately by mail to his address of record.

(3) If any interested person has just ground for being dissatisfied with the decision of the County Appeals Board and such person desires to appeal his case further, such person shall, within ten calendar days from the date of such decision, give notice in writing to the County Appeals Board of his desire and intention to appeal his case to the State Committee.

(4) In order to perfect his appeal, the appellant shall, within thirty calendar days from the date of the decision of the County Appeals Board, file with such Board in triplicate a detailed statement of his contentions, supported in triplicate by such material as he may have available. There shall be attached to such statement an exact copy in triplicate of each work sheet, application for payment, or other document forming the basis of or which is material to such appeal.

(5) The County Appeals Board shall, within ten calendar days from the date on which the appellant filed such detailed statement, forward the original and one copy of the same to the State Committee together with the original and one copy of its previous findings and recommendation in the case and shall also attach to such detailed statement exact copies in duplicate of all available documents material to any issue raised by the appellant, as well as any other material data available to such Board. The County Appeals Board may add to such record in duplicate its comments or observations on such detailed statement, in which case a copy of such comments or observations shall be furnished to the appellant, who shall have ten calendar days in which to send to the State Committee in duplicate any reply thereto he may desire to make, furnishing at the same time a copy of such reply to the County Appeals Board.

(6) The County Appeals Board may, for good cause shown, extend any time limit fixed in paragraphs (2) to (5) above, but the additional time granted shall not exceed the time which otherwise would obtain.

(7) Upon receipt of the appeal record the State Committee shall promptly set the appeal down for hearing at the earliest practicable date not earlier than fourteen calendar days from the date of such receipt of the appeal record. However, if both the appellant and the chairman of the County Appeals Board indicate in writing, forwarded with the appeal record, (a) that they are willing to have the appeal heard at an earlier date or alternative dates indicated by them in such writing, the appeal may be heard on such date or any one of such alternative dates, or (b) that they do not desire to appear at the hearing of the appeal, the State Committee may set the appeal down for hearing at any time reasonably convenient to it. The State Committee shall, in writing dated and forwarded to the addresses of record in the regular course of the mail on the day the date for hearing the appeal is set, give notice of the time and place of such hearing to the chairman of the County Appeals Board and the appellant. If the State Committee deems it advisable, it may further develop the case by correspondence or field investigation either before or after the formal hearing, and may hear additional evidence at the State headquarters or at a designated place in the field.

(8) The decision by the State Committee with its recommendation, prepared in quadruplicate, shall be concurred in by a majority of the members of the Committee. One copy of such decision and recommendation shall be promptly transmitted to the County Appeals Board, and one copy shall be promptly forwarded to the appellant. In case the appellant is dissatisfied with such decision and recommendation, he may finally appeal the case to the Regional Appeals Board for the Southern Region in care of the Southern Division, Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., by giving written notice, prepared in triplicate, to the State Committee within ten calendar days from the date notice of its decision is addressed and forwarded to such person at the address of record. Such notice must contain or be accompanied by such appellant's comments or arguments against the decision and recommendation of the State Committee. Upon such written notice being filed in duplicate with the State Committee, it shall promptly forward the complete original appeal record to the Regional Appeals Board, together with the original of its decision and recommendation in such case and such written notice and comments or arguments.

(9) The State Committee may, for good cause shown, extend any time limit fixed in paragraph (7) or (8) above, but the additional time granted shall not exceed the time which otherwise would obtain.

(10) Individual cases of complaints made by any producer, whether owner, operator, share-tenant, or sharecropper, relating to landlord-tenant questions made or appealed to the State Committee, shall be referred by the State Committee for special attention to a person appointed by the Committee with the approval of the Director of the Southern Division to make prompt investigations and recommend adjustment of landlord-tenant complaints. Upon receiving the recommendation of such investigator, unless such recommendation has been carried out by the parties concerned in the complaint, the State Committee shall promptly make and record its decision with respect to each such complaint and in writing notify the parties concerned and the County Committee of its decision. If one or more of the parties concerned is not satisfied with the decision, he may in writing, which should be in duplicate, request the State Committee to forward to the Director of the Southern Division for appropriate action the complete file in the case, including also the findings and report of such investigator. Upon receipt of such request the State Committee shall forward such file to said Director, who may refer any such case with the entire record therein to the Regional Appeals Board for final determination.

(11) The Regional Appeals Board for the Southern Region shall be composed of three members appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture upon nomination by the Director of the Southern Division. The chairman of the Board for each of its sessions shall be that one of the members present who is first named in the order appointing them.

(12) The Secretary of Agriculture upon nomination by the Director of the Southern Division may appoint one or more alternate members of said Board to serve in the order so appointed in place of any member thereof whenever and while such member is absent from duty in the Southern Division, or in case of any vacancy in the membership of said Board until such vacancy is filled and the person appointed thereto has qualified. No alternate shall serve as chairman.

(13) The Regional Appeals Board, acting for and on behalf of the Secretary of Agriculture, shall promptly and finally pass upon and decide each appeal referred to it by any State Committee within the Southern Region or by the Director of the Southern Division. Final decision of the Regional Appeals Board shall be concurred in by a majority of the members of such Board and recorded in writing. Such decision shall be promptly transmitted to the State Committee in triplicate and such Committee shall transmit one copy to the appellant and one copy to the County Committee.

(14) All decisions in appeal cases of a County Appeals Board, a State Committee, or the Regional Appeals Board shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions of the 1937 program. In considering any appeal case, if it appears there are no provisions approved by the Secretary applicable to such case, no decision thereon shall be rendered by any committee or board unless and until applicable provisions are approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

SERVICE AND REGULATORY ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOOD AND DRUG NO. 4 [1]

[Fourth Revision]

Amendment of July 6, 1930, to Federal Food and Drugs Act and Requirements Thereunder

Under the authority conferred by the amendment of July 8, 1930, to the Federal Food and Drugs Act (sec. 8, par. 5, in the case of food), there are hereby promulgated, to become effective 90 days from date, the following: The forms of statements which must appear on canned food which falls below the standards herein promulgated, the standards for canned peaches, canned pears, canned apricots, canned cherries, canned red sour pitted cherries, canned tomatoes, canned peas, and canned dry peas, and the standards of fill of container for canned mushrooms and for all canned foods. These supersede on the effective date all forms of statements and standards which have been previously promulgated.

[SEAL] M. L. WILSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

JULY 12, 1937.

Text of the Amendment to Federal Food and Drugs Act of July 8, 1930

[Sec. 8 of Food and Drugs Act, par. 5 in the case of food]

AN ACT To amend section 8 of the Act entitled "An Act for preventing the manufacture, sale, or transportation of adulterated or misbranded or poisonous or deleterious foods, drugs, medicines, and liquors, and for regulating traffic therein and for other purposes", approved June 30, 1906, as amended.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 8 of the Act of June 30, 1906, entitled "An Act for preventing the manufacture, sale, or transportation of adulterated or misbranded or poisonous or deleterious foods, drugs, medicines, and liquors, and for regulating traffic therein, and for other purposes", as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Fifth. If it be canned food and falls below the standard of quality, condition, and/or fill of container, promulgated by the Secretary of Agriculture for such canned food and its package or label does not bear a plain and conspicuous statement prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture indicating that such canned food falls below such standard. For the purposes of this paragraph the words canned food mean all food which is in hermetically sealed containers and is sterilized by heat, except meat and meat food products which are subject to the provisions of the Meat Inspection Act of March 4, 1907 (Thirty-fourth Statutes, page 1260), as amended, and except canned milk; the word class means and is limited to a generic product for which a standard is to be established and does not mean a grade, variety, or species of a generic product. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to determine, establish, and promulgate, from time to time, a reasonable standard of quality, condition, and or fill of container for each class of canned food as will, in his judgment, promote honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumer; and he is authorized to alter or modify such standard from time to time as, in his judgment, honesty and fair dealing in the interest of the consumer may require. The Secretary of Agriculture is further authorized to prescribe and promulgate from time to time the form of statement which must appear in a plain and conspicuous manner on each package or label of canned food which falls below the standard promulgated by him, and which will indicate that such canned food falls below such standard, and he is authorized to alter or modify such form of statement, from time to time, as in his judgment may be necessary. In promulgating such standards and forms of statements and any alteration or modification thereof, the Secretary of Agriculture shall specify the date or dates when such standards shall become effective, or after which such statements shall be used, and shall give public notice not less than ninety days in advance of the date or dates on which such standards shall become effective or such statements shall be used. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the manufacture, sale, shipment, or transportation of adulterated or misbranded foods.

APPROVED, JULY 8, 1930.

[1] Standards for other canned foods and other announcements issued hereafter under the authority of the amendment will appear as revisions of, or supplements to, the series of publications known as "Service and Regulatory Announcements, Food and Drug No. 4."

PART I. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

GENERAL FORM OF STATEMENT REQUIRED ON CANNED FOODS OF SUBSTANDARD QUALITY AND CONDITION

1. Except as otherwise provided in the individual standards, given in Part II, the form of statement for canned foods which fall below the standards of quality and condition shall consist of (1) the NAME of the product, and (2) immediately above or below and parallel therewith, a LEGEND in the following form: A rectangular box with solid border not less than six points in width, containing as a FIRST LINE the words "Below U. S. Standard", and as a SECOND LINE the words "Good Food—Not High Grade." Border and type shall be on a strongly contrasting, uniform background. Type shall be Cheltenham bold condensed caps, and for containers under one pound net weight the first line 12 point, the second line 8 point; for larger containers the first line 14 point, the second 10 point. The space between the border and the type, and between the lines, shall not be less than the type face of the first line, and the length of the first line shall be not less than two inches.

Examples of the Required General Form of Statement on Canned Foods of Substandard Quality and Condition

2. (a) For Containers Under 1 Pound Net Weight:

PEAS

BELOW U. S. STANDARD

GOOD FOOD—NOT HIGH GRADE

Name of product: Any plain and conspicuous type.
First line of legend: 12-point Cheltenham bold condensed caps.
Length of first line: Not less than 2 inches.
Second line of legend: 8-point Cheltenham bold condensed caps.
Width of border: Not less than 6 points.
Space between type and all sides of border; and between lines: Not less than type face of first line.

(b) For Containers 1 Pound or over Net Weight:

BELOW U. S. STANDARD

GOOD FOOD—NOT HIGH GRADE

Name of product: Any plain and conspicuous type.
First line of legend: 14-point Cheltenham bold condensed caps.
Length of first line: Not less than 2 inches.
Second line of legend: 10-point Cheltenham bold condensed caps.
Width of border: Not less than 6 point.
Space between type and all sides of border; and between lines: Not less than type face of first line.

Special Form of Statements Required on Canned Foods of Substandard Quality and Condition

3. When special statements, instead of the statement prescribed in paragraph 1, are provided under the several standards the special statement, in each case, shall be printed on a strongly contrasting, uniform background, in caps of a size not less than those specified below:

For containers under 1-pound net weight, 12-point boldface.

For containers of 1-pound net weight or over, 14-point boldface.

The name of the article shall not appear in any place on the label or container except as part of the special statement.

Pictorial Representations on Canned Food of Substandard Quality and Condition

Warning

5. The amendment provides that "nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to authorize the manufacture, sale, shipment, or transportation of adulterated or misbranded foods." Accordingly, products which are adulterated or misbranded, under any of the other paragraphs of the Food and Drugs Act, cannot be rendered legal by the employment of any statement or special statement.

General Standard Requirements for Fill of Container for All Canned Foods

6. Canned food is of standard fill when neither the head space nor the amount of water, brine, sugar solution, or other packing medium is excessive.

Meaning of Terms

7. "Head space" is the distance from the bottom of the cover of the container to the highest point of the product. It is "excessive" when it exceeds 10 percent of the inside height of the container: Provided, That no head space shall be considered excessive which does not exceed one-fourth inch.

"Product" means all of the material present in the can.

8. With the exception of products described in section (a), head space is determined by direct measurement immediately after opening the container.

(a) With products which consist of distinct units with little or no liquid packing medium so that there is considerable decrease in volume due to softening and packing together of the units in processing, head space is determined after pouring out contents from container (breaking apart lumps if necessary), pouring them back and leveling the surface as well as possible without moving the container or pressing downward on the contents. Canned foods are considered to have "little or no liquid packing medium" when the product is of such a nature that, when drained for 2 minutes on an 8-mesh sieve, not more than 10 percent of the total net contents pass through the sieve. Dry pack shrimp and vacuum packed corn are examples of products of this character.

9. Packing medium above the maximum amount permitted by the various specific standards [1] shall be deemed excessive.

General Form of Statement Required on Canned Foods of Substandard Fill of Container

10. Canned foods which fail to meet the standard for fill of container shall bear the statement, in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1, except that the second line of the legend shall be:

(1) In the case of excessive head space:

"Slack Fill"

(2) In the case of excessive packing medium:

"Contains Excess Added Liquid"

PART II. STANDARDS APPLICABLE TO SPECIFIC CLASSES OF CANNED FOOD

CANNED PEACHES

Standard of Quality and Condition

11. Standard canned peaches are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of (1) the normal sized, uniform sized, tender, peeled, mature, unblemished, pitted, unbroken halves of the fruit of the peach tree, and (2) sugar solution of sufficient strength so that the liquid portion of the finished product reads not less than 14° Brix (read at the proper temperature for the instrument used).

Meaning of Terms

12. The term "normally colored", as it relates to the fruit, means a naturally developed general effect of yellow.

[1] See Part II.

13. Units of three-fifths of an ounce or larger are "normal sized".

14. The units are "uniform sized" if the weight of the piece of largest size in the can be not more than twice the weight of the smallest piece in the can.

15. The fruit is "tender" when not less than 90 percent of the units by count are completely perforated by a cylindrical rod, five thirty-seconds of an inch in diameter, under a load of 300 grams (approximately 10.6 ounces) applied vertically to the exposed, peeled surface of a test piece carefully fitted into an appropriate holder. The fruit, however shall not be so soft that the pieces in the can lose their natural shape when the container is opened and the product is carefully removed to a dish.

In performing the tenderness test the rod is placed on the exposed surface under an initial load of 100 grams and the load increased at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the piece is perforated. (A convenient method of obtaining the test piece is as follows: Using a cylinder of approximately 1⅛ inch in diameter, made of sheet metal approximately one thirty-second of an inch thick, cut a core from the fruit completely through from the inner surface to the peeled surface, so that the peeled surface is exposed when the cylinder retaining this core is firmly supported on a horizontal smooth plate.)

16. The fruit is "peeled" if there is present per pound of net contents not more than 1 square inch of peel.

17. The fruit is "unblemished" if 80 percent or more of the pieces in the container are free from unsightly scabs, bruises, frostbites, sunburn, hail injury, raggedness, green or brown colorations, red or dark-streaked flesh, or other unsightly blemishes. The term "raggedness" means a frayed condition of the edges.

18. The fruit is in "unbroken halves" when 90 percent or more of the units are unbroken and do not show excessive trimming, except that the presence of one broken unit against the cover, which may have been broken by the operation of closing the can, shall be disregarded. "Excessive trimming" is defined as that amount which destroys the normal shape of the half.

Statements Required on Canned Peaches of Substandard Quality and Condition

19. Canned peaches which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in sections (a) to (g) inclusive, the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they consist of peaches packed in water, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing that fact, such as "Water pack peaches."

(b) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of peeled, whole peaches, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that they may not meet the requirement for normal size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Whole peaches".

(c) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of uniformly quartered peaches, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that they may not meet the requirement for normal size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Quartered peaches".

(d) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of uniformly sliced peaches, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that the minimum size of each unit may be one-twelfth of an ounce, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Sliced peaches." In determining tenderness in sliced peaches, when the units are not sufficiently large to admit the obtaining of a test piece in the manner above prescribed, a V-shaped metal trough, 1 inch long, three-fourths of an inch wide, and three-fourths of an inch deep, with vertical ends, is a convenient holder.

(e) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they are white in color, they shall bear the special statement[1] "White peaches."

(f) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only because of raggedness but are of a type where raggedness is a normal characteristic, for example, freestone peaches, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing the particular type to which they belong, e. g., "Freestone peaches."

(g) When canned peaches fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they are not uniform sized, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Peaches, ungraded for size."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

20. Canned peaches are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the weight of fruit placed in the container is 60 percent or more of the weight of water which the sealed container will hold at 68° F., with, when necessary to prevent crushing of the fruit, a tolerance not exceeding the weight of one average piece.

Statement Required on Canned Peaches of Substandard Fill of Container

21. Canned peaches which fail to meet the standard requirement for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED PEARS

Standard of Quality and Condition

22. Standard canned pears are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of (1) the normal size, uniform sized, tender, peeled, mature, unblemished, unbroken halves of the fruit of the pear tree from which the calyx end and seed cells have been removed, with or without removal of the internal stem, and (2) sugar solution of sufficient strength so that the liquid portion of the finished product reads not less than 14° Brix (read at the proper temperature for the instrument used).

Meaning of Terms

23. The term "normally colored", as it relates to the fruit, means a naturally developed, translucent, yellowish-white color.

24. Units of three-fourths of an ounce or larger are "normal sized."

25. The units are "uniform sized" if the weight of the piece of largest size in the can be not more than twice the weight of the smallest piece in the can.

26. The fruit is "tender" when not less than 90 percent of the units by count are completely perforated by a cylindrical rod, five thirty-seconds of an inch in diameter, under a load of 300 grams (approximately 10.6 ounces), applied vertically to the exposed, peeled surface of a test piece carefully fitted into an appropriate holder. The fruit shall not, however, be so soft that the pieces in the can lose their natural shape when the container is opened and the product is carefully removed to a dish.

In performing the tenderness test the rod is placed on the exposed surface under an initial load of 100 grams and the load increased at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the piece is perforated. (A convenient method of obtaining the test piece is as follows: Using a cylinder of approximately 1⅛ inches diameter, made of sheet metal approximately one thirty-second of an inch thick, cut a core from the fruit completely through from the inner surface to the peeled surface so that the peeled surface is exposed when the cylinder retaining this core is firmly supported on a horizontal, smooth plate).

27. The fruit is "peeled" if there is present per pound of net contents not more than 1 square inch of peel.

[1] For required form and manner, see par. 3.

28. The fruit is "unblemished" if 80 percent or more of the pieces in the container are free from unsightly scabs, bruises, gritty portions, raggedness, pink or brown colorations, or other unsightly blemishes. The term "raggedness" means a frayed condition of the edges.

29. The fruit is in "unbroken halves" when 90 percent or more of the units are unbroken and do not show excessive trimming, except that the presence of one broken unit against the cover, which may have been broken by the operation of closing the can, shall be disregarded. "Excessive trimming" is defined as that amount which destroys the normal shape of the half.

Statements Required on Canned Pears of Substandard Quality and Condition

30. Canned pears which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in sections (a) to (e), inclusive, the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) When canned pears fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they consist of pears packed in water, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing that fact, such as "Water-pack pears."

(b) When canned pears fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of peeled, whole pears, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that they may not meet the requirement for normal size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Whole pears."

(c) When canned pears fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of uniformly quartered pears, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that they may not meet the requirement for normal size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Quartered pears."

(d) When canned pears fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only because of the presence of gritty portions but are of a type where gritty portions are a normal characteristic, such as Kieffer pears, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing the particular type to which they belong, e. g., "Kieffer pears."

(e) When canned pears fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they are not of uniform size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Pears, ungraded for size."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

31. Canned pears are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the weight of fruit placed in the container is 60 percent or more of the weight of water which the sealed container will hold at 68° F., with, when necessary to prevent crushing of the fruit, a tolerance not exceeding the weight of one average piece.

Statement Required on Canned Pears of Substandard Fill of Container

32. Canned pears which fail to meet the standard requirement for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED APRICOTS

Standard of Quality and Condition

33. Standard canned apricots are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of (1) the normal sized, uniform sized, tender, unpeeled, mature, unblemished, pitted, unbroken halves of the fruit of the apricot tree, and (2) sugar solution of sufficient strength so that the liquid portion of the finished product reads not less than 16° Brix (read at the proper temperature for the instrument used).

Meaning of Terms

34. The term "normally colored", as it relates to the fruit, means a naturally developed general effect of yellow.

[1] For required form and manner, see par. 3.

35. Units of three-eighths of an ounce or larger are "normal sized."

36. The units are "uniform sized" if the weight of the piece of largest size in the can be not more than twice the weight of the smallest piece in the can.

37. The fruit is "tender" when the flesh of not less than 90 percent of the units by count is completely perforated by a cylindrical rod, three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, under a load of 300 grams (approximately 10.6 ounces), applied vertically to the exposed, peeled surface of a test piece carefully placed on an appropriate support. The fruit shall not, however, be so soft that the pieces in the can lose their natural shape when the container is opened and the product is carefully removed to a dish.

In performing the tenderness test the rod is placed on the exposed surface under an initial load of 100 grams and the load increased at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the piece is perforated. (The test piece is conveniently supported on a rigid, convex surface of such curvature as to fit into the seed cavity and permit it to maintain its normal shape. The peel is conveniently removed with pointed, sharp scissors.)

38. The fruit is "unblemished" if 80 percent or more of the pieces in the container are free from unsightly scabs, bruises, frostbites, sunburn, hail injury, green or brown colorations, or other unsightly blemishes.

39. The fruit is in "unbroken halves" when 90 percent or more of the units are unbroken and do not show excessive trimming, except that the presence of one broken unit against the cover, which may have been broken by the operation of closing the can, shall be disregarded. "Excessive trimming" is defined as that amount which destroys the normal shape of the half.

Statements Required on Canned Apricots of Substandard Quality and Condition

40. Canned apricots which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in sections (a) to (e), inclusive, the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) When canned apricots fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they consist of apricots packed in water, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing that fact, such as "Water-pack apricots."

(b) When canned apricots fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that the halves are peeled, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Peeled apricots."

(c) When canned apricots fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of unpeeled, whole apricots, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that they may not meet the requirement for normal size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Whole Apricots."

(d) When canned apricots fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of uniformly sliced peeled apricots, otherwise meeting the standard in all respects except that the minimum size of each unit may be one-twentieth of an ounce, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Sliced, peeled apricots."

(e) When canned apricots fail to meet the above standard only in that they are not of uniform size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Apricots, ungraded for size."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

41. Canned apricots are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the weight of fruit placed in the container is 60 percent or more of the weight of water which the sealed container will hold at 68° F., with, when necessary to prevent crushing of the fruit, a tolerance not exceeding the weight of one average piece.

Statement Required on Canned Apricots of Substandard Fill of Container

42. Canned apricots which fail to meet the standard requirement for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED CHERRIES

Standard of Quality and Condition

43. Standard canned cherries are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of (1) the normal sized, uniform sized, fleshy, mature, unblemished, stemmed, whole fruit of the sweet cherry tree (Prunus avium), and (2) sugar solution of sufficient strength so that the liquid portion of the finished product reads not less than 16° Brix (read at the proper temperature for the instrument used).

Meaning of Terms

44. The fruit is "normally colored" if the naturally developed general color of the flesh be yellowish white.

45. Units of one-tenth of an ounce or larger are "normal sized."

46. The units are "uniform sized" if the weight of the piece of largest size in the can be not more than twice the weight of the smallest piece in the can.

47. The fruit is "fleshy" if the skin and flesh of the drained cherries are 88 percent or more of their total weight.

48. The fruit is "unblemished" if 80 percent or more of the units in the container are free from unsightly scabs, excessive healed cracks, or other unsightly blemishes. Cracks are "excessive" when their total combined length and width exceeds one-half of an inch, excluding checks less than one-eighth of an inch wide located in the stem depression and concentric with its sides. Unhealed cracks which form during cooking are not blemishes.

Statements Required on Canned Cherries of Substandard Quality and Condition

49. Canned cherries which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in sections (b) to (e), inclusive, the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) Canned cherries from which only a portion of the pits have been removed, so that there is present more than one cherry pit, or its equivalent in broken pieces of shell, per each 20 ounces of net contents, shall bear the statement prescribed in paragraph 1. In this case the NAME of the product shall be "Partially pitted cherries."

(b) When canned cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they consist of cherries packed in water, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing that fact, such as "Water-pack cherries."

(c) When canned cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition in that they consist of pitted cherries, otherwise meeting the standard, except that they may not meet the requirements for normal and uniform size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Pitted cherries."

(d) When canned cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only because of color, but are of a type where the flesh is of some color other than yellowish white, as Bing cherries, black cherries, etc., they shall bear a special statement[1] showing the type to which they belong.

(e) When canned cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they are not of uniform size, they shall bear the special statement[1] "Cherries, ungraded for size."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

50. Canned cherries are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the weight of fruit placed in the container is 60 percent or more of the weight of water which the sealed container will hold at 68° F., with, when necessary to prevent crushing of the fruit, a tolerance not exceeding the weight of one average piece.

Statement Required on Canned Cherries of Substandard Fill of Container

51. Canned cherries which fail to meet the standard requirement for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED RED SOUR PITTED CHERRIES

Standard of Quality and Condition

52. Standard canned red sour pitted cherries are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of (1) the mature, unblemished, stemmed, pitted fruit of the red sour cherry tree (Prunus cerasus), and (2) sugar solution of sufficient strength so that the liquid portion of the finished product reads not less than 16° Brix (read at the proper temperature for the instrument used).

Meaning of Terms

53. The fruit is "normally colored" if the naturally developed general color of both liquid portion and flesh is red.

54. The fruit is "unblemished" if 85 percent or more of the units in the container are free from such defects as limb rubs, scars, scabs, wind whips, brown spots, or other unsightly blemishes. Units showing skin discolorations having a total area of a circle 3/16 inch in diameter or less, with no perceptible discoloration of the fruit tissue under the skin, will not be considered as blemished.

55. The fruit is "pitted" when there is present in a can not more than one cherry pit, or its equivalent in broken pieces of shell, per each 20 ounces of net contents.

Statements Required on Canned Red Sour Pitted Cherries of Substandard Quality and Condition

56. Canned red sour pitted cherries which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in sections (b) and (c), the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) Canned red sour cherries from which only a portion of the pits have been removed so that there is present more than the amount permitted by paragraph 55, shall bear the statement prescribed in paragraph 1. In this case the NAME of the product shall be "Partially pitted red sour cherries."

(b) When canned red sour pitted cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they are artificially colored, they shall bear the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1 except that the second line of the legend shall be "Because artificially colored."

(c) When canned red sour pitted cherries fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they consist of cherries packed in water, they shall bear a special statement[1] showing that fact, such as "Water-pack red sour pitted cherries."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

57. Canned red sour pitted cherries are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the drained weight of the cherries in containers of the dimensions set forth below, equals or exceeds the following amounts:

| Overall dimensions—sealed can | | Trade designation | Drained cherries |
|---|---|---|---|
| Diameter | Height | | |
| Inches | Inches | | Ounces |
| 3 5/16 | 4 9/16 | 307x409 | 13.5 |
| 6 3/16 | 7 | 603x700 | 74.0 |

Red sour pitted cherries in cans of a size not mentioned above will be regarded as of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the drained weight of cherries equals or exceeds 1 ounce for each 2.6 cubic inches inside capacity of the container.

When the sugar solution used is of such strength that the liquid portion of the finished product reads 20° Brix or more, a tolerance of 5 percent below the above weights is allowed.

Drained weight is determined by draining the contents of the container 2 minutes on an 8-mesh sieve. For containers under 3 pounds net weight, sieves 8 inches in diameter are used. For containers 3 pounds or over net weight, sieves 12 inches in diameter are used. The sieve is tilted as much as possible without shifting of the cherries. Excess liquid is removed by wiping the lower surface of the sieve with a cloth. The solids remaining on the sieve are transferred to a tared dish and their weight determined.

Statement Required on Canned Red Sour Pitted Cherries of Substandard Fill of Container

58. Canned red sour pitted cherries which fail to meet the standard requirements for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED TOMATOES

Standard of Quality and Condition

59. Standard canned tomatoes are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of the peeled, cored, and trimmed whole, or large pieces of, mature red fruit of the tomato vine (Lycopersicum esculentum), with or without tomato juice to fill the interstices, and with or without added seasoning (sugar, salt).

Meaning of Terms

60. The fruit units consist of "whole or large pieces" when at least 50 percent of the total contents in the container are retained after draining for 2 minutes on a sieve[2] having two meshes to the inch. On containers of less than 3 pounds net weight, sieves 8 inches in diameter are used. On containers of 3 pounds net weight or more, sieves 12 inches in diameter are used.

61. The term "normally colored" means a naturally developed red, such that the color of a 1-inch layer of the homogeneous mixture made by pulping the least red-colored half, by weight, of the drained meats, fulfills the following requirements in terms of the combination of spinning Munsell color disks given below:

(1) 5R 2.6/13 (glossy finish).
(2) 2.5YR 5/12 (glossy finish).
(3) N 1/ (glossy finish).
(4) N 4/ (mat finish).

If the color, when viewed in full daylight or its equivalent, is matched by such a combination in which the exposed area of disk (1) covers one-third or more of the circle, and the exposed area of disk (2) does not exceed that of (1), the sample meets the minimum color requirement, regardless of the exposed area of disks (3) and (4).

In performing this test the poorer colored portions of the material retained on the 2-mesh sieve are selected until an amount equaling half of the drained weight is obtained. This material is pulped and freed from air bubbles. It is then placed in a black container and visible seeds are removed by skimming or pressing below the surface. In making selections, pieces may be cut, if necessary, to separate the poorer colored portions.

62. The fruit is "peeled" when there are not more than 3 square inches of peel per pound of net contents in any one container, and the average amount of peel per pound of net contents of the lot does not exceed 1 square inch.

63. The fruit is "trimmed" when the maximum cross-sectional area of all unsightly blemishes does not exceed one-fourth square inch per pound of net contents in the container.

Statements Required on Canned Tomatoes of Substandard Quality and Condition

64. Canned tomatoes which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in section (a), the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) When canned tomatoes fail to meet the standard of quality and condition only in that they contain added tomato products, they shall bear the appropriate special statement[1] to show that fact, for example, "Tomatoes with puree from trimmings."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

65. Canned tomatoes are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the amount of tomato juice added does not exceed that which drains from the peeled, cored and trimmed tomatoes present in the can, or its equivalent in the drained juice of other peeled, cored, and trimmed tomatoes: Provided, That when peeled and cored whole tomatoes are packed and processed in such a manner as to retain the tomatoes in a practically whole condition when opened, the packing medium is not considered excessive when there is added the juice of other peeled, cored, and trimmed tomatoes in amount not exceeding that necessary to fill the interstices.

Statement Required on Canned Tomatoes of Substandard Fill of Container

66. Canned tomatoes which fail to meet the standard requirements for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED PEAS

Standard of Quality and Condition

67. Standard canned peas are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of the immature, unbroken seed of the common or garden pea (Pisum sativum), with or without seasoning (sugar, salt), and with or without added potable water. The product is practically free from foreign material and, in the case of products containing added liquid, the liquor present is reasonably clear.

Meaning of Terms

68. The term "normally colored", as it relates to the peas, means a naturally developed effect of green, except that not to exceed 4 percent by count of off-colored peas, such as brown-spotted, white, or yellowish-white peas may be present.

69. The peas are "immature" (1) if 90 percent or more by count are sufficiently soft so that either cotyledon is crushed by a weight of less than 907.2 grams (2 pounds), (2) if the alcohol insoluble solids of the drained peas do not exceed 23.5 percent, and (3) if less than 25 percent of the peas by count are swollen to such an extent as to rupture the skin sufficiently to separate the broken edges one-sixteenth inch or more.

70. The pea seed is "unbroken" if 80 percent or more of the units by count are in such a condition that the two cotyledons are still held together by the skin, even though the cotyledons may be cracked or partially crushed, or the skin split. Each major portion of a skin or cotyledon not included in the above definition is counted as a broken pea.

71. The peas are "practically free from foreign material" when they are entirely free from material which varies greatly in size or specific gravity from peas, such as stones, large pieces of pea shell, sticks; and when they contain per each 2 ounces of net contents not more than one piece of material which closely approximates peas in size and specific gravity, such as thistle buds, daisy heads, portions of radish seed pods. The difficulty of absolute freedom from the latter class of foreign material occasionally renders its complete exclusion impracticable.

72. The liquor is "reasonably clear" when it is not badly clouded and does not contain considerable sediment.

Preparation and Examination of Sample

73. Transfer the contents of the can to a dish, mix and remove a sample of 100 to 200 peas to be used in tests provided in paragraphs 68, 69 (1) and (3), and 70. Place these peas in a dish of appropriate size, cover them with liquor, if liquor is present, and keep dish covered to prevent evaporation until the tests are actually made. Cover the remainder of the sample in the same manner and reserve for tests provided in paragraphs 69 (2), 71 and 72.

[1] For required form and manner, see par. 3.

[2] Wire of a uniform diameter, not less than 0.04 nor more than 0.07 inch.

74. (a) In determining whether or not 90 percent of the peas are "sufficiently soft" (paragraph 69 (1)), the following method shall be used: Remove the skin of the pea and place one cotyledon on its flat surface on a horizontal, smooth plate. By means of a second horizontal, smooth plate apply vertically an initial load of 100 grams, and increase the load at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the cotyledon is compressed to one-fourth its original thickness.

(b) Determine percentage of alcohol insoluble solids in the drained peas (paragraph 69 (2)) as follows: Pour the sample, provided for this test in paragraph 73, on an 8-mesh screen, using an 8-inch screen for containers of less than 3 pounds net weight, and a 12-inch screen for larger containers. Spread the peas evenly and allow to drain. Reserve liquor, if any, for test provided in paragraph 72. Transfer peas to a white pan and remove any foreign material for tests provided in paragraph 71. Add a volume of water equal to double the volume of the original sample. Pour back on the screen, spreading the peas evenly, tilt the screen as much as possible without shifting the peas and drain for 2 minutes. With a cloth wipe surplus moisture from lower surface of screen, grind the drained peas in a food chopper, stir until homogeneous and weigh 20 grams of the ground material into a 600 cc beaker. Add 300 cc of 80 percent alcohol (by volume), stir, cover beaker and bring to a boil. Simmer slowly for one-half hour. Fit into a Buchner funnel a filter paper, previously prepared as follows: Place a paper of appropriate size in a flat bottom dish, uncovered but provided with a tight fitting cover. Dry for two hours at the temperature of boiling water, cover dish, cool in a desiccator, and weigh at once. Transfer contents of beaker to Buchner funnel, filter with suction, and wash material on filter with 80 percent alcohol until washings are clear and colorless. Transfer filter paper and alcohol insoluble solids to the dish used in the preparation of the filter paper, dry uncovered for 2 hours at the temperature of boiling water, place cover on dish, cool in a desiccator, and weigh at once. From this weight deduct weight of dish, cover and paper to determine weight of alcohol insoluble solids. Calculate percentage.

Statements Required on Canned Peas of Substandard Quality and Condition

75. Canned peas which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear, except as provided in section (a), the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

(a) When canned peas fail to meet the above standard only in that they are artificially colored, they shall bear the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1, except that the second line of the legend shall be "Because artificially colored."

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

76. Canned peas are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the proportion of free liquid in the product is such that when the contents of the container are poured out and poured back into the container standing on a level surface, and the peas leveled without downward pressure, the liquid does not completely cover the peas after being allowed to stand for 15 seconds: Provided, That when the declared net weight is sufficient to fill the container to 90 percent or more of its capacity, liquid in excess of such declared net weight shall be removed before making the test.

Statement Required on Canned Peas of Substandard Fill of Container

77. Canned peas which fail to meet the standard requirement as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

CANNED DRY PEAS

Standard of Quality and Condition

78. Standard canned dry peas are the normally flavored and normally colored canned food consisting of the thoroughly cooked, mature, unbroken seed of the common or garden pea (Pisum sativum), with or without seasoning (sugar, salt), and with added potable water. The product is practically free from foreign material.

Meaning of Terms

79. Canned dry peas are "normally colored" when they possess the natural color of the product, except that not to exceed 4 percent by count of off-colored peas, such as brown, brown spotted, white, or yellowish-white peas may be present.

80. The seed is "thoroughly cooked" if 90 percent or more by count are sufficiently soft so that either cotyledon is crushed by a weight of less than 907.2 grams (2 pounds) by the following method:

Remove the skin of the pea and place one cotyledon on its flat surface on a horizontal, smooth plate. By means of a second horizontal, smooth plate apply vertically an initial load of 100 grams and increase the load at a uniform, continuous rate of 12 grams per second until the cotyledon is compressed to one-fourth its original thickness.

81. The seed is "unbroken" if 80 percent or more of the units by count are in such a condition that the two cotyledons are still held together by the skin, even though the cotyledons may be cracked or partly crushed, or the skin split.

82. The product is "practically free from foreign material" if it is entirely free from stones, and if there is present per pound of net contents not more than one piece of nonstony material any dimension of which is less than twice the thickness of a pea.

Statement Required on Canned Dry Peas of Substandard Quality and Condition

83. Canned dry peas which fail to meet the standard of quality and condition shall bear the statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 1.

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

84. Canned dry peas are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the proportion of free liquid in the product is such that when the contents of the container are poured out and poured back into the container standing on a level surface, and the cooked dry peas leveled without downward pressure, the liquid does not completely cover the cooked dry peas after being allowed to stand for 15 seconds: Provided, That when the declared net weight is sufficient to fill the container to 90 percent or more of its capacity, liquid in excess of such declared net weight shall be removed before making the test.

Statement Required on Canned Dry Peas of Substandard Fill of Container

85. Canned dry peas which fail to meet the standard requirements for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

Note on Labeling of Standard Canned Dry Peas

86. Because of the decision of the Federal courts that canned dry peas are a different generic product from canned immature peas, the revised labeling requirements, under the general terms of the Food and Drugs Act, for standard canned dry peas are given below for the convenience of the canning trade:

To differentiate canned dry peas clearly from canned immature peas the product must be labeled with the expression "Dry peas." If desired, the expression may be qualified by some descriptive term, such as "soaked" or "cooked". The expression "Dry peas" must be prominently displayed in letters of equal size and prominence, of the same color, and on a strongly contrasting, uniform-colored background. Further, the words must not be separated by intervening printed or pictorial matter and the expression must be so centered that the word "dry" will be as clearly seen as the word "peas". In addition, wherever the word "peas" appears on the label, it must be directly accompanied by the word "dry" in the manner and form above specified. No pictorial design or device indicating that the peas are immature should be used. If a pictorial design showing peas is used, the color of such peas must not be of a shade of green deeper than that of dry peas before soaking.

CANNED MUSHROOMS

Standard Requirement for Fill of Container

87. Canned mushrooms are of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the drained weight of mushrooms in containers of the dimensions set forth below equals or exceeds the following amounts:

| Overall Dimensions—Sealed Can | | Trade Designation | Drained Mushrooms |
|---|---|---|---|
| Diameter | Height | | |
| Inches | Inches | | Ounces |
| 2 1/6 | 2 1/4 | 202 x 204 | 2 |
| 2 1/4 | 2 | 208 x 200 | 2.4 |
| 2 3/16 | 2 3/4 | 211 x 212 | 4 |
| 2 3/16 | 3 1/4 | 211 x 304 | 4.9 |
| 2 3/16 | 4 | 211 x 400 | 6.1 |
| 2 3/16 | 4 1/2 | 215 x 408 | 8.5 |
| 3 | 4 | 300 x 400 | 8 |
| 3 | 4 3/16 | 300 x 407 | 8.8 |
| 3 1/16 | 4 1/2 | 307 x 408 | 11.8 |
| 3 1/16 | 4 9/16 | 307 x 409 | 12 |

Mushrooms in cans of a size not mentioned above will be regarded as of standard fill with respect to packing medium when the drained weight of mushrooms equals or exceeds 1 ounce for each 3 cubic inches inside capacity of the container.

Drained weight is determined by draining the contents of the container 2 minutes on an 8-mesh sieve, with the sieve tilted as much as possible without shifting of the mushrooms. Excess liquid is removed by wiping lower surface of screen with a cloth. The solids remaining on the sieve are transferred to a dish and their weight determined.

Statement Required on Canned Mushrooms of Substandard Fill of Container

88. Canned mushrooms which fail to meet the standard requirements for fill of container as to head space or as to packing medium, shall bear the appropriate statement in the form and manner prescribed in paragraph 10 (1) or 10 (2).

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION.

ORDER DIRECTING REPORT OF CONDITION BY INSURED NONMEMBER BANKS

Paragraph (3) of subsection (k) of Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, provides as follows:

Each insured State nonmember bank (except a District bank) shall make to the Corporation reports of condition in such form and at such times as the board of directors may require. The board of directors may require such reports to be published in such manner, not inconsistent with any applicable law, as it may direct. Every such bank which fails to make or publish any such report within such time, not less than five days, as the board of directors may require, shall be subject to a penalty of not more than $100 for each day of such failure recoverable by the Corporation for its use.

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of subsection (k) of Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, it is ordered that each insured nonmember bank, except a District bank, shall submit to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, within ten days after receipt of this Order, a report of its condition as of the close of business July 30, 1937, on Form No. 64, Call No. 7,[1] which is hereby approved. Said report of condition shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions issued under date of June 23, 1937, in Form No. 64a—Call No. 7,[1] which is hereby approved.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on July 9, 1937.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[No. MC-C-1]

DECIDED JUNE 30, 1937

Findings in former report, 1 M. C. C. 656, prescribing zone adjacent to and commercially a part of St. Louis, Mo., East St. Louis, Ill., and contiguous municipalities, in which transportation by motor vehicle in interstate or foreign commerce, not under a common control, management, or arrangement for a continuous carriage or shipment to or from a point beyond the zone, is partially exempt from regulation under section 203 (b) (8) of the act, modified.

Appearances shown in prior report.

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION

DIVISION 5, COMMISSIONERS EASTMAN, LEE, AND CASKIE

By Division 5

In the original report in this proceeding, 1 M. C. C. 656, we prescribed the zone adjacent to and commercially a part of St. Louis, Mo., East St. Louis, Ill., and contiguous municipalities, for the purposes of section 203 (b) (8) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935. It has been called to our attention that the northwestern boundary which was prescribed is incomplete and that Hall's Ferry Road was incorrectly called Ferry Road. Upon further consideration of the record, we have reopened the proceeding for the purpose of correcting the findings in these respects.

Upon further consideration, we find that the zone adjacent to and commercially a part of St. Louis, East St. Louis, and contiguous municipalities, in which transportation by motor vehicle in interstate or foreign commerce, not under a common control, management, or arrangement for a continuous carriage or shipment to or from a point beyond the zone will, until further order, be partially exempt from regulation, is the area described in the supplemental order hereunto appended.

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of June, A. D. 1937.

[No. MC-C-1]

ST. LOUIS, MO.-EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL., COMMERCIAL ZONE

It appearing, That on April 5, 1937, the said Division entered its report and order in the above-entitled proceeding and that good cause has been shown for reopening the said proceeding for reconsideration.

It is ordered, That the said proceeding be, and it is hereby, reopened for reconsideration.

It is further ordered, That the report of the said Division, made and filed on the date hereof, containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, be, and it is hereby, made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That for the purpose of administration and enforcement of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, the zone adjacent to and commercially a part of St. Louis, Mo., East St. Louis, Ill., and contiguous communities, in which transportation by motor vehicle in interstate or foreign commerce, not under a common control, management, or arrangement for a continuous carriage or shipment to or from a point beyond the zone, will be partially exempt from the regulation under section 203 (b) (8) of the act, be, and it is hereby, defined to include the area within the corporate limits of St. Louis, University City, Clayton, Richmond Heights, Brentwood, Maplewood, Webster Groves, and Shrewsbury, Mo.; that part of St. Louis County, Mo., north of University City, west of St. Louis, and east and south of a line extending northward from the corporate limits of University City along Hanley Road to Page Avenue, thence southeastward along Page Avenue to Pennsylvania Avenue, thence northward and northeastward along Pennsylvania Avenue to St. Charles Rock Road, thence southeastward along St. Charles Rock Road to Lucas and Hunt Road, thence northeastward along Lucas and Hunt Road to Hord Avenue, thence northeastward and southeastward along Hord Avenue to Jennings Station Road, thence northeastward along Jennings Station Road to Hall's Ferry Road, thence southeastward along Hall's Ferry Road to the corporate limits of St. Louis; that part of St. Louis County, Mo., south of Webster Groves and Shrewsbury, Mo., south and west of St. Louis, Mo., west of the Mississippi River, and east and north of a line extending southeastward from the corporate limits of Webster Groves along Grant Road to Gravois Road, thence southwestward along Gravois Road to Musick Avenue, thence southeastward along Musick Avenue to Green Park Road, thence southeastward and eastward along Green Park Road to Lemay Ferry Road, thence southwestward along Lemay Ferry Road to Jefferson Barracks Road, thence southeastward along Jefferson Barracks Road to the limits of Jefferson Barracks, Mo., thence northeastward and eastward along the limits of Jefferson Barracks to the Mississippi River; and the area within the corporate limits of East St. Louis, Nameoki, Granite City, Madison, Venice, Brooklyn National City, Fairmont City, Washington Park, and Monsanto, Ill.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall become effective on July 16, 1937 and that this order and the order of April 5, 1937, except to the extent it is modified herein, shall continue in effect until further order of the Commission.

By the Commission, division 5.

[File No. 43-67]

IN THE MATTER OF THE KANSAS ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY

[Declaration pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935]

A declaration having been duly filed with this Commission, by The Kansas Electric Power Company, a subsidiary company of The Middle West Company, a registered holding co., pursuant to Section 7 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, regarding the issuance and sale of $500,000 principal amount of First Mortgage Bonds, Series A, 3½%, due December 1, 1966, being part of a similar issue outstanding in the principal amount of $5,000,000, which bonds are represented as being offered at private sale to The Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut, at 91⅜% principal amount thereof, plus accrued interest from January 1, 1937, delivery and payment therefor to be made on August 2, 1937, or prior thereto at the option of declarant, the purpose of said issue and sale being represented as necessary for, and that the proceeds therefrom will be used primarily in connection with, the construction of a high-tension transmission line with sub-stations and equipment (now under construction), land acquisition and other additions and extensions to declarant's business.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 28, 1937, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 209, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 27, 1937.

It is further ordered that Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

APPLICATION OF DUTIES PROCLAIMED IN CERTAIN TRADE AGREEMENTS TO ARTICLES THE GROWTH, ETC., OF CERTAIN COUNTRIES

THE WHITE HOUSE,
Washington, July 3, 1937.

The Honorable HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

MY DEAR MR. SECRETARY: The Act to amend the Tariff Act of 1930, approved June 12, 1934 (48 Stat. 943), as extended by the Joint Resolution approved March 1, 1937 (Public Resolution No. 10, 75th Congress), provides in part that the duties proclaimed under its authority shall be applied to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of all foreign countries, whether imported directly or indirectly. The Act further provides that the President may suspend the application of the proclaimed duties to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of any country because of its discriminatory treatment of American commerce or because of other acts or policies which in his opinion tend to defeat the purposes set forth in the Act. Pursuant to these provisions of the Act, I hereby direct that the duties proclaimed on this date in connection with the trade agreement signed on November 28, 1936, with Costa Rica, and all other duties heretofore proclaimed in connection with trade agreements signed under the authority of the Act (with the exception of the duties proclaimed in connection with the trade agreement signed on August 24, 1934, with Cuba) shall be applied from the effective date of such duties, or, as the case may be, shall continue to be applied on and from the date of this letter, only to articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the countries hereinafter designated and to such articles, in the case of each country, respectively, for the period indicated in the numbered section below in which such country is designated.

1. In respect of the products of each country designated in this section, the proclaimed duties shall be applied from the effective date of such duties, or, as the case may be, shall continue to be applied on and from the date of this letter until thirty days from the date on which you are notified by me that the United States has ceased, or on a day certain will cease, to be bound by provisions of a treaty or agreement providing for most-favored-nation treatment in respect of customs duties.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—SPECIAL PERMITS FOR IMMEDIATE DELIVERY OF ARTICLES

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 448 (b) and 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1448 (b) and 1624), article 349 (f) of the Customs Regulations of 1931, as amended by T. D. 48889, is further amended to read as follows:

(f) If there is available sufficient information as to the quantities and values of the merchandise properly to estimate the duties, there may be filed with the application for a special permit a proper entry in regular form, accompanied by the estimated duties and supported by the regular entry bond (customs Form 7551 or 7553), in lieu of the special bond provided for in the preceding paragraph. Such an entry is not effective as such until after the merchandise covered thereby has actually arrived within the port limits and the entry has been officially accepted in accordance with article 281 (b).

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

SECURITIES ACT OF 1933

ADOPTION OF FORM C-3

The Securities and Exchange Commission today announced the adoption of a new form, designated "Form C-3", for registration under the Securities Act of 1933 of American Certificates (for example, so-called American Depositary Receipts for foreign shares or American participation certificates in foreign bonds or notes) issued against securities of foreign issuers deposited or to be deposited with an American depositary (whether physically held by such depositary in America or abroad) and of the foreign securities so deposited.

The form is divided into two parts: Part I, concerning the American Certificates, the depositors, the depositary, and the deposit agreement; Part II, the issuer of the underlying securities. Part II need be filed only if the sale of the underlying securities, if made directly rather than through the means of American Certificates, would require registration of such securities. It need not be filed, however, if a registration statement for the underlying securities is in effect at or before the effective date of the registration statement on Form C-3.

RULE ADOPTING FORM C-3

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and finding:

(1) That any information or document specified in Schedule A of the Act which Form C-3 for American Certificates against Foreign Issues and for the underlying securities, and the Instruction Book for such form, do not require to be set forth are inapplicable to the class of securities to which such form is appropriate, and disclosure fully adequate for the protection of investors is otherwise required to be included in the registration statement, and that such information and documents as Form C-3 and the Instruction Book for such form require to be set forth, but which are not specified in said Schedule A, are necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors; and hereby adopts form C-3 and the Instruction Book for such form,[1] to be used for registration under the Securities Act of 1933 of securities of the class and issued by the class of issuers specified in the rule for the use of said Form C-3.

(2) That the information which the rules contained in the Instruction Book for Form C-3 require to be contained in prospectuses or the class of securities and issuers to which such form is appropriate is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors, and that the statements made in registration statements which are permitted to be omitted from prospectuses for such class of securities and issuers are not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors; and that the form and contents which such rules prescribe for prospectuses of the class specified are appropriate to the nature and circumstances of their use and are consistent with the public interest and the protection of investors.

The foregoing action shall be effective immediately upon publication.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC SERVICE CORPORATION OF TEXAS

[Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935—Sections 10 (a) (2) and 10 (a) (3)]

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by Public Service Corporation of Texas, a registered holding company, pursuant to Sections 10 (a) (2) and 10 (a) (3) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of its acquisition of the assets and properties (including about thirty-five miles of gas transmission line and a gas distribution system in the town of Mobeetie, Texas) of Mobeetie Gas Company, all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of which is owned by applicant, the consideration to be the assumption by applicant of said vendor's liabilities.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 30, 1937, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 209, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 26, 1937.

It is further ordered that Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that the offering sheet, as filed, is not in the form prescribed by Rule 330 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, which Rule became effective June 1, 1937;

NOTE.—It appears that the proper form is "Schedule D".

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the legal description of the tract involved, as set forth in Division II, Item 2 (c) and Item 13, is not believed to be correct for the reason that the information given does not agree with that disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

NOTE.—Plat shows SW quarter of the SW quarter of the NW quarter of Section 22 is omitted from the legal description given.

(2) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 2 (e) as to whether the interest offered is perpetual;

(3) In that information given in Division II, Item 18 (e), is not believed to be correct for the reason that it does not agree with similar information set forth in Division II, Item 19 (d), and the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the Rules and Regulations of the Commission and the form of offering sheet designated as "Schedule A", require that the percentage of water in fluid produced from the tract involved be stated by months in the appropriate column of the table under Division II, Item 20 (b), of the offering sheet, whereas such information as is given relative to the water condition of said property is contained in a footnote following the table, which method of disclosing the required information is not deemed a sufficient compliance with the requirements of the offering sheet;

(5) In that the second paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

DENATURATION OF ETHYL ACETATE

To District Supervisors, and Others Concerned:

1. Pursuant to Sections 2 (6) and 4, Title I of the Liquor Law Repeal and Enforcement Act, (Sections 151 (6) and 153, Title 27, U. S. C., 1934 Ed., Sup. II), the following Regulations are hereby promulgated.

2. Effective immediately ethyl acetate must be denatured before being removed from the premises of the manufacturer, by adding to every 100 gallons of ethyl acetate one-eighth gallon of calol ethatate, or other products or chemicals which possess denaturing properties satisfactory to the commissioner; Provided, That ethyl acetate used as a denaturant for specially denatured alcohol or for pharmaceutical, scientific, and food preparations, or where it is exported, or transferred from one producer to another producer need not be denatured.

3. Where undenatured ethyl acetate is received by a producer from another producer it must be denatured before it is sold to dealers or users unless it is sold for purposes where undenatured ethyl acetate may be used, as provided in paragraph 2.

4. Any manufacturer desiring to purchase ethyl acetate denatured with products or chemicals in lieu of calol ethatate shall make application to the commissioner showing in detail for what purpose the ethyl acetate is to be used, and why they cannot use such material denatured with calol ethatate. The application should show the kind and quantity of products or chemicals that the purchaser of ethyl acetate desires to be substituted for calol ethatate, in order that it may be determined whether they possess satisfactory denaturing properties.

5. Treasury Decision 53, approved April 28, 1930, and the last paragraph on page 5 of the Appendix to Regulations No. 3, revised October, 1931, pertaining to the denaturation of ethyl acetate, are hereby rescinded.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 13]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF OHIO AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT COLUMBUS, OHIO, ON JULY 28, 1937, DESIGNATION OF EXAMINER TO PRESIDE AT SUCH HEARING AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C. on the 12th day of July, 1937, that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the state of Ohio would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on July 28, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Deshler-Wallick Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the state of Ohio, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Ohio in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of said Act.

2. That George Edward Acret, Examiner of this Commission, is hereby designated to preside at such hearing.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

5. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to each known producer of bituminous coal in the state of Ohio, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission a copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties in Ohio in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.
Dated this 14th day of July 1937.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

REVISED OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS OF QUALITY AND CONDITION FOR DRY PEAS, SUPERSEDING THE STANDARDS APPROVED APRIL 2, 1935

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1937, (Public No. 173, 75th Congress), I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby fix, establish, and promulgate the following standards of quality and condition for dry peas, which shall become the official standards of the United States for the inspection and certification of such peas on the 20th day of July, 1937, and be in force and effect as long as Congress shall provide the necessary authority therefor, unless amended or superseded by standards hereafter prescribed and promulgated under such authority. These standards are amendatory of, and therefore shall supersede the standards for dry peas approved April 2, 1935, effective June 10, 1935.

In testimony whereof I have hereto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed, in the city of Washington this 14th day of July 1937.

[SEAL] HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary.

OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR PEAS

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of the official United States standards for peas:

Peas shall be the dry threshed peas of any variety or kind of field and garden peas and which contain not to exceed 50 percent of foreign material including dockage and not to exceed 5 percent of foreign material after the removal of dockage.

Basis of determinations.—All determinations of factors entering into the grading of a lot of peas and the testing of a lot of peas for dockage shall be made upon the basis of a representative sample drawn in accordance with methods approved by the Chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Percentages.—All percentages, except in the case of moisture, shall be ascertained by weight.

Percentage of moisture shall be that ascertained by the water oven and the method of use thereof described in Service and Regulatory Announcements Nos. 147 of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, of that ascertained by any device and method which give equivalent results in the determination of moisture.

Dockage shall apply only to thresher-run peas or peas which have not been recleaned and/or processed and shall include dirt, weed seeds, chaff, cereal grains, and all other matter other than peas which can be readily removed by the use of appropriate sieves or cleaning devices and all small, undeveloped peas and splits or pieces of peas that pass readily through a sieve with slotted perforations which will result in the smallest loss of marketable peas applicable to the principal use of the class being tested, the perforations of such sieve to be of one of the following dimensions:

8/64 inch x ¾ inch.
9/64 inch x ¾ inch.
10/64 inch x ¾ inch.
11/64 inch x ¾ inch.
12/64 inch x ¾ inch.
13/64 inch x ¾ inch.
14/64 inch x ¾ inch.

Dockage shall be determined on the basis of not less than a one-thousand-gram portion of the original sample including the dockage. In calculating total dockage, fractional percentages of less than one percent shall be ignored.

Foreign material other than dockage or "inseparable foreign material" shall include all matter other than peas which is not separated from the sample in the proper determination of dockage.

Weevil damage shall be all peas and splits which are distinctly injured by pea weevil or other insects.

Damage shall be peas and splits which are so badly injured or discolored by weather, disease, or other causes, as to affect seriously the appearance and quality of the sample, but shall not include weevil damage.

Splits shall be peas which are split or broken and shall include peas the halves of which are held together loosely, but shall not include splits that are damaged or weevil damaged or peas with cracked seed coats.

Shriveled shall be peas which are distinctly shriveled in contrast with the natural shape and appearance characteristic of the class of peas being graded but shall not include such peas that are damaged or weevil damaged.

Bleached shall be peas, the seed coat and/or cotyledons of which are distinctly bleached in contrast with the good natural color characteristic of the class of peas being graded but shall not include such peas that are otherwise defective, except cracked seed coats, and shall not apply to varieties or classes of wrinkled peas.

Other classes shall be peas other than the kind or class predominating in the lot being graded and which can be readily identified by seed characteristics but shall not include such peas that are defective, except cracked seed coats.

Cracked seed coats or "cracked" shall be peas with visibly cracked seed coats and/or with all or a part of the seed coat removed and peas with less than one-fourth of the whole pea broken off, but shall not include such peas that are otherwise defective or peas of other classes.

Good natural color, as applied to general appearance, shall mean that the peas are practically free from bleached and discolored peas and possess the color and appearance applicable to new-crop peas of the class being graded when grown, harvested, and prepared for market under normal conditions prevailing in the principal region of production of such class.

Grade designations.—The grade designation of any lot of peas shall include successively the letters "U. S.", the number of the grade, or the words "Sample grade," as the case may be, and the name of the class, provided, however, that thresher-run peas or peas which have not been recleaned, and/or processed shall be inspected and certificated without reference to grade, as hereinafter provided.

Federal food and drugs act.—Nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the shipment of peas in violation of the Federal food and drugs act.

CLASSES OF PEAS

Peas shall be classified according to varietal type, for example, Alaska, White Canada, Austrian Winter, Perfection, Surprise, etc., provided, however, that the use of a variety name in certifying the class of peas shall not imply any guarantee of varietal purity.

U. S. GRADE REQUIREMENTS [1] FOR PEAS

[These Requirements Apply to Recleaned and/or Processed Peas]

| Grade | Maximum limits of— | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| | Bleached and Other Classes [2] | | Shriveled | Cracked seed coats | Splits, damage, weevil damage, and Fgn. Mtl. | | | |
| | Total | Other Classes | | | Total | Splits | Weevil damage | Fgn. Mtl. |
| | % | % | % | % | % | % | % | % |
| U. S. No. 1 | 1.5 | 0.5 | 2.0 | 3.0 | 2.0 | 0.5 | 0.5 | [3] Tr. |
| U. S. No. 2 | 3.0 | 1.0 | 4.0 | 6.0 | 3.0 | 1.0 | 1.0 | 0.2 |
| U. S. No. 3 | 5.0 | 2.0 | 8.0 | 10.0 | 5.0 | 1.0 | 1.0 | 0.5 |
| U. S. Sample grade. | Sample grade shall be peas which do not meet the requirements of any of the above grades, or which have any commercially objectionable odor, or are heating, or are infested with live weevil or other insects, or which are otherwise of distinctly low quality | | | | | | | |

[1] Condition and general appearance:

(a) Color.—Peas of the grade U. S. No. 1 shall be good natural color; U. S. No. 2 may be slightly off color; and U. S. No. 3 may be of a poor color.

(b) Moisture.—Peas of the grades U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 2, and U. S. No. 3 may contain not to exceed 16.0 percent moisture.

(c) Size requirements.—The minimum size requirements for each of the grades U. S. No. 1, U. S. No. 2, and U. S. No. 3 shall be such that not more than 2.0 percent of the peas will pass through a sieve with slotted perforations of the dimensions generally used in the determinations of dockage on thresher-run peas of the respective classes. In determining or calculating tolerances for size, fractional percentages of less than 1 percent shall be ignored.

[2] Other classes.—The percentage limits here given for "other classes" apply only to those peas of which the cotyledons and/or seed coats are not the same color as those of the peas in the sample being graded. An additional allowance of 5 percent in grade 1, 10 percent in grade 2, and 15 percent in grade 3 shall be made for other classes of which the cotyledons and/or seed coats are of the same color as those of the peas being graded.

[3] Trace (Tr.), as applied to foreign material in grade U. S. No. 1 shall not exceed 1/100 of 1 percent.

SPECIAL GRADES FOR PEAS

Large Peas

Definitions.—Large peas shall be peas of the classes Bluebell, Alaska, First and Best, and White Canada of a size such that not more than 2.0 percent will pass through a sieve with round perforations for the respective classes as follows:

|---|---|
| Bluebell | 17/64" in diameter. |
| Alaska | 16/64" in diameter. |
| First and Best | 16/64" in diameter. |
| White Canada | 15/64" in diameter. |

Grades.—Large peas shall be classified and graded according to the requirements of the grade, except for size, applicable to such class if they were not large and there shall be included in, and made a part of, the grade and class designation the word "large"; for example, U. S. No. 1 Large Alaska. In determining or calculating tolerances for size requirements of large peas, fractional percentages of less than one percent shall be ignored.

Small Peas

Definitions.—Small peas shall be peas of the classes Bluebell, Alaska, First and Best, and White Canada of a size such that not more than 2.0 percent will pass over the sieve prescribed for determining the minimum size for large peas and not more than 2.0 percent will pass through a sieve with slotted perforations for the respective classes as follows:

|---|---|
| Bluebell | 12/64 inch x ¾ inch. |
| Alaska | 11/64 inch x ¾ inch. |
| First and Best | 11/64 inch x ¾ inch. |
| White Canada | 10/64 inch x ¾ inch. |

Grades.—Small peas shall be classified and graded according to the requirements of the grade, except for size, applicable to such class if they were not small and there shall be included in, and made a part of, the grade and class designation the word "small"; for example, U. S. No. 1 Small Alaska. In determining or calculating tolerances for size requirements of small peas, fractional percentages of less than one percent shall be ignored.

INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION OF THRESHER-RUN PEAS

Peas of any class which have not been recleaned and/or processed shall be inspected without reference to grade and shall be certificated as to—

(1) the class

(2) the total percentage of dockage, if any, and the analysis thereof, including the percentage each of small peas, splits, and foreign material

(3) the percentage of each defect in the dockage-free peas and the total thereof, as follows:

(a) bleached and other classes
(b) shriveled
(c) cracked
(d) splits
(e) damage
(f) weevil damage
(g) inseparable foreign material

(4) the general appearance;

provided, however, that in dockage-free peas of the classes Bluebell, Alaska, First and Best, White Canada, and other smooth-seeded varieties the percentage of cracked seed coats or "cracked" in excess of 3.0 percent only shall be considered in computing total defects. All factors other than dockage and the analysis thereof, shall apply only to, and be based on, the sample of peas when free from dockage, except that general appearance shall be based on the sample after the removal of dockage and defects.

Commodity Exchange Administration.

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U. S. C. and Supp. II, secs. 1–17a), I, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do hereby make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of the following rules and regulations, which shall become effective on the second day of August 1937 and continue in force and effect until amended or superseded by rules and regulations hereafter made by the Secretary of Agriculture under said act, and shall supersede all rules and regulations heretofore made under said act excepting the rules of practice before the Commission and before the Secretary of Agriculture.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington this 14th day of July 1937.

[SEAL]

HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Definitions

SECTION 1. Words used in the singular form in these rules and regulations shall be deemed to import the plural, and vice versa, as the case may require.

SEC. 2. The act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for any individual, association, partnership, corporation, or trust, within the scope of his employment or office, shall be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such individual, association, partnership, corporation, or trust as well as of such official, agent, or other person.

SEC. 3. The following terms, as used in the Commodity Exchange Act or in these rules and regulations, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless the context otherwise requires:

Board of trade.—This term means any exchange or association, whether incorporated or unincorporated, of persons who shall be engaged in the business of buying or selling any commodity or receiving the same for sale on consignment.

Business day.—This term means any day other than a Sunday or holiday. In all notices required by the act or by these rules and regulations to be given in terms of business days the rule for computing time shall be to exclude the day on which notice is given and include the day on which shall take place the act of which notice is given.

Clearing member.—This term means any person who is a member of, or enjoys the privilege of clearing trades in his own name through, the clearing organization of a contract market.

Clearing organization.—This term means the person or organization which acts as a medium for clearing transactions in commodities for future delivery, or for effecting settlements of contracts for future delivery, for and between members of any board of trade.

Commodity.—This term means and includes wheat, cotton, rice, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed, grain sorghums, mill feeds, butter, eggs, and Irish potatoes.

Commodity Exchange Act; the act.—These terms mean the act of Congress entitled, "An Act For the prevention and removal of obstructions and burdens upon interstate commerce in grain, by regulating transactions on grain future exchanges, and for other purposes", approved September 21, 1922 (42 Stat. 998), as amended by the act of Congress, approved June 15, 1936 (49 Stat. 1491).

Commodity Exchange Administration.—This term means the Commodity Exchange Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture established to administer the provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act.

Contract market.—This term means a board of trade designated by the Secretary of Agriculture as a contract market under the Commodity Exchange Act.

Contract of sale.—This term includes sales, purchases, agreements of sale or purchase, and agreements to sell or purchase.

Controlled account.—An account shall be deemed to be controlled by a person if such person by power of attorney or otherwise actually directs trading for such account.

Customer; commodity customer.—These terms have the same meaning and refer to a customer trading in any commodity named in the definition of commodity herein.

Delivery month.—This term means the month of delivery specified in a contract of sale of any commodity for future delivery.

Executing for others.—This term as used in the definition of floor broker means executing by any person of orders, including his own, for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery in the name of, or for the account of, more than one principal (clearing member).

Floor broker.—This term means any person who, in or surrounding any pit, ring, post, or other place provided by a contract market for the meeting of persons similarly engaged, shall engage in executing for others any order for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market, and who for such services receives or accepts any commission or other compensation.

Future delivery.—This term does not include any sale of a cash commodity for deferred shipment or delivery.

Futures commission merchant.—This term means individuals, associations, partnerships, corporations, and trusts engaged in soliciting or in accepting orders for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of any contract market and that, in or in connection with such solicitation or acceptance of orders, accepts any money, securities, or property (or extends credit in lieu thereof) to margin, guarantee, or secure any trades or contracts that result or may result therefrom.

Member of a contract market.—This term means and includes individuals, associations, partnerships, corporations, and trusts owning or holding membership in, or admitted to membership representation on, a contract market or given members' trading privileges thereon.

Net equity.—This term means the credit balance which would be obtained by combining the commodity margin balance of any person with the net profit or loss, if any, accruing on the open trades or contracts of such person.

Net deficit.—This term means the debit balance which would be obtained by combining the commodity margin balance of any person with the net profit or loss, if any, accruing on the open trades or contracts of such person.

Open contracts.—This term means contracts of purchase or sale of any commodity made by or for any person on or subject to the rules of a board of trade for future delivery during a specified month or delivery period which have not been fulfilled by delivery nor offset by other contracts of sale or purchase in the same commodity and delivery month.

Person.—This term includes individuals, associations, partnerships, corporations, and trusts.

Administration

SEC. 4. The Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration shall perform for and under the supervision of the Secretary of Agriculture such duties as the Secretary may require in enforcing the provisions of the act and of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

SEC. 5. No officer or employee of the Department of Agriculture shall publish, divulge, or make known in any manner, except in so far as may be required in the performance of his official duties or by a court of competent jurisdiction, any facts or information regarding the business of any person which may come to the knowledge of such officer or employee through any inspection or examination of the reports or records of, or through any information given by, such person pursuant to the Commodity Exchange Act or these rules and regulations: Provided, however, That this prohibition shall not apply to disclosures made in good faith to the Business Conduct Committee or other proper committee or official of a contract market of matters in respect to which such contract market has responsibility or duty under the Commodity Exchange Act.

SEC. 6. No officer or employee of the Department of Agriculture engaged in the administration or enforcement of the Commodity Exchange Act, or having access to any confidential information obtained under authority of the act, shall have any interest directly or indirectly in any speculative transaction in any commodity for future delivery.

Registration of Futures Commission Merchants and Floor Brokers

SEC. 7. No person shall engage as futures commission merchant in the solicitation or acceptance of orders for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery, or involving any contracts of sale of any commodity for future delivery, on or subject to the rules of any contract market, unless such person shall have secured a certificate of registration as futures commission merchant under the Commodity Exchange Act issued by the Secretary of Agriculture and countersigned by the Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration and such registration shall not have expired, been suspended, or been revoked.

SEC. 8. No person shall act as floor broker in executing any orders for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery, or involving any contracts of sale of any commodity for future delivery, on or subject to the rules of any contract market unless such person shall have secured a certificate of registration as floor broker under the Commodity Exchange Act issued by the Secretary of Agriculture and countersigned by the Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration and such registration shall not have expired, been suspended, or been revoked.

SEC. 9. Registration as futures commission merchant shall not include registration as floor broker nor shall registration as floor broker include registration as futures commission merchant.

SEC. 10. Application for registration as futures commission merchant shall be made on form 1–R. Application for registration as floor broker shall be made on form 2–R. Application forms may be obtained from the Commodity Exchange Administration, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or from any field office thereof. Each application shall be executed in accordance with the instructions accompanying the prescribed form and shall be filed in duplicate with the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 11. Each application for registration, or renewal thereof, shall be accompanied by a registration (or renewal) fee of ten dollars ($10), in the form of a money order, bank draft, or certified check, payable to the United States Department of Agriculture, and the application and fee shall be forwarded to the Commodity Exchange Administration, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

SEC. 12. Every person registered as futures commission merchant under the act shall post in a conspicuous place in each office in the United States maintained by such person in which orders for the purchase or sale of any commodity for future delivery are solicited or accepted, the original or a duplicate copy (issued by the Secretary of Agriculture) of such person's registration certificate as futures commission merchant.

Duplicate copies of registration certificates may be issued on request upon the payment of a fee of two dollars ($2) for each duplicate copy. The word "DUPLICATE" in conspicuous letters shall appear on the face of each duplicate copy.

SEC. 13. Upon receipt of an application for registration (or renewal thereof) the Secretary of Agriculture will, if the application be approved, issue a certificate of registration certifying that the registrant has registered under the act as futures commission merchant or as floor broker. The registration fee (including the fee for duplicate copies of the certificate of registration, if any) so tendered, shall be deposited in a special deposit account until the registration is finally issued or denied. If registration be denied, the fee shall be returned to the applicant, but if issued the fee shall be deposited in the Treasury of the United States as a miscellaneous receipt and will not thereafter be subject to refund. Each registration certificate shall bear a serial number, the signature of the Secretary of Agriculture, be issued under the seal of the United States Department of Agriculture, and be countersigned by the Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 14. The registrant shall file with the Commodity Exchange Administration a statement on form 3–R setting forth any change which renders no longer accurate the information contained in any of the items of the registrant's application for registration (or any statement supplemental thereto) that are specified in the instructions accompanying form 3–R. All such statements shall be prepared and filed in accordance with the instructions accompanying such form.

SEC. 15. A new registration shall be required in the event of a change:

(a) in the name of the registrant;

(b) in the ownership of the business of the registrant in the case of a sole proprietorship; or

(c) in the personnel of a partnership resulting from the death, withdrawal, or addition of a partner: Provided, That if such change does not, as a matter of law, create a new partnership, it may be reported to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 3–R, and if so reported by the registrant within 10 days from the date of such change a new registration shall not be required.

SEC. 16. All registrations shall automatically terminate at midnight on December 31 of the year for which issued, unless sooner suspended or revoked in accordance with the provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Reports

SEC. 17. Each futures commission merchant shall report monthly to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 150. Such reports shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions appearing on form 150 and shall be filed with the Commodity Exchange Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the tenth day of the month following the month covered by the report. Reports received by mail will be considered duly filed if postmarked not later than midnight of such tenth day. Such reports shall show, by commodities and by markets:

(a) the total quantity of each commodity bought and the total quantity sold for future delivery by such futures commission merchant on or subject to the rules of each board of trade in the United States and elsewhere, during the month covered by the report; and

(b) the total amount of open futures contracts long and the total amount of open futures contracts short on the books of such futures commission merchant as of the close of business on the last business day of the month covered by the report, in each commodity, together with the number of accounts long and the number of accounts short in each commodity.

For the purpose of counting the number of long and short accounts to be reported under subparagraph (b) hereof, and for such purpose only, accounts of the same person in different futures shall be regarded as separate accounts.

SEC. 18. Each futures commission merchant shall, upon call from the Commodity Exchange Administration, report on form 160. Such report shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions appearing on form 160 and shall be filed with the Commodity Exchange Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the third business day following the date specified in the call. Reports received by mail will be considered duly filed if postmarked not later than midnight of such third business day.

Such report shall show as of the close of business on the day named in the call:

(a) the total amount of money and credits held or carried by such futures commission merchant for the account of his commodity customers, including margin moneys and moneys and credits resulting from the closed trades and contracts and accruing in connection with the open trades and contracts of such customers; and

(b) the total amount of money segregated and set apart for the benefit of commodity customers—

(1) on hand,

(2) on deposit in banks,

(3) pledged as margin with clearing organizations of contract markets,

(4) pledged as margin with members of contract markets,

(5) invested in securities described in section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act, and

(6) loaned on security of warehouse receipts in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture.

SEC. 19. Each futures commission merchant shall, upon call, file with the Commodity Exchange Administration a list of all persons who, by power of attorney or otherwise, exercise trading control over any account or accounts of any customer of such futures commission merchant with respect to contracts for the future delivery of any commodity on or subject to the rules of any contract market.

Customers' Funds

SEC. 20. All money received by a futures commission merchant to margin, guarantee, or secure the trades or contracts of commodity customers and all money accruing to such customers as the result of such trades or contracts shall be separately accounted for and be segregated as belonging to such customers. Such funds, when deposited with any bank or trust company, shall be deposited under an account name which will clearly show that they are customers' funds segregated as required by the Commodity Exchange Act, and under a written agreement with such bank or trust company waiving any claim, lien, or right of set-off of any nature which such bank or trust company might otherwise have or obtain against such funds. An executed copy of such agreement shall be kept as a permanent record by the futures commission merchant. If such funds are deposited with a clearing organization of a contract market, they shall be deposited under an account name which will clearly show that they are customers' funds segregated as required by the Commodity Exchange Act. Under no circumstances shall any portion of commodity customers' funds be obligated to the clearing organization of a contract market, or to any member of a contract market, except to margin, guarantee, secure, transfer, adjust, or settle trades and contracts made in behalf of such commodity customers.

SEC. 21. All money received directly or indirectly by, and all money and equities accruing to, a futures commission merchant from any clearing organization of any contract market, or from any member thereof or from any member of a contract market, incident to or resulting from any trade or contract in commodity futures made by or through such futures commission merchant in behalf of any customer shall be considered as accruing to such customer within the meaning of section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act. Such money and equities shall be treated and dealt with as belonging to such customer in accordance with the provisions of the act. Money and equities accruing in connection with customers' open trades or contracts need not be separately credited to individual customers' accounts but may be treated and dealt with as belonging undivided to all customers having open trades or contracts which if closed at the settling price as fixed by the clearing organization would result in a credit to such customers.

SEC. 22. No futures commission merchant shall use, or permit the use of, the money, securities, or property of one customer to margin or settle the trades or contracts, or to secure or extend the credit, of any person other than such customer. The net equity of one customer shall not be used to carry the trades or contracts or to offset the net deficit of any other customer or person or to carry the trades or offset the net deficit of the same customer in goods or property not included in the term "commodity" as defined herein.

SEC. 23. The prohibition in section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act against commingling customers' funds with the funds of a futures commission merchant shall not be construed to prevent such futures commission merchant from having a residual financial interest in the funds segregated and set apart for the benefit of commodity customers, nor shall such prohibition be construed to prevent a futures commission merchant from adding to customers' segregated funds from his own funds such amount or amounts of money as he may deem necessary to insure any and all customers' accounts from becoming undermargined at any time: Provided, however, That the books and records of such futures commission merchant shall at all times accurately reflect his interest in customers' segregated funds. Such futures commission merchant may draw upon such segregated funds to his own order to the extent of his actual interest therein: Provided, That such withdrawal shall not result in the money, securities, property, or equity of one customer being used to margin or carry the trades or contracts, or extend the credit, of any other customer or person.

SEC. 24. Money held in segregated account by a futures commission merchant shall not include: (a) money invested in obligations or stocks of any clearing organization, or in memberships in or obligations of any contract market; or (b) money held by any clearing organization of any contract market which may be used by such clearing organization for any purpose other than to margin, guarantee, secure, transfer, adjust, or settle the contracts or trades of the commodity customers of such futures commission merchant.

SEC. 25. Any futures commission merchant may, in accordance with the provisions of section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act,

(a) invest customers' money in obligations or investment securities as described in said section; and

(b) loan customers' money to other persons on the security of negotiable warehouse receipts conveying or securing title to readily marketable commodities, subject to the following conditions:

(1) that such warehouse receipts be issued by a public warehouseman other than such futures commission merchant, licensed as warehouseman under the provisions of the United States Warehouse Act or the warehouse laws of any state; and

(2) the amount of any loan so made shall at no time exceed 85 per cent of the current market value of the commodities represented by such warehouse receipts.

SEC. 26. Each futures commission merchant who, in accordance with section 4d (2) of the act and with these rules and regulations, invests money belonging or accruing to customers in obligations or investment securities described in said section, or loans such money on the security of negotiable warehouse receipts, shall promptly deposit such obligations, securities, and warehouse receipts in safekeeping with a bank or trust company under an account name which will clearly show that they represent investments of, or security for loans of, customers' funds segregated as required by the Commodity Exchange Act, and under a written agreement with such bank or trust company waiving any claim, lien, or right of set-off of any nature which such bank or trust company might otherwise have or obtain against such obligations, securities, and warehouse receipts, and authorizing inspection thereof at any reasonable time by representatives of the Commodity Exchange Administration. An executed copy of such agreement shall be kept as a permanent record by the futures commission merchant.

SEC. 27. Each futures commission merchant who, in accordance with section 4d (2) of the act and with these rules and regulations, invests money belonging or accruing to customers in obligations or investment securities described in said section, or loans such money on the security of negotiable warehouse receipts, shall keep a permanent record showing the following:

(a) with respect to obligations and investment securities,

(1) the date on which such investments were made,
(2) the name of the person from or through whom such obligations or securities were bought,
(3) the amount of money paid for such obligations or securities,
(4) a description of such obligations or securities,
(5) the date on which disposition was made of such obligations or securities and the amount of money received therefor, and
(6) the name of the person to or through whom such obligations or securities were sold; and

(b) with respect to warehouse receipts,

(1) the date on which such loans were made,
(2) the name of the person to whom such funds were loaned,
(3) the amount loaned on the security of such warehouse receipts,
(4) a description of such warehouse receipts,
(5) the date and particulars of any changes or substitutions in the warehouse receipts held as security for such loans, and
(6) the date on which such loans were repaid.

SEC. 28. Futures commission merchants who invest customers' money in obligations or investment securities under the provisions of section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act shall include such obligations or investment securities in segregated account at values which at no time shall be greater than current market value, determined as of the close of the market on the last preceding market day, less the cost of disposal.

SEC. 29. The investment and lending of customers' funds and the deposit for safekeeping of obligations, investment securities, and warehouse receipts under the provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act and these rules and regulations, shall not operate to prevent the depositor from receiving and retaining as his own any increment or interest resulting therefrom.

SEC. 30. Nothing contained in these rules and regulations shall be construed to prevent a futures commission merchant from lending his own funds to commodity customers on securities and property pledged by such customers, or from re-pledging or selling such securities and property pursuant to specific written agreement with such customers: Provided, however, That the proceeds of such loans used to margin, guarantee, or secure the trades or contracts of such customers in any commodity for future delivery shall be treated and dealt with by such futures commission merchant as belonging to such customers, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

Record Keeping

SEC. 31. All books and records required to be kept by the act or by these rules and regulations shall be kept for a period of five years from the date thereof and during the first two years of such period shall be readily accessible. All such books and records shall be open to inspection by any representative of the United States Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of Justice.

SEC. 32. The amount of money, securities, and property which must be in segregated account in order to comply with the requirements of section 4d (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act shall be computed by each futures commission merchant as of the close of the market each business day, based upon his accounting records. Such computation shall be made as promptly as possible and in any event not later than the next succeeding business day. A permanent record of such computation shall be made and kept in readily accessible form, together with all supporting data.

SEC. 33. Each futures commission merchant shall prepare and keep as a permanent record a statement which shows the position of each customer in each future of each commodity on each contract market as of the close of the last business day of each calendar month. Such statement may be prepared separately or may be combined with the statement required by section 34 hereof.

SEC. 34. Each futures commission merchant shall prepare and keep as a permanent record a statement, commonly known as a "point balance", which accrues or brings to the official closing price, or settlement price fixed by the clearing organization, all open trades or contracts of customers as of the last business day of each calendar month. Each futures commission merchant shall also prepare and keep as a permanent record a statement which shall show, as of the close of the last business day of his fiscal year and semi-annually thereafter, (a) the net profit or loss (equity or deficit), based upon the closing price or settlement price fixed by the clearing organization, accruing to each customer from the combined open trades or contracts of such customer, (b) the credit or debit balance of the commodity margin account of each customer, whether or not such customer has any trades or contracts open, and (c) a description of all securities and property in segregated account received from each customer to margin, guarantee, or secure the trades or contracts of such customer: Provided, That, upon call, a statement shall be prepared setting forth the information described in (a), (b), and (c) hereof, as of the close of the calendar month specified in the call: Provided further, That such statement when made upon call may, with the approval of the Commodity Exchange Administration, be substituted for, and used in lieu of, the next succeeding semi-annual statement which would otherwise be required by the provisions of this section.

SEC. 35. Each futures commission merchant and each member of a contract market shall keep full and complete records of all commodity futures transactions and cash commodity transactions, made by or through him, on or subject to the rules of a board of trade. Such records shall be kept systematically and in such manner as to be readily accessible. He shall keep such records, including all orders, trading cards, signature cards, street books, journals, ledgers, cancelled checks, copies of confirmations and copies of statements of purchase and sale, together with all other data and memoranda, and records of every sort pertaining to transactions in cash commodities and in commodities for future delivery, for a period of five years from the date thereof. He shall produce the same for inspection and shall furnish true and correct information and reports as to the contents or the meaning thereof, when and as requested by any authorized representative of the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 36. Each futures commission merchant shall keep, in permanent and readily accessible form, a record of all securities and property (other than money) received from customers in lieu of money to margin, guarantee, or secure the commodity trades and contracts of such customers. Such record shall include a description of the securities and property received from each customer, the name and address of such customer, the dates when such securities and property were received from and when returned to such customer, or otherwise disposed of, together with the facts and circumstances of such other disposition.

SEC. 37. Each futures commission merchant and each member of a contract market shall keep a record in permanent form which shall show for each commodity futures account carried by him the true name and address of the person for whom such account is carried and the principal occupation or business of such person as well as the name of any other person guaranteeing such account or exercising any trading control with respect to such account. Such record shall be open to inspection by any authorized representative of the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 38. Each member of a contract market, each futures commission merchant and each floor broker handling or executing trades or transactions known as transfer trades or office trades, or which involve the exchange of futures for cash commodities or the exchange of futures in connection with cash commodity transactions, shall identify and mark by appropriate symbol or designation all such transactions and all records and memoranda pertaining thereto. No transaction or trade shall be considered to be a transfer trade or office trade or an exchange of futures for cash commodities or an exchange of futures in connection with cash commodities unless made in accordance with the written rules of a board of trade applying to such trades and transactions and such rules have not been disapproved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

Execution of Orders

SEC. 39. A member of a contract market who shall have in hand at the same time both buying and selling orders from different principals for the same commodity for future delivery in the same delivery month may execute such orders for and directly between such principals at the market price, if—

(a) such orders are first offered openly and competitively in the trading pit or ring in accordance with the written rules of a contract market applying in such cases and, failing of acceptance, are executed in the presence of an official representative of such contract market appointed to observe such transactions;

(b) the person executing such orders shall by appropriate descriptive words or symbol clearly identify all such transactions on his trading card or other similar record, made at the time of execution, and shall note or have noted thereon the exact time of execution;

(c) each such transaction shall be made a matter of permanent record by such contract market, which record shall show the date, price, quantity, kind of commodity, delivery month, by whom executed and the exact time of execution; and

(d) the futures commission merchant or floor broker receiving or executing such orders shall have no interest therein, directly or indirectly, except as futures commission merchant or floor broker.

The execution of orders under and in accordance with the conditions herein described will not be deemed to be the filling of orders by offset within the meaning of paragraph (D) of section 4b or to be cross trades within the meaning of section 4c of the Commodity Exchange Act.

Miscellaneous

SEC. 40. Each futures commission merchant and each member of a contract market shall, upon request, furnish or cause to be furnished to the Commodity Exchange Administration a true copy of any letter, circular, telegram, or report published or given general circulation by such futures commission merchant or member which concerns crop or market information or conditions that affect or tend to affect the price of any commodity, and the true source of or authority for the information contained therein.

SEC. 41. Each contract market shall promptly furnish to the Commodity Exchange Administration copies of all bylaws, rules, regulations, and resolutions made or issued by it or by the governing board thereof, or by any committee or clearing organization thereof, and of all changes and proposed changes therein, and shall notify the Commodity Exchange Administration promptly of all changes in its membership. Three copies of all such material shall be furnished to the Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and one copy shall be furnished to the supervisor in charge of the field office of the Commodity Exchange Administration having local jurisdiction with respect to such contract market.

SEC. 42. Each contract market shall furnish or cause to be furnished promptly to the Commodity Exchange Administration a copy of each notice of delivery issued by any member thereof covering the delivery of any commodity on a futures contract made on or subject to the rules of such contract market, and shall also furnish or cause to be furnished promptly to the Commodity Exchange Administration a record of all endorsements of the original notice of delivery shown in the order in which such endorsements were made.

SEC. 43. Each contract market shall file with the Commodity Exchange Administration a list of all warehouses in which or out of which commodities are deliverable in satisfaction of futures contracts made on or subject to the rules of such contract market, which list shall show the name, location, and storage capacity of each such warehouse, together with the name and business address of the operator thereof. Such list shall be accompanied by a schedule of the storage charges, handling charges, and the annual fire insurance rate applicable to each such warehouse. The Commodity Exchange Administration shall be kept currently advised of all changes affecting such information.

SEC. 44. Each contract market shall require the operators of warehouses whose receipts are deliverable in satisfaction of commodity futures contracts made on or subject to the rules of such contract market—

(a) to keep records showing the stocks of each commodity traded in for future delivery on such contract market, in store in such warehouses by kinds, by classes, and by grades, if stored under conditions requiring such designation or identification, and including also lots and parcels stored specially or separately or in specially leased warehouse space;

(b) upon call from the Commodity Exchange Administration, to report the stocks of commodities in such warehouses and to furnish information concerning stocks of each commodity traded in for future delivery on such contract market about to be transferred or in process of being transferred, or otherwise moved into or out of such warehouses, as well as any other information concerning commodities stored in such warehouses and which are or may be available for delivery on futures contracts; and

(c) to permit visitation of the premises and inspection of the books and records of such warehouses by duly authorized representatives of the United States Department of Agriculture or the Department of Justice, and to keep all books, records, papers, and memoranda relating to the storage and warehousing of commodities in such warehouses for a period of five years from the date thereof.

SEC. 45. Each contract market shall require that all contracts of sale of any commodity for future delivery on or subject to the rules of such contract market shall provide for the delivery thereunder of commodities of grades conforming to United States standards if such standards shall have been officially promulgated. In the event of a change in United States standards, all contracts made after the issuance of the order of the Secretary of Agriculture promulgating such change, and maturing after the effective date of such change, shall be made on the basis of the standards as changed: Provided, That this shall not be construed to prevent the closing of trades made prior to the issuance of such order.

ARTICLE II—SPECIAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO GRAINS AND FLAXSEED

Reporting Requirements

SECTION 200. The word "grain" as used in article II of these rules and regulations shall mean and include wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, rice, flaxseed, and grain sorghums.

Form 200

SEC. 201. Each clearing member of each contract market shall report to the Commodity Exchange Administration each business day on form 200 applicable to such contract market. Such report shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions appearing on form 200, to be obtained from the Commodity Exchange Administration, and shall show accurately and fully the information called for with respect to all contracts of sale of grain for future delivery to which such clearing member is a party either as buyer or seller, made on or subject to the rules of the contract market covered by the report. Persons who are clearing members of more than one contract market shall report separately with respect to each such market. Such report shall show separately for each kind of grain and each delivery month:

(a) the total of all open accounts "long" and the total of all open accounts "short" carried by such clearing member, at the beginning and at the end of the period covered by the report, including his own accounts as well as the accounts of other persons;

(b) the net position of such clearing member in respect to all accounts and contracts open on his books at the end of the period covered by the report;

(c) the quantity of grain bought and the quantity of grain sold on such contracts during the period covered by the report;

(d) the quantity of grain delivered and the quantity of grain received on such contracts during the period covered by the report; and

(e) the quantity of grain represented by delivery notices passed back to the clearing organization or passed on to other clearing members.

SEC. 202. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Commodity Exchange Administration upon good cause shown, reports required to be made on form 200 shall be filed in the office of the Commodity Exchange Administration in the city where the contract market covered by the report is located, as soon as possible after the close of the market on each business day and not later than 30 minutes before the official opening of the market on the next following business day. If there be no office of the Commodity Exchange Administration in such city, the reports shall be transmitted in accordance with instructions furnished by the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 203. Reports on form 200 shall be prepared with care, and if any error or omission is discovered in any report a memorandum thereof shall be furnished as soon as possible. Minor corrections may be shown in the next succeeding report.

Forms 201 and 202

SEC. 204. Each futures commission merchant and each member of a contract market, who shall carry for another person any account in any future of any grain, resulting from any transaction made on or subject to the rules of a contract market, which shall show open contracts in any one future equal to or in excess of the amount specified in section 220 hereof, shall report such account daily to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 201 applicable to such contract market. "House accounts" carried by a member of a contract market or by a futures commission merchant shall likewise be reported on form 201.

For the purpose of reporting on form 201, all accounts which belong to or are controlled by the same person shall be considered as one account. All accounts required to be reported on form 201 shall be known as "special accounts" and the report thereon shall show the net position, as of the close of the market on the day covered by the report, of each such account in each future in which there are open contracts equal to or in excess of such specified amount.

SEC. 205. The report for the first day that a "special account" shows open contracts in any one future equal to or in excess of the amount specified in section 220 hereof shall show also the net position of such account in such future as of the close of the market on the last preceding business day. Such account shall also be reported on the first day that the net position thereof in such future falls below such specified amount after having been reported as a "special account."

SEC. 206. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Commodity Exchange Administration upon good cause shown, reports required to be made on form 201 shall be filed with the Commodity Exchange Administration not later than 30 minutes before the official opening of the market on the next following business day: Provided, That futures commission merchants and members of contract markets that are not located in a city where the Commodity Exchange Administration has an office, may transmit such reports by mail, in accordance with instructions furnished by the Commodity Exchange Administration. Reports received by mail will be considered duly filed if postmarked not later than midnight of the day covered by the report.

SEC. 207. Reports on form 201 shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions appearing thereon. Each account reported shall be designated by account number or code and when such account number or code appears for the first time on form 201 it shall be identified on form 202, and such identification (transmitted in a separate sealed envelope marked "Confidential") shall accompany the report on form 201. An account number or code once identified on form 202 shall not thereafter be changed or assigned to any other account without the prior approval of the Commodity Exchange Administration.

SEC. 208. If more than one person shall have control over or be known to have a participating financial interest in any account reported on form 201, the names and addresses of all such persons shall be shown on form 202.

SEC. 209. In identifying accounts on form 202 the person reporting shall indicate the character of such accounts, i. e., whether hedging, spreading, speculative, or commission house.

Form 203

SEC. 210. Every person who holds or controls open contracts in any one future of any grain on any one contract market which equal or exceed the amount fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture (in section 221 hereof) for reporting purposes under section 4i (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act shall report to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 203. Such report shall be made daily: Provided, That if on any day such person has no trades or transactions in any future of a grain previously reported and there has been no change in the open contracts of such person in any such grain, the last detailed report of such person shall be considered as his report on open contracts in such grain on all intervening days. Such person shall also make a report on form 203 covering the day on which the amount of his open contracts in such future falls below the amount fixed in section 221 hereof.

SEC. 211. Separate reports on form 203 shall be filed covering each grain in which the person reporting has or controls open contracts in any one future which equal or exceed the amount fixed in section 221 hereof. Each such report shall show for the day covered thereby, by markets and by futures:

(a) the amount of open contracts held or controlled by such person in all futures of such grain on all boards of trade in the United States and elsewhere;

(b) the character of the open contracts held or controlled, i. e., whether hedging, spreading, or speculative;

(c) the amount of such grain bought and the amount sold by such person for future delivery on all boards of trade in the United States and elsewhere; and

(d) the amount of such grain delivered by or to such person in settlement of futures contracts.

For the purposes of subparagraph (b) hereof the term "hedging" shall have the same meaning as the term "bona fide hedging transactions" appearing in paragraph (3) of section 4a of the Commodity Exchange Act.

SEC. 212. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Commodity Exchange Administration upon good cause shown, reports required on form 203 shall be filed with the Commodity Exchange Administration as soon as possible after the close of business on the day covered by the report and in any event not later than 9 o'clock a. m. on the next following business day: Provided, That reports may be transmitted by mail, in accordance with instructions furnished by the Commodity Exchange Administration. Reports received by mail will be considered duly filed if postmarked not later than midnight of the day covered by the report.

SEC. 213. Upon receipt of the first report from any person on form 203, or upon application in advance, the Commodity Exchange Administration will assign to such person a code number. In all reports on form 203 filed thereafter, such code number shall be used instead of the name of such person.

SEC. 214. Persons having or controlling open contracts in any future of any grain on any contract market equal to or in excess of the amount fixed in section 221 hereof shall keep books and records showing the details concerning such contracts and all related transactions, and upon request shall furnish the Commodity Exchange Administration with the names and addresses of all futures commission merchants and board of trade members with whom or through whom such contracts are held and of all persons having a participating financial interest in such contracts, together with such other pertinent information as may be called for.

SEC. 215. Each person required to report on form 203 shall,

(a) if a partnership, furnish upon call the name and address of each partner;

(b) if a corporation, furnish upon call the name and address of each stockholder who owns or controls 20 per cent or more of the capital stock of such corporation; and

(c) if an association or trust, furnish upon call the name and address of each person participating in the management or having any financial or beneficial interest in the trading operations of such association or trust.

Such information shall be furnished to the Commodity Exchange Administration upon call in accordance with instructions contained in the call.

Form 204

SEC. 216. Every person who is engaged in merchandising, processing, or dealing in, grain or grain products and who holds or controls open contracts in any one future of any grain on any contract market which equal or exceed the amount fixed in section 221 hereof shall report to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 204, which report shall be rendered as of the close of business on Friday of each week unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Commodity Exchange Administration upon good cause shown.

SEC. 217. Such report shall contain the following information with respect to each grain in which the person reporting holds or controls open contracts in any one future thereof on or subject to the rules of any contract market equal to or in excess of the amount fixed in section 221 hereof:

(a) the amount of the net long or net short cash-grain position of such person in such grain;

(b) the make-up of the cash-grain position of such person in such grain showing—

(1) the amount of stocks of such grain or products or byproducts thereof,

(2) the amount of purchase commitments open in such grain or products or byproducts thereof, and

(3) the amount of sale commitments open in such grain or products or byproducts thereof; and

(c) the amount of open contracts held by such person in all futures of such grain on all boards of trade in the United States and elsewhere.

SEC. 218. In determining the cash-grain position of any person reporting on form 204, such person shall use such standards and conversion factors applying to grain products and byproducts as are usual and common to the business in which he is engaged. If, in determining the cash-grain position of such person for hedging purposes, it be his practice regularly to exclude certain products or byproducts, such products or byproducts shall be excluded in reporting such cash-grain position on form 204.

Such person shall upon request furnish the Commodity Exchange Administration with detailed information concerning the kind and amount of each product or byproduct included in computing his cash-grain position and the conversion factor used for each such product or byproduct.

SEC. 219. Unless otherwise authorized in writing by the Commodity Exchange Administration upon good cause shown, reports on form 204 shall be mailed to the Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the next business day following the day covered by the report. Such reports should be mailed preferably in a plain envelope marked "Confidential." Reports received by mail will be considered duly filed if postmarked not later than the due date.

Amounts Fixed for Reporting on Forms 201, 203, and 204

SEC. 220. For the purpose of sections 204 and 205 of article II of these rules and regulations, the amount specified for reporting accounts on form 201 is 200,000 bushels, but such specified amount shall not apply to special calls issued under authority of section 222 hereof.

SEC. 221. For the purpose of sections 210, 211, 214, 216, and 217 of article II of these rules and regulations, the amount fixed by the Secretary of Agriculture, under authority of section 4i (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act, for reporting on form 203 and form 204 is 200,000 bushels.

Special Calls

SEC. 222. Whenever in the judgment of the Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration there is danger of congestion in any delivery month, each member of a contract market and each futures commission merchant shall, upon call, report all accounts carried by him which show open contracts in any designated grain future equal to or in excess of the amount specified in the call. Such report shall be made to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 201, and shall be prepared and filed in accordance with instructions contained in the call. As to such calls, the amount specified for general reporting purposes in section 220 hereof shall have no application.

SEC. 223. Whenever in the judgment of the Chief or Acting Chief of the Commodity Exchange Administration there is danger of congestion in any delivery month, each member of a contract market who holds or controls open contracts in any grain future shall, upon call, report all open contracts in grain futures held or controlled by him if the amount thereof be equal to or in excess of the amount specified in the call. Such reports shall be made to the Commodity Exchange Administration on form 203 and shall be prepared and filed in accordance with the instructions contained in the call. As to such calls the amount fixed for general reporting purposes in section 221 hereof shall have no application.

FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION.

[FCA 50]

PRODUCTION CREDIT CORPORATION OF BERKELEY

CLASS A STOCK; CONVERSION INTO CLASS B STOCK

To all production credit associations in the states of Arizona, California, Nevada and Utah:

The following regulation is prescribed pursuant to Section 23 of the Farm Credit Act of 1933:

Section 26 (d) of the Bylaws of production credit associations and the first paragraph of Section 104 (j) 1 of the Revised Rules and Regulations both read as follows:

Class A stock. Upon the authorization of a loan to a holder of Class A stock, the board of directors may permit the conversion of any or all of such Class A stock at the fair book value thereof (not to exceed par) into Class B stock in accordance with such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the Corporation so long as it is the holder of any stock of the association.

When Class A stock is to be converted into Class B stock, associations should limit the conversion to the amount necessary to enable the holder to obtain sufficient Class B stock for his loan.

Where proper compliance with this bulletin would result in the ownership by the stockholder of, for example, only one or a fractional share of Class A stock, it will be permissible to allow the conversion of the full amount of the Class A stock holdings.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of July, A. D. 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF NATIONAL GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

[File No. 46-64]

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission, by National Gas & Electric Corporation pursuant to Section 10 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of the acquisition of all the issued and outstanding shares of the capital stock of Mid-East Gas Company, a West Virginia corporation stated to be engaged in the State of Ohio in the production and distribution of natural gas for industrial purposes, the acquisition of the physical properties of said corporation pursuant to an agreement between National Gas & Electric Corporation and Commonwealth Gas Corporation having been approved by an order of this Commission entered on the 19th day of March, 1937, in the matter of National Gas & Electric Corporation. The Industrial Gas Company and Gas Producing Company of Ohio, File No. 46-32; the acquisition of such shares to be without the payment of any consideration therefor, and appearing to be for the purpose of confirming title to any physical properties of said Mid-East Gas Company acquired by National Gas & Electric Corporation or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to above mentioned order;

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on July 19, 1937, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1103, Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 19, 1937, at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon.

It is further ordered that Charles S. Moore, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

By the Commission.

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

RESTORING TO THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII A PORTION OF THE FORT DE RUSSY MILITARY RESERVATION

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 91 of the act of April 30, 1900, 31 Stat. 141, 159, as amended by section 7 of the act of May 27, 1910, 36 Stat. 443, 447, it is ordered that the following-described parcel of land situate in the City and County of Honolulu, Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, and comprising a part of the Fort De Russy Military Reservation, be, and it is hereby, restored to the Territory of Hawaii for its use in connection with the improvement of its highway system,—reserving, however, to the United States the right to construct on the said land a railroad from the Fort De Russy Military Reservation to the existing line of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company:

Beginning at an iron pin in the makai side of Kalakaua Avenue, which pin is 294.6 feet north and 1,345.6 feet east of a copper bolt set in a concrete monument on the makai side of Kalia Road, and from which iron pin the azimuth (measured clockwise from true south) and distance to the center of a concrete culvert is 154°20', 84.4 feet.

Thence from said initial point, by true azimuths and distances, as follows:

29°10', 1,154.0 feet, to a point on the mauka side of Kalia Road;
308°10', 40.5 feet, along Kalia Road to a point;
209°10', 1,135.0 feet, to a point on the makai side of Kalakaua Avenue;
151°30', 47.35 feet, along said Kalakaua Avenue, to the point of beginning.

The tract as described contains an area of 45,780 square feet.

Office of the Postmaster General.

[1937—Post Office Department Reg. 1]

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE SHIPMENT OF VALUABLES PURSUANT TO THE "GOVERNMENT LOSSES IN SHIPMENT ACT"

JULY 16, 1937.

To the Heads of the Executive Departments, Independent Establishments, Agencies, Wholly-owned Corporations, Officers and Employees of the United States:

The following provisional regulations are prescribed pursuant to section 1 of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, Public No. 192, 75th Congress, First Session, relative to shipments of valuables made pursuant to that Act:

1. All terms used in these regulations have the same meaning as when used in said Act. Section 7 of said Act defines in part the term "valuables" as "any article or thing * * * which is of or is similar to a class or kind of article or thing or representative of value which it has been the practice heretofore of the United States to insure, as the insured party * * *", and the term "shipment" as "the transportation or the effecting of transportation of valuables without limitation as to the means or facilities used * * *."

2. After the effective date and hour of these regulations, as hereinafter provided, shipments of valuables shall be made (1) in the same manner and at such time as those of the same class or kind were made, when insured, immediately preceding the effective date of these regulations, or (2) in such other manner and at such other time consonant with the greatest possible protection against risk of loss and destruction of and damage to such valuables as the respective heads of the various executive departments, independent establishments, agencies, and wholly-owned corporations of the United States may from time to time direct, after notice to the Secretary of the Treasury.

3. These regulations shall become effective at 12:01 A. M. August 15, 1937, Eastern Standard Time, and as to all shipments as above defined which have not left the office of the sender prior thereto.

4. The Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, with the approval of the President may, at any time, or from time to time, revoke or amend these regulations or prescribe and issue supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations pursuant to section 1 of the said Government Losses in Shipment Act.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 14]

AN ORDER DIRECTING CODE MEMBERS TO FILE WITH THE STATISTICAL BUREAUS DESIGNATED BY THE COMMISSION COPIES OF CERTAIN CONTRACTS AND SPOT ORDERS.

Pursuant to Section 4, Part II, subsection (a), of an act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. Within twenty (20) days from the date of this order, each code member shall file with the statistical bureau of the Commission for the district in which is located the mine of the code member from which coal has been supplied or is proposed to be supplied, copies of all contracts for the sale of coal entered into on or before the 26th day of April, 1937, and which contracts are claimed to have been in effect at any time on or after that date.

2. Within twenty (20) days from the date of this order each code member shall file with the statistical bureau of the Commission above designated, copies of all contracts for the sale of coal entered into by such code member subsequent to the 26th day of April, 1937, and prior to the date of this order.

3. On and after the date of this order each code member shall, within fifteen (15) days after entering into any contract for the sale of coal, file with the statistical bureau of the Commission above designated a copy of each such contract.

4. Within twenty (20) days from the date of this order each code member shall file with the statistical bureau of the Commission above designated, copies of all spot orders for the sale of coal entered into by the code member prior to the date of this order under which shipments are made on or after July 15, 1937.

5. On and after the date of this order each code member shall within ten (10) days from the date of accepting any spot order file with the statistical bureau of the Commission above designated, copies of each such order entered into by him on or after July 15, 1937.

6. For the purpose of this order—

The term "contract" shall be deemed to include every agreement providing for the sale of coal covering shipments to be made during a period of more than thirty (30) days from the date of the contract.

The term "spot order" shall be deemed to include every sale or agreement providing for the sale of coal covering shipments to be made during a period of thirty (30) days or less from the date of the order.

The terms "contract" and "spot order" shall in each case be deemed to include every agreement, supplemental agreement, credit memorandum or any other understanding of the parties affecting the price, tonnage, terms of payment or terms and conditions of delivery of said coal.

In every case where the contract or spot order has not been reduced to writing the code member producer shall file a statement setting forth all terms and conditions of the agreement, which statement shall be verified by affidavits of the code member and of the purchaser.

Contracts and spot orders required to be filed under this order shall include all such contracts and spot orders entered into for or on behalf of a code member by any agent, factor, distributor or other person acting for him.

This order shall extend and apply to all contracts and spot orders entered into between a code member and any subsidiary or affiliate of such code member.

7. All records filed by a code member in conformity with this order shall be held by the Commission and its statistical bureaus as the confidential records of the code member filing such information.

8. Failure of any code member to comply with the requirements of this order shall be deemed a violation of the Bituminous Coal Code and the Act and shall subject the delinquent producer to the penalties therein provided.

9. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this order to the Secretary of each district board and to each code member in the several districts.

10. Code members may mail copies of the required documents, postage prepaid, in envelopes marked "confidential", addressed to the National Bituminous Coal Commission in care of the statistical bureau for the appropriate district.

Receipt of the required documents by the statistical bureau of the Commission above designated will be compliance with this order.

For the information of code members there is attached a list showing the addresses of the respective statistical bureaus.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 15th day of July, 1937.

AN ORDER REQUIRING REPORTS FROM PRODUCERS PURSUANT TO SECTION 10 (A) OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, in order to perform effectively its duties under said Act, is required to be fully informed as to the production and distribution of bituminous coal throughout the United States. Therefore, pursuant to authority conferred by Section 10 of said Act, the Commission orders and directs as follows:

1. That each producer of bituminous coal, whether or not a code member and whether or not engaged in commerce in coal which is subject to the provisions of Section 4 of said Act, shall file, in duplicate, complete reports showing the total costs of the tonnage produced and realization prices derived from the sale of coal, all as more fully set forth and specified in the Commission's Cost Forms No. 1 and 1-A, such reports to be made separately for each mine and to include all coal produced during the calendar year 1936 and all coal sold during the same period.

2. The Commission's Cost Form No. 1 shall be used by producers for mines having a present actual daily capacity of more than fifty (50) net tons.

The Commission's Cost Form No. 1-A shall be used by producers in making reports for mines having a present actual daily capacity of fifty (50) net tons or less.

In the case of any mine not actually in operation during the calendar year 1936, the producers shall report such data as will show all costs of ownership and maintenance.

3. The Secretary of the Commission shall cause to be mailed to each known producer within the United States, a copy of this order together with necessary forms, and shall make available to all producers additional copies of said forms at the office of the statistical bureau of the Commission in each district established under said Act.

4. Each producer shall, within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and of said forms, file the required reports, duly verified, with the statistical bureau of the Commission in the district within which the mine or mines reported upon are located.

The Commission directs specific attention to the provisions of Section 10 of said Act relating to the confidential nature of the reports required under this order and further gives notice that the penalties provided for non-compliance with this order by the producer will be strictly enforced.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 15th day of July, 1937.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

AUTHORIZING BANKS TO REQUIRE MEMBERS TO GIVE 30 DAYS NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR RETIREMENT OF EXCESS BANK STOCK

Be it resolved, That, pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by Section 17 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (12 U. S. C. 1437), paragraph numbered (3) of Subsection (b) of Section 26 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Home Loan Banks, is hereby amended by inserting immediately after the second sentence thereof, the following:

A Bank may require a member to give 30 days' written notice of its intention to make an application to the Bank for a decrease in the amount of stock held by it.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on July 14, 1937.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

AMENDMENT TO PROCEDURE FOR ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF BANKS

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsections (d) and (e) of Section 7 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (12 U. S. C. 1427 (e)), Sections 4 and 7 of Exhibit F, annexed to the Rules and Regulations for Federal Home Loan Banks, are hereby amended to read, respectively, as follows:

4. The election of directors shall be held annually and shall be conducted by mail under the supervision of the Board. No nominations shall be accepted from members which were admitted to membership within the ten days prior to the date nomination ballots are to be forwarded to members as set forth herein and no votes for the election of candidates shall be accepted from members which have been admitted to membership within the ten days prior to the date election ballots are to be forwarded to members as set forth herein.

7. In the event any person is nominated for more than one directorship, he will be given an opportunity by telegram from the Board to express his order of preference for the directorships for which he has been nominated, and the Board will, in accordance with the preference expressed, designate the directorship for which he shall be a condidate, providing such action will not impair the representation per state as set forth in Section 9 hereof. However, if advice of such preference is not received within five days after such telegraphic notice, the Board will designate such person as a candidate only for the directorship for which he received the greatest proportion of votes for nomination or in case of a tie or a conflict with the provisions of Section 9 hereof, the directorship which appears to the Board to be the most suitable. On or before September 25th, the Board will mail to each member the first election ballots, which will contain in alphabetical order the names of the nominees for each directorship to be filled in its class and from the membership-at-large.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on July 14, 1937.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

REPAYMENT OF LONG-TERM ADVANCES BY BANK MEMBERS

Long-term advances may be amortized monthly or quarterly and must be repaid in full within ten years from date of advance

Be it resolved, That, pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by Section 17 of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act (12 U. S. C. 1437), paragraph (7) of Section 42, paragraph (7) of Section 43 and paragraph (6) of Section 47 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Home Loan Banks are hereby amended to read as follows:

SECTION 42

(7) Regulations.—The Banks may make advances to members on the security of home mortgages, as provided in Section 10 of the Act, for periods of not to exceed ten years, on a monthly or quarterly amortization basis, with interest thereon payable monthly or quarterly. Advances for periods exceeding one year shall be repaid at least 10% annually, provided:

(a) On an advance made on the monthly amortization basis, a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than one-twelfth of 10% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance is made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made monthly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to one-twelfth of 10% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such monthly amortization basis shall be made upon quarterly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (b) of this section;

(b) On an advance made on the quarterly amortization basis, a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than 2.5% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the fifth calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance was made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made quarterly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to 2.5% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such quarterly amortization basis shall be made upon monthly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (a) of this section;

The maturity of any advance shall be determined by the terms of the note evidencing such advance, but such maturity shall not exceed in any event ten years from the actual date of the advance. No note evidencing an advance shall bear a date subsequent to the date of the first advance under such note. If the note evidencing an advance so provides, nothing herein shall prevent a Bank from accepting at any time payments on the principal of any such advance in an amount in excess of payments required by the note and, if such note so provides, the Bank may waive the next succeeding payments of principal due on the note in an aggregate amount not exceeding such advance payment of principal or may treat such payments in any other manner specified in the note.

(7) Regulations.—The Banks may make advances to members on the security of obligations of the United States, as provided in Section 10 of the Act, for periods of not to exceed ten years, on a monthly or quarterly amortization basis with interest thereon payable monthly or quarterly. Advances for periods exceeding one year shall be repaid at least 10% annually, provided:

(a) On an advance made on the monthly amortization basis, a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than one-twelfth of 10% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance is made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made monthly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to one-twelfth of 10% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such monthly amortization basis shall be made upon quarterly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (b) of this section;

(b) On an advance made on the quarterly amortization basis a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than 2.5% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the fifth calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance was made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made quarterly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to 2.5% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such quarterly amortization basis shall be made upon monthly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (a) of this section;

The maturity of any advance shall be determined by the terms of the note evidencing such advance, but such maturity shall not exceed in any event ten years from the actual date of the advance. No note evidencing an advance shall bear a date subsequent to the date of the first advance under such note. If the note evidencing an advance so provides, nothing herein shall prevent a Bank from accepting at any time payments on the principal of any such advance in an amount in excess of payments required by the note and, if such note so provides, the Bank may waive the next succeeding payments of principal due on the note in an aggregate amount not exceeding such advance payment of principal or may treat such payments in any other manner specified in the note.

SECTION 47

(6) Regulations.—The Banks may make advances to non-member mortgagees under the provisions of Section 10b of the Act for periods of not to exceed ten years. Advances for a period of more than one year shall be deemed long-term advances, and shall be made on a monthly or quarterly amortization basis with interest thereon payable monthly or quarterly. Advances for periods exceeding one year shall be repaid at least 10% annually, provided;

(a) On an advance made on the monthly amortization basis, a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than one-twelfth of 10% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance is made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made monthly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to one-twelfth of 10% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such monthly amortization basis shall be made upon quarterly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (b) of this section;

(b) On an advance made on the quarterly amortization basis, a Bank may permit the first payment of interest, except as hereinafter provided, and of not less than 2.5% of principal to be made at any time not later than the last day of the fifth calendar month next succeeding the month in which the advance was made. Thereafter, with the exception of the last payment, and as herein otherwise provided, payments of interest and principal are to be made quarterly from the date of such first payment, each payment of principal to be at least equal to 2.5% of the original amount of the advance. A Bank may require, however, that payments of interest upon advances made upon such quarterly amortization basis shall be made upon monthly dates determined in the manner provided in subparagraph (a) of this section;

The maturity of any advance shall be determined by the terms of the note evidencing such advance, but such maturity shall not exceed in any event ten years from the actual date of the advance. No note evidencing an advance shall bear a date subsequent to the date of the first advance under such note. If the note evidencing an advance so provides, nothing herein shall prevent a Bank from accepting at any time payments on the principal of any such advance in an amount in excess of payments required by the note and, if such note so provides, the Bank may waive the next succeeding payments of principal due on the note in an aggregate amount not exceeding such advance payment of principal or may treat such payments in any other manner specified in the note."

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

FEDERAL ASSOCIATIONS, WHEN AUTHORIZED BY THE BOARD, MAY MAKE LOANS UPON HOMES AND COMBINATION HOME AND BUSINESS PROPERTIES BEYOND 50 MILES FROM THE HOME OFFICE UP TO 80% OF VALUE, WHEN INSURED BY THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATOR

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Federal Home Loan Bank Board by subsection (a) of Section 5 of Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (12 U. S. C. 1464 (a)), paragraph (3) of subsection (c) of Section 41 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations is hereby amended to read as follows:

(3) The amount of the loan shall not exceed 60 percent of the appraised value of the property, when secured by a home or a combination home and business property (hereinafter termed "home loan"), and shall not exceed 50 percent of the appraised value of the property when secured by other improved real estate, unless upon application the Board authorizes an association (when ability to service such loans is shown to the satisfaction of the Board) to make home loans in specified areas in excess of 60 percent of the appraised value of the property. If and when the Board has given such authorization, home loans in the specified areas may be made in amounts not in excess of 66⅔ percent of the appraised value if the loan is not insured by the Federal Housing Administrator, and not in excess of the percentage of appraised value fixed by the Board in giving such authorization (in no event greater than 80 percent) if the loan is insured by the Federal Housing Administrator. Each application for such authorization shall be in a form satisfactory to the Board and shall set forth the area or areas in which the applicant desires to make such higher percentage home loans and evidence of ability to service such loans.

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed this is a major amendment affecting matters of general principle or policy, and not of an emergency character, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 54 of the Rules and Regulations for Federal Savings and Loan Associations, such amendment shall be effective 30 days from August 1, 1937.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on July 14, 1937.

Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

AMENDMENT TO RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR INSURANCE OF ACCOUNTS

INSURED INSTITUTIONS, WHEN AUTHORIZED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE INSURANCE CORPORATION, MAY MAKE LOANS ON HOMES AND COMBINATION HOME AND BUSINESS PROPERTIES BEYOND 50 MILES FROM THE HOME OFFICE UP TO 80% OF VALUE WHEN INSURED BY THE FEDERAL HOUSING ADMINISTRATOR

Be it resolved, That pursuant to authority vested in the Board of Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation by Sections 402 (a) and 403 (b) of the National Housing Act (12 U. S. C. 1725 (a), 1726 (b)), subparagraph (4) of subsection (d) of Section 10 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts is hereby amended to read as follows:

(4) The amount of the loan shall not exceed 60 percent of the appraised value of the property, when secured by a home or a combination home and business property (hereinafter termed "home loan"), and shall not exceed 50 percent of the appraised value of the property when secured by other improved real estate, unless upon application the Board authorizes an insured institution (when ability to service such loans is shown to the satisfaction of the Board) to make home loans in specified areas in excess of 60 percent of the appraised value of the property. If and when the Board has given such authorization, home loans in the specified areas may be made in amounts not in excess of 66⅔ percent of the appraised value if the loan is not insured by the Federal Housing Administrator, and not in excess of the percentage of appraised value fixed by the Board in giving such authorization (in no event greater than 80 percent) if the loan is insured by the Federal Housing Administrator. Each application for such authorization shall be in a form satisfactory to the Board and shall set forth the area or areas in which the applicant desires to make such higher percentage home loans and evidence of ability to service such loans.

Be it further resolved, That, it being deemed this is a major amendment affecting matters of general principle or policy, and not of an emergency character, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 22 of the Rules and Regulations for Insurance of Accounts, such amendment shall be effective 30 days from a date to be fixed by the Secretary to the Board, which date shall be fixed within 10 days from the date of the adoption of this resolution.

(To become effective 30 days after August 1, 1937.)

Adopted by the Board of Trustees of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation on July 14, 1937.

[Amendments to State and Consolidated Manuals]

INCREASING TO $500.00 THE AUTHORITY OF STATE AND DISTRICT MANAGERS TO INCUR EXPENSE ON CORPORATION - OWNED PROPERTIES

Be it resolved, That pursuant to the authority vested in the Board by Home Owners' Loan Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 128, 129) as amended by Sections 1 and 13 of the Act of April 27, 1934 (48 Stat. 643–647) and particularly by Sections 4–a and 4–k of said Act as amended, the second paragraph of Section 1h of the Property Management Chapter of the State and Regional Manuals, and the second paragraph of Section 313 of the Property Management Chapter of the Consolidated Manual be amended to read as follows:

The State and District Managers may incur or approve charges in behalf of the Corporation for expenses made or incurred in the performance of any of the functions or duties required or authorized to be done by this Chapter in any case where the amount thereof does not exceed $500.00, provided that where such amount exceeds $500.00 the approval of the Regional Manager shall first be obtained. The State and District Managers are authorized and directed, within the limitation above stated, to determine the necessity for such expenditures and the amounts thereof. Charges and bills incurred or approved by the State or District Manager shall be paid by vouchers through the regular procedure provided therefor except in those cases where disbursements are authorized to be made by brokers out of funds in the possession of the broker received from the income of the particular property. Any authority hereinabove vested in the State Manager and the District Manager may also be exercised by any Assistant to the State Manager in Charge of Property Management, or by any Assistant to the District Manager in Charge of Property Management, or by any District Property Management Supervisor, when duly deputized for such purpose; provided, the Regional Manager, in his discretion, may place limitations upon such authority of State and District Managers in amounts less than $500.00.

Be it further resolved, That this resolution as an amendment to the State and Regional Manuals shall be effective immediately upon its adoption, and as an amendment to the Consolidated Manual shall become effective as of the date that the resolution becomes effective which adopted the Property Management Chapter of the Consolidated Manual.

Adopted by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board on July 14, 1937.

At a regular session of the United States Maritime Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of July 1937.

[General Order No. 9]

STATEMENTS REQUIRED TO BE FILED PURSUANT TO SECTION 807 OF THE MERCHANT MARINE ACT, 1936

The United States Maritime Commission, pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, particularly Section 807 thereof, hereby prescribes and adopts as necessary and appropriate in the public interest Form 807-1 and Form 807-2 for filing statements under Section 807 of said Act, together with the accompanying instructions for such Forms, all of which are attached hereto and made a part hereof as though fully set forth: Provided, that the Commission may by order require any shipbuilder or ship operator to file any additional information which Section 807 of said Act authorizes the Commission to require. After August 1, 1937, all statements required pursuant to Section 807 shall be filed on Form 807-1 and Form 807-2 and in accordance with the instructions for said Forms.

General Order No. 1, issued October 15, 1936, is hereby rescinded.

By the Commission.

Instructions for Use of Form 807-1

Before any person retained or employed by any shipbuilder or ship operator holding, or applying for, a contract under the provisions of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, or retained or employed by any subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company of such shipbuilder or ship operator, shall present, advocate or oppose before the Congress, or any member or committee thereof, or before the United States Maritime Commission, or any member, officer or employee thereof, or before any other governmental agency or any member, officer or employee thereof, any matter relating to shipping or the shipbuilding industry and affecting such shipbuilder or ship operator, or any subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company thereof, or having a substantial effect upon the carrying out of the purposes and policies of said Act and affecting any such shipbuilder or ship operator, or any subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company thereof, the shipbuilder or ship operator shall file with the Commission a statement on Form 807-1. Any changes which may occur in the answers to any of the items in this statement shall be reported by letter to the Commission within 10 days after such change. The Commission, in addition, may at any time require a renewed filing, or request additional information. Effective August 1, 1937, Form 807-1 and statements required thereby shall be substituted for registration statements previously filed pursuant to General Order No. 1. However, any shipbuilder or ship operator that has previously filed the statements required by General Order No. 1 need not file Form 807-1 unless requested to do so by the Commission.

Item 1.—List all contracts held or applied for under the Act.

Item 2.—(a) State the name of the person employed or retained. If a partnership, corporation, or association is employed or retained, state the name of such partnership, corporation or association, together with the name of the person actually presenting, advocating or opposing the matters described in answer to Item 4; (b) State the address at which such person may be most readily reached; (c) Occupation may be stated generally, such as "attorney", "accountant", etc. If an officer or regular employee, state position held.

Any person including a firm, partnership, corporation or association, directly or indirectly retained or employed by any shipbuilder or ship operator holding, or applying for a contract under the provisions of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, or directly or indirectly retained or employed by any subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company of such shipbuilder or ship operator, to present, advocate or oppose before the Congress, or any member or committee thereof, or before the United States Maritime Commission, or any member, officer or employee thereof, or before any other governmental agency or any member, officer or employee thereof, any matter relating to shipping or the shipbuilding industry and affecting any such shipbuilder or ship operator, or any subsidiary, affiliate, associate, or holding company thereof, or any matter having a substantial effect upon the carrying out of the purposes and policies of said Act, and affecting any such shipbuilder or ship operator, or any subsidiary, affiliate, associate or holding company thereof, shall file with the Commission within ten days after the close of each calendar month during which such person has presented, advocated or opposed any such matters, beginning with the calendar month of July, 1937, a statement on Form 807-2. The Commission may at any time require such further information as it deems necessary and desirable.

Item 1.—(a) State the name of the shipbuilder or ship operator. (b) State the Post Office address of the principal place of business.

Item 2.—(a) State the name of the employer of the person making this statement if other than the shipbuilder or ship operator. (b) State the Post Office address of the principal place of business.

Item 3.—If the statement is filed by a partnership, association or corporation, state the name of the member, officer or employee of such partnership, association or corporation who personally presents, advocates or opposes the matters described in answer to item 4.

Item 4.—State in detail the persons or agencies before whom the person making this statement appeared, the dates of such appearances and the purpose of such appearances, identifying clearly the matters presented, advocated or opposed. Also explain any activities to which any expenses (whether reimbursable or not) mentioned in Item 5 are chargeable.

Item 5.—State the compensation and reimbursements received during the calendar month in connection with the retainer or employment. State separately the amount received as salary and the amount received as commission, bonus or fee. If any commission, bonus, fee, or other compensation received was contingent, state clearly the nature of the contingency.

Item 6.—State all expenses incurred in connection with the retainer or employment during the calendar month for which this statement is made irrespective of whether such expenses are reimbursable. State the amounts as precisely as possible, and the date and purpose of the expense,—travel, subsistence, telephone and telegraph, entertainment, etc. If any expenses were incurred for the purpose of retaining or employing another person to present, advocate or oppose any matters for which the filing of this statement is required, state the name of such person.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

[T. D. 4749]

TAX ON ADMISSIONS[1]

[Article 29 of Regulations 43, approved June 14, 1932, amended]

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

The first paragraph of article 29 of Regulations 43 is amended to read:

Where tickets or cards of admission are used, they must comply with the following requirements: (1) The price (exclusive of the tax to be paid by the person paying for admission) at which every ticket or card is sold must be conspicuously and indelibly printed, stamped, or written on that part of the ticket which is to be taken up by the management of the place for which it is valid for admission. This is a specific requirement of the Act itself. For administrative purposes it is necessary to show not only the selling price but also (a) the regular or established price (see art. 5), (b) the tax, and (c) the total of the price and tax. The regular or established price, the tax based thereon, and total shall appear on the face (in the case of strip tickets the back may be used) of the portion of the ticket which is to be taken up by the management in the following or equivalent form:

Established price----------
Tax paid----------
Total----------

If the ticket is sold at a price other than the regular or established price, the actual selling price, the tax (for basis and computation of tax see art. 1) and the total shall be shown on the face of the portion of the ticket to be taken up by the management. If the ticket shows the seat or box for which it is valid the location and seat or box number must appear on that part of the ticket which is taken up by the management as well as on the stub which is given to the patron. If the ticket is sold other than at the ticket office of the theater, opera, or other place of amusement, the actual selling price and the name and address of each vendor must be shown on the back of the portion of the ticket to be taken up by the management. All persons required to collect and account for tax on admissions must keep for possible inspection by revenue officers the portions of the tickets taken up by them, or in the case of a cabaret or similar place, the waiters' checks, for a period of not less than three months. For penalties imposed in this connection see article 56.

This amendment shall be effective on and after October 1, 1937.

This Treasury Decision is issued under the authority contained in section 1101 of the Revenue Act of 1926.

LOCAL PASSENGER TARIFF NO. 183-B[1]

Naming round trip excursion fares from stations on the Alaska Railroad in Alaska to Fairbanks, Alaska, account Tanana Valley Fair, September 2, 3, 4, 1937. No supplement will be issued to this tariff except for the purpose of cancelling the tariff. Issued June 17, 1937; effective, August 27, 1937. Authority, Act of March 12, 1914 and Executive Order No. 3861. Issued by O. F. Ohlson, General Manager, Anchorage, Alaska.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Stations from and to which this tariff applies.—This tariff applies from all Rail Line stations. This tariff applies only to Fairbanks, Alaska. Conductor picking up passengers at non-agency station will handle passenger to first agency station where ticket must be secured from originating station to final destination.

2. Dates of sale.—August 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, and September 1, 1937.

3. Final return limit.—Return trip to be completed prior midnight of final limit. Tickets sold from stations College, Alaska to Curry, Alaska, inclusive will be limited to September 8, 1937. Tickets sold from stations Lane, Alaska to Seward, Alaska, inclusive, and Palmer, Alaska to Sutton, Alaska, inclusive will be limited to September 9, 1937.

4. Stopovers.—Stopovers will be permitted at all points within final return limit on both going and return trip. Stopover will be granted on application to Conductor who will endorse on reverse side of ticket "Off at ------ Station, Date ------ Train No. ------". This endorsement will be signed by Conductor and transportation returned to passenger.

5. Tickets.—Use Form L-14 Round Trip Excursion Tickets.

6. Children.—Tickets may be sold at one-half the fares named herein for children five years of age and under twelve years of age, sufficient to be added to make fare end in "0" or "5". Children under five years of age will be carried free when accompanied by parent or guardian.

7. Baggage.—For baggage rules including free allowance, excess charge, etc., see Local Baggage Tariff No. 2, I. C. C. No. 22 (Alaskan Engineering Commission Series), supplements thereto and reissues thereof. Excess baggage charges will be made on basis of the one way fares shown in Local Passenger Tariff No. 42-B, I. C. C. No. 177, supplements thereto and reissues thereof.

8. Tickets non-transferable.—All tickets sold at fares named herein are non-transferable and will be valid only for transportation of passenger for whom originally purchased.

9. Fares.—One first class fare and a third for the round trip. First class fares are shown in Local Passenger Tariff No. 42-B, I. C. C. No. 177, supplements thereto and reissues thereof. Agents in selling round trip tickets under this tariff will add sufficient to make fare end in "0" or "5" for the round trip.

July 10, 1937.

The above is hereby confirmed.

PROGRESSIVE MINERS OF AMERICA, PETITIONER

v.

RAY EDMUNDSON AND UNITED MINE WORKERS OF AMERICA, RESPONDENTS

ORDER FOR AND NOTICE OF HEARING

The above-named petitioner, Progressive Miners of America, having on the 10th day of July, 1937, filed with the Commission a petition claiming that it is the organization of employees in the bituminous coal industry representing the preponderant number of employees in District No. 10, as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that as such organization it has the right to select the labor member of the district board of such district, and the respondents, United Mine Workers of America, likewise claiming that it is the organization of employees representing the preponderant number of employees in the bituminous coal industry in such district and that it has the right to select the labor member of the district board of such district, and such organization having heretofore selected Ray Edmundson as such labor member and the Commission having confirmed said labor member, now therefore,

It is hereby ordered that a hearing be held by the Commission upon the merits of the issues aforesaid on the 22nd day of July, 1937, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Commission at the Hamilton Hotel, in the City of Washington, D. C.

It is further ordered that the title of this proceeding, and the parties thereto, shall be as above set forth until further order of the Commission.

It is further ordered that George Edward Acret be, and he hereby is, designated to preside as examiner in behalf of the Commission at such hearing. Such examiner is hereby authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, and to administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law. Upon completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting such hearing is hereby directed to close the hearing and make report to the Commission.

It is further ordered that this order shall constitute a notice of such hearing, and that the Secretary of the Commission shall cause personal service of a copy of this order to be made upon Ray Edmundson and shall mail to the Progressive Miners of America and the United Mine Workers of America a copy of this order.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 15th day of July, 1937.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of July, A. D. 1937.

[File No. 46-65]

IN THE MATTER OF REPUBLIC ELECTRIC POWER CORPORATION

[Application pursuant to Section 10 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935]

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

An application having been duly filed with this Commission by Republic Electric Power Corporation, a registered holding company, pursuant to Section 10 (a) (1) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, for approval of the acquisition by applicant of three hundred shares of the capital stock of Klamath Natural Gas Company, of Klamath Falls, Oregon (being all of the issued and outstanding stock of that company), from one Ralph W. Stearns, of Klamath Falls, Oregon, for and in consideration of the sum of $55,000.

It is ordered that a hearing on such matter be held on August 4, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at Room 1101 Securities and Exchange Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.; and

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said party and to any interested State, State commission, State securities commission, municipality, and any other political subdivision of a State, and to any representative of interested consumers or security holders, and any other person whose participation in such proceeding may be in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers. It is requested that any person desiring to be heard or to be admitted as a party to such proceeding shall file a notice to that effect with the Commission on or before July 30, 1937.

It is further ordered that Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to preside at such hearing, and authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, to administer oaths and affirmations, subpena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting said hearing is directed to close the hearing and make his report to the Commission.

By the Commission.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C. on the 13th day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF MARLIN-ROCKWELL CORPORATION COMMON CAPITAL STOCK PAR VALUE $1.00

ORDER CHANGING TIME OF HEARING UNDER SECTION 19 (A) (2) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934 AS AMENDED AND DESIGNATING OFFICER TO TAKE EVIDENCE

The Commission having heretofore, on July 3, 1937, ordered that a hearing under Section 19 (a) (2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 be held on July 14, 1937, to determine whether to suspend for a period not exceeding 12 months or to withdraw the registration of the Common Capital Stock, par value $1.00 of the Marlin-Rockwell Corporation on the New York Stock Exchange; and

The registrant having requested a postponement of such hearing;

It is ordered that such hearing be postponed to Monday, September 13, 1937, at 10: 00 A. M. in Room 1103, Securities and Exchange Commission Building, 1778 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. and continue thereafter at such time and place as the officer hereinafter designated may determine; and

It is further ordered that for the purpose of such proceeding, Richard Townsend, an officer of the Commission, be and he hereby is designated to administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take testimony and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda or other records deemed relevant or material to the inquiry and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

By direction of the Commission.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

AMENDMENT OF SUBDIVISION XI, SCHEDULE B, CIVIL SERVICE RULES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the provisions of paragraph Eight of subdivision SECOND of section 2 of the Civil Service Act of January 16, 1883 (22 Stat. 403, 404), Subdivision XI, Schedule B, of the Civil Service Rules is hereby amended by adding thereto the following paragraph:

"3. Classified positions in the field service of the Navy Department and the Marine Corps when filled by the promotion of unclassified laborers, subject to the approval of the Commission."

This order will permit unskilled laborers appointed from the unclassified laborer register to advance upon noncompetitive examination to classified positions in the field service of the Navy and Marine Corps, but such promotion will not accord to such employees a classified status nor render them eligible for transfer to classified positions in other branches of the Federal service.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

CORRECTING DESCRIPTION OF BOUNDARIES OF KAWAIHAE LIGHTHOUSE RESERVATION

Territory of Hawaii

WHEREAS by Proclamation dated April 24, 1911, the Governor of the Territory of Hawaii reserved and set aside certain lands at Kawaihae, Territory of Hawaii, for lighthouse purposes, which lands comprise the Kawaihae Lighthouse Reservation; and

WHEREAS a recent survey made by the Survey Department of the Territory of Hawaii, and shown on Territorial Government Survey Map 2983, has developed discrepancies in the description of the boundaries of the said Lighthouse Reservation as contained in the said Proclamation of April 24, 1911:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 91 of the act of April 30, 1900, 31 Stat. 141, 159, as amended by section 7 of the act of May 27, 1910, 36 Stat. 443, 447, it is ordered that the description of the boundaries of the Kawaihae Lighthouse Reservation be, and it is hereby, corrected to read as follows:

Beginning at a point marked by a drill hole in the center of a cross on rock (-⊹-) at the north corner of the parcel of land, the coordinates of said point referred to Territorial Government Survey Triangulation Station "Puu Kamalii", being 2198.93 feet south and 3598.89 feet west, as shown on Territorial Government Survey Map 2983, the running of azimuths measured clockwise from true south:

1. 332°50' 672.10 feet along Hawaiian home land to a drill hole at the apex of a V (>o) on rock; thence
2. 63°37' 729.29 feet along same and along Grant 5455 to Mutual Telephone Company to a point on seashore at highwater mark, passing over a drill hole in the center of a cross (-⊹-) on rock at 689.29 feet.
3. Thence along highwater mark at seashore, the direct azimuth and distance being 130°41' 474.24 feet thence
4. 228°55' 935.52 feet along Kawaihae Residence Lots and Hawaiian home land to the point of beginning, passing over a drill hole in the center of a cross (-⊹-) on rock at 40 feet and containing an area of 10.261 acres, more or less.

There is hereby excepted, however, from the said Reservation, for the use of the Territory of Hawaii for road purposes, a strip of land approximately sixty feet wide comprising a part of the Mahukona-Kawaihae public highway, such land being more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a 1¼ inch pipe imbeded in concrete at the west corner of this strip of land and the east corner of Lot 29, Kawaihae Residence Lots, the true azimuth and distance from said point of beginning to a drill hole in center of cross on rock (-⊹-) at seashore, being 48°55' 269.95 feet, and the coordinates of said point referred to Territorial Government Survey Triangulation Station "Puu Kamalii" being 2610.02 feet south and 4070.42 feet west, as shown on Territorial Government Survey Map 2983, all azimuths being measured clockwise from true south:

1. 228°55' 60.10 feet across this highway right-of-way to a pipe imbeded in concrete; thence
2. 322°12' 317.70 feet along northeast side;
3. Thence along same on a curve to the left, having a radius of 2470.0 feet, the direct azimuth and distance being 319°35'17" 225.12 feet; thence
4. 63°27' 62.52 feet across this highway right-of-way;
5. Thence along the southwest side of highway right-of-way on a curve to the right having a radius of 2530.0 feet, the direct azimuth and distance being 139°47'19.5" 212.88 feet; thence
6. 142°12' 314.26 feet along the southwest side of highway right-of-way to the point of beginning and containing an area of 737/1000 of an acre, more or less.

The net area of the Kawaihae Lighthouse Reservation as above described is 9.524 acres, more or less.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE REGULATING THE HANDLING IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE, AND SUCH HANDLING AS DIRECTLY BURDENS, OBSTRUCTS OR AFFECTS INTERSTATE COMMERCE, OF CAULIFLOWER GROWN IN THE STATE OF OREGON

Whereas, under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, approved June 3, 1937,[1] hereinafter referred to

as the "act", reenacting and amending certain provisions of Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, it is provided that the Secretary of Agriculture, hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary", shall issue orders regulating such handling of certain agricultural commodities, including cauliflower, as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate or foreign commerce in such commodities; and

Whereas, the Secretary, having reason to believe that the issuance of an order would tend to effectuate the declared policy of said Public No. 10, 73rd Congress, as amended, with respect to the establishment and maintenance of such orderly marketing conditions in interstate commerce for cauliflower grown in the State of Oregon as would establish prices to the growers of such commodity at a level that would give such commodity a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such commodity in a certain base period, conducted public hearings at Portland, Oregon, on November 9, 1936, and March 8, 1937, pursuant to due notice given to all interested parties on October 30, 1936, and March 2, 1937, on a proposed order regulating such handling of such commodity as is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such commodity, at which hearings all interested persons in attendance were afforded due opportunity to be heard concerning the proposed order; and

Whereas, the Secretary has found and proclaimed that the purchasing power of cauliflower grown in the State of Oregon during the period August 1909–July 1914 cannot be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture, but that the purchasing power of such commodity can be satisfactorily determined from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period August 1919–July 1929 and the period August 1919–July 1929 is the base period to be used in connection with this order in determining the purchasing power of such commodity; and

Whereas, the Secretary further finds upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof:

1. That for the period July 1929–November 1936 the prices received by the growers of such cauliflower were at a level that gave such cauliflower a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy appreciably below the purchasing power of such cauliflower during the base period;

2. That the marketing of such cauliflower has been detrimentally affected by unstable market conditions with consequent depressed prices to the growers of such commodity, and that the lack of regulation from week to week, and during the entire marketing season, has been an important factor contributing to such unstability of market conditions;

3. That the regulation of shipments by volume and by grades and sizes of the cauliflower covered by this order, as prescribed herein, will serve to prevent marked fluctuations in prices to growers thereof and will establish and maintain a more stabilized market for such commodity tending to establish prices to such growers at a level that will give such commodity a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such commodity during the base period;

4. That this order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area and to the smallest regional marketing area that is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and that the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of such regional production and marketing areas would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

5. That the order and all the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to cauliflower grown in the State of Oregon by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will establish prices to growers thereof at a level that will give such commodity a purchasing power with respect to articles that such growers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of such commodity in the base period and by protecting the interest of the consumer by (a) approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign commerce, and by (b) authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to growers above the level which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish; and

Whereas, the Secretary finds:

1. That a marketing agreement regulating the handling of cauliflower grown in the State of Oregon, executed by him on the 19th day of July 1937, upon which hearings were held on November 9, 1936, and March 8, 1937, was signed by handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who were not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping the commodity covered by this order) who handled during the 1936 season more than fifty percent (50%) of the volume of such cauliflower covered by this order which was marketed during the same season in the current of interstate commerce;

2. That this order regulates the handling of such cauliflower in the same manner as the aforesaid marketing agreement, and that it is made applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in the said marketing agreement; and

3. That the issuance of this order is favored by growers who during the 1936 season, which is hereby determined to be a representative period, have produced for market within the State of Oregon at least two-thirds (⅔) of the volume of cauliflower produced for market within such production area in the said season.

Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Secretary, acting under the authority vested in him by the act, that such handling of the said cauliflower as is in the current of interstate commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects interstate commerce in such cauliflower, from and after the date hereinafter specified, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order.

ARTICLE I—DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. Terms.—As used in this order:

1. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, and any other business unit.

2. "Cauliflower" means and includes all varieties of cauliflower grown in and shipped from the State of Oregon.

3. "To handle" or "to ship" means to convey or cause to be conveyed (but not as a common carrier for another person), to market, to consign, to deal in, or in any other way to put into the channels of trade in the current of interstate commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce.

4. "Handler" means any person engaged in shipping, marketing, consigning, or dealing in cauliflower, either in person, or as or through an agent, broker, representative or otherwise, in the current of interstate commerce, or so as directly to burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce.

5. "Season" means the twelve-month period beginning June 1 and ending May 31, both inclusive.

6. "District" means and includes each of the following geographical areas:

(a) "Northern District"—consisting of that territory in the State of Oregon lying north of a line drawn due east and west across the State of Oregon, passing through the center of the city of Salem, Oregon;

(b) "Southern District"—consisting of that territory in the State of Oregon lying south of a line drawn due east and west across the State of Oregon, passing through the center of the city of Salem, Oregon.

7. "Control Committee" means the control agency selected in accordance with the provisions of article II of this order.

ARTICLE II.—CONTROL COMMITTEE

SECTION 1. Membership.—A Control Committee is hereby established consisting of thirteen (13) members. The initial members and their respective alternates shall be as follows:

To represent cooperative handlers;

(a) R. Yoshimura, as member; N. Toyooka, as alternate;

(b) J. Uyetake, as member; B. Fujii, as alternate;

(c) C. Taketa, as member; K. Nagaki, as alternate; and

(d) Chick Peterson, as member; G. S. Sayriji, as alternate.

To represent independent handlers:

(a) Ross Phillippi, as member; John Frazier, as alternate;

(b) George Akagi, as member; K. Kitamoto, as alternate;

(c) Lee Martin, as member; Hugh Campbell, as alternate;

(d) R. L. Butler, as member; James Locke, as alternate; and

(e) F. S. Hamilton, as member; A. W. Baum, as alternate.

To represent Northern District Growers:

(a) Frank Spada, Portland, as member; George Spada, Portland, as alternate;

(b) Frank Tanaka, Gresham, as member; Minoru Kobayashi, Boring, as alternate; and

(c) Angelo Arata, Troutdale, as member; K. Nakamura, Portland, as alternate.

To represent Southern District Growers;

(a) T. B. Busenbark, Roseburg, as member; Scott Britt, Roseburg, as alternate.

The members and their alternates named in this paragraph shall hold office until their successors are selected and shall qualify.

2. The successors to the above-named members of the Control Committee and their respective alternates shall be selected by the Secretary from the respective nominees of cooperative handlers, independent handlers and growers chosen in the manner hereinafter provided, or from among such groups, respectively.

3. Nominations for successors to the four (4) cooperative handler members and their respective alternates and nominations for the successors to the five (5) independent handler members and their respective alternates shall be by an election in which each cooperative handler and each independent handler shall be entitled to vote for their respective nominees. Voting at such an election shall be cumulative and each handler shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each car, or equivalent thereof, of cauliflower shipped by him during any one of the previous three (3) seasons. Nominations for successors to the three (3) Northern District grower members and their respective alternates and nominations for a successor to the one (1) Southern District grower member and his alternate shall be by an election to be held in each of the said districts, in which each grower shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote for each nominee to be chosen by his district. All member and alternate nominees shall be chosen before June 1 of each year. Not less than thirty (30) nor more than sixty (60) days preceding such date, the Control Committee shall schedule an election for the respective groups, notify the handlers and growers and supervise the making of nominations in accordance herewith.

SEC. 2. Term of Office.—Members of the Control Committee and their respective alternates subsequent to the members and alternates named in section 1 shall be selected annually for a term of one year, beginning the first day of June, and shall serve until their respective successors shall be selected and shall qualify. Any person selected as a member or an alternate of the Control Committee shall qualify by filing a written acceptance of his appointment with the Secretary or his designated representative.

SEC. 3. Vacancies.—To fill any vacancy occasioned by the death, removal, resignation or disqualification of any member of the Control Committee, a successor for his unexpired term shall be nominated in the manner specified in section 1 of this article within twenty (20) days after such vacancy occurs.

SEC. 4. Organization.—The members of the Control Committee shall select a chairman from its membership. The Control Committee shall select such other officers and adopt such rules for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable. The Control Committee shall give the Secretary or his designated agents and representatives the same notice of meetings of the committee as is given to members thereof.

SEC. 5. Inability of Members to Serve.—An alternate for a member of the Control Committee shall act in the place and stead of such member (a) in his absence, or (b) in the event of his removal, resignation, disqualification, or death until a successor for his unexpired term has been selected.

SEC. 6. Expenses.—The members of the Control Committee shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.

SEC. 7. Powers.—The Control Committee shall have the following powers:

1. To administer, as hereinafter specifically provided, the terms and provisions of this order;

2. To make, in accordance with the provisions hereinafter contained, administrative rules and regulations;

3. To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of this order; and

4. To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this order.

SEC. 8. Duties.—The Control Committee shall have the following duties:

1. To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any grower or handler;

2. To keep minute books and records which will clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, which minute books and records shall at any time be subject to the examination of the Secretary;

3. To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

4. To appoint a manager and such other employees as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of any such employees;

5. To perform such duties in connection with the administration of Section 32 of the Act to Amend the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and for other purposes, Public No. 320, approved August 24, 1935, as may from time to time be assigned to it by the Secretary;

6. To confer with handlers or growers of cauliflower grown in other areas with respect to the formulation or operation of orders providing for the regulation of shipments of cauliflower among the several areas where cauliflower is grown; and

7. To cause the books of the Control Committee to be audited by one or more competent accountants at least once for each season and at such other times as the Control Committee deems necessary or as the Secretary may request, and to file with the Secretary copies of all audit reports made.

SEC. 9. Procedure.—1. Any decision of the Control Committee shall be by the affirmative vote of not less than eight (8) members: Provided, however, That any decision made with respect to a regulation under article III or article IV and affecting only one (1) district shall be by the grower members representing, and the handler members doing business in, such district and shall be by a majority vote of all such members.

2. The members of the Control Committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by such committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each action of the Control Committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time, and upon such disapproval shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith.

SEC. 10. Funds and Other Property.—1. All funds received by the Control Committee pursuant to any of the provisions of this agreement shall be used solely for the purposes herein specified and the Secretary may require the Control Committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

2. The manager selected by the Control Committee shall have charge of all books, records and other property of said committee. He shall act as secretary to all subcommittees which may be selected or appointed. Upon the death, resignation, removal or expiration of the term of office of any member of the Control Committee or of the manager, all books, records, funds and other property in his possession shall be delivered to the Control Committee or to his successor in office, and such assignments and other instruments shall be executed as may be necessary to vest in the Control Committee or his successor full title to all the books, records, funds and other property in the possession or under the control of such member or manager pursuant to this order.

ARTICLE III—REGULATION BY PRORATION

SECTION 1. Recommendation for Proration Period.—It shall be the duty of the Control Committee to investigate supply and demand conditions of cauliflower. Whenever such conditions make it advisable to regulate the shipment of cauliflower, the Control Committee shall recommend to the Secretary the establishment of a proration period during which the shipment of cauliflower may be regulated pursuant to this article. Such recommendations shall be made at a meeting of the said committee held at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time when it is proposed that the regulation shall be effective and the said committee shall promptly notify handlers and growers of such recommendations.

SEC. 2. Reports from Handlers.—Each handler desiring to ship cauliflower from a district for which a proration period is proposed shall, with respect to the cauliflower which he owns or has authority to ship and which he has available and intends to ship during such proposed period, report to the Control Committee the quantity of such cauliflower, the name of each owner or grower thereof and the quantity which he is authorized to ship for each such owner or grower. Reports shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Control Committee may prescribe. Each grower who has not given a handler authority to ship his cauliflower may make a similar report. During any such regulation period, any quantity of cauliflower prohibited from shipment pursuant to article IV shall not be considered as available for shipment for the purposes of this article.

SEC. 3. Review of Reports.—The Control Committee shall verify, in such manner as it may determine, all reports filed pursuant to section 2 and, with respect to the reports which are inaccurate, shall revise such reports to conform with the facts. Any handler or grower dissatisfied with his report as approved by the Control Committee may request the said committee to reconsider such report and thereafter may appeal to the Secretary. In the event of such an appeal, the Control Committee shall submit a report to the Secretary giving the action taken and the reasons therefor. Pending the disposition by the Secretary of such appeal, the petitioner shall abide by the determination of the Control Committee.

SEC. 4. Determination of Quantity Available for Shipment.—From the reports filed with the Control Committee pursuant to section 2 hereof, as the same may be revised pursuant to section 3 hereof, the said committee shall determine for each and all handlers the quantity of cauliflower available and intended for shipment from the district for which a proration period is proposed.

SEC. 5. Determination of Advisable Shipments.—The Control Committee shall determine the total quantity of cauliflower which it deems advisable to be shipped from each district during a proposed proration period. In determining such advisable quantity, the said committee shall give consideration to the supply of cauliflower available from all producing areas and to the demand therefor.

SEC. 6. Reports to the Secretary.—The Control Committee shall report to the Secretary the quantity of cauliflower available and the quantity advisable for shipment, as determined pursuant to sections 3, 4 and 5 of this article, as well as the facts upon which such determinations were made, and such additional information as the Secretary may request.

SEC. 7. Establishment of Proration Period.—Based upon the recommendations made pursuant to section 1 hereof and the reports submitted pursuant to section 6 of this article, and upon any other information available, the Secretary shall, if he has reason to believe that the limitation of shipments of cauliflower will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, establish for either or both districts a proration period regulating the shipment of cauliflower. The effective date, duration or termination of any proration period shall be given by the Secretary to the Control Committee by telegraph or in any other manner which the Secretary deems sufficient.

SEC. 8. Determination of Allotments by the Secretary.—1. In the event the Secretary establishes a proration period as provided in section 7 hereof, he shall, upon the basis of the information contained in the reports submitted pursuant to section 6 hereof, and upon such other information as may be available, determine for the district affected by the established proration period and for such period:

(a) The quantity of cauliflower which each handler has available and intends to ship;

(b) The total quantity of cauliflower which all handlers have available and intend to ship; and

(c) The total quantity of cauliflower advisable for shipment.

2. The Secretary shall inform the Control Committee of the determinations made by him pursuant to paragraph 1 of this section and the said committee shall calculate the allotment percentage for the district by dividing the total quantity of cauliflower advisable for shipment, as determined by the Secretary, by the total quantity of cauliflower which all handlers have available and intend to ship during the established proration period, as determined by the Secretary.

3. The Control Committee shall multiply the quantity of cauliflower which each handler has available and intends to ship from the district during the established proration period, as determined by the Secretary, by the allotment percentage calculated pursuant to paragraph 2 hereof, and the result thereof shall be the allotment fixed by the Secretary for each such handler. The Control Committee shall notify each handler of his allotment and of the allotment percentage.

4. Each handler shall, with respect to the quantity of cauliflower represented by his allotment, equitably apportion such cauliflower among the owners and growers whose cauliflower he reported to the Control Committee pursuant to section 2 of this article as available and intended for shipment, by applying the allotment percentage for the established proration period to such available supply of each owner and grower as determined by the Secretary.

SEC. 9. Transfer of Allotments.—Any handler to whom an allotment has been made may transfer such allotment, in whole or in part, to any other handler. The amount of the allotment transferred shall be deducted from the allotment of the transferor and added to the allotment of the transferee.

SEC. 10. Over and Under Shipments.—No handler shall ship cauliflower during any proration period without an allotment or in excess of his allotment, including allotments transferred to him pursuant to section 9 of this article: Provided, however, That a shipment of less than one carload in excess of a handler's allotment shall not be a violation of this order if such overshipment is reported to the Control Committee by the handler within twenty-four (24) hours thereafter. The quantity of cauliflower shipped by a handler during any one proration period in excess of his allotment shall be offset by a reduction of an equal amount of cauliflower from his allotment for the succeeding proration period. If such allotment is less than the quantity of the overshipment, the excess shipment shall be deducted from succeeding allotments. A handler who ships less than his allotment for a proration period may, during the next succeeding proration period for which he has an allotment, ship a quantity of cauliflower equal to the quantity of such undershipment, in addition to his allotment: Provided, That such undershipment is reported to the Control Committee prior to such succeeding proration period and a request is made in writing for permission to ship the quantity of the undershipment.

SEC. 11. Termination of Proration Period.—The Secretary shall terminate any proration period if the limitation of shipments is rendered unnecessary by reason of increased demand, reduction in available supply, or any other reason which would prevent the continuation of such regulation from effectuating the declared policy of the act.

ARTICLE IV—REGULATION BY GRADE AND SIZES

SECTION 1. Recommendation.—Whenever the Control Committee deems it advisable to regulate the shipment of any grade or size of cauliflower, it shall so recommend to the Secretary. In such event, the said committee shall furnish to the Secretary all data and information upon which such recommendation is predicated, including information with respect to the factors affecting the supply of and demand for cauliflower by grade and size.

SEC. 2. Establishment of Regulation.—1. Based upon such recommendation and information furnished by the Control Committee, or upon such other information as may be available, the Secretary may regulate the quantity of any grade or size of cauliflower which may be shipped from a district during any period. Such regulation of shipments may be accomplished by prohibiting the shipment of certain grades or sizes of cauliflower, or a part thereof, during such period.

2. When the Secretary determines to regulate shipments as provided herein, he shall immediately notify the Control Committee of such determination and the date of the commencement of such regulation period, by telegraph or any other means which he deems advisable. The Control Committee shall immediately notify each handler affected thereby of (a) the institution of such regulation period; (b) the grades or sizes, or the portions thereof, which are prohibited from shipment; and (c) any other information that the Control Committee deems advisable under the circumstances.

SEC. 3. Determination of Percentages.—In the event a regulation period is established for a district pursuant to this article, the Control Committee shall determine the percentage which the cauliflower of the grades and sizes permitted to be shipped from such district is of the total quantity of cauliflower which could be shipped therefrom in the absence of such regulation, and shall immediately announce the result of such determination.

SEC. 4. Exemptions.—If any grower of cauliflower furnishes evidence to the Control Committee that the regulation of shipments by grade or size during any period will not permit the shipment of a percentage of his cauliflower during such period equal to the percentage determined for his district pursuant to section 3 hereof, the said committee shall issue upon the request of such grower an exemption certificate which will permit the shipment of such a quantity of his cauliflower of the regulated grade or size as will make the percentage of his cauliflower that may be shipped equal to the percentage determined for his district. The Control Committee shall announce the procedure to be followed for the issuance of such exemption certificates. If any grower is dissatisfied with the decision of the Control Committee made with respect to his request for an exemption certificate, he may appeal to the Secretary.

SEC. 5. Charitable Purposes.—Nothing contained in this order shall be construed to authorize any limitation of the right to ship cauliflower by consumption by charitable institutions or distribution by relief agencies.

ARTICLE V—GRADING AND INSPECTION

SECTION 1. Grading and Certification.—1. During any regulation period established pursuant to article IV, all shipments of cauliflower from the district affected by such regulation shall be graded and certified on the basis of the grades of cauliflower promulgated by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Department of Agriculture of the State of Oregon, or as the same may be modified or changed hereafter.

2. Each handler shall, with respect to each shipment of cauliflower during any such regulation period, file or cause to be filed with the Control Committee an inspection certificate or official memorandum thereof issued by the Federal-State Inspection Service showing the grade of each such shipment.

ARTICLE VI—ASSESSMENTS AND EXPENSES

SECTION 1. Assessments and Expenses.—1. The Control Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds may be necessary to carry out its functions under this order. The funds to cover such expenses shall be secured by the levying of assessments as hereinafter provided.

2. Each handler shall pay to the Control Committee, upon demand, such handler's pro rata share, as approved by the Secretary, of such general overhead expenses as the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the said committee for its maintenance and functioning for both districts during a marketing season. Each handler who ships cauliflower from a district during a season when shipments from that district are regulated pursuant to article III or article IV, shall also pay to the Control Committee, upon demand, such handler's pro rata share, as approved by the Secretary, of such expenses as the Secretary finds will be necessarily incurred by the said committee in administering the aforesaid regulations during such season.

3. A handler's pro rata share of the general administrative expenses for any season shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of cauliflower shipped by him during such season is of the total quantity of such cauliflower shipped by all handlers during such season. A handler's pro rata share of the expenses for any season, necessary in administering regulations established pursuant to article III or article IV for a district, shall be that proportion thereof which the total quantity of cauliflower shipped by him from such district during the season is of the total quantity of cauliflower shipped by all handlers from such district during the season.

4. In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the said committee prior to the commencement of shipments in any season, handlers may make advance payments of assessments, which advance payments shall be credited to such handlers, and the assessments of such handlers shall be adjusted so that such assessments are based upon the quantity of cauliflower shipped by such handlers during such season.

5. At the end of each season, the Control Committee shall credit each contributing handler with the excess of the amount paid by such handler above his pro rata share of the expenses, or debit such handler with the difference between his pro rata share and the amount paid by him. Any such debits shall become due and payable upon the demand of the Control Committee.

6. From the funds acquired pursuant to this article, the Control Committee shall pay the salaries of its employees, if any, and the expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of its duties under this agreement.

ARTICLE VII—REPORTS

SECTION 1. Reports.—Upon the request of the Control Committee, and in accordance with forms of reports to be approved by the Secretary, each handler shall furnish, in such manner and at such times as said committee prescribes, such information as will enable the said committee to perform its duties under this order.

ARTICLE VIII—LIABILITY OF CONTROL COMMITTEE MEMBERS

SECTION 1. Liability.—No member of the Control Committee nor any employee thereof shall be held responsible individually in any way whatsoever to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

ARTICLE IX—SEPARABILITY

SECTION 1. Separability.—If any provision of this order is declared invalid or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstances, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this order or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

ARTICLE X—DEROGATION

SECTION 1. Derogation.—Nothing contained in this order is or shall be construed to be in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States (1) to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or (2) in accordance with such powers to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

ARTICLE XI—AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1. Proposals.—Amendments to this order may from time to time be proposed by the Control Committee.

ARTICLE XII—DURATION OF IMMUNITIES

SECTION 1. Duration of Immunities.—The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by virtue of this order shall cease upon its termination except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order, and benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this order upon any person shall cease upon its termination as to such party except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this order.

ARTICLE XIII—AGENTS

SECTION 1. Agents.—The Secretary may by a designation in writing name any person (not subject to this order), including any officer or employee of the Government, or any Bureau or Division in the Department of Agriculture to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this order.

ARTICLE XIV—EFFECTIVE TIME AND TERMINATION

SECTION 1. Effective Time.—This order shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached hereto, and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways hereinafter specified.

SEC. 2. Termination.—The Secretary may at any time terminate this order by giving at least one (1) day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which the Secretary may determine.

2. The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of this order, or of any provision thereof, whenever he finds that this order, or such provisions thereof, does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

3. The Secretary shall terminate this order at the end of any marketing period whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the growers of cauliflower who during the preceding marketing period, have been engaged in the production for market of cauliflower in the area covered by this order: Provided, That such majority have during such period produced more than fifty (50) percent of the volume of such cauliflower produced within said area, but such termination shall be effective only if notice thereof is given on or before December 31 of such marketing period.

4. This order shall in any event terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

SEC. 3. Proceedings after Termination.—1. Upon the termination of this order, the members of the Control Committee then functioning shall continue as joint trustees, for the purposes of this order, of all funds and property then in the possession of or under the control of said Committee, including claims for any funds and property which are unpaid at the time of such termination.

Said trustees (a) shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary;

(b) shall account, from time to time, for all receipts and disbursements or deliver all funds and property on hand, together with all books and records of the Control Committee and of the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary shall direct; and

(c) shall execute, upon the request of the Secretary, such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person, full title and right to all of the funds or claims vested in the Control Committee or the joint trustees pursuant to this order. Any funds collected pursuant to article VI, and held by such joint trustees or such person over and above the amount necessary to meet outstanding obligations and expenses necessarily incurred by the joint trustees or such other person in the performance of their duties hereunder, shall be returned as soon as practicable (after the termination of this order), to the handlers, pro rata, in proportion to their contributions made pursuant to this order.

2. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been delivered by the Control Committee, or members thereof upon direction of the Secretary, as herein provided, shall be subject to the same obligations and duties with respect to said funds, property, or claims as are hereinabove imposed upon the members of said committee or upon said joint trustees.

In witness whereof, the Secretary of Agriculture does hereby execute in duplicate and issue this order in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on this 19th day of July 1937, and, pursuant to the provisions hereof, declares this order to be effective on and after 12:01 a. m., pacific standard time, July 23, 1937.

NCR—B-101—Tama County, Supplement No. 1

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTH CENTRAL REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101, TAMA COUNTY, IOWA, SUPPLEMENT NO. 1

Revisions in North Central Region Bulletin 101—Tama County Relating to Classification of Farm Land and Rates and Conditions of Payment

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, North Central Region Bulletin 101, Tama County, is amended as follows:

1. Subsection B (a) of Section 2 of Part III is deleted and the following is substituted therefor.

B. New Conserving.—(a) Cropland upon which there is, on the date as of which final inspection is made for the purpose of determining performance, a good stand which would normally survive the winter of 1937-38 of any of the crops listed in items 1, 2, 3, 5, and 6 of this subsection (a) seeded with adapted seed between November 1, 1936, and October 31, 1937, inclusive, and cropland upon which there was a good stand on or after September 1, 1937, of annual sweetclover seeded with adapted seed between November 1, 1936, and October 31, 1937; provided, there is evidence that the nurse crop, if any, was seeded at a rate not in excess of one-half the normal rate of seeding alone for grain and was not harvested for grain or hay.

2. The first paragraph of Section 3 of Part IV is amended by the addition of the following sentence at the close of such paragraph:

If trees are purchased from a Clark-McNary cooperative nursery, such purchase shall not be deemed to be paid for in whole or in part by a State or Federal agency.

3. Subsection (a) (1) of Section 3 of Part IV is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

(1) Alfalfa, (seeded alone or in mixtures with the perennial grasses listed under subsection (b) hereof, provided, that such alfalfa is seeded at the full rate of seeding alfalfa alone)—$2.50 per acre.

4. Section 7, Part IV is deleted and the following is substituted therefor:

SECTION 7. Applicability to Farms under Special Programs.—On any farm where a program is carried out in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service or the Resettlement Administration, payments shall not be made for any soil-building practice carried out on such farm unless, (1) the cooperating agency has approved in writing on Form ACP-35 the carrying out of any such practice on such farm, (2) the cooperating agency has not furnished any labor, seed, or materials for the carrying out of such practice, provided, if labor, seed, or material are furnished by the Soil Conservation Service or the Resettlement Administration for a practice specified in either subsections (c) or (e), of Section 3 of this Part IV, and such cooperating agency has approved in writing the carrying out of such practice, payment will be made to the extent specified in the first paragraph of Section 3 of this Part IV.

In testimony whereof, Harry L. Brown, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, has hereunto set his hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, this 19th day of July, 1937.

[SEAL] HARRY L. BROWN,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

ORDER

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 4, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 13th day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS TO BE KEPT BY ELECTRIC RAILWAYS

The matter of modifying the Uniform System of Accounts for Electric Railways, Issue of 1914, by the addition thereto of an operating-revenue account to cover the tariff charges for protective service to perishable freight being under consideration:

It is ordered, That the following account under General Account I. Revenue from transportation, and the text pertaining thereto be, and they are hereby, prescribed:

108½. Protective service revenue—perishable freight.—This account shall include the revenue from protective service to perishable freight, classified as follows:

(a) Revenue from service for the protection against heat and from specific services incidental thereto upon the basis of tariff charges.

(b) Revenue from service for the protection against cold and from specific services incidental thereto upon the basis of tariff charges.

NOTE A.—Each carrier performing protective service to perishable freight against heat or cold, locally or jointly with one or more carriers, shall include in this account the total amount accruing to it under tariff provisions for the service performed on its line, without diminution by amounts paid to and retained by others than carriers for protective service rendered. Amounts paid to and retained by others than carriers for protective service rendered shall be charged to account 67, "Miscellaneous car-service expenses", in the accounts of the respective carriers.

NOTE B.—The cost of ice and salt for refrigeration, the cost of fuel for heating, and allowances to shippers in accordance with tariff provision for prewarming cars, shall be charged to account 67, "Miscellaneous car-service expenses."

NOTE C.—Collections in excess of tariff charges shall be included in this account pending refund.

NOTE D.—To this account shall be charged the carrier's proportion of uncollectible tariff charges.

NOTE E.—The carrier's records shall be so kept as to reflect the net revenue separately under items (a) and (b).

It is further ordered, That case 305 of Accounting Bulletin No. 14 be, and it is hereby, amended by the addition of the sentence:

(See account 108½, "Protective service revenue—Perishable freight."), immediately following the last answer.

And it is further ordered, That this order shall become effective July 1, 1937.

By the Commission, division 4,

United States of America—Before the Securities and Exchange Commission

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 19th day of July, A. D., 1937.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE PHILLIPS "L" COMMUNITY TRACT, FILED ON JULY 12, 1937, BY A. BEN CHADWELL, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the depths of the wells known as "Freeburg #1", "Vera Lee #1" and "Freeburg #4", as set forth in Division II, Items 19 (c) and (e), do not agree with the depths of the same wells as shown by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(2) In that the first paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE GULF-BENJAMIN TRACT, FILED ON JULY 12, 1937, BY ROBERT L. KINKAID, INC., RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340(A) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the smallest fractional interest to be offered is not stated in Division II, Item 1, in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(2) In that in Division II, Item 10, the names of the persons by whom the taxes are assessed are omitted;

(3) In that no information is given in Division II, Item 13, relative to the number of drilling wells;

(4) In that the figure given in Division II, Item 20 (d), for the month of February, 1937, is not believed to be correct, nor is the year immediately following the months of January to June, inclusive, as given in the column under "Months" in Division II, Item 20, believed to be correctly stated;

(5) In that in Division II, Item 20 (e), the actual net monthly pay-off for the smallest interest offered is required to be given, whereas from the amounts set forth it appears that the pro rata portion of the taxes to which such interest is subject has not been deducted;

(6) In that the second paragraph of representations, required to be included as a part of the offering sheet, is omitted;

(7) In that the proposed instrument of conveyance attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit B", is incomplete for the reason that the smallest interest to be conveyed is omitted;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

[Tariff Circular MP No. 3]

REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE CONSTRUCTION AND FILING OF COMMON CARRIER PASSENGER FARE PUBLICATIONS, CONTRACT CARRIER SCHEDULES OF MINIMUM FARES OR CHARGES, ALSO EXPRESS RATE AND CLASSIFICATION PUBLICATIONS OF COMMON AND CONTRACT CARRIERS OF PASSENGERS

ORDER

At a Session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of June, A. D. 1937.

In the Matter of Regulations Governing the Construction, Filing and Posting of Tariffs by Common Carriers by Motor Vehicle, and the Form, Publication and Inspection of Schedules of Contract Carriers

The matter of regulations governing the construction, filing and posting of tariffs by common carriers by motor vehicle, also joint tariffs of common carriers by motor vehicle and common carriers by water, other than railroad owned or controlled water carriers, pursuant to section 217 of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and governing the form, publication and inspection of schedules of contract carriers by motor vehicle, filed pursuant to section 218 of the said Motor Carrier Act, being under consideration and good cause appearing therefor:

It is ordered, That tariffs, including express tariffs, of common carriers of passengers by motor vehicle, joint tariffs of common carriers of passengers by motor vehicle and common carriers by water, other than railroad owned or controlled water carriers, filed pursuant to section 217 of the said act, and schedules, including express schedules, of contract carriers of passengers by motor vehicle, filed pursuant to section 218 of the said act, shall be constructed, published, filed, posted and kept open for public inspection in accordance with regulations adopted and promulgated in Tariff Circular MP No. 3, which regulations shall cancel and supersede regulations heretofore adopted and promulgated in Tariff Circular MP No. 2 and Supplement No. 1 thereto;

And it is further ordered, That the said Tariff Circular MP No. 3 be, and it is hereby, approved and made effective July 23, 1937.

By the Commission. Division 5.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL, Secretary.

REGULATIONS

All tariffs and schedules filed on and after the effective date hereof must conform to these regulations, except as otherwise authorized by the Commission.

The term "tariff" as used herein means a publication stating the fares and charges of a common carrier, and all rules which it applies in connection therewith.

The term "schedule" as used herein means a publication stating the minimum fares and charges of a contract carrier, and all rules which it applies in connection therewith.

SECTION 1

Common Carrier Tariffs

RULE 1. CONSTRUCTION AND FILING OF TARIFFS

(a) All tariffs and supplements thereto must be in book, pamphlet, or loose-leaf form of size 8 by 11 inches. They must be plainly printed, mimeographed, planographed, stereotyped, or reproduced by other similar durable process on paper of good quality.

No alteration in writing or erasure shall be made in any tariff or supplement thereto.

A margin of not less than five-eighths of an inch without any printing thereon must be allowed at the binding edge of each tariff and supplement.

(b) Except as provided in rule 4, and unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, all tariffs and supplements must be filed and posted at least 30 days prior to the effective date thereof.

(c) Issuing carriers or their agents shall transmit to the Commission three copies of each tariff, supplement, or revised page. All copies shall be included in one package accompanied by a letter of transmittal listing all tariffs enclosed and addressed to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Section of Traffic, Washington, D. C. All postage, etc., must be prepaid.

RULE 2. TITLE PAGE OF EVERY TARIFF AND SUPPLEMENT SHALL SHOW IN THE ORDER NAMED

(a) On upper right-hand corner each tariff shall be numbered beginning with no. 1. Such number shall be shown as follows:

MP-I. C. C. No. —.

When tariffs are issued canceling a tariff or tariffs previously filed, the MP-I. C. C. number or numbers of the tariff or tariffs canceled must be shown in the upper right-hand corner immediately under the MP-I. C. C. number of the new tariff.

Example:

MP-I. C. C. No. 2

cancels

MP-I. C. C. No. 1

(b) Supplements to a tariff in addition to showing the MP-I. C. C. number of the tariff amended thereby shall be numbered beginning with the number 1 and such information shall be shown in the upper right-hand corner. Supplements shall also show in the upper right-hand corner the number of any previous supplement canceled thereby and also the numbers of the supplements containing all changes from the tariff.

Example:

Supplement No. 3

to

MP-I. C. C. No. 1

Cancels Supplement No. 2

Supplements Nos. 1 and 3 contain all changes

(c) Name of carrier or name of agent issuing tariff.

Whenever two or more carriers join in a through a fare or charge the names of all such carriers must be shown. The name of a carrier must be the same as that appearing in its application for a certificate. In the event of a successor its name must be shown as "Successor to ———" as follows:

Example:

John Doe and William Doe

(Successors to A. B. C. Transportation Co.)

If the carrier is not a corporation, and a trade name is used, the name of the individual or partners must precede the trade name.

Example:

John Doe and William Doe

doing business as

A. B. C. Transportation Co.

Whenever two or more carriers join in a through fare or charge, authority by means of proper power of attorney or concurrence, as provided in rule 15, must be given the agent or carrier publishing the tariff.

(d) A brief description of the territories in which, or points from and to or between which, the tariff applies briefly stated.

(e) Date of issue and date effective.

(f) Name, title, and street address of officer or agent by whom tariff is issued.

RULE 3. TARIFFS SHALL CONTAIN IN THE ORDER NAMED

(a) Table of contents, arranged in alphabetical order showing the number of the page on which each subject may be found. If a tariff contains so small a volume of matter that its title page or interior arrangement plainly discloses its contents, the table of contents may be omitted.

(b) Explanation of all abbreviations, symbols, and reference marks used in the tariff.

(c) Table of fares.—An explicit statement of the fares in cents or in dollars and cents, together with the names or description of the points from and to which they apply. The names of the States in which the points are located must be shown.

Tariffs containing tables of fares based on distances from point of origin to destination must show the mileages or indicate a definite method by which such mileages shall be determined.

(d) Carriers or their agents may not publish fares or charges which duplicate or conflict with fares or charges published by or for account of such carriers.

RULE 4. ROUND-TRIP EXCURSION FARES

(a) Fares for round-trip excursions may be established, without further notice, upon posting tariffs in advance in a public and conspicuous place where tickets for such round-trip excursions are to be sold, and filing three copies thereof with the Commission, as follows:

For a round-trip excursion limited to a designated period of not more than three days, including the first date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the going journey and the last date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the return journey, upon posting notice of one day;

For a round-trip excursion limited to a designated period of more than three days but not more than thirty days, including the first date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the going journey and the last date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the return journey, upon posting notice of three days;

For a series of round-trip excursions, such series covering a period not to exceed thirty days, including the first date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the going journey and the last date any ticket to be sold under the tariff may be used for the return journey, upon posting notice of three days as to the entire series.

(b) The term "round-trip excursion" as used in this rule means an excursion between points on the regularly operated route or routes of a common carrier, and is not intended to embrace so-called special or charter operations.

(c) No supplement may be issued to any tariff which is published under this rule except for the purpose of canceling the tariff.

(d) Each tariff issued under this rule must bear on its title page the following notation:

Issued under the authority of Rule 4, Interstate Commerce Commission Tariff Circular MP No. 3.

RULE 5. TARIFF CHANGES

(a) Except as provided in rule 4 and unless otherwise authorized by the Commission, fares and charges which have been filed with the Commission must be allowed to become effective and remain in effect for a period of at least 30 days before being changed, canceled, or withdrawn.

(b) All tariffs, supplements, and revised pages shall indicate changes from preceding issues by use of the following symbols:

↓ or (R) to denote reductions.
◆ or (A) to denote increases.
▲ or (C) to denote changes, the result of which is neither an increase nor a reduction.

The proper symbol must be shown directly in connection with each change.

RULE 6. POSTING REGULATIONS

Each carrier must post and file at each of its stations or offices at which an exclusive agent is employed all of the tariffs or schedules applying from, or at, such station or office and must also post and file at its principal place of business all of its tariffs or schedules. All tariffs or schedules must be kept available for public inspection or examination at all reasonable times.

SECTION 2

Contract Carrier Schedules and Contracts

RULE 7. CONSTRUCTION AND FILING OF SCHEDULES

All schedules of contract carriers of passengers must conform to the requirements set forth to govern the construction, filing, and posting of common carriers' tariffs and supplements in rules 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6 of section 1.

Wherever in such rules the words "tariff" or "tariffs" appear, substitute the words "schedule" or "schedules."

Wherever in such rules the words "fares or charges" appear, substitute the words "minimum fares or charges."

Wherever in such rules there appears reference to "certificate" substitute the word "permit."

RULE 8. FILING OF CONTRACTS

Section 218 (a) of the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, provides that the filing of copies of contracts containing the minimum charges of contract carriers for the transportation of passengers or property in interstate or foreign commerce is permitted in the discretion of the Commission.

Whenever it is desired to file copies of contracts in lieu of schedules, carriers must first secure authority from the Commission to do so. Applications requesting permission to file contracts in lieu of schedules must state fully the reasons for the carriers' request. Such applications shall be made in duplicate on paper 8 by 10½ inches.

SECTION 3

Express Tariffs and Schedules of Common and Contract Carriers of Passengers

RULE 9. CONSTRUCTION, FILING, AND POSTING OF EXPRESS TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES

(a) Tariffs and schedules of common and contract carriers of passengers containing rates and charges for the transportation of express or express classifications must conform to the requirements set forth to govern the construction, filing, and posting of common and contract carriers' passenger tariffs and schedules in rules 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of sections 1 and 2, subject to the modifications, exceptions, and additional requirements set forth in the following rules.

(b) Wherever in the above rules and in rules 14 and 15 of section 4 the words "fares or charges" appear, substitute the words "rates or charges."

When express tariffs are published separately, substitute the abbreviation ME–I. C. C. wherever there appears in the above rules and in rules 14 and 15 of section 4 the abbreviation MP–I. C. C. (See also rule 13.)

RULE 10. SIZE OF TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES

The size of tariffs may be either 8 by 11 inches or 9½ by 11½ inches.

RULE 11. TARIFFS AND SCHEDULES SHALL CONTAIN

(a) Immediately following the table of contents, a complete index of all the commodities on which specific rates are named therein, together with reference to the page or items in which they are shown. No index need be shown in tariffs of less than five pages or if all the rates to each destination are alphabetically arranged by commodities.

(b) When a tariff names rates by classes, a classification of articles must be published in the tariff or in a separate tariff. When a classification is published in a separate tariff, reference must be made thereto on the title page of the rate tariff as follows:

Governed, except as otherwise provided herein, by the [here name] classification [show issuing agent], ME–I. C. C. No. — (or I. C. C. No. —), supplements to or successive issues thereof.

All carriers shown as originating carriers in a rate tariff which is governed by a separate classification must be named as participating carriers in such separate classification.

(c) Table of rates.—All rates must be explicitly stated in cents or in dollars and cents per 100 pounds, per barrel, per package, per bundle, or other definable measure.

Where rates are stated in amounts per package or bundle, definite specifications of the packages or bundles must be shown.

(d) Carriers or their agents may not publish class or commodity express rates which duplicate or conflict with express rates published by or for account of such carriers.

RULE 12. COMMODITY RATES

Commodity rates may be established on any commodity or commodities.

RULE 13. EXPRESS RATES, CHARGES AND RULES

(a) Carriers of passengers by motor vehicle may publish the rates, charges and rules covering the transportation of express in their tariffs or schedules containing passenger fares and charges, provided such express matter is included in a separate section of such tariff. When this is done it will not be necessary for such passenger carrier to publish a separate tariff covering express. However, both the MP–I. C. C. number and the ME–I. C. C. number must be shown.

(b) When passenger tariffs contain express rates, charges, and rules, five copies of such issues shall be transmitted to the Commission.

SECTION 4

Miscellaneous Rules and Forms

RULE 14. APPLICATIONS FOR SPECIAL PERMISSION

(a) The Motor Carrier Act, 1935, authorizes the Commission in its discretion and for good cause shown to permit changes in fares and charges on less than statutory notice, and also to permit departure from the Commission's regulations. The Commission will exercise this authority only in cases where actual emergency and real merit are shown. Desire to meet the fares and charges of a competing carrier that has given statutory notice of change in fares and charges will not of itself be regarded as good cause for permitting changes in fares and charges or other provisions on less than statutory notice. Clerical or typographical errors in tariffs constitute good cause for the exercise of this authority, but every application based thereon must plainly specify the error together with a full statement of the attending circumstances and must be presented with reasonable promptness after issuance of the defective tariff, supplement or revised page.

(b) When a formal order of the Commission requires publication on a stated number of days' notice, a request addressed to the Bureau of Motor Carriers for authority to file on less notice will not be granted. In any such instance a petition for modification of the order should be filed on the formal docket.

(c) Applications for permission to establish fares, charges, rules, or other provisions on less than statutory notice, or for waiver of the provisions of this tariff circular must be made by the carrier or agent that holds authority to file the proposed publication. If the application requests permission to make changes in joint tariffs, it must state that it is filed for and on behalf of all carriers parties to the proposed change.

(d) Two copies of applications (including amendments thereto and exhibits made a part thereof) shall be addressed to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Washington, D. C. An additional exact copy shall be addressed to the office of the District Director, Bureau of Motor Carriers, Interstate Commerce Commission, of the district in which the main office of the applicant carrier or publishing agent is located. The application shall indicate that an exact copy including exhibits has been furnished the district office.

Applications shall be made on paper 8 by 10½ inches, shall be in substantially the form shown hereinbelow, and shall give all the information required by this rule together with any other pertinent facts. They shall be numbered consecutively and must bear the signature of the carrier or its agent or officer, specifying title.

When the application is made by an agent, appropriate change should be made in the introductory and closing paragraphs of this form.

(e) Applications shall show the following information:

(1) The proposed tariff provisions shall be set forth clearly and completely. An accompanying exhibit may be used if identified by letter, such as Exhibit A, and so referred to in the application. If the proposed provisions consist of fares or charges, all points of origin and destination must be shown or definitely indicated; if permission is sought to establish a rule, the exact wording of the proposed rule must be given.

(2) The application shall show the tariffs and MP–I. C. C. numbers of the publications in which the proposed fares, charges, ratings, rules, or other provisions will be published. If the publication is to be made in supplements to tariffs already referred to, this fact shall be shown.

(3) The application shall set forth the fares, charges, or tariff provisions which it is desired to change. Where the matter to be shown is voluminous or for other reasons difficult of presentation, it may be included in an accompanying exhibit, properly identified and referred to in the application. Reference shall be made by MP–I. C. C. number and supplement number to the tariffs or supplements in which fares, charges, or provisions to be superseded are published. If such provisions are published in numbered items or other units, reference shall be made thereto by number, or, if not so published, the pages of the publication on which the provisions appear shall be shown. The extent to which cancellation will be made must be definitely indicated.

(4) The application shall state the names of carriers known to maintain competitive fares, charges, classification ratings, or rules between the same points or points related thereto, together with the MP–I. C. C. numbers of the tariffs and supplements thereto containing such provisions.

(5) The application shall state whether such carriers have been advised of the proposed fares, charges, classification ratings, or rules and whether they have been advised that it is proposed to establish such provisions on less than statutory notice. If competitive carriers have expressed their views in regard to the proposed provisions, a brief statement of their views shall be given.

(6) The application shall state the special circumstances or unusual conditions which are relied upon as justifying the requested permission together with any related facts or circumstances which may aid the Commission in determining whether the requested permission is justified. If permission to establish provisions on less than statutory notice is sought, the petitioner shall state why the proposed provisions could not have been established upon 30 days' notice.

(f) If the authority granted by special permission is used, it must be used in its entirety and in the manner set forth in the order of special permission. If it is not desired to use all of the authority granted and less or more extensive or different authority is desired, a new application complying with the provisions of this rule in all respects and referring to the previous permission must be filed.

RULE 15. POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND CONCURRENCES

(a) Whenever a carrier desires to give authority to an attorney and agent to issue and file tariffs and supplements thereto in its stead a power of attorney in the following form shall be used. Size 8 by 10½ inches:

MPXA1 No. —.
Cancels MPXA1 No. —.
[Name of carrier].
[Post Office Address].
----------, 19--.

Know all men by these presents:

That the [name of carrier] has made, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents does make, constitute, and appoint [name of principal agent appointed] its true and lawful attorney and agent for the said carrier, and in its name, place, and stead, (1) for it alone and (2) for it jointly with other carriers, to publish and file tariffs naming [here specify whether fares and charges and/or rules applying from, to, or at points on or via route or routes, or express classifications] as required of common carriers of passengers by the Motor Carrier Act, 1935, and by regulations established by the Interstate Commerce Commission thereunder. [If the authority granted runs only to a specific tariff, so state and describe such issue as follows]:

[Here give exact description of title page of tariff, including MP–I. C. C. number and the name of series. When date of issue and/or effective date are determined such date or dates must be shown.]

And the said [name of carrier] does hereby give and grant unto its said attorney and agent full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing above specified as fully to all intents and purposes, as if the same were done and performed by the said carrier, hereby ratifying and confirming all that its said attorney and agent may lawfully do by virtue hereof, and assuming full responsibility for the acts and neglects of its said attorney and agent hereunder.

[T. D. 49095]

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS OF 1931, RELATIVE TO MERCHANDISE IN TRANSIT BETWEEN PORTS IN THE UNITED STATES THROUGH CONTIGUOUS FOREIGN TERRITORY, AMENDED

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in sections 554 and 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, secs. 1554 and 1624), the Customs Regulations of 1931 are amended as follows:

Article 233 (a), as amended by T. D. 45764, is further amended by eliminating from the manifest form set forth therein the line and by amending the certification of the inspector at the bottom of the form to read as follows:

Customs seals Nos.----------

I certify that the above car number is correct and that customs seals are intact and locked.

Article 233 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Train consist shall be furnished the customs inspector at the port of exit by the railroad company, showing all cars on the train and specifically indicating the in-transit cars leaving the United States. The inspector shall check each in-transit seal used to see that it is properly attached and locked, which shall be ascertained by an actual test of the seals placed on each car. While the outside inspector is checking the car numbers and initials and testing the in-transit seals applied, the inside inspector will have the manifests otherwise prepared so that, on return of the outside inspector, the certificate on the manifest may be executed and the initials of the outside inspector added to complete the manifest without delay.

Article 233 (h) is amended to read as follows:

(h) As an alternative to the above regulation the railroads may use the following plan if it is found to be more expeditious: Train consist shall be furnished the customs inspectors at the port of exit by the railroad company showing all cars on the train and specifically indicating the in-transit cars leaving the United States. The customs inspector will retain custody of the in-transit seals; he will accompany the railroad sealer, furnishing him with in-transit seals at the time of application; test each seal used to see that it is properly applied and upon completion of the sealing of the cars will immediately report to the inside inspector. While the outside inspector is checking the car numbers and initials and testing the in-transit seals applied, the inside inspector will have the manifests otherwise prepared so that on return of the outside inspector, the certificate on the manifest may be executed and the initials of the outside officer added to complete the manifest without delay.

Article 234 (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) On arrival at the first port in the United States after transportation through foreign territory the railroad conductor shall present a consist sheet showing the initials, car numbers, and port of exit of each car in the train and a manifest for each loaded car, to the customs. The inspector shall check the manifest so received with the consist sheet to determine that a manifest has been tendered for every loaded car and then shall check the train from the consist. He shall also examine the fastenings of the car.

Article 234 (b) is amended by deleting the words or with seals bearing numbers other than those shown on the manifest, appearing in lines two and three thereof.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 25]

AN ORDER DIRECTING ALL DISTRICT BOARDS TO SUBMIT PROPOSED RULES AND REGULATIONS INCIDENTAL TO THE SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF COAL PRODUCED BY CODE MEMBERS WITHIN THE RESPECTIVE DISTRICTS; PROVIDING FOR THE COORDINATION OF SUCH RULES AND REGULATIONS; AND NOTICE OF A PUBLIC HEARING BY THE COMMISSION FOR THE PURPOSE OF RECEIVING EVIDENCE TO ENABLE THE COMMISSION TO ESTABLISH RULES AND REGULATIONS INCIDENTAL TO THE SALE AND DISTRIBUTION OF COAL BY CODE MEMBERS, IN CONFORMITY WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE BITUMINOUS COAL ACT OF 1937

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission hereby orders:

1. Each district board shall propose reasonable rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coal produced by code members within their respective districts, which said rules and regulations (a) shall not be inconsistent with the requirements of Section 4 of the Act, (b) shall conform with the standards of fair competition therein established, (c) shall include the proposed definition and establishment of such consuming market areas as the respective district boards may deem necessary and proper, and (d) shall propose specific rules and regulations to effectuate subsection (g) of Part II of said Section 4 of the Act.

2. Such proposed rules and regulations, together with a statement of the reasons therefor, shall be submitted by each district board to the Commission at or before ten (10) o'clock A. M., August 2, 1937, and upon receipt thereof, the Commission may approve, disapprove, or modify the same, for the purpose of coordination.

3. Each district board shall, by formal resolution, designate a representative or representatives of the board, with full authority to attend a meeting to be held as herein provided, and to act in its behalf, for the purpose of coordinating such rules and regulations in conformity with the requirements of subsection (b), Part II, of Section 4 of the Act, which said meeting is hereby set for ten (10) o'clock A. M., August 4, 1937, at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D. C., and to be conducted under the direction of the Commission. Coordination of such proposed rules and regulations shall be completed, and the proposed rules and regulations as coordinated shall be submitted to the Commission not later than August 11, 1937.

4. The proposed rules and regulations, as coordinated and submitted to the Commission, will be on file in the office of the Secretary of the Commission on August 12, 1937, and will be available for inspection thereafter during office hours by all interested parties until the date of the hearing hereinafter set forth.

5. A hearing shall be held by the Commission on August 23, 1937, commencing at ten (10) o'clock A. M. in the Hearing Room of the Commission at the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of receiving evidence to enable the Commission to establish rules and regulations incidental to the sale and distribution of coal by code members within the respective districts, in conformity with the provisions of said Act. At said hearing Consumers' Counsel, code members, representatives of district boards, and all other interested parties may appear and be heard before the Commission.

Notice of said hearing shall be given under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission by mailing a copy of this order to Consumers' Counsel, to each district board, to each code member in all of said districts, and by publication of notice upon three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the districts. The notice published in said newspapers shall contain the date and the place of the hearing and a concise statement of the subject matter of the hearing.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 21st day of July, 1937.

EXEMPTIONS FROM COMPLIANCE WITH RADIOTELEGRAPH INSTALLATION REQUIREMENT OF SAFETY OF LIFE AT SEA CONVENTION

The Telegraph Division at its regular meeting held July 13, 1937, ratified the Commission's action of July 10, 1937, and granted extension of time of exemption of vessels of the Puget Sound Navigation Company from the radiotelegraph requirements of the Safety Convention and Public No. 97 approved May 20, 1937, and adopted the following order:

JULY 6, 1937.

The Commission this day extended the exemption from the radiotelegraph installation requirement of Article 27 of the Safety of Life at Sea Convention and Section 351 (a) of Public No. 97, approved May 20, 1937, amending the Communications Act, pursuant to the provisions of Article 28 of the Convention and Section 352 (b) of Public No. 97, which was granted the Puget Sound Navigation Company on March 9, 1937, extended on May 8, 1937, and June 7, 1937, for the following vessels and voyages:

1. The SS Iroquois and SS Olympic for international voyages between Seattle, Washington, and Victoria B. C. via Fort Townsend and Port Angeles.

2. The SS Quilcene, SS City of Angeles and SS Rosario for international voyages between Anacortes, Washington, and Sydney, B. C. via Friday Harbor, San Juan Island and Orues, Orues Island, pending further order of the Commission and in any event for a period not to exceed 30 days from the date of this order, subject to the same terms and conditions as those specified in the original order of exemption, in order to enable the Commission to further consider information bearing upon the route and conditions of the voyages in question.

By order of the Commission, Telegraph Division.

APPLICATION OF GEORGE B. EVANS, TRUSTEE IN BANKRUPTCY OF AND FOR ST. LOUIS GAS AND COKE CORPORATION

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

Upon further consideration of the application filed by George B. Evans, Trustee in Bankruptcy of and for the St. Louis Gas and Coke Corporation for approval of the sale of its electrical facilities to Granite City Generating Company, it appears that the latter company, as a part of the plan of reorganization involved in the said application, proposes to lease the electrical facilities involved to the Laclede Power and Light Company, a corporation furnishing electric energy in the City of St. Louis, Missouri.

It is ordered:

That the hearing on said application, scheduled for July 29, 1937, be postponed to August 10, 1937, at 10 a. m., in order to permit the Granite City Generating Company to join in the application.

Adopted by the Commission on July 20, 1937.

APPLICATION OF MARTIN J. O'CONNELL

ORDER SETTING HEARING

Upon application of Martin J. O'Connell of 150 Broadway, New York, New York, filed June 12, 1937, pursuant to Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act, for authorization to hold certain positions named in his said application;

It appearing that the said applicant is an employee and Vice President of The Utility Management Corporation, which corporation furnishes management service to the public utilties with which the said applicant is seeking authority to hold positions, and that the applicant while holding the positions with the said public utilities for which he now seeks authorization, receives all his compensation from the said The Utility Management Corporation; and

It further appearing that the said applicant failed to file with the Commission within due time as required by the Commission's Rules of Practice and Regulations and by Section 305 (b) of the Federal Power Act his application for authorization to hold the positions named in his application;

The Commission having considered the information contained in the said application finds:

That the said applicant has not made due showing in the form and manner prescribed by the Commission that neither public nor private interests would be adversely affected by his holding the said positions;

And the Commission orders:

That a hearing on the said application of Martin J. O'Connell be held in the Commission's hearing room at 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m., on Thursday, August 19, 1937; and that at such hearing the said applicant show cause why his said application should not be denied.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

RULES UNDER PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

CREDIT EXTENSIONS TO FOREIGN SUBSIDIARIES

Registered holding company or subsidiary prohibited from extending credit to foreign associate except in limited amounts or upon an order pursuant to application; no Commission form prescribed for such application, but compliance with Rule 2 and certain information required

Acting pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly Section 12 (b) thereof, and finding that such action is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, and to prevent the circumvention of provisions of said Act and rules, regulations, and orders thereunder, the Securities and Exchange Commission adopts the following Rule:

RULE 12B-1. Extensions of credit to foreign companies.—(a) As used in this rule, the phrase "foreign associate" means a subsidiary company which is exempt from any obligation imposed upon it as a subsidiary company by virtue of an order of the Commission pursuant to Section 3 (b), or which has filed an application for such an exemption. The phrase "domestic associate" means any associate company in a holding company system other than a foreign associate. The phrase "foreign associate group" means a foreign associate and all associate companies thereof which are also foreign associates.

(b) Any registered holding company or any subsidiary of such a company may make loans to any foreign associate or may extend its credit to or indemnify such a company, provided that the amount of such loans, extensions of credit or indemnifications by all domestic associates to all members of any foreign associate group that are at any one time outstanding shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the sum of $50,000 or a sum equal to one-tenth of one percent of the consolidated assets of all the companies in the holding company system of the company making such loan, extension of credit or indemnification, whichever of said sums is the lesser. Except within the limits above provided no registered holding company and no domestic associate of such a company shall lend or extend its credit to or indemnify any foreign associate company thereof unless an application shall first have been made to the Commission with respect to such transaction and the Commission shall have found that the proposed transaction will not be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or result in the circumvention of the provisions of the Act or the rules, regulations or orders thereunder and shall have entered an order approving such transaction.

(c) Any domestic associate desiring, directly or indirectly, to lend or in any manner extend its credit to or indemnify any foreign associate, otherwise than as authorized by paragraph (b) of this rule shall file with the Commission an application for an order approving such loan, extension of credit or agreement to indemnify. No form is prescribed therefor, but every such application shall comply with the provisions of Rule 2. It shall state the amount of the loan, extension of credit, or indemnification to be made, the use that is to be made of the proceeds thereof, the nature of the security, if any, that is to be given therefor, the maturity thereof, the rate of interest and all discounts, fees, commissions and other charges to be made in connection therewith. An application for the approval of an agreement to indemnify shall also include a copy of such agreement, if in writing, or a description thereof, if oral. Every such application shall also include such further facts as the Commission may require to enable it to determine the effect of the proposed transaction on the financial integrity of the companies involved, or to determine whether or not the proposed transaction may result in the circumvention of the provisions of the Act or the rules, regulations, or orders thereunder.

Extension of Exemption of Foreign Subsidiaries.—Subsidiary exempted pursuant to Section 3 (b) from Section 9 (a) (1) also exempt in respect to such action as affiliate from Section 9 (a) (2); such subsidiary exempted pursuant to Section 3 (b) not deemed to be a subsidiary of registered holding company.

Acting pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, and particularly Section 3 (d) thereof, and finding that such action is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, the Securities and Exchange Commission adopts the following Rule:

RULE 3D–7. Subsidiaries exempted under Section 3 (b) also exempted as affiliates and not deemed subsidiaries when acting within scope of exemption.—(a) If, pursuant to the authority granted by Section 3 (b), the Commission by rule, regulation or order shall exempt any subsidiary company, as such, of a registered holding company from Section 9 (a) (1) of the Act, such company, with respect to any action as to which it is thus exempt, shall also be exempted as an affiliate from the provisions of Section 9 (a) (2) of the Act.

(b) If, pursuant to the authority granted by Section 3 (b), the Commission by rule, regulation, or order shall exempt any subsidiary company, as such, of a registered holding company from any provision or provisions of the Act, such company, with respect to any action as to which it is thus exempt, shall not be deemed to be a subsidiary of such registered holding company.

IN THE MATTER OF CANUSA GOLD MINES LIMITED

STOP ORDER

This matter coming on to be heard by the Commission on the registration statement of registrant Canusa Gold Mines Limited, of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, after confirmed telegraphic notice by the Commission to said registrant that it appears that said registration statement includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein and omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and upon evidence received upon the allegations made in the notice of hearing duly served by the Commission on said registrant, and the Commission having duly considered the matter, and finding that said registration statement includes untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts required to be stated therein and material facts necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, all as more fully set forth in the Commission's Findings of Fact and Opinion this day issued, and the Commission being now fully advised in the premises,

It is ordered, pursuant to Section 8 (d) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the registration statement filed by Canusa Gold Mines Limited, of Toronto, Ontario, Canada, be and the same hereby is suspended.

By direction of the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF NON-PRODUCING PARTICIPATING ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE ELSCO-KNEEN-MCPHERSON LEASE, FILED ON JULY 14, 1937, BY ELSCO OIL COMPANY, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information required to be given in Division II, Item 28, is omitted, and may not be incorporated therein by reference;

(2) In that the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" does not show three abandoned wells, which, from the information disclosed in Division II, Item 18, appear to be located on the tract involved;

(3) In that the information disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" is insufficient and fails to meet the requirements of the Commission for the reasons that the date as of which the information contained in the plat is purported to be given is omitted, and the legend of symbols is incomplete;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 2 (e), as to whether or not the interest offered is perpetual;

(2) In that from the information contained in Division II, Item 18 (c), it appears there are three abandoned wells located on the tract involved, which information is not disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information contained in Division III, Item 3, of the offering sheet is inaccurate, incomplete, and misleading, in the following respects:

(a) it is stated in effect that this lease is one of the highest structurally in the pool, whereas the dry hole (4257 ft.) one location E. and two locations N., indicates that this lease is near the E. edge of the pool;

(b) the mere fact that a core sample does not contain anhydrite, does not in itself warrant the conclusion that this is "an outstanding lease";

(c) it is stated in effect that this is an outstanding lease because of the thickness of the formation, whereas the productive thickness of the formation on this lease has not been stated;

(d) similarly it has been stated in effect that this lease is outstanding because of the initial productions of its wells, whereas the initial productions have not been stated;

(e) although the engineer believes that this property is similar to the crest properties in the Hendricks Pool, it has not been shown that this is a crest property;

(2) In that the total production of oil from the tract, as set forth in Division II, Item 15, is not believed to be correct for the reason that the figure given does not agree with the gross production of oil as set forth by months in Division II, Item 20 (a); nor are the figures as set forth in Division III, Items 4 (b), (c) and (d), believed to be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD.

[Regulations—No. 2]

FEDERAL OLD-AGE BENEFITS UNDER TITLE II OF THE SOCIAL SECURITY ACT

INTRODUCTORY

These regulations relate to benefits provided for in title II of the Social Security Act, approved August 14, 1935 (Public, No. 271, Seventy-fourth Congress; 49 Stat. 620).

Chapter I defines terms that are used in the Act and in these regulations.

Chapter II deals with old-age benefits payable monthly.

Chapter III deals with old-age benefits payable in lump sum.

Chapter IV deals with the method of making payments.

Chapter V contains miscellaneous provisions.

The applicable provisions of the Act will be found in the appropriate places in, and are to be read in connection with, these regulations.

CHAPTER I

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1101 (A) AND (B) OF THE ACT

(a) When used in this Act—

(1) The term "State" (except when used in section 531) includes Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(2) The term "United States" when used in a geographical sense means the States, Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(3) The term "person" means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, or a corporation.

(4) The term "corporation" includes associations, joint-stock companies, and insurance companies.

(5) The term "shareholder" includes a member in an association, joint-stock company, or insurance company.

(6) The term "employee" includes an officer of a corporation.

(b) The terms "includes" and "including" when used in a definition contained in this Act shall not be deemed to exclude other things otherwise within the meaning of the term defined.

SECTION 210 OF THE ACT

When used in this title—

(a) The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year.

(b) The term "employment" means any service, of whatever nature, performed within the United States by an employee for his employer, except—

(1) Agricultural labor;

(2) Domestic service in a private home;

(3) Casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business;

(4) Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States or of any foreign country;

(5) Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of an instrumentality of the United States;

(6) Service performed in the employ of a State, a political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more States or political subdivisions;

(7) Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

(c) The term "qualified individual" means any individual with respect to whom it appears to the satisfaction of the Board that—

(1) He is at least sixty-five years of age; and

(2) The total amount of wages paid to him, with respect to employment after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five, was not less than $2,000; and

(3) Wages were paid to him, with respect to employment on some five days after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five, each day being in a different calendar year.

SECTION 17 OF THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT OF 1937

The term "employment", as defined in subsection (b) of section 210 of title II of the Social Security Act, shall not include service performed by an individual as an employee as defined in section 1 (b).

ARTICLE 1. General definitions and use of terms.—As used in these regulations—

(a) The terms defined in the above provisions of law shall have the meanings so assigned to them.

(b) Act means the Social Security Act (Public, No. 271, Seventy-fourth Congress; 49 Stat. 620).

(c) Title, unless used in some other sense or referring directly to some other law, means that part of the Social Security Act so designated.

(d) Section, unless used in some other sense or referring directly to some other law, means that part of the Social Security Act so designated.

(e) Board means the Social Security Board established pursuant to title VII of the Act.

(f) The Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 means the Act approved June 24, 1937 [Public No. 162, Seventy-fifth Congress (H. R. 7519)].

(g) Benefit means an amount payable under Title II of the Act upon certification by the Board.

(h) Execution, with reference to a form, means the signing of a completed form, and if required, the making of an affidavit thereon, and delivering it to the Board.

(i) Wage earner means an individual who has been paid remuneration for services with respect to employment performed by him as an employee after December 31, 1936, and prior to attaining the age of sixty-five or death, whichever is the earlier.

(j) Attainment of the age of sixty-five. An individual attains the age of sixty-five on the first moment of the day preceding the sixty-fifth anniversary of his birth.

(k) Wages paid means wages actually or constructively paid with respect to employment performed after December 31, 1936.

(l) Masculine gender includes the feminine, unless otherwise clearly indicated.

(m) Entitled means the present right to a benefit.

(n) Certify, when used in connection with the duty imposed on the Board by section 207, means that action taken by the Board in the form of a written statement addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the Treasury, setting forth the name and address of the person entitled to receive a benefit, the amount of such benefit, and the time at which it should be paid.

(o) Domicile means the place of an individual's true, fixed and permanent home, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning.

(p) The cross references in these regulations to other portions of the regulations, when the word "see" is used, are made only for convenience, and shall be given no legal effect.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service, of whatever nature, performed within the United States by an employee for his employer, except * * *

ART. 2. Employment.—All services performed within the United States by an employee for his employer, unless specifically excepted by section 210 (b) of the Act as modified by the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, constitute "employment" within the meaning of title II. To constitute an employment the legal relationship of employer and employee must exist between the person for whom the services are performed and the individual who performs them, and the services involved must be performed within the United States, that is, within any of the several States, the District of Columbia, or the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii. (See articles 3 and 4 as to who are employees and employers, respectively, and articles 5 to 12, inclusive, relating to excepted services.)

To the extent that an employee performs services outside of the United States for the person who employs him, he is not in an employment.

The place where the contract for services is entered into and the citizenship or residence of the employee or of the employer are immaterial. Thus, the employee and the employer may be citizens and residents of a foreign country and the contract for the services may be entered into in a foreign country, and yet, if the employee under such contract actually performs services within the United States, there may be to that extent an employment within the meaning of title II of the Act.

ART. 3. Service as an employee.—The relationship between the person for whom services are performed and the individual who performs such services must as to those services be the legal relationship of employer and employee. Generally such relationship exists when the person for whom services are performed has the right to control and direct the individual who performs the services, not only as to the result to be accomplished by the work but also as to the details and means by which that result is accomplished. That is, an employee is subject to the will and control of the employer not only as to what shall be done but how it shall be done. In this connection, it is not necessary that the employer actually direct or control the manner in which the services are performed; it is sufficient if he has the right to do so. The right to discharge is also an important factor indicating that the person possessing that right is an employer. Other factors characteristic of an employer, but not necessarily present in every case, are the furnishing of tools and the furnishing of a place to work, to the individual who performs the services. In general, if an individual is subject to the control or direction of another merely as to the result to be accomplished by the work and not as to the means and methods for accomplishing the result, he is an independent contractor. An individual performing services as an independent contractor is not as to such services an employee.

Generally, physicians, lawyers, dentists, veterinarians, contractors, subcontractors, public stenographers, auctioneers, and others who follow an independent trade, business, or profession, in which they offer their services to the public do not perform services as employees.

Whether the relationship of employer and employee exists will in doubtful cases be determined upon an examination of the particular facts of each case.

If the relationship of employer and employee exists, the designation or description of the relationship by the parties as anything other than that of employer and employee is immaterial. Thus, if such relationship exists, it is of no consequence that the employee is designated as a partner, coadventurer, agent, or independent contractor.

The measurement, method, or designation of compensation is also immaterial, if the relationship of employer and employee in fact exists.

Title II of the Act makes no distinction between classes or grades of employees. Thus, superintendents, managers, and other superior employees are employees. An officer of a corporation is an employee of the corporation, but a director, as such, is not. A director may be an employee of the corporation, however, if he performs services for the corporation other than those required by attendance at and participation in meetings of the board of directors.

ART. 4. Service for an employer.—Every person is an employer who employs one or more individuals in an employment, that is, for the performance within the United States of services not specifically excepted. The number of individuals employed by the employer and the period during which any such individual is so employed is immaterial. (For definition of employment see article 2, and for excepted services see articles 5 to 12, inclusive.)

An employer may be an individual, a corporation, a partnership, a trust or estate, a joint-stock company, an association, or a syndicate, group, pool, joint venture, or other unincorporated organization, group, or entity. An employer may be a person acting in a fiduciary capacity or on behalf of another, such as a guardian, committee, trustee, executor or administrator, trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or conservator.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service, of whatever nature, performed within the United States by an employee for his employer, except * * *

ART. 5. Excepted services generally.—Even though an individual performs services within the United States for the person who employs him, if the services are of a class which is specifically excepted by section 210 (b) of the Act as modified by the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 (see article 12), they are excluded for the purposes of entitlement to benefit under title II of the Act.

The exception attaches to the services performed by the employee and not to the employee as an individual; and the exception applies only for the period during which the individual is rendering services in an excepted class.

Example: A, who operates a farm and also a grocery store, employs B for $10 a week. B works on the farm five days of the week and works for one day of the week as a clerk in the grocery store. If the services which B performs on the farm constitute "agricultural labor" (see article 6), such services are excepted; the services performed as a clerk in the grocery store are, however, not excepted. In computing the amount of "wages" paid to B the part of the weekly salary of $10 which is attributable to the work on the farm is excluded, while the amount which is attributable to the work performed in the grocery store is included.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
(1) Agricultural labor; • • •

ART. 6. Agricultural labor.—The term "agricultural labor" includes all services performed—

(a) By an employee, on a farm, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, the raising and harvesting of crops, or the raising, feeding, or management of live stock, bees, and poultry; or (b) By an employee in connection with the processing of articles from materials which were produced on a farm; also the packing, packaging, transportation, or marketing of those materials or articles. Such services do not constitute agricultural labor, however, unless they are performed by an employee of the owner or tenant of the farm on which the materials in their raw or natural state were produced, and unless such processing, packing, packaging, transportation, or marketing is carried on as an incident to ordinary farming operations as distinguished from manufacturing or commercial operations.

As used herein the term "farm" embraces the farm in the ordinarily accepted sense, and includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, and truck farms, plantations, ranches, ranges, and orchards.

Forestry and lumbering are not included within this exception.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
• • • • •
(2) Domestic service in a private home; • • •

ART. 7. Domestic service.—Services of a household nature performed by an employee in or about the private home of the person by whom he is employed are within the above exception.

A private home is the fixed place of abode of an individual or family.

If the home is utilized primarily for the purpose of supplying board or lodging to the public as a business enterprise, it ceases to be a private home.

In general, services of a household nature in or about a private home include services rendered by cooks, maids, butlers, valets, laundresses, furnacemen, gardners, footmen, grooms, and chauffeurs of automobiles for family use.

The services above enumerated are not within the exception if performed in or about rooming or lodging houses, boarding houses, fraternity houses, clubs, hotels, or commercial offices or establishments.

Services performed as a private secretary, even though performed in the employer's home, are not within the exception.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
• • • • •
(3) Casual labor not in the course of the employer's trade or business; • • •

ART. 8. Casual labor not in the course of employer's trade or business.—The term "casual labor" includes labor which is occasional, incidental, or irregular.

The expression "not in the course of the employer's trade or business" includes labor that does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employer.

Thus, labor which is occasional, incidental, or irregular, and does not promote or advance the employer's trade or business is excepted.

Example 1: A's business is that of operating a sawmill. He employs B, a painter, at a daily wage to paint his home. B's labor is casual and is not in the course of A's trade or business—that of operating a sawmill. B's services to A are therefore excepted.

Casual labor, that is, labor which is occasional, incidental, or irregular, but which is in the course of the employer's trade or business does not come within the above exception.

Example 2: A's business is that of operating a sawmill. He employs B for two hours, at an hourly wage, to remove sawdust from his mill. B's labor is casual since it is occasional, incidental, or irregular, but it is in the course of A's trade or business—that of operating a sawmill—and is not excepted.

Example 3: A is engaged in the business of operating a department store. He employs additional clerks for short periods. While the services of the clerks are casual, they are in the course of the employer's trade or business and, therefore, not excepted.

Casual labor performed for a corporation does not come within this exception.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
• • • • •
(4) Service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel documented under the laws of the United States or of any foreign country; • • •

ART. 9. Service as officers and members of crews.—The expression "officers and members of the crew" includes the master or officer in charge of the vessel, however designated, and every individual, subject to his authority, serving on board and contributing in any way to the operation and welfare of the vessel. The exception extends, for example, to services rendered by the master, mates, pilots, pursers, surgeons, stewards, engineers, firemen, cooks, clerks, carpenters, deck hands, porters, and chambermaids, and by seal hunters and fishermen on sealing and fishing vessels.

The word "vessel" includes every description of watercraft or other contrivance, used as a means of transportation on water. It does not include any type of aircraft.

The expression "vessel documented under the laws of the United States or of any foreign country" means a vessel which is registered, enrolled, or licensed in conformity with the laws of the United States or any foreign country.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
• • • • •
(5) Service performed in the employ of the United States Government or of any instrumentality of the United States;
(6) Service performed in the employ of a State, a political subdivision thereof, or an instrumentality of one or more States or political subdivisions; • • •

ART. 10. Government employment.—Services performed in Federal and State employment are excepted. The exception extends to every service performed by an individual as an employee of the United States, the several States, the District of Columbia, or the Territory of Alaska or Hawaii, or any political subdivision or instrumentality thereof, including every unit or agency of government, without distinction between those exercising functions of a governmental nature and those exercising functions of a proprietary nature.

SECTION 210 (B) OF THE ACT

The term "employment" means any service • • • except—
• • • • •
(7) Service performed in the employ of a corporation, community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

ART. 11. Religious, charitable, scientific, literary, and educational organizations and community chests.—Services performed as an employee of an organization of the class specified in section 210 (b) (7) are excepted.

For the purpose of the exception the nature of the service is immaterial; the statutory test is the character of the organization for which the service is performed.

In all cases, in order to establish its status under the statutory classification, the organization must meet two tests:

(1) It must be organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the specified purposes; and
(2) Its net income must not inure in whole or in part to the benefit of private shareholders or individuals.

Corporations or other institutions organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes comprise, in general, organizations for the relief of the poor. The fact that an organization established for the relief of indigent persons may receive voluntary contributions from the persons intended to be relieved will not necessarily affect its status under the law.

An educational organization within the meaning of section 210 (b) (7) of the Act is one designed primarily for the improvement or development of the capabilities of the individual, but, under exceptional circumstances, may include an association whose sole purpose is the instruction of the public, or an association whose primary purpose is to give lectures on subjects useful to the individual and beneficial to the community, even though an association of either class has incidental amusement features. An organization formed, or availed of, to disseminate controversial or partisan propaganda or which by any substantial part of its activities attempts to influence legislation is not an educational organization within the meaning of section 210 (b) (7) of the Act.

Since a corporation or other institution to be within the prescribed class must be organized and operated exclusively for one or more of the specified purposes, an organization which has certain religious purposes and also manufactures and sells articles to the public for profit is not within the statutory class even though its property is held in common and its profits do not inure to the benefit of individual members of the organization.

An organization otherwise within the statutory class does not lose its status as such by receiving income such as rent, dividends and interest from investments, provided such income is devoted exclusively to one or more of the purposes specified in section 210 (b) (7) of the Act.

Money contributed by members of an organization to a common fund to be applied to the relief of the particular members of the organization or their families when in sickness, unemployed, in want, or under other disability, is not a charitable fund.

SECTIONS 1 (A) AND (B), AND 17 OF THE RAILROAD RETIREMENT ACT OF 1937

SECTION 1. For the purposes of this Act—
(a) The term "employer" means any carrier (as defined in subsection (m) of this section), and any company which is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by one or more such carriers or under common control therewith, and which operates any equipment or facility or performs any service (except trucking service, casual service, and the casual operation of equipment or facilities) in connection with the transportation of passengers or property by railroad, or the receipt, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, refrigeration or icing, storage, or handling of property transported by railroad, and any receiver, trustee, or other individual or body, judicial or otherwise, when in the possession of the property or operating all or any part of the business of any such employer: Provided, however, That the term "employer" shall not include any street, interurban, or suburban electric railway, unless such railway is operating as a part of a general steam-railroad system of transportation, but shall not exclude any part of the general steam-railroad system of transportation now or hereafter operated by any other motive power. The Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby authorized and directed upon request of the Board, or upon complaint of any party interested, to determine after hearing whether any line operated by electric power falls within the terms of this proviso. The term "employer" shall also include railroad associations, traffic associations, tariff bureaus, demurrage bureaus, weighing and inspection bureaus, collection agencies and other associations, bureaus, agencies, or organizations controlled and maintained wholly or principally by two or more employers as hereinbefore defined and engaged in the performance of services in connection with or incidental to railroad transportation; and railway labor organization, national in scope, which have been or may be organized in accordance with the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, and their State and National legislative committees and their general committees and their insurance departments and their local lodges and divisions, established pursuant to the constitution and bylaws of such organizations.
(b) The term "employee" means (1) any individual in the service of one or more employers for compensation, (2) any individual who is in the employment relation to one or more employers, and (3) an employee representative. The term "employee" shall include an employee of a local lodge or division defined as an employer in subsection (a) only if he was in the service of or in the employment relation to a carrier on or after the enactment date. The term "employee representative" means any officer or official representative of a railway labor organization other than a labor organization included in the term "employer" as defined in section 1 (a) who before or after the enactment date was in the service of an employer as defined in section 1 (a) and who is duly authorized and designated to represent employees in accordance with the Railway Labor Act, as amended, and any individual who is regularly assigned to or regularly employed by such officer or official representative in connection with the duties of his office.

SEC. 17. The term "employment", as defined in subsection (b) of section 210 of title II of the Social Security Act, shall not include service performed by an individual as an employee as defined in section 1(b).

ART. 12. Service under the Railroad Retirement Act.—Services performed as an employee as defined in section 1 (b) of the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937 are excepted.

SECTION 210 (A) OF THE ACT

The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include that part of the remuneration which, after remuneration equal to $3,000 has been paid to an individual by an employer with respect to employment during any calendar year, is paid to such individual by such employer with respect to employment during such calendar year.

SECTION 1101 (C) OF THE ACT

Whenever under this Act or any Act of Congress, or under the law of any State, an employer is required or permitted to deduct any amount from the remuneration of an employee and to pay the amount deducted to the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof, then for the purposes of this Act the amount so deducted shall be considered to have been paid to the employee at the time of such deduction.

ART. 13. Wages.—The term "wages" means all remuneration for employment (see article 2).

Wages may be either actually or constructively paid to the employee. Wages are constructively paid when they are credited to the account of or set apart for the employee so that they may be drawn upon by him at any time although not then actually reduced to possession. To constitute payment in such a case the wages must be credited or set apart to the employee without any substantial limitation or restriction as to the time or manner of payment or condition upon which payment is to be made, and must be made available to him so that they may be drawn at any time, and their receipt brought within his own control and disposition.

If the remuneration paid for employment performed during any calendar year by an employee for the same employer exceeds $3,000, the term does not include that part of such remuneration in excess of the first $3,000 thereof. The $3,000 limitation applies only if the remuneration received by an employee from the same employer for employment during any one calendar year exceeds $3,000. The limitation relates to remuneration for employment during any one calendar year and not to the amount of remuneration (irrespective of the year of employment) which is paid or received in any one calendar year.

Example 1: Employee A, in 1937, received $2,500 from employer B on account of $3,000 due him for services performed in 1937. In 1938 A receives from employer B the balance of $500 due him for services performed in the prior year (1937) and also $3,000 for services performed in 1938. Although A actually receives total remuneration of $3,500 during the calendar year 1938, that entire amount is included in total wages, i. e., $3,000 with respect to employment during 1938 and $500 with respect to employment during 1937 (this $500 added to the $2,500 paid in 1937 constitutes the $3,000 maximum wages from any one employer with respect to employment during the calendar year 1937).

If the employee has more than one employer during the calendar year, the limitation of wages to the first $3,000 of remuneration received applies to remuneration received from each employer with respect to employment during that year.

Example 2: Employee A receives from employer B a salary of $600 a month for employment by B during the first seven months of 1937, or a total remuneration of $4,200. At the end of the fifth month A has received $3,000 from employer B, and only that part of his total remuneration from B constitutes wages, included in total wages. The $600 received by employee A from employer B for employment during the sixth month, and the like amount received for employment during the seventh month, is not included in total wages. At the end of the seventh month A leaves the employ of B and enters the employ of C. A receives remuneration of $600 a month from C for the remaining five months of 1937, or a total remuneration of $3,000 from C. The entire $3,000 received by A from C constitutes wages and is included in total wages. Thus the first $3,000 received from B and the entire $3,000 received from C constitute wages.

Example 3: A is simultaneously an officer (an employee) of the X corporation, the Y corporation, and the Z corporation during the calendar year 1937, and receives a salary of $3,000 from each corporation. Each $3,000 received by A from each of the corporations X, Y, and Z (whether or not such corporations are related), constitutes wages, and is included in total wages.

Remuneration paid for employment and not excluded by the $3,000 limitation constitutes wages even though at the time paid the relationship of employer and employee no longer exists between the person for whom the services were performed and the individual who performed them.

Example 4: A is employed by B during the month of January, 1937, in an employment and for the services then performed for B, the employer, is entitled to receive remuneration of $100. A leaves B's employ at the close of business on January 31, 1937. On February 15, 1937 (when A is no longer an employee of B), B pays A the remuneration of $100 which was earned for the services performed in January. The $100 is wages within the meaning of the Act, and is included in total wages.

The name by which the remuneration for services is designated is immaterial. Thus, salaries, fees, bonuses, and commissions on sales or on insurance premiums, are wages within the meaning of the Act if paid by an employer to his employee as compensation for employment.

The basis upon which the remuneration is paid and the time of payment are immaterial in determining whether the remuneration constitutes wages. Thus, it may be paid on the basis of piecework, or a percentage of profits; and it may be paid hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, or annually.

The medium in which the remuneration is paid is also immaterial. It may be paid in cash or in something other than cash, such as goods, lodging, food, and clothing.

The amount of any tax which is deducted by the employer from the remuneration of an employee pursuant to section 802 (a) or which is within the meaning of section 1101 (c) is considered to be a part of the employee's wages, and is deemed to have been paid to the employee as wages at the time that the deduction was made.

Ordinarily, facilities or privileges (such as entertainment, cafeterias, restaurants, medical services, or so-called "courtesy" discounts on purchases), furnished or offered by an employer to his employees generally, are not considered as remuneration for services if such facilities or privileges are offered or furnished by the employer merely as a means of promoting the health, good will, contentment, or efficiency of his employees.

(See articles 14, 15.)

ART. 14. Exclusion from wages.—The following are excluded from the computation of "wages":

(a) All remuneration for services which are excepted by section 210 (b) of the Act as modified by the Railroad Retirement Act of 1937, or which are performed outside of the United States. (See articles 5 to 12, inclusive.)

(b) All remuneration for services performed during a particular calendar year, after the first $3,000 has been paid by the employer to the employee with respect to employment during that calendar year. (See article 13.)

(c) Tips or gratuities paid directly to an employee by a customer of an employer, and not in any way accounted for by the employee to the employer.

ART. 15. Items included as wages.—(a) General.—Wages paid with respect to employment during any calendar year include items paid in money and the fair value, at the time of payment, of all items other than money.

(b) Dismissal pay.—Payment to an employee of so-called dismissal pay, vacation allowances, or sick pay, constitutes wages.

(c) Traveling and other expenses.—Amounts paid to traveling salesmen or other employees as allowance or reimbursement for traveling or other expenses incurred in the business of the employer constitute wages only to the extent of the excess of such amounts over such expenses actually incurred and accounted for by the employee.

(d) Premiums on life insurance.—Generally, premiums paid by an employer on a policy of life insurance covering the life of an employee constitute wages if the employer is not a beneficiary under the policy. However, premiums paid by an employer on policies of group life insurance covering the lives of his employees are not wages, if the employee has no option to take the amount of the premiums instead of accepting the insurance and has no equity in the policy (such as the right of assignment or the right to the surrender value on termination of his employment).

(e) Deductions by an employer from remuneration of an employee.—Amounts deducted from the remuneration of an employee by an employer constitute wages paid to the employee at the time of such deduction. It is immaterial that the Act, or any Act of Congress or the law of any State, requires or permits such deduction and the payment of the amount thereof to the United States, a State, or any political subdivision thereof.

(f) Payments by employers into employees' funds.—Payments made by an employer into a stock bonus, pension, or profit-sharing fund constitute wages if such payments inure to the exclusive benefit of the employee and may be withdrawn by the employee at any time, or upon resignation or dismissal, or if the contract of employment requires such payments as part of the compensation. Whether or not under other circumstances such payments constitute wages depends upon the particular facts of each case.

CHAPTER II

OLD-AGE BENEFITS PAYABLE MONTHLY

SECTION 210 (C) OF THE ACT

(c) The term "qualified individual" means any individual with respect to whom it appears to the satisfaction of the Board that—

(1) He is at least sixty-five years of age; and
(2) The total amount of wages paid to him, with respect to employment after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five, was not less than $2,000; and
(3) Wages were paid to him, with respect to employment on some five days after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five, each day being in a different calendar year.

ART. 201. Qualification for monthly old-age benefit.—A wage earner must show to the satisfaction of the Board that he has fulfilled all the requirements of section 210 (c) in order to be entitled to receive an old-age benefit payable in monthly installments (see article 203, also Chapter III relating to benefits payable in lump sum).

SECTION 202 (A) AND (B) OF THE ACT

(a) Every qualified individual (as defined in section 210) shall be entitled to receive, with respect to the period beginning on the date he attains the age of sixty-five, or on January 1, 1942, whichever is the later, and ending on the date of his death, an old-age benefit (payable as nearly as practicable in equal monthly installments) as follows:

(1) If the total wages (as defined in section 210) determined by the Board to have been paid to him, with respect to employment (as defined in section 210) after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five, were not more than $3,000, the old-age benefit shall be at a monthly rate of one-half of 1 per centum of such total wages;
(2) If such total wages were more than $3,000, the old-age benefit shall be at a monthly rate equal to the sum of the following:
(A) One-half of 1 per centum of $3,000; plus
(B) One-twelfth of 1 per centum of the amount by which such total wages exceeded $3,000 and did not exceed $45,000; plus
(C) One-twenty-fourth of 1 per centum of the amount by which such total wages exceeded $45,000.

(b) In no case shall the monthly rate computed under subsection (a) exceed $85.

ART. 202. Amount of monthly old-age benefit.—The amount of the monthly old-age benefit payment is in general the graduated percentage (fixed by section 202 (a) and (b)) of the total wages found by the Board to have been paid the wage earner.

ART. 203. Applications for monthly old-age benefits.—Although under the provisions of section 210 (c) a wage earner may become qualified for monthly old-age benefits before January 1, 1942, under the provisions of section 202 (a) monthly payments of such benefits may not begin before that date. (Regulations relating to applications for monthly old-age benefits will be issued in ample time to enable qualified wage earners to file their claims properly.)

CHAPTER III

OLD-AGE BENEFITS PAYABLE IN LUMP SUM

SECTION 203 (A) OF THE ACT

(a) If any individual dies before attaining the age of sixty-five, there shall be paid to his estate an amount equal to 3½ per centum of the total wages determined by the Board to have been paid to him, with respect to employment after December 31, 1936.

SECTION 204 (A) AND (B) OF THE ACT

(a) There shall be paid in a lump sum to any individual who, upon attaining the age of sixty-five, is not a qualified individual, an amount equal to 3½ per centum of the total wages determined by the Board to have been paid to him, with respect to employment after December 31, 1936, and before he attained the age of sixty-five.

(b) After any individual becomes entitled to any payment under subsection (a), no other payment shall be made under this title in any manner measured by wages paid to him, except that any part of any payment under subsection (a) which is not paid to him before his death shall be paid to his estate.

ART. 301. Lump-sum benefit.—(a) Circumstances under which payable.—A lump-sum benefit is payable:

(1) If a wage earner has been paid wages for employment performed by him after 1936 and dies before attaining the age of 65, or

(2) If a wage earner has been paid wages for employment performed by him after 1936 and before attaining the age of 65 and upon attaining such age is not a qualified individual, or

(3) If a wage earner has been paid wages for employment performed by him after 1936 and before attaining the age of 65 and dies before receiving a benefit equal to at least 3½ per centum of such wages.

(b) Amount payable.—The amount of the lump-sum benefit payable is a sum equal to 3½ per centum of the total wages which the Board determines were paid to a wage earner with respect to employment performed by him after 1936 and before he attained age 65. If some benefit based on such wages has previously been paid, the amount otherwise payable as a lump sum is reduced by an amount equal to such prior benefit payment.

(See article 1 (j) relating to attainment of age 65; article 201 relating to qualified individuals, also articles 2 and 13 relating to "wages" and "employment", respectively.)

ART. 302. Applications for lump-sum benefit payment.—A lump-sum benefit will be certified for payment only upon application of the wage earner if he be living and competent; or if he be deceased or incompetent, upon application of his guardian, committee, or other legal representative, or of some person specified in article 311 or 312, who is entitled under the laws of the State in which the deceased wage earner was domiciled, to receive payment. Such application should be made on the prescribed form or forms and shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions printed thereon or attached thereto and in accordance with these regulations. Copies of the prescribed forms may be obtained from the Social Security Board at Washington, D. C., or at any of its field offices. Each application shall be prepared so as to set forth fully and clearly the data called for therein.

ART. 303. Prescribed forms.—The following forms of application for lump-sum benefit payment are hereby prescribed for use by the persons indicated:

Form OAC–1002 by a wage earner.

Form OAC–1003 by a widow or widower of a deceased wage earner.

Form OAC–1004 by relatives of a deceased wage earner.

Form OAC–1005 by an executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased wage earner.

Form OAC–1006 by a guardian or committee of a legally incompetent wage earner.

ART. 304. Execution of applications.—Each application shall be signed and, unless coming within an exception mentioned in this article, shall be verified under oath or affirmation by the person making the application. (See articles 302, 303, and 312 for persons permitted to make the application.) The oath or affirmation may be administered by any officer duly authorized to administer oaths for general purposes by the law of the United States or of any State or Territory, wherein such oath is administered, or by a consular officer of the United States. If a foreign notary or other official having no seal acts as attesting officer, the authority of such attesting officer should be certified to by some judicial officer or other proper officer having knowledge of the appointment and official character of the attesting officer.

Where the application is signed by a legal representative, whose appointment is evidenced by attached certified copies of letters testamentary or of administration, or the order of his appointment as executor, administrator, committee, or guardian, such application need not be verified under oath or affirmation.

Where the benefit payable to the applicant is less than $100 and a certificate of identification is properly executed within the United States on Form OAC–1013 in accordance with the instructions on or attached to such form, such application need not be verified under oath or affirmation.

ART. 305. Place of filing application.—Applications and supporting data shall be filed, by mail or otherwise, with the Bureau of Federal Old-Age Benefits of the Board at Washington, D. C., or with any field office of the Board.

ART. 306. Time of filing application.—Applications and supporting data shall be considered filed as of the date they are received by the Bureau of Federal Old-Age Benefits of the Board at Washington, D. C., or by any field office of the Board.

ART. 307. Proof of age.—(a) If the total amount of the lump-sum benefit payable is $100 or less, or if application is made for a benefit payable on the death of a wage earner, the statement contained in the application as to the wage earner's date of birth will ordinarily be sufficient. However, the applicant on written notice from the Board may be required to furnish the corroborative evidence of the date of birth set forth in paragraph (b) of this article. Generally such corroborative evidence will not be required unless (1) the date of birth stated in the application is at variance with the date of birth as shown by the records of the Board; (2) the records of the Board do not show the date of birth of the wage earner; (3) the wage earner failed to apply for an account number; or (4) there is reason to suspect misrepresentation by the applicant.

(b) If required by written notice from the Board, or if payment is to be made under section 204 (a) and the total amount of the lump-sum benefit payable exceeds $100, the date of the birth of the wage earner shall be corroborated by the applicant by the following evidence:

(1) A certified copy of, or a statement as to the date of birth shown by, a public record of the birth, or

(2) A certified copy of a church record of infant baptism, or

(3) A sworn statement of two other persons having knowledge thereof, or

(4) Such evidence as shall be deemed by the Board to be of probatory value acceptable to the Board. The certification required under either (1) or (2) above shall be made by the custodian charged with the duty of preserving such records.

ART. 308. Proof of death.—In each case where application is made for a lump-sum benefit payable upon the death of a wage earner, the applicant shall attach to his application proof of the death of such wage earner. Such proof shall be provided as follows, in the order given:

(1) A statement signed by the undertaker or attending physician, or superintendent, physician, or intern of the institution where deceased died, or by the custodian of the public record of death identifying the deceased and stating the time and place of death, or

(2) A copy of the public record of the State or community where death occurred, certified to by the custodian of such records, or a duly certified copy of a coroner's report of death, or of the verdict of the coroner's jury of the State or community where death occurred, provided that such report or verdict properly identifies the deceased, or a photostatic or photographic copy of such certified evidences of death.

(3) If the evidence specified in (1) and (2) above cannot be obtained, and satisfactory reason for failure to provide it is shown, the death of the individual may be established by affidavits of persons who have personal knowledge thereof and have viewed the body of the person whose death is in question, setting forth facts and circumstances concerning the death, including the place, date, time, and cause thereof, or such other evidence as will establish death to the satisfaction of the Board.

(4) Where death occurs outside of the United States there shall be furnished a report of the death by a United States Consul, or other agent of the State Department, bearing the signature and official seal of the United States Consul, or a certified copy of the public record of death authenticated by the United States Consul or other agent of the State Department.

ART. 309. Proof of relationship.—Statements in the application as to the family relationship of the applicant to the deceased wage earner ordinarily need not be corroborated. However, such substantiating evidence of relationship may be required as the Board deems necessary for a proper adjudication of the particular case.

ART. 310. Employers' statements.—As corroborating evidence of the amount of wages paid to the wage earner with respect to employment after December 31, 1936, there should be attached to each application for lump-sum benefit, statements on Form OAC–1001 ("Statement of Employer") signed by the employer or former employer of the wage earner or the employer's duly authorized agent, with respect to any wages not corroborated by other evidence acceptable to the Board. If benefits are payable to more than one individual, it shall be unnecessary for such employers' statements to accompany more than one application.

An applicant who is unable to obtain the statement from an employer shall state in his application the reason for such failure and the name and address of the employer from whom a statement could not be obtained. If the name and address of the employer is unknown, there shall be set forth in the application such information as to place, date, and nature of services performed by the wage earner as will assist in identifying such employer.

ART. 311. Applications by guardian, committee, executor or administrator.—Applications filed by a guardian or a committee shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the order appointing such guardian or committee. Applications filed by an executor, or administrator appointed by a court, shall be accompanied by a duly certified copy of the letters of appointment as such representative, showing that at the time of certification, the appointment is still in force and effect and the representative qualified thereunder.

If, however, an application filed by a guardian, committee, executor or administrator is for an amount less than $100 there may be substituted in lieu of a certified copy of the order appointing such guardian or committee or of the letters of appointment as called for above, a duly executed certificate under the seal of the court making the appointment, and signed by the proper official of the appointing court, stating the name of the deceased, or the person under disability, the name of the person appointed by the court, his legal designation as appointee, and that such appointment is in force and effect.

If an application is filed by a State official who is authorized by State law to receive and distribute estate moneys and give receipt acquitting the payor of such moneys of indebtedness to the estate, such State official must indicate his full title, followed by a concise statement of his appointment and the fact that there are known to him lawful distributees of the assets of the estate, and there should be filed with the application a certified true copy of his documentary authority to receive and distribute.

Certification of any court order of appointment made more than six months prior to the date on which the application is filed with the Board is not acceptable. The Board may require a recertification at any time prior to final adjudication of the claim whenever, in its judgment, such action is necessary to establish the authority of the applicant to represent the estate.

SECTION 205 OF THE ACT

If any amount payable to an estate under section 203 or 204 is $500 or less, such amount may, under regulations prescribed by the Board be paid to the persons found by the Board to be entitled thereto under the law of the State in which the deceased was domiciled, without the necessity of compliance with the requirements of law with respect to the administration of such estate.

ART. 312. Discretionary payments under section 205.—Discretionary power is vested in the Board to make payments of amounts of $500 or less, otherwise payable to an estate, to applicants found by the Board to be entitled thereto under the law of the State in which the deceased wage earner was domiciled. Such payments will not be made unless the wage earner is survived by at least one of the following persons:

his spouse, child, grandchild, or parent, and unless the Board finds that each of the following situations exist:

(1) No executor or administrator has been appointed to administer the estate of the deceased wage earner and it is affirmed to the best knowledge, information, and belief of the applicant that no such representative will be appointed, and

(2) The law of the State of the decedent's domicile would not require payment in the particular case to any creditor of the deceased, and

(3) Either it is affirmed to the best knowledge, information, and belief of the applicant that deceased left no will or instrument appearing to be a will, or the Board finds that while the deceased left an instrument appearing to be a will, each of the following situations exist:

(a) The law of the State in which the deceased was last domiciled does not require the probate of such will, and

(b) It is affirmed to the best knowledge, information, and belief of the applicant that the instrument will not be probated, and

(c) Payment may be lawfully made under the intestacy law of the State.

Even though the foregoing conditions are met, the Board may, in a particular case, determine not to exercise its discretionary power to make payment under section 205.

ART. 313. Affidavits and statements to be part of application.—Affidavits, statements, correspondence, and any other evidence filed with the Board by any person in support of or relating to his application for benefits provided by title II shall become a part of such application.

ART. 314. Burden of proof.—The burden of proof in establishing the right to, and the amount of, a payment under title II of the Act, rests upon the applicant.

ART. 315. Abandoned applications.—Whenever, after the filing of an application, additional evidence or statements are requested by the Board to establish an applicant's right to benefits, the applicant's failure to comply with such request, or his disregard thereof, for a period of one year thereafter shall be considered an abandonment of the application. Whenever it is so abandoned, the Board will take further action only upon receipt of a new application. All evidence previously submitted in support of the original application may, in the discretion of the Board, be used in connection with the new application.

CHAPTER IV

METHOD OF MAKING PAYMENTS

SECTION 207 OF THE ACT

The Board shall from time to time certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the name and address of each person entitled to receive a payment under this title, the amount of such payment, and the time at which it should be made, and the Secretary of the Treasury through the Division of Disbursement of the Treasury Department, and prior to audit or settlement by the General Accounting Office, shall make payment in accordance with the certification by the Board.

SECTION 208 OF THE ACT

The right of any person to any future payment under this title shall not be transferable or assignable, at law or in equity, and none of the moneys paid or payable or rights existing under this title shall be subject to execution, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal process, or to the operation of any bankruptcy or insolvency law.

ART. 401. Method of making payments.—When the Board has found, from the evidence before it, that an applicant is entitled to receive payment of a benefit under title II of the Act, and has determined the amount of such benefit, it will certify to the Secretary of the Treasury the name and address of such applicant, the amount of such benefit, and the time at which payment should be made. No transferee or assignee of any person entitled to any future payment under title II will be certified by the Board to the Secretary of the Treasury for payment.

CHAPTER V

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SECTION 209 OF THE ACT

Whoever in any application for any payment under this title makes any false statement as to any material fact, knowing such statement to be false, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both.

SECTION 35 OF THE CRIMINAL CODE OF THE UNITED STATES, AS AMENDED

Whoever shall make or cause to be made or present or cause to be presented, for payment or approval, to or by any person or officer in the civil, military, or naval service of the United States, or any department thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, any claim upon or against the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, knowing such claim to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent; or whoever shall knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal or cover up by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact, or make or cause to be made any false or fraudulent statements or representations, or make or use or cause to be made or used any false bill, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition, knowing the same to contain any fraudulent or fictitious statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States or of any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder; * * * or whoever shall enter into any agreement, combination, or conspiracy to defraud the Government of the United States, or any department or officer thereof, or any corporation in which the United States of America is a stockholder, by obtaining or aiding to obtain the payment or allowance of any false or fraudulent claim; * * * shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both. * * *

AUTHORITY FOR REGULATIONS

SECTION 1102 OF THE ACT

The Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of Labor, and the Social Security Board, respectively, shall make and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, as may be necessary to the efficient administration of the functions with which each is charged under this Act.

In pursuance of sections 205 and 1102 of the Act, the foregoing regulations this day adopted by the Board are hereby prescribed this July 20, 1937.

SECTION 2. Subject to the conditions expressed in the above-mentioned acts and to all valid existing rights, all vacant, unappropriated, and unreserved public lands within the above-described area are hereby temporarily withdrawn from settlement, location, sale or entry, and reserved and set apart for use and development by the Department of Agriculture for soil erosion control and other land utilization activities in connection with the Mills Project, LA–NM 5: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall restrict prospecting, locating, developing, mining, entering, leasing, or patenting the mineral resources of the lands under the applicable laws.

SECTION 3. This order shall be applicable to all lands within the area described in Section 1 hereof upon the cancellation, termination or release of prior entries, selections, rights, appropriations, or claims, or upon the revocation of prior withdrawals, unless expressly otherwise provided in the order of revocation.

SECTION 4. The reservation made by Section 2 of this order shall remain in force until revoked by the President or by act of Congress.

Bureau of Internal Revenue.

[T. D. 4751]

TAX ON TELEGRAPH, TELEPHONE, RADIO AND CABLE FACILITIES; TRANSPORTATION OF OIL BY PIPE LINE, AND ELECTRICAL ENERGY [1]

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Titles IV and V of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended by section 212 of the National Industrial Recovery Act (approved June 16, 1933), and Public Resolution No. 36, 74th Congress (approved June 28, 1935), were further amended by Public Resolution No. 48, 75th Congress (approved June 29, 1937), which reads, in part, as follows:

"That title IV, as amended, and parts I, II, III, and IV, of title V, as amended, of the Revenue Act of 1932, are further amended by striking out '1937' wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof '1939'."

In conformity with the provisions of law quoted above, Articles 1, 8, and 25 of Regulations 42 (Revised October 1932), as amended by Treasury Decision 4382, approved August 9, 1933, and Treasury Decision 4570, approved July 24, 1935, and Article 39 of Regulations 42, as amended by Treasury Decision 4393, approved September 20, 1933, and Treasury Decision 4570, approved July 24, 1935, are further amended as follows:

ART. 1. Effective period.—The tax is imposed upon payments for the transmission by telegraph, telephone, cable, or radio of dispatches, messages, and conversations originating in the United States on or after June 21, 1932, and before July 1, 1939, regardless of the date of payment.

ART. 8. Effective period.—The tax imposed under section 701 (a) (2) attaches to the amount paid on or after June 21, 1932, for any leased wire or talking circuit special service furnished on or after June 21, 1932, and before July 1, 1939. If the rendition of the service occurs within the effective period of the law the tax attaches thereto even though the payment therefor is made on or after July 1, 1939.

ART. 25. Effective period.—The tax imposed under section 731 applies to all transportation of crude petroleum and liquid products thereof by pipe line where the movement begins on or after June 21, 1932, and before July 1, 1939, except that the tax under section 731 (a) (1) is imposed only when payment for the transportation is made on or after June 21, 1932. In the case of any such transportation by pipe line where the movement originates prior to July 1, 1939, and ends on or after that date, the tax attaches to the entire amount charged for the transportation, although paid on or after July 1, 1939.

ART. 39. Effective period.—The tax applies to electrical energy sold on or after September 1, 1933, and before July 1, 1939.

This Treasury Decision is issued under the authority contained in sections 628 and 773 of the Revenue Act of 1932.

STAMP TAXES ON ISSUES AND TRANSFERS OF STOCKS AND BONDS, SALES OF PRODUCE FOR FUTURE DELIVERY, AND DEEDS OF CONVEYANCE [1]

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Title V of the Revenue Act of 1932 has been amended by Public Resolution No. 48, 75th Congress, approved June 29, 1937, which reads, in part, as follows:

"That * * * parts I, II, III, and IV, of title V, as amended, of the Revenue Act of 1932, are further amended by striking out '1937' wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof '1939'. * * *"

In conformity with the provisions of the law above quoted, article 2 of Regulations No. 71, approved July 16, 1932, as amended by Treasury Decision 4383 and Treasury Decision 4569, is further amended to read as follows:

ART. 2. Effective period.—The stamp tax provisions of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1928, are still in full force and effect, except as amended by the Revenue Acts of 1932 and 1934 and the Act of June 29, 1936. The amendments made by the Revenue Act of 1932 are effective on and after June 21, 1932. The amendment made by the Revenue Act of 1934 is effective on and after May 11, 1934. The amendment made by the Act of June 29, 1936, is effective on and after that date. The rates of tax, as well as the additional taxes imposed by the amendments made by the Revenue Acts of 1932 and 1934 to Schedule A of Title VIII of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1928, are effective only to and including June 30, 1939.

This Treasury Decision is issued under the authority contained in section 1101 of the Revenue Act of 1926.

TAX ON ADMISSIONS [1]

To Collectors of Internal Revenue and Others Concerned:

Section 711 (e) of the Revenue Act of 1932, as amended by section 212 of the National Industrial Recovery Act (approved June 16, 1933), and Public Resolution No. 36, 74th Congress (approved June 28, 1935), was further amended by Public Resolution No. 48, 75th Congress (approved June 29, 1937), which reads, in part, as follows:

"That title IV, as amended, and parts I, II, III, and IV, of title V, as amended, of the Revenue Act of 1932, are further amended by striking out '1937' wherever appearing therein and inserting in lieu thereof '1939'."

In conformity with the provisions of law quoted above, Article 57 of Regulations 43 (Revised June 1932), as amended by Treasury Decision 4379, approved August 9, 1933, and Treasury Decision 4571, approved July 24, 1935, is further amended as follows:

ART. 57. Effective date of change in exemption.—The sums paid for admission which are not subject to tax under section 500 (a) (1) of the Revenue Act of 1926, as amended by section 711 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1932, are those which are "less than 41 cents." Effective July 1, 1939, any sum of "83 or less" paid for admission will not be taxable. The time of payment and not the time of admission will govern in determining which exemption is applicable. Consequently, if a person should purchase a ticket of admission for an amount in excess of 40 cents where the payment was made before July 1, 1939, for an admission to take place after that date, the payment so made would be subject to tax.

1. Prior regulations cancelled.—Navy Department regulations entitled "Photographs of Naval Subjects", Federal Register Document 117, filed March 30 and published March 31, 1936 (Federal Register No. 12, Volume 1, Part 1, page 73) is hereby cancelled and the following regulation issued pursuant to Article 124 United States Navy Regulations 1920, as authorized by Section 1547 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

2. Purpose.—(a) The purpose of this regulation is to further expedite the release and publication of photographs and motion pictures portraying nonconfidential Navy matter beneficial alike to the public and to the Navy. To accomplish this it has been found necessary to decentralize the administration of the taking of photographs of naval subjects insofar as consistent with the security of information, which in the interest of national defense, must be permanently or at least temporarily limited in circulation.

(b) The complete protection of secret or confidential matter from compromise by means of photography depends upon the knowledge of the officer in charge as to the secret or confidential nature of the material, and upon the physical covering of any particular item within the field of the camera. To secure this protection the responsibility for the photographs taken, except as herein otherwise provided, is placed upon the officer in command at the place where the subject is photographed.

3. Responsibility.—(a) Subject to these instructions and orders from higher naval authority, commanding officers of naval vessels, naval inspectors, commandants of navy yards, and commanding officers of other shore stations shall have full cognizance of and responsibility for the making of photographs within their naval jurisdiction whether by naval personnel or by others than naval personnel.

(b) In order to preclude intentional or unintentional disclosure of information which should not be made public, the making of all photographs within naval jurisdiction shall be supervised by those in authority at the place where the photographs are taken. The supervising officer is authorized and directed to suspend the taking of photographs of any type immediately if, in his opinion, any danger of compromising confidential material arises and to report the circumstances to his commanding officer or authorizing authority.

(c) When competent authority higher than the commanding officer of a ship or station authorizes the taking of photographs such authorization in no way relieves the local authority from responsibility regarding supervision, censorship, and release of photographs taken except as specified in the order authorizing the photographs.

(d) For the purpose of these regulations any matter of such nature that its disclosure might endanger the national security or cause serious injury to the interests or prestige of the United States or be of great advantage to a foreign nation, shall be held to be "secret"; any matter of a similar nature, but to a lesser degree, shall be considered to be "confidential"; and all such matter of a nature that its disclosure shall be limited for reasons of administrative efficiency to the naval service shall be considered to be "restricted". Neither secret, confidential, nor restricted matter shall be subject to photography.

(e) Where there is doubt as to the advisability of making or releasing any photograph for publication, reference, with recommendation, will be made to the Chief of Naval Operations. When a photograph is referred to the Navy Department for review, an addditional copy will be furnished for the Department files.

(f) (1) When a photograph (still) is released, a file copy of the photograph and a record with the following information will be kept:

Title and office file number _____

Date _____

To _____
(Name of receiver and company, if any)

By _____
(Signature of releasor)

Station _____
(Ship or office)

Taken by _____
(Source of photograph)

(2) When an "official Navy photograph" is issued to any person or activity outside naval jurisdiction for unrestricted use, it will bear the following statement written or stamped on the back:

(Ship or station)

RELEASED OFFICIAL NAVY PHOTOGRAPH

If Published, credit line must read

"OFFICIAL U. S. NAVY PHOTOGRAPH"

(g) (1) When the supervision of the taking of photographs has been such as to preclude the inclusion of subjects prohibited for release, the officer granting permission to take these pictures may release them immediately for publication without prior inspection of the prints and negatives, subject to subsequent compliance with paragraph (f) above. The provisions of this paragraph do not relieve the officer releasing the unseen photographs from his responsibility as specified in subparagraph 3 (a).

(2) Unofficial pictures taken outside naval jurisdiction by naval personnel do not require review by naval authority.

(h) After a photograph has been retained in file for 1 year, the photograph may be eliminated from file by forwarding the file print and record of release to the following offices:

(1) Photographs filed in photographic laboratories under the cognizance of the Bureau of Aeronautics will be handled in accordance with the provisions of the Bureau of Aeronautics Manual.

(2) Technical photographs to cognizant bureaus.

(3) Other photographs, in released status, to recruiting bureau: (New York, N. Y.).

(4) Other photographs, in unreleased status, to the Chief of Naval Operations, including all prints and negatives.

4. Photographs by naval personnel—(a) Official photographers.—A commanding officer, or higher authority, may grant persons in the naval service permission to act as the official photographers for the activity under his jurisdiction. Such permission does not relieve the authorizing officer from responsibility for supervision, censorship, and release of photographs taken. The development of negatives and printing will be accomplished under naval jurisdiction.

(b) Privately owned cameras on board ship.—Cameras are permitted to naval personnel on board naval ships for taking pictures outside naval jurisdiction. While on board cameras will be in the custody of the commanding officer. Under no circumstances will they be used aboard ship without official permission and competent supervision. (Paragraph 3 (g) (2)).

5. Civilian photographers (still pictures).—(a) In order to facilitate identification of persons known to be engaged in photographic work and to have a legitimate interest in naval subjects, commandants of naval districts may issue annual photographer's identification cards to persons of United States citizenship, good only for the calendar year in which issued. These cards will not constitute authorization for taking pictures. The identification card will bear the photograph and signature of the person to whom issued, both stamped with the seal of the issuing office.

(b) Permission for civilians to take photographs which involves taking passage on a naval ship or aircraft will be granted only by special authority of the Navy Department, except that in cases of natural catastrophe or other emergency where prompt action is indispensable, the senior officer present may authorize the passage of photographers on a naval ship or aircraft. In such event full report of the circumstances will be made to the Navy Department.

(c) Commanding officers of ships and aircraft on which civilian photographers are taking passage are responsible, in accordance with the provisions of this general order, for all photographs taken by such photographers.

(d) In order not to adversely affect the interests of organizations engaged in photographic work, requests to make photographs featuring naval subjects will not be made known to competitors. But if more than one request is received equal privileges will be granted to all applicants at the discretion and convenience of the naval authorities concerned. Should it be impracticable for more than one photographer to cover the subject, the photographer selected will be chosen by lot with the understanding, before he is chosen, that he is required to cover the event equitably for all parties who have requested permission. The terms of this equitable agreement shall be set forth before choice by lot is made, and failure of the chosen party to comply fully with such agreements will bar him from further photographic privileges.

(e) Before permission to take photographs (still) within naval jurisdiction is granted, it will be expressly agreed by the civilian photographer that:

(1) The Navy will be given one copy of every photograph (still) taken, for its noncommercial use without reference to and entirely independent of any copyright.

(2) Two prints of each photograph taken will be submitted to the authorizing officer for censorship—one print for the censoring authority's file and one print for return to photographer if released by censor, except 1 print only required under conditions stated in paragraph 3 (g) (1).

(3) All prints not released by the censor and their negatives will become the property of the Navy for noncommercial use.

(4) Only those photographs specifically released by the censor will be made public.

(5) In event any photograph in this category is to be used in connection with an advertisement, all copy and text to appear with the photograph will be submitted to naval authority for censorship prior to release of the advertisement. (See Commercial Advertising, Federal Register Volume 1, Part 1, page 74, Federal Register Document 119.)

(f) Civilian photographers shall be informed that the retention of negatives or prints or the publishing of photographs in violation of their agreements or failure to deliver negatives or prints to proper naval authority upon demand may render them liable to prosecution under the Espionage Act.

(g) In order to protect the interests of the Navy without adversely affecting the interests of organizations engaged in photographic work, whenever a civilian photographer ("still" or "motion picture") is authorized to take pictures of a naval subject an officer or other qualified expert will be detailed to act in an advisory capacity to the photographer in order to prevent the disclosure of objects which the Navy does not wish to be photographed. Experience has shown that a majority of the pictures requiring censorship could have been released for publication were it not for inadvertent disclosure of confidential matter in the background. Attention is invited to paragraph 2 (b) of these regulations.

6. Motion pictures, commercial.—(a) The Chief of Naval Operations may authorize naval cooperation with commercial motion picture producers in recognition of the value to both the public at large and the naval service in the production of accurate portrayals of naval life. The cooperation between the motion-picture producers and the Navy will involve, on the part of the motion-picture producers, agreement in writing to adhere to the restrictions imposed by this order and, on the part of the Navy, assistance to the motion-picture producers in the technical supervision of the taking of the picture to prevent the inclusion of matter not desired to be made public. The procedure for censorship of these pictures depends upon whether they are photoplays or newsreels.

(b) Photoplays.—(1) The Chief of Naval Operations requires that the scenarios of photoplays be reviewed by the Navy Motion Picture Board of Review prior to authorizing naval cooperation.

(2) The naval authority designated to cooperate with the producing company will provide, in the interest of security, for naval supervision of all footage taken within naval jurisdiction, and where practicable, for prompt local provisional censorship of such footage as may be considered questionable for release by the supervisor. The local provisional censorship is for the purpose of promptly bringing to the attention of both the producing company and the Navy Department, film which is questionable and is not for the purpose of censoring script or dialogue. One print of all the questioned footage for the given production will be forwarded as confidential matter by the naval authority concerned to the Chief of Naval Operations. The producing company will be informed when the questioned film is forwarded to the Chief of Naval Operations.

(3) All photoplays produced with naval cooperation will be submitted by the producing company to the Chief of Naval Operations for review and censorship by the Navy Motion Picture Board of Review, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., prior to release.

(4) Whenever a photoplay is produced with naval cooperation, the Navy Department reserves the right to acquire without cost two positive prints of every such photoplay, and to use them in any manner it may see fit, except that these prints shall not be used commercially nor shall they be exhibited at shore stations until out of their prerelease status.

(c) Newsreels.—Newsreels of naval subjects for which naval cooperation is granted will be accorded naval supervision in accordance with paragraph 5 (g) of this order. Newsreels of this category will be forwarded by the producing company to the Commandant, Third Naval District, New York, for censorship and they will not be released by the producing company until they have been approved by the Commandant, Third Naval District, in accordance with existing orders and instructions issued by the Navy Department.

(d) In view of the strict control exercised over motion pictures taken in naval jurisdiction, and in order to meet the legitimate requirements of motion-picture producers for scenes of a spectacular nature, motion-picture photographs of simple fleet maneuvers, aircraft in flight, distant views of ships firing, interior views of living quarters, and similar scenes which do not disclose information of a confidential nature may be permitted subject to final censorship.

(e) When the Navy Department Board of Review or the Commandant, Third Naval District, censors and condemns any footage, the producing company will promptly submit all prints, "lavenders", and negatives of the footage to the censoring authority, together with a signed statement that all prints, "lavenders", or negatives of any nature made from the disapproved footage have been surrendered to naval authority.

7. Technical photographs.—(a) Photographs required by Navy contracts in connection with the manufacture or construction of articles for the Navy will be handled as part of the contract and under the same restrictions as apply to drawings and other matter under the contract.

(b) Photographs of articles other than those of a strictly commercial character being manufactured for or under construction for the Navy, taken by or on order of the contractors and not required by the terms of the contract, will be subject to the supervision and control of the Navy inspector concerned. When a photograph of this category is released to the contractor for unrestricted use or publication, the provisions of paragraph 3, subparagraph (f) of this order will be complied with, and in addition, one copy of the released photograph, with the release date written on the back, will be forwarded to the bureau having cognizance.

(c) Photographic prints required by contractors in the execution of Navy contracts will be handled in accordance with instructions governing documents, plans, etc., according to the classification of the subject matter.

(d) In view of the legitimate demand for the release of photographs of new vessels in the interest of publicity, one photograph taken on builder's trials may be released on commissioning of the vessel. The speed being made when the photograph was taken will not be disclosed. On commissioning, the prints and negatives of photographs taken of trial and acceptance runs will be forwarded to the Bureau of Construction and Repair.

8. General guide.—(a) The censorship of photographs requires the use of sound judgment on the part of the responsible officers in order to permit the prompt release and publication of such photographs and motion pictures as will be beneficial alike to the public and to the Navy, while at the same time protecting subjects which are of a confidential nature or which it is to the interest of the Navy to restrict for official use only. It must be kept in mind that to publish a list of the specific items which are considered most confidential would be the first step leading to compromise. As a consequence it is necessary to designate confidential items in fairly broad classifications and administer the security thereof in accordance with a uniform policy. Photographs listed in subparagraph (b) below will not be released by the Navy Department unless substantial reasons are given to support such action.

(b) Photographs not to be released without reference to Navy Department:

(1) Photographs which disclose information classified as secret, confidential, or restricted. General description of such subjects found in paragraph 3 (d) of these regulations. Information on specific items may be obtained from Navy Department.

(2) Naval dry docks or ships therein.

(3) Ships under construction and mechanical devices intended for use thereon.

(4) Any picture taken on board ship showing details of armament, fire-control equipment, interior views, or special details of construction.

(5) Underwater body views of naval vessels.

(6) Any phase of naval gunnery or any details of ordnance equipment.

(7) Fleet dispositions and tactical maneuvers.

(8) Landing-force operations and equipment.

(9) Smoke screens.

(10) Naval radio and sound equipment.

(11) Aerial photographs of United States Navy Yards, stations, and bases; United States Army posts, forts, depots, and stations; foreign ports and harbors.

(12) Aerial photographs of strategic areas as designated by the Secretary of the Navy and airspace reservations as designated by the President of the United States.

(c) Photographs which may be released.—(1) Photographs taken on occasions of ceremony; of athletic events; of personnel, single or group; or other proper subjects involving personnel or naval life.

(2) Photographs of naval subjects which could be readily obtained from passing ships or boats except those specifically prohibited under subparagraph (b) above.

(3) Photographs of ships at sea singly or in simple formations which do not disclose fleet tactical dispositions.

9. General.—(a) Photographs of potential strategic or historic value, without regard to release status, will be forwarded to the Chief of Naval Operations.

(b) Whenever a naval vessel obtains photographs relative to some incident or event of a Nation-wide current public interest, particularly in case representatives of the American press are not present, such photographs as are suitable for release to the press will be forwarded as promptly as feasible to the Commandant, Third Naval District.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 26]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR A HEARING TO DETERMINE THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE IN BITUMINOUS COAL IN THE STATE OF IOWA AND THE EFFECT OF SUCH COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN SUCH COAL, TO BE HELD AT DES MOINES, IOWA, ON AUGUST 9, 1937, BEFORE AN EXAMINER AND NOTICE THEREOF

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, upon being advised by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties in a public hearing held at the Commission's Hearing Room at Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of July, 1937, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the State of Iowa directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and will cause undue and unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice as between such commerce in Iowa on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is provided to be regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, and that a hearing to determine the effect of intrastate transactions in bituminous coal upon interstate transactions in bituminous coal in the State of Iowa would be desirable, and upon investigation hereby orders:

1. That on August 9, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Kirkwood Hotel, Des Moines, Iowa, a public hearing will be held to determine the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the state of Iowa, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Iowa in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4–A of said Act.

2. That said hearing will be conducted by an Examiner designated by the Commission.

3. That interested parties may appear and present evidence at such hearing.

4. That any producer believing that particular transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal are not subject to the provisions of the first paragraph of Section 4–A will, subsequent to the final order of the Commission in the proceeding herein noticed, be afforded full opportunity to file an application for exemption as provided in said section, upon which application a hearing will thereafter be held by the Commission upon proper notice given.

5. That failure of any producer to appear and present evidence at the hearing herein noticed to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, on August 9, 1937, will not prejudice the case of any producer to be heard upon such application.

6. That this order and notice shall not be construed as making any person receiving a copy thereof a party to this proceeding within the provision of Section 6 (b) of the Act.

7. That the Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this notice to each known producer of bituminous coal in the State of Iowa and to the secretaries of all of the district boards, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission copy of this order and notice for three (3) days in newspapers of general circulation in the counties of Iowa in which bituminous coal is produced.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 21st day of July, 1937.

[General Order No. 250]

PRESUMED LAWFUL ENTRY OF CERTAIN ALIENS INTO THE UNITED STATES FROM CANADA OR MEXICO

JULY 22, 1937.

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority conferred by Section 23 of the Immigration Act of 1917 (Act of February 5, 1917, 39 Stat. 892; U. S. C., Ti. 8, sec. 102), the following regulations are hereby prescribed:

PARAGRAPH 1. Citizens of Canada or Newfoundland who entered the United States across the Canadian border at a designated port of entry prior to October 1, 1906, and citizens of Mexico who so entered across the Mexican border prior to July 1, 1908, shall, for reentry purposes, be presumed to have been lawfully admitted, even though no record of their original entry can be found.

PAR. 2. Any alien within the terms of paragraph 1 shall upon application for readmission to the United States be inspected and be subject to the requirements of the immigration laws and regulations the same as if the original presumed lawful entry was by recorded admission for permanent residence; and if no record exists of a reentry since such presumed lawful entry, the alien shall be regularly manifested for the purpose of recording the application for readmission.

PAR. 3. No certificate of arrival will be issued to an alien within the terms of paragraph 1 to cover an original presumed lawful entry. Such a certificate will be issued with respect to reentry of such an alien where there is a manifest record showing that the reentry was by lawful admission for permanent residence.

PAR. 4. Nothing herein shall be deemed to preclude an alien qualified to do so from applying for registration under the Act of March 2, 1929.

General Order No. 174 of April 16, 1931, is hereby repealed.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE TATLOCK-GULF-PONCIN TRACT, FILED ON JULY 15, 1937, BY R. A. COOK, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 2 (e), as to whether or not the interest offered is perpetual;

(2) In that the number of drilling wells, which is required to be given under Division II, Item 13, is omitted;

(3) In that the information given in Division II, Items 18 (a), (e) and (h), does not agree with similar information disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the figures set forth under Division II, Items 20 (d) and (e), are not believed to be correctly calculated if the information contained in Division II, Item 1, and Exhibit B is considered;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE WILCOX-NEUFELD TRACT, FILED ON JULY 15, 1937, BY SOUTHWEST ROYALTIES COMPANY, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that the information given in Division II, Item 20 (b), of the offering sheet, relative to the percentage of water in fluid produced, is not believed to be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS AMENDED—TESTIMONY OF CUSTOMS OFFICERS AND PRODUCTION OF COPIES OF OFFICIAL RECORDS IN LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

To Collectors of Customs and Others Concerned:

Pursuant to the authority contained in section 161 of the Revised Statutes (U. S. C., title 5, sec. 22) and section 624 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (U. S. C., title 19, sec. 1624), paragraph (e) of article 1449 of the Customs Regulations of 1931, as amended by T. D. 48047, is further amended to read as follows:

(e) (1) The information contained in invoices, entries, manifests, export declarations, official reports of investigating officers and other papers or documents, filed with customs officers for any official purpose, must be treated as confidential, except for the purpose for which such documents are required to be filed. All officers and employees of the customs service are prohibited, unless specially authorized to do so by the Bureau or by these regulations, from giving out information contained in such papers and documents except to the importer or exporter (in the case of export documents) or other party directly in interest or to his authorized agent.

(2) In answer to a legal process or demand from a court issued in behalf of the United States or an officer thereof, customs officers or employees shall produce in court in customs custody, and may testify with respect to, any official customs papers or documents demanded. When any such process or demand is issued in behalf of a party other than the United States it shall be complied with only to the extent that the party in whose behalf the papers or documents are demanded is permitted under these regulations to inspect such papers or documents at the customhouse.

(3) Except as provided in subdivision (5) hereof, nothing herein shall preclude customs officers or employees from producing in the United States Customs Court in customs custody any customs papers or documents requested by the court or from testifying or otherwise rendering all proper assistance to the court in proceedings before it; nor from furnishing to counsel for the United States information contained in, and permitting him to inspect, customs papers or documents requested by him, nor from testifying on behalf of the United States or otherwise assisting him in the performance of his official duties.

(4) In all cases where copies of customs documents or records are desired by, or on behalf of, parties to a suit whether in a court of the United States or any other, such copies shall be furnished to the court only and on a rule of the court upon the Secretary of the Treasury requesting same, provided, however, that copies of such documents or records may be furnished to importers or exporters or other parties directly in interest or to their authorized agents without obtaining prior departmental approval. Exceptions to this rule will be made only on the written order of the Secretary, the Under Secretary, an Assistant Secretary, or the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary. When requested, such copies may be authenticated pursuant to the provisions of section 882 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (U. S. C., title 28, sec. 661).

(5) The authority granted in subdivisions 2, 3, and 4, of this paragraph is subject to the restriction that no matters, the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to the public interest, shall be disclosed to any person without prior authority from the Department.

(6) Upon being served with a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum from a court or officer thereof calling for testimony or the production of papers or documents in cases not covered by (2) or (3) above, or in cases where the testimony or documents desired would disclose matters of a confidential nature or the disclosure of which would be prejudicial to the public interest, the matter shall be referred to the Bureau for instructions. In the event instructions are not received prior to the date set for appearance or production of documents, or if the Bureau declines to permit their production or the disclosure of the information contained therein or otherwise within the knowledge of the customs officer or employee whose testimony is requested the customs officer or employee should appear in court, or before the officer concerned, in answer to the subpoena and respectfully decline to produce the documents called for, or to testify, except to the extent specifically authorized elsewhere in this article, citing this regulation as authority for his refusal. If the matter has not already been referred to the Bureau for instructions, the customs officer or employee will advise the court or officer that it will be so referred.

ARTICLE 103

Composition of preparations—Internal.—Preparations designed for or capable of internal use to be exempt must not contain more than two grains of opium or more than one-fourth of a grain of morphine, or more than one-eighth of a grain of heroin, or more than one grain of codeine, or any salt or derivative of any of them in one fluid ounce, or if a solid or semisolid preparation, in one avoirdupois ounce. The preparation should contain active medicinal drugs other than narcotics in sufficient proportion to confer upon the preparation valuable medicinal qualities other than those possessed by the narcotic drug alone. Use for aural, nasal, ocular, rectal, urethral, or vaginal purposes is not regarded as external use and, therefore, preparations manufactured or used for such purposes containing more than the percentages of narcotic drugs as above indicated are not within the exemption.

Pantopon.—It has been held that preparations containing pantopon are not subject to the exemptions described in the foregoing paragraph.

External.—There is no limitation upon the percentage of narcotic drugs external preparations may contain. In order to be within the exemption a preparation for external use, containing more than the maximum percentage of narcotic drugs above specified, shall contain ingredients rendering it unfit for internal administration.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

RULES AND REGULATIONS TO GOVERN THE USE, ADMINISTRATION AND NAVIGATION OF THE SAN JOAQUIN RIVER DEEP WATER CHANNEL

THE LAW

Extract from the River and Harbor Act of August 8, 1917:

SEC. 7. That section four of the river and harbor Act of August eighteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, as amended by section eleven of the river and harbor Act of June thirteenth, nineteen hundred and two, be, and is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 4. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War to prescribe such regulations for the use, administration, and navigation of the navigable waters of the United States as in his judgment the public necessity may require for the protection of life and property, or of operations of the United States in channel improvement, covering all matters not specifically delegated by law to some other executive department. Such regulations shall be posted, in conspicuous and appropriate places, for the information of the public; and every person and every corporation which shall violate such regulations shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof in any district court of the United States within whose territorial jurisdiction such offense may have been committed, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment (in the case of a natural person) not exceeding six months, in the discretion of the court.

In pursuance of the foregoing law, the following regulations are prescribed to cover the use, administration and navigation of the San Joaquin River Deep Water Channel, California, between Suisan Bay and the eastern end of the Channel at Stockton.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Maximum Speed

1. The maximum speed for all ocean-going craft shall not exceed ten miles per hour above the lower end of New York Slough, shall not exceed seven miles an hour above Criminal Point, and shall not exceed five miles per hour while passing any wharf, dock, or moored craft. As herein used, the speed of a vessel when navigating with the current shall be its rate of movement in excess of the velocity of the current.

Passing

2. All craft passing other boats, barges, scows, etc., in motion, moored or anchored, shall slow down and take every necessary precaution to avoid damage.

Rights of Way

3. a. United States dredges, tugs, launches, derrick boats and similar plant of contractors executing river and harbor improvement work for the United States, and displaying the signals prescribed by the "Rules and Regulations Governing the Display of Signals on, and the Operation of all Crafts and Accessories working on Wrecks engaged in Dredging, Surveying, or other Work of Improvement, and the Use and Navigation of the Waters in the Vicinity," prescribed by the Secretary of War, May 19, 1928, shall have right of way and other craft shall exercise special caution to avoid interference with the work on which the plant is engaged. Dredges, whether Federal or Contractors' plant, working in the channel must however take special care to give ocean-going vessels sufficient room for passing, and must lift both spuds and the ladder, and pull clear, if an adequate width of clear channel-way cannot otherwise be provided. Ocean-going vessels may show at the masthead a black ball of not more than 20-inch diameter as a signal to the dredge, and may also blow five long blasts of the whistle when within a reasonable hearing distance of the dredge, such signal to be followed at the proper time by the passing signal described in the local pilot rules. The dredge shall promptly acknowledge both signals in the usual manner.

b. Light draft vessels when meeting or being overtaken by ocean-going vessels, shall give right of way to such vessels by making use of the shallower portions of the waterway.

c. Rafts and tows must promptly give the channel side demanded upon proper signal by a vessel, and must be handled in such a manner as not to obstruct or to interfere with the free use of the waterway by other craft.

Anchorages

4. a. Except in cases of distress or in heavy fog, vessels shall not anchor in the San Joaquin River Deep Water Channel, nor in the Stockton Turning Basin, and if anchored under such circumstances shall be placed as near the edge of the channel or turning basin as possible, so as not to interfere with the free navigation thereof, nor obstruct the approach to, any pier. They shall move from such position as soon as the emergency ceases or when so ordered by the District Engineer, United States Engineer Department, in charge of the locality, or by his duly authorized representative.

b. No vessel shall be permanently moored in areas adjacent to the deep water channel or in any stream tributary to said deep water channel within one-half mile of its junction with the channel, except on permission in writing from the District Engineer, United States Engineer Department at Large, in charge of the improvement.

c. For established anchorages in the Lower San Joaquin River, see Anchorage Regulations for San Francisco Bay and Tributaries (including San Pablo Bay, Carquinez Strait, Suisun Bay and Lower San Joaquin River).

Collisions

5. a. Ocean-going vessels in collision in the channel or Turning Basin, must, if still afloat and in a condition making anchorage necessary, be immediately removed to an approved anchorage ground, or if in such condition that beaching is necessary, they shall be temporarily beached on the northwest side of Mandeville Island or in the Old River.

b. Light draft vessels suffering collision shall be disposed of as directed by the District Engineer, United States Engineer Department, or his authorized representative.

Wrecks

6. In no case following accidents of fire or collision will a vessel be allowed to remain either anchored or grounded in the channel, or beached at any place where it endangers other vessels, while settlement is pending with the underwriters.

7. In all other respects, the existing Federal Laws and Rules and Regulations affecting the navigable waters of the United States will govern in the said channel.

8. These regulations shall take effect and be in force on and after the date of approval hereof, and will supersede the regulations approved March 20, 1933, governing the use, administration and navigation of the San Joaquin Twenty-six Foot Channel.

Approved July 17, 1937.

Secretary of War.

E. T. CONLEY,
Major General,

[Circular 1431]

SUPPLEMENTAL REGULATIONS AFFECTING OIL AND GAS LEASES IN ALASKA

JULY 3, 1937.

Registers, U. S. Land Offices in Alaska.

SIRS: The act of August 21, 1935 (49 Stat. 674), and the regulations thereunder approved May 7, 1936, Circular 1386, are applicable to Alaska as well as to the States. However, these regulations do not deal with the provisions of the act of February 25, 1920, especially applicable to Alaska and still in force, for which reason additional regulations amending and supplementing the regulations now applicable to Alaska are necessary.

Section 13 of the act of February 25, 1920 (41 Stat. 437), authorizes the granting of not exceeding five permits in Alaska to the same applicant. While section 27 of the act was amended by the act of April 30, 1926 (44 Stat. 373), to provide an acreage limitation of holdings, this amendment did not change the right to hold five permits in Alaska. Section 22 of the act provides that leases in Alaska, whether as a result of prospecting permits or otherwise, shall be upon such rental and royalty as shall be fixed by the Secretary of the Interior and specified in the lease and be subject to readjustment at the end of each twenty-year period of the lease, and that for the purpose of encouraging production of petroleum in Alaska, the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, waive the payment of any rental or royalty not exceeding the first five years of any lease.

The act of August 21, 1935, amended section 13 to provide that no prospecting permits shall be issued except upon applications filed 90 days or more prior to the date of the amendatory act, and that applications filed thereafter shall be considered as applications for leases, but as no amendment was made of section 22 or 27, it is apparent that Congress did not intend to make any change in the provisions of the law applicable only to Alaska.

Accordingly, existing oil and gas regulations applicable to Alaska are hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

1. A person, association or corporation is authorized to hold oil and gas permits and leases for not exceeding 2,560 acres in the same geologic structure and not exceeding five permits and leases in the Territory; but for development purposes, assignments of permits and leases not exceeding five in number in any non-producing structure may be presented by the same person, association or corporation for consideration by the Secretary of the Interior and his approval if he shall find the same to be in the public interest. Leases operated under a cooperative or unit plan prescribed or approved by the Secretary of the Interior are excepted from any acreage limitation fixed by the leasing act.

2. Upon leases granted in Alaska under section 14 of the act as the result of discovery under prospecting permits, the rentals and royalties will be those provided by Circular 845 (49 L. D. 207) (the regulations in force January 1, 1935), except in cases where different rentals and royalties have been fixed prior to discovery.

3. Upon leases granted under section 17 of the act as amended for lands in Alaska and leases acquired by exchange of prospecting permits, or granted on applications for permits filed after May 23, 1935, and prior to August 21, 1935, the royalties shall be equal to one-half of the royalties fixed by section 17 of Circular 1386, except that any lessee who shall drill and make the first discovery of oil or gas in commercial quantities in any geologic structure shall be exempted from the payment of royalty on production under the lease for the first five years thereof, or should discovery be first made under an approved unit plan the exemption herein provided shall for the purpose of computing royalty due the United States inure to the benefit of the land within the participating (productive) area established by reason of such discovery.

The rental payable on such leases shall be 25 cents per acre or fraction thereof for the first year of the lease, payable prior to execution of the lease, and 25 cents per acre each year thereafter until oil or gas in commercial quantities is discovered on the leased lands, except that where leases are granted in exchange for prospecting permits or pursuant to applications for permits filed after May 23, 1935, and prior to August 21, 1935, no rental is required for the first two lease years, unless valuable deposits of oil or gas are sooner discovered within the boundaries of the leases. Rentals after discovery shall be $1 per acre or fraction thereof as prescribed by section 15 of Circular 1386, any rental paid for any one year to be credited against the royalties as they accrue for that year.

Very respectfully,

FRED W. JOHNSON, Commissioner.

I concur:

W. C. MENDENHALL,
Director, Geological Survey.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

NER—B-101—New Hampshire—Supplement (4) Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—NEW HAMPSHIRE—SUPPLEMENT (4)

Revision of Green-Manure Practice No. 8

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Bulletin No. 101—New Hampshire, as amended by Supplements (1), (2), and (3), thereto, is hereby further amended as follows:

Practice No. 8, under the heading "Green-Manure Crops", which reads as follows:

8. Plowing or disking under biennial legumes or perennial legumes for which no seeding payment has been made under this or previous programs and from which no crop has been harvested and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth, or annual legumes which have attained such growth. Payment, $2.50 per acre.

is stricken out and in lieu thereof the following is inserted:

8. Plowing or disking under either (1) annual legumes which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth or (2) biennial or perennial legumes from which no crop has been harvested and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth and for which either (a) no seeding payment will be or has been made under this or the 1936 program or (b) the seeding payment was not needed in order to provide a total payment equal to the soil-building allowance for the farm under the 1936 program. Payment, $2.50 per acre.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—NEW YORK—SUPPLEMENT (8)

I. Revision of Green-Manure Practice No. 9

II. Revision of Nitrate of Soda Practice No. 26

III. Addition of a Practice Providing Payment for the Application of Potash

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Bulletin No. 101 New York, as amended by Supplements (1) to (7), inclusive, is hereby further amended as follows:

I

Practice No. 9, under the heading "Green-Manure and Cover Crops", which reads as follows:

8. Plowing or disking under biennial or perennial legumes from which no crop has been harvested and for which no seeding payment will be or has been made under this or any previous program, and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth, or annual legumes which have attained such growth. Payment, $2.50 per acre, is stricken out and in lieu thereof the following is inserted:

9. Plowing or disking under either (1) annual legumes which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth or (2) biennial or perennial legumes from which no crop has been harvested and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth and for which either (a) no seeding payment will be or has been made under this or the 1936 program or (b) the seeding payment was not needed in order to provide a total payment equal to the soil-building allowance for the farm under the 1936 program. Payment, $2.50 per acre.

II

Practice No. 26, under the heading "Nitrate of Soda on Green-Manure Crops", which reads as follows:

26. Applying not in excess of 200 pounds of 16 percent nitrate of soda, or its equivalent, per acre to green-manure crops on land normally devoted to the production of commercial vegetables either at the time of seeding or immediately thereafter. Payment, 64¢ per 100 lbs.,

is stricken out and in lieu thereof the following is inserted:

26. Applying not in excess of 200 pounds of 16 percent nitrate of soda, or its equivalent, per acre to green-manure crops, when grown in connection with Practice 23 or 24 on land normally devoted to the production of commercial vegetables, either at the time of seeding or immediately thereafter. Payment, 64¢ per 100 lbs.

III

The following is added as Practice No. 27 at the end of the material in Part I:

27. Applying potash in connection with the seeding of any of the green-manure crops grown in connection with Practice 23 or 24. Payment will be limited to the application of not less than 10 pounds and not more than 75 pounds of available potash per acre. Payment, 3¢ per pound for available potash.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—NORTHEAST REGION

BULLETIN NO. 101—PENNSYLVANIA—SUPPLEMENT (14)

I. Revision of Green-Manure Practice No. 43

II. Revision of the Provisions under the heading "Establishing New Seedings of Clover and Timothy"

III. Revision of the provisions under the heading "Applying Lime and Superphosphate in Preparation for Seeding Grasses or Legumes"

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Bulletin No. 101—Pennsylvania, as amended by Supplements (1) to (13), inclusive, is hereby further amended as follows:

I

Practice No. 43, under the heading "Green-Manure Crops", which reads as follows:

43. Plowing or disking under biennial or perennial legumes (except those seeded in a nurse crop which is harvested in 1937 for hay or grain) from which no crop has been harvested and for which no seeding payment has been made under this or previous programs, and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth, or annual legumes which have attained such growth. Payment, per acre, $2.50.

is stricken out and in lieu thereof the following is inserted:

43. Plowing or disking under either (1) annual legumes which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth or (2) biennial or perennial legumes (except those seeded in a nurse crop which is harvested in 1937 for hay or grain) from which no crop has been harvested and which have attained at least two months' or 12 inches' growth and for which either (a) no seeding payment will be or has been made under this or the 1936 program or (b) the seeding payment was not needed in order to provide a total payment equal to the soil-building allowance for the farm under the 1936 program. Payment, $2.50 per acre.

II

The provisions under the heading "Establishing New Seedings of Clover and Timothy", as revised by Supplement (7), which read as follows:

Applying, at or before the time of seeding, or, where the county committee determines that the required material is not available at that time, at the first reasonable opportunity after the time of seeding but not later than September 1, 1937, not less than the following quantities of the following materials or their equivalents[1] per acre, and seeding such land between February 1, 1937, and October 31, 1937, with a mixture of at least 6 pounds of approved varieties of clover and at least 5 pounds of timothy in an approved nurse crop, provided that the timothy may have been seeded in the fall of 1936, are stricken out and in lieu thereof the following is inserted:

Applying, at or before the time of seeding, or, where the county committee determines that the required material is not available at that time, at the first reasonable opportunity after the time of seeding but not later than September 1, 1937, not less than the following quantities of the following materials or their equivalents[1] per acre, and seeding such land between February 1 and October 31, 1937, with either (1) a mixture of at least 6 pounds of hardy northern grown domestic or Canadian clover seed and at least 5 pounds of timothy seeded in an approved nurse crop, provided that the timothy may have been seeded in the fall of 1936, or (2) at least 12 pounds of hardy northern grown domestic or Canadian clover seed per acre.

III

The provisions under the heading "Applying Lime and Superphosphate in Preparation for Seeding Grasses or Legumes", which read as follows:

Applying, between July 15, 1937, and October 31, 1937, at least the following amounts of the following materials or their equivalents[1] per acre, to crop land if the County Committee determines that such application is made in preparation for seeding such crop land to legumes or to a grass or legume mixture in the spring of 1938.

are stricken out and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

Applying either (1) between July 15 and October 31, 1937, at least the following amounts of the following materials or their equivalents per acre, to crop land, or (2) lime at any time in 1937 before October 31 to land which has been or is to be seeded in 1937 to buckwheat, provided that after the removal of the buckwheat the land is disked or harrowed (not plowed) and is afterward in 1937 sown to wheat or rye, if the county committee determines that such application is made in preparation for seeding such crop land to legumes or to a grass or legume mixture in the spring of 1938.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—ARIZONA—SUPPLEMENT 2

Amendments to WRB-101—Arizona as Amended

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payment Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of a Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops and Deletes Reference to Nurse Crops in Connection With Soil-Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 2, First Paragraph: Deletes Reference to a Poor Stand of Soil-Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Item (e) is Deleted and a New Item (e) is Substituted in Lieu Thereof to Classify Cropland Planted to Forest Trees Between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934

Part XI, Section 4, Subsection B-1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Arizona, as amended by Supplement 1, is hereby further amended:

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound; provided, that with reference to wire fences, the posts may be set not more than 30 feet apart if stays not more than 7½ feet apart are placed in the intervening spaces. $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practices which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 Program, or if such person has offset, or through any schemes or devices whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to emergency forage crops.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop, except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1 of Part VIII) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year.

Part VIII, Section 3 is amended by deleting item e and substituting in lieu thereof a new item e to read as follows:

e. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, Section 4, subsection B, item 1 is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1, subsection D, of this Part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—California, Supplement 2 Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—CALIFORNIA, SUPPLEMENT 2

Amendments to WR—B-101—California as Amended

Part IV, Section 1, Practice D: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payments Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 4, Subsection F: Provides for Determining Percentage Amount of Deductions

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops

Part XI, Section 4, Subsection B-1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—California, as amended by Supplement 1, is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part IV, Section 1, practice D is amended to read as follows:

D. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, poles, logs, rails, and jacks to be good and sound, provided, that on land where conditions are such that posts cannot be set regularly at the distances apart designated herein, the posts may be set not more than 30 feet apart with stays not more than 7½ feet apart placed in the intervening spaces. $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3.—Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 4, is amended by the addition of Subsection F to read as follows:

F. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsections A, B, and C of this Section 4, the amount of such deductions provided therein which shall be made from the payment which otherwise would be made to any person with respect to the farm shall be equal to the amount obtained by multiplying the total deduction, computed in accordance with the provisions of said Subsections A, B, and C, by the percentage of the principal crop, other than the rice crop, to which such person is entitled (such percentage to be determined in accordance with the provisions of Part V, Section 1, Subsection A); provided, however, that if sugar beets were grown on the farm in 1937 and the division of the sugar beet crop differs from the division of the principal crop, other than rice, the amount of deduction which shall be made from the payment to any person with respect to the farm shall be equal to the sum obtained by multiplying the amount of such total deductions by such person's percentage of the computed gross payment (not including any rice payment) for the farm.

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary:

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of the Subsection D to read as follows:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which crop would normally be harvested, except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, cover and green manure crops and volunteer grain for pasture.

Part XI, Section 4, is amended to have subsection B-1 read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, Subsection D, of this Part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—Colorado, Supplement 4 Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—COLORADO, SUPPLEMENT 4

Amendments to WR—B-101—Colorado as Amended

Part III, Section 2, Subsection A-2: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Part III, Section 3, Subsection C: Clarifies Classification of Designated Wind-Erosion Acreage

Part III, Section 3, Subsection F: Extends Date for Carrying Out Wind-Erosion Control Practices With Respect to Preliminary Payment

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payment Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Rewritten to Show Neutral Classification of Land

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B-1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 3 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Colorado, as amended by Supplement 1, Supplement 2, and Supplement 3, is hereby further amended:

Part III, section 2, subsection A, item 2, is amended to read as follows:

2. $4.00, varying among individual farms as the productivity of the cropland on the farm varies from the average productivity of all such cropland in the United States[1] for each acre diverted for payment from the soil-depleting base.

Part III, section 3, subsection C, is amended to read as follows:

C. Wind-Erosion Control Practices.—Payment will be made for the carrying out on designated wind-erosion acreage in 1937 such of the following practices as are approved by the County Committee for the farm prior to their institution, without such practices, when carried out on designated wind-erosion acreage, being regarded as in any way affecting the prior classification of such acreage.

Part III, section 3, subsection F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Preliminary Application for Payment.—By preliminary application made on the prescribed form, any 1937 owner or operator, who has carried out before July 1, 1937, such wind-erosion control practices as are provided for in this section, may receive a preliminary payment amounting to 85 percent of the amount of payment computed in accordance with the provisions of subsection C above. Such preliminary payment shall not be in excess of 85 percent of the additional soil-building allowance provided for in subsection B above. The amount of such preliminary payment will be deducted from the total amount computed as due such 1937 owner or operator under the complete and final application made by him for payment under the provisions of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program. In connection with such complete and final application, appropriate deductions shall be made for administrative expenses.

Part IV, section 1, practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, poles, rails, logs, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3—Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of Subsection D to read as follows:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII, with respect to emergency forage crops, and winter pasture crops, and as provided in Part III, Section 3, Subsection C, with respect to sorghums, Sudan grass, or millets grown in 1937 on designated wind-erosion acreage.

Part VIII, section 3, is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:
a. Idle cropland.
b. Cultivated fallow.
c. Artichokes, bulbs, nursery stocks.
d. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936; provided such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to May 1, 1937.
e. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, and bush fruits.
f. Small grains seeded as a winter cover crop and pastured, but not harvested for grain or hay.
g. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, section 3, subsection B, item 1 is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—IDAHO, SUPPLEMENT 2

Amendments to WRB-101—Idaho as Amended

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payment Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of a Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops and Deletes Reference to Nurse Crops in Connection With Soil-Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 2, First Paragraph: Deletes Reference to Poor Stand of Soil-Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Item (d) is Deleted and a New Item (d) Is Substituted in Lieu Thereof to Classify Cropland Planted to Forest Trees Between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B–1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Idaho, as amended by Supplement 1, is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part IV, section 1, practice F is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, section 8, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

Land devoted to any of the following uses or seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to summer fallow, emergency forage crops, and winter cover crops.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph is amended to read as follows:

Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1 of this Part VIII) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year, and except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to soil-conserving crops following summer fallow.

Part VIII, Section 3, is amended by deleting item d and substituting in lieu thereof a new item d which reads as follows:

d. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B, item 1 is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—Kansas, Supplement 4 Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—KANSAS, SUPPLEMENT 4

Amendments to WR—B-101—Kansas as Amended

Part I: Clarifies Definition of Range Land

Part III, Section 4, Subsection C: Clarifies Classification of Designated Wind-Erosion Acreage

Part III, Section 4, Subsection F: Extends Date for Carrying Out Wind-Erosion Control Practices With Respect to Preliminary Payment

Part IV, Section 1, First Paragraph: Limits Payment for Range-Building Practices to the Range-Building Allowance

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payments Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 4: Clarifies Method of Determining Deductions

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of a Farm When it is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, section 1, Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Rewritten to Show Natural Classification of Land

Part XI, Section 4, Subsection B–1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101–Kansas, as amended by Supplement 1, Supplement 2, and Supplement 3, is hereby further amended:

Part I, the definition of "Range Land" is amended to read as follows:

Range land means any land other than that owned or controlled by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, in which a ranch operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof which produces forage for range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation ten acres or more of which, on the average for the ranching unit, are required to graze one animal unit.

Part III, section 4, subsection C, is amended to read as follows:

C. Wind-Erosion Control Practices.—Payment will be made for the carrying out on designated wind-erosion acreage in 1937 such of the following practices as are approved by the county committee for the farm prior to their institution, without such practices, when carried out on designated wind-erosion acreage, being regarded as in any way affecting the prior classification of such acreage.

Part III, section 4, subsection F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Preliminary Application for Payment.—By preliminary application made on the prescribed form, any 1937 owner or operator, who has carried out before July 1, 1937, such wind-erosion control practices as are provided for in this section, may receive a preliminary payment amounting to 85 percent of the amount of payment computed in accordance with the provisions of subsection 6 above. Such preliminary payment shall not be in excess of 85 percent of the additional soil-building allowance provided for in subsection B above. The amount of such preliminary payment will be deducted from the total amount computed as due such 1937 owner or operator under the complete and final application made by him for payment under the provisions of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program. In connection with such complete and final application, appropriate deductions shall be made for administrative expenses.

Part IV, section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Range-Building Practices and Rates.—Payment will be made for carrying out on range land in 1937 such of the following range-building practices as are approved by the county committee for the ranching unit prior to their institution, provided that the range-building payment with respect to any ranching unit shall not exceed the range-building allowance for such ranching unit.

Part IV, section 1, practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, poles, rails, logs, and jacks to be good and sound $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, section 3, is amended to read as follow:

SECTION 3.—Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, section 4, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

D. If the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on any farm upon which an acreage of cotton or tobacco is diverted for payment in 1937 does not equal or exceed the sum of (1) the normal soil-conserving acreage established for the farm, and (2) the acreage diverted for payment from the cotton and tobacco soil-depleting bases, a deduction shall be made from any payment which otherwise would be made with respect to the farm at the rate of $3.00 for each acre by which the total acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm in 1937 is less than such sum.

Part VI, section 8, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, section 8, is amended by the addition of subsection D to read as follows:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in section 2 of this part VIII with respect to nurse crops, as provided in section 3 of this part VIII, with respect to emergency forage crops, and winter cover crops, and as provided in part III, section 4, subsection C, with respect to sorghums, Sudan grass, or millets grown in 1937 on designated wind-erosion acreage.

Part VIII, section S, is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:

a. Idle cropland.
b. Cultivated fallow.
c. Artichokes, bulbs, nursery stocks.
d. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936; provided, such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to May 1, 1937.
e. Small grains seeded as a winter cover crop and pastured, but not harvested for grain or hay.
f. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, and bush fruits.
g. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, section 4, subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, payments will be made in connection with the effectuation of the purposes of Section 7 (a) of the said act in 1937, in accordance with the provisions of this Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Pondera County—Montana, and such modifications or other provisions as may hereafter be made.

The 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program has been developed in accordance with the provisions of Section 8, 15, and 16 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act. The rates of payment, deductions, and allowances herein set out are computed upon the basis of 85 percent participation. Such rates of payment, deductions, and allowances may be increased or decreased depending upon the extent of participation in the Western Region, but such variations will not be in excess of 10 percent.

Part I. Definitions

As used herein and all forms and documents relating to the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in Pondera County, Montana, the following terms shall have meanings ascribed to them as follows:

Secretary means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

Western region means the area included in the States of North Dakota, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico, Arizona, California, Utah, Nevada, Idaho, Oregon, and Washington.

Western division means the division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in charge of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in the Western Region.

State committee or State agricultural conservation committee means the group of individuals designated to assist in the administration of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in Montana.

County committee or county agricultural conservation committee means the group of individuals designated for a county to assist in the administration of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program in such county.

Person means an individual, partnership, association, or corporation, and wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State, or any agency thereof or any other governmental agency that may be designated by the Secretary.

Owner means a person who owns land which is not rented to another for cash, for a fixed commodity payment, or for the crop from a fixed acreage; or who rents land from another for cash, for a fixed commodity payment, or for the crop from a fixed acreage; or who is purchasing land on installments for cash, for a fixed commodity payment, or for the crop from a fixed acreage, or for a share of the crop.

Operator means a person who, as owner or share tenant, is operating a farming unit and is entitled to receive all or a portion of the crops produced thereon, or the proceeds thereof.

Share Tenant means a person other than an owner who is operating a farm and is entitled to receive a portion of the crops produced thereon, or the proceeds thereof. If a share tenant sublets a farm to another person, and both such persons are entitled to share in the crops produced thereon, or the proceeds thereof, both shall be deemed share tenants.

Farm means all tracts of farm land in the same county under the same ownership, operated as all or part of a single farming unit by the same operator in 1937.

Farming Unit means all land which is farmed by an operator in 1937 as a single unit, with work stock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other land.

Cropland means all farm land which has been tilled and from which at least one crop other than wild hay was harvested or planted for harvest between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1937, and all other farm land devoted on January 1, 1937, to orchards or vineyards other than those abandoned.

Soil-depleting base means the total number of acres established for the farm as the acreage normally used for the production of soil-depleting crops thereon.

Soil-conserving base means the number of acres obtained by subtracting the soil-depleting base from the total number of acres of cropland.

Sugar-Beet Payment means a payment made with respect to land on which sugar beets are grown in 1937.

Soil-Building Payment means a payment for the carrying out of approved soil-building and soil-conservation practices.

Farm Allowance means the largest amount for any farm which may be earned as soil-building payments on such farm.

Non-Crop Pasture Land means farm land, other than cropland or range land, fenced, and used exclusively for pasture.

Range-Building Payment means a payment for the carrying out of approved range-building practices.

Range-Building Allowance means the largest amount for any ranching unit which may be earned as a range-building payment on such ranching unit.

Ranch Operator means a person who as owner, cash tenant, or share tenant, operates, or a person who acts in similar capacity in the operation of, a ranching unit.

Range Land means any land, other than that owned or controlled by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, in which a ranch operator has such a legal estate or interest as to give him control thereof which produces forage for range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation ten acres or more of which, on the average for the ranching unit, are required to graze one animal unit.

Ranching Unit means all range land which is used by the ranch operator as a single unit in producing range livestock, with farm machinery, work stock, and labor substantially separate from that of any other range land.

Animal Unit means one cow, one horse, five sheep, five goats, or the equivalent thereof.[1]

Grazing Capacity of range land means that number of animal units which such land will sustain, on a twelve-month basis, over a period of years without injury to the range, forage, tree growth, or watershed.

[1] Two yearlings equal one cow or one horse. A calf or a colt shall be classed as a yearling, and a lamb shall be classed as a mature sheep, after January 1 of the year following its birth.

Commercial Vegetables means the acreage of vegetables or truck crops (including potatoes, sweetpotatoes and strawberries, but excluding sweet corn for canning and peas for canning) from which the principal part of production was sold off the farm.

Part II. Rates and Conditions of Sugar-Beet Payments

Payment will be made in connection with the utilization in 1937 of the land on any farm in Pondera County, Montana, at the rates and subject to the conditions set forth herein:

SECTION 1. Sugar-Beet Payments.—Payment will be made with respect to the acreage of sugar beets grown on a farm in 1937, not in excess of the sugar-beet acreage allotment for the farm, at a rate per acre equal to 12½ cents for each 100 pounds, raw value, of sugar commercially recoverable from the normal yield per acre of sugar beets for the farm; provided, that practices with relation to sugar beets are carried out on such farm in 1937, as follows:

A. An acreage equal to not less than 40 percent of the 1937 acreage of sugar beets is devoted to soil-conserving crops on the farm in 1937 on land which is as well adapted to sugar beets as the land on which the sugar beets are grown; or

B. Both of the following:

1. Sugar beets are grown in 1937 on land not devoted to sugar beets in more than two of the three years 1934, 1935, and 1936,

2. An acreage equal to not less than 20 percent of the 1937 acreage of sugar beets is devoted to soil-conserving crops on the farm in 1937 on land which is as well adapted to sugar beets as the land on which the sugar beets are grown.

Provided, however, that if either 1 or 2 alone is performed, the payment will be one half of the payment that would otherwise be made.

The acreage allotment with respect to which the sugar-beet payment will be made will be the acreage of sugar beets grown on the farm in 1937, unless the estimated total acreage of sugar beets for harvest in the United States in 1937 exceeds the acreage determined by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration to be required with normal yields to produce 1,550,000 short tons, raw value, of sugar. In the event the estimated total acreage of sugar beets planted for harvest in the United States in 1937 exceeds the acreage so determined, the acreage allotment for the farm shall be that percentage of the acreage of sugar beets grown on the farm in 1937 which is computed by dividing the acreage so determined to be required to produce 1,550,000 short tons, raw value, of sugar by the total acreage of sugar beets planted for harvest in the United States in 1937.

Part III. Rates and Conditions of Soil-Building Payment

SECTION 1. Soil-Building Payment.—Payment will be made for carrying out on cropland or on non-crop pasture land in 1937 any of the soil-building or soil-conservation practices listed below, provided that the payment for such practices with respect to any farm shall not exceed the allowance for the farm.

The practices prescribed in this Section shall not be eligible for payment unless such practices are carried out in a locality where, in the determination of the State Committee, such practices are desirable from the standpoint of agricultural conservation and are carried out in conformity with methods generally recognized as desirable for the locality, and which tend to effectuate the purposes of the 1937 Agricultural Conservation Program. Payments will not be made for more than one practice carried out on the same acreage except that payment will be made for the practice prescribed in Item T in addition to any other practice prescribed herein, payment will be made for the practice prescribed in Item J (Establishment of Strip Cropping and Fallow) in addition to the practice prescribed in Item K, 1 (Approved Fallow), payment will be made for the practice prescribed in item L (Cover Crop) in addition to the practice prescribed in item K, 2 (Approved Block Fallow), payment will be made for the practice prescribed in item F (Crested Wheat Grass) in addition to the practice prescribed in item J, (Establishment of Strip Cropping and Fallow), payment will be made for any one of the practices prescribed in items A, B, D, E, or F (Seeding of Legumes or Grasses) in addition to the practice prescribed in item N (Diking for Flood Water Diversion), payment will be made for the practice prescribed in item F (Crested Wheat Grass) in addition to the practice prescribed in item P (Solid Contour Listing).

PRACTICES AND CONDITIONS—RATES OF PAYMENT

A. Perennial legumes including, alfalfa, kudzu, sericea, white clover, and such other perennial legumes as are approved by the Director of the Western Division,

1. Seeding and establishment of a good stand on cropland in 1937 when good seed of an adapted variety is used, either alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $5.00 per acre.

2. Seeding on cropland in 1937 when good seed of an adapted variety is used under either of the following conditions: $3.00 per acre.

a. Without establishment of a good stand if seeded alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay.

b. With or without establishment of a good stand if seeded with a nurse crop which is harvested for grain or hay.

B. Biennial legumes including red clover, alsike clover, and mammoth clover, and such other biennial legumes as are approved by the Director of the Western Division.

1. Seeding and establishment of a good stand on cropland in 1937, when good seed of an adapted variety is used, either alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $3.00 per acre.

2. Seeding on cropland in 1937, when good seed of an adapted variety is used under either of the following conditions: $2.00 per acre.

a. Without establishment of a good stand if seeded alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay.

b. With or without establishment of a good stand if seeded with a nurse crop which is harvested for grain or hay.

C. Annual and biennial sweet clover and such other annual legumes as are approved by the Director of the Western Division.

1. Seeding and establishment of a good stand on cropland in 1937, either alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $2.50 per acre.

2. Seeding on cropland under either of the following conditions: $1.50 per acre.

a. Without establishment of a good stand if seeded alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay.

b. With or without establishment of a good stand if seeded with a nurse crop which is harvested for grain or hay.

D. Seeding and establishment of perennial grasses including bluegrass, orchard, Bermuda, brome, grama, buffalo, wheat grasses (except crested wheat grass), rye grasses and such other perennial grasses as are approved by the Director of the Western Division, when seeded alone or in approved mixtures.

1. Seeding and establishment of a good stand on cropland in 1937, either alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $4.00 per acre.

2. Seeding on cropland in 1937, under either of the following conditions:

a. Without establishment of a good stand if seeded alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $2.50 per acre.

b. With or without establishment of a good stand if seeded with a nurse crop which is harvested for grain or hay.

E. Mixtures of perennial and biennial legumes and perennial grasses recommended by the State Experiment Station and approved by the State Committee.

1. Seeding and establishment of a good stand on cropland in 1937, either alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay: $4.00 per acre.

2. Seeding on cropland in 1937, under either of the following conditions, $2.50 per acre:

a. Without establishment of a good stand if seeded alone or with a nurse crop which is not harvested for grain or hay.

b. With or without establishment of a good stand if seeded with a nurse crop which is harvested for grain or hay.

F. Crested wheat grass seeded on cropland in 1937: $5.00 per acre.

G. Restoring to native grass.— Land on which a crop was harvested or seeded for harvest at least once since January 1, 1930, and which is in accordance with good farming practices should be permanently devoted to grass; $0.25 per acre; Provided,

1. The operator and owner have designated the acreage and stated his or their intention to restore such acreage to grass,

2. Approval has been obtained from the county committee, and

3. Such land is not pastured, cropped or tilled in 1937.

H. Forest Trees.—

1. Planting of trees on cropland in 1937 provided the land is maintained in a good state of cultivation and the plantings are protected from livestock, with not less than 200 living trees per acre at the time performance is checked. Approval by the county committee of the site for such planting shall have been obtained before planting: $10.00 per acre.

2. Maintaining trees planted since January 1, 1934, by cultivation of interspaces and replacement of any dead trees to not less than 200 living trees per acre at the time performance is checked: $4.00 per acre.

I. Perennial noxious weed control.—When, after approval of the county committee, seriously infested plots of Canadian thistle, bindweed or wild morning glory, White top, leafy spurge, Russian knapweed are controlled by periodic cultivation or by chemical treatment in accordance with specifications recommended by the county committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division.

1. Chemical treatment; $10.00 per acre.

2. Periodic cultivation; $5.00 per acre.

J. Establishment of strip cropping and fallow. The fallow strips (two or more strips of fallow) to be not less than five rods nor more than 20 rods in width with intervening strips of small grain crops or small grain stubble the width or twice the width of the fallow strips. The first tillage operation must be completed before July 15, 1937, strips to be approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds. Payment to be made on the acreage of fallow land only and then only when additional to the acreage used for that practice in 1936; $1.00 per acre.

K. Approved fallow.—Approved fallow on cropland carried out in accordance with the following provision: (a) First tillage operation to be completed not later than June 1; provided, however, such date may be extended by the county committee not to exceed 15 days on account of seasonal variation and moisture conditions. The exact date of extension shall be announced by the county committee not later than May 25, (b) Approved implements for first tillage operation to be: disc harrow, one-way disc, field cultivator, or plow; deep tillage machine may be used provided deep tillage has not taken place in 1935 or 1936, (c) Final cultivation for the season to leave the surface with a cloddy mulch or surface trash or ridged approximately at right angles to the prevailing winds.

1. Carried out on the fallow strips of the strip cropping and fallow strip practice: $1.25 per acre.

2. Carried out on entire fields which is commonly referred to as "block fallow": $1.00 per acre.

Any acreage which the county committee determines has been handled in accordance with the above provisions but which they further determine is subject to severe wind erosion shall not qualify under these practices.

L. Cover crop.—Seeding of small grains other than rye or winter wheat on summer fallowed land after July 15 and left as a winter cover crop, $0.50 per acre.

M. Green manure crop.—Annual legumes including soybeans, cowpeas, field beans, and field peas, when seeded on irrigated cropland in 1937 and turned under after attaining at least two months' growth. $2.00 per acre.

N. Diking for flood water diversion: $1.00 per acre. Diked for Flooding:

1. When practiced on non-irrigated cropland in 1937, in accordance with specifications approved by the Director of the Western Division.

2. When practiced on non-crop pasture land in 1937 in accordance with specifications approved by the Director of the Western Division; provided, that after inspection of the proposed diking area the county committee approves such practice.

O. Terracing.—Establishment of terraces on cropland in 1937, provided, however, plans for the terracing project are approved in advance by the county committee and such practice is carried out in accordance with specifications approved by the Director of the Western Division: $0.40 per 100 linear feet.

P. Solid contour listing.—When practiced on cropland in 1937 in accordance with specifications approved by the Western Division: $1.00 per acre.

Q. The following practice will be applicable only to non-crop pasture acreage. Reseeding with native perennial grasses in 1937 in accordance with specifications recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division: $0.20 per pound of seed sown not in excess of $2.00 per acre.

R. Control of Rodents.—For destroying at least 90 percent of the crop destroying rodents on infested areas of non-crop pasture subject to prior approval and designation by the county committee.

1. Ground squirrels and prairie dogs: $0.06 per acre.

S. Earthen pits or reservoirs for holding run-off and impounding precipitation. For constructing earthen pits or reservoirs, with spillways adequate to prevent dams from washing out, in accordance with specifications issued by the Director of the Western Division: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill or excavation.

T. Diversion.—With respect to farms effecting diversion from the soil-depleting base, payment will be made for each acre diverted in 1937 from the soil-depleting base established for the farm, not in excess of 15 percent of such base, at the rate of $5.00 per acre, varying among individual farms as the productivity of the cropland on each such farm varies from the productivity of all cropland in Pondera County: $5.00 (Varied by productivity of farm).

SECTION 2. Farm Allowance.—The farm allowance for a farm shall be $20.00 for each farm, or the sum of the following items, whichever is the larger:

1. $0.85 for each acre of cropland on the farm in 1937, varying among the individual farms as the productivity of the cropland of the farm varies from the average productivity of all such cropland in Pondera County.

2. $1.09 for each acre of soil-conserving crops on the farm in 1937 not in excess of the soil-conserving base.

Part IV. Rates and Conditions of Range-Building Payments

SECTION 1. Range-Building Practices and Rates.—Payment will be made for the carrying out on range land in 1937 such of the following range-building practices as are approved by the county committee for a ranching unit prior to their institution, provided that the range-building payment with respect to any ranching unit shall not exceed the range-building allowance for such ranching unit.

PRACTICES AND CONDITIONS—RATES OF PAYMENT

A. Contouring.—For each acre furrowed on the contour, furrows to be not less than 8 inches in width and 4 inches in depth, dammed at intervals of not more than 100 feet and constructed on slopes in excess of 2%, with intervals between furrows not more than 25 feet: $0.50 per acre.

B. Development of Springs and Seeps.—For digging out each spring or seep, protecting the source from trampling, and conveying the water, in a trough, or in a pipe not less than one inch in diameter, to a tank, or where piping is impractible, a concrete tank may be constructed at the seep: $50.00 per spring or seep.

C. Earthen pits or reservoirs for holding run-off and impounding precipitation.—For constructing earthen pits or reservoirs, with spillways adequate to prevent dams from washing out, in accordance with specifications issued by the Director of the Western Division: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill or excavation.

D. Wells.—For the drilling or digging of wells, casing to be not less than 2 or 4 inches in diameter, provided a windmill or power pump is installed and the water is piped to a tank or storage reservoir. An artesian well may qualify for payment provided adequate stock water is made available during the grazing season and the water is conveyed in a trough or pipe to a tank or storage reservoir: $1.00 per linear foot for a 4-inch casing, $0.50 per linear foot for a 2-inch casing.

E. Water spreading to prevent soil washing.—For constructing and maintaining permanent ditching for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing, not including any temporary field ditching or any ditching primarily for purposes of irrigation, subsurface drainage or under-drainage, or primarily for any purpose other than the prevention of soil washing. (See Farmers' Bulletin No. 1606, Farm Drainage, Published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture): $0.10 per 100 linear feet.

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart; or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braces on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

G. Reseeding.—For reseeding depleted range land in 1937 with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses as follows: $0.20 per pound of seed sown:

1. Crested wheat grass.
2. Slender wheat grass.
3. Western wheat grass.
4. Brome grass.

H. For establishing fire guards not less than four feet in width, by plowing furrows or otherwise exposing the soil: $0.03 per 100 linear feet.

I. Rodent Control.—For destroying at least 90 percent of the range-destroying rodents on an infested area as follows:

1. Prairie dogs: $0.07½ per acre.
2. Ground squirrels: $0.06 per acre.

J. Natural Reseeding by Deferred Grazing.—Payment will be made for withholding range land from grazing for the period (from the start of forage growth to seed maturity) established by the State Committee, at the rate of 35 cents per full month of such period for each animal unit of that number of animal units, not in excess of 25 percent of the grazing capacity, which is the same percentage of the grazing capacity of the ranching unit as the acreage upon which grazing is deferred is of the total acreage of range land in the ranching unit. Payment will not be made for this practice (1) if the operator permits the remainder of the range land in the ranching unit to be grazed to an extent that causes deterioration of such range land, and (2) if the deferred grazing is carried out on range land in the ranching unit which normally is not used for grazing during such period: $0.35 per animal unit for each full month.

K. Mountain Meadow Land Practices Applicable Only if an Acreage Allowance for Mountain Meadow Land is Established under Section 2 of this Part IV.

1. Reseeding Mountain Meadow Land—For reseeding mountain meadow land with good seed of adapted varieties of the following perennial grasses and legumes or mixtures thereof; brome grass, red top, timothy, alsike clover, meadow fescue, medium red clover, and such other perennial grasses and legumes, except alfalfa, or mixtures thereof as are recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division: $0.20 per pound of seed sown, but not in excess of $2.00 per acre.

2. Earthern Dams for Erosion Control on Mountain Meadows.—For constructing, according to specifications recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Director of the Western Division, earthern dams for the exclusive purpose of diverting flood water of intermittent streams to prevent soil erosion on mountain meadow land: $0.15 per cubic yard of fill, but not in excess of $50.00 for each dam.

SECTION 2. Range-Building Allowance.—The range-building allowance for any ranching unit shall be equal to $1.50 times the grazing capacity thereof, plus 40 cents times the number of acres of mountain meadow land in the ranching unit from which hay is normally harvested for feeding on the ranching unit to range livestock owned by the operator of the ranching unit. In determining the grazing capacity of any ranching unit with respect to which an acreage allowance for mountain meadow land may be made, the grazing capacity of such acreage of mountain meadow land shall not be considered.

SECTION 3. Range-Building Payment.—Payments made for carrying out range-building practices shall not be subject to the deductions for increase in acreage of soil-depleting crops.

SECTION 4. Eligibility for Payment.—Application for range-building payments may be made only by ranch operators. In case there are two or more ranch operators, the application must be made by all the ranch operators.

Range-building payments will be made to (1) a sole ranch operator, or (2) each ranch operator of a group of two or more ranch operators; Provided, all ranch operators signify in the application for payment a percentum of the total payment under the application for payment to be made to each ranch operator.

Part V. Division of Payments

SECTION 1. Division of Payments between Owner and Operator.—A. All payments, except sugar-beet and range-building payments, shall be divided among owners and share tenants, in the same proportion as the principal crop or the proceeds thereof is divided under their lease or operating agreement. The term "principal crop" as used herein means the soil-depleting crop to which the greatest number of acres on the farm is devoted in 1937; Provided, however, That

1. If there is no soil-depleting crop which has a larger acreage in 1937 than any other soil-depleting crop, the principal crop shall be the soil-depleting crop which is of major importance in terms of acreage in the county in which such farm is located.

2. If there is no soil-depleting crop seeded on the farm for harvest in 1937, the principal crop shall be the soil-conserving crop having the largest 1937 acreage.

Upon the recommendation of the State Committee or the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, and approval by the Secretary, a different basis for determining the principal crop may be employed.

B. The sugar beet payment shall be divided among owners and share tenants in the same proportion as the sugar beet crop, or the proceeds thereof, is divided under their lease or operating agreement.

C. All payments shall be made without regard to questions of title under State law, without deductions of claims for advances, and without regard to any claim or lien against the crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

SECTION 2. 1937 Owner or Operator Entitled to Payments.—All payments, except sugar beet and range-building payments, shall be made to the 1937 owner or operator who shares in the principal crop on the farm in 1937. However, if the county committee determines that a 1937 operator of a farm, who did not share in such principal crop, did contribute as an operator to performance on the farm qualifying for such payments, such operator shall be entitled to such portion of the operator's share of the payment to be made with respect to the farm as is agreed upon in writing by the operators entitled to share in such payments and is approved by the county committee, or as is determined by the county committee in the absence of such agreement.

Part VI. General Conditions for Payment

SECTION 1. Modifications for Farms under Special Program.—On any farm where a program is carried out in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service or the Resettlement Administration, payment will be made only for such diversion and for carrying out such soil-building practices as are, prior to performance, approved for the farm by the county committee in accordance with instructions issued by the Secretary.

SECTION 2. Destruction of Foods, Fibers, and Feed Grains.—Notwithstanding any of the provisions of Parts II, III, and IV, of this bulletin, no payments will be made for changes in the use of land which involve the destruction of foods, fibers or feed grains.

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program.—No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 Program, or if such person has offset, or through any schemes or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

SECTION 4. Deductions for Increase in Acreage of Soil-Depleting Crops.—If the 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops on any farm is in excess of the soil-depleting base for the farm, a deduction shall be made from the payment which otherwise would be made with respect to such farm in an amount computed by multiplying the number of such excess acres by the rate of payment per acre for diversion from the soil-depleting base (Part III, Section 1, Practice T) as determined for the farm in accordance with Part X, Section 1; Provided, however, That if the soil-depleting base for the farm is less than 20 acres, such deduction shall be computed only with respect to the 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops in excess of 20 acres. For each acre of land on the farm plowed, from native sod in 1937 in excess of 10, a deduction shall be made from the farm allowance for such farm, computed by multiplying the number of such acres in excess of 10 by the rate determined for such farm under Part III, Section 2, item 1, provided, however, such deduction shall not apply to the farm when an equal acreage of soil-conserving crops is seeded on the farm in 1937 or an equal acreage of cropland is retired from production on the farm in 1937.

SECTION 5. Change in Lease or Cropping Arrangements Affecting Payments to Tenants.—If the Secretary, upon the basis of an investigation by the State Committee, finds that any person has for 1937 made any change from the 1935 or 1936 leasing or cropping arrangement for the farm for the purpose of, or which would have the effect of diverting to such person any payment to which tenants would be entitled if the 1935 or 1936 leasing or cropping agreement were in effect for 1937, the amount of any payment which otherwise would be made to such person may be withheld in whole or in part and payments may be made to, or divided among, such tenants in proportion to the share of the principal crop to which such tenants were entitled under the 1935 or 1936 leasing or cropping agreement.

SECTION 6. Practices Not Qualifying for Payment.—A. No payment will be made with respect to any soil-building or range-building practice unless it is carried out in accordance with the general standards of good farming or good ranching practices.

B. No payment shall be made with respect to any soil-building or range-building practice for which the labor, seed, or materials are furnished by any State or Federal agency.

SECTION 7. Association Expenses.—There shall be deducted pro rata from the payments made to members of the Pondera County Agricultural Conservation Association all or such part as the Secretary may prescribe of the estimated administrative expenses incurred or to be incurred by such association in cooperating in carrying out in such county the purposes of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act. There shall be credited to each County Agricultural Conservation Association for the payment of administrative expenses the amount of $2.00 per farm for that number of farms with respect to which it is estimated by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration the total payment (prior to deduction of any administrative expenses) will be $20.00 or less.

SECTION 8. Application and Eligibility for Payment.—A. Payments will only be made upon application filed with the county committee. Each person applying for a payment will be required to show that work sheets have been executed either in 1936 or 1937, covering all land in the county owned or operated by him and the extent to which the conditions upon which the payment is to be made have been met in 1937. Any person applying for a payment who owns or operates land in more than one county in the State may be required to file in the office of the State Committee a list of all such land.

B. An application for a payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

C. A farming or ranching unit located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or, if there is no such principal dwelling, such farming or ranching unit shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farming or ranching unit is located.

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

SECTION 9. Land to be Covered by Work Sheet.—A. Where one or more farms in the same county are under the same ownership and are operated in 1937 as part or all of a single farming unit by the same operator, such farm or farms shall be covered by one work sheet.

B. Where two or more farms in the same county are under different ownerships, even though they are operated in 1937 as part or all of a single farming unit by the same operator, each separately owned farm shall be covered by a separate work sheet.

C. Where two or more farms in the same county are under the same ownership and are operated in 1937 as separate farming units, each separately operated farm shall be covered by a separate work sheet.

D. Where land comprising part of a farming unit is rented on shares and land comprising part of the same farming unit used for hay, meadow, pasture, or similar uses is rented for cash from the same landlord, it will not be necessary to execute more than one work sheet for both such share-rented and such cash-rented land.

E. Where land comprising part of a farming unit is rented on shares and land comprising part of the same farming unit not used for hay, meadow, pasture, or similar uses, is rented for cash from the same or a different landlord, it will be necessary to execute a work sheet for such share-rented land and a separate work sheet for such cash-rented land.

Part VII. Establishment of Bases

SECTION 1. Soil-Depleting Base.—There will be established a soil-depleting base for each farm which shall represent the acreage normally used for the production of soil-depleting crops on such farm.

A. On each farm for which a work sheet was executed under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program, such soil-depleting base for the farm in 1937 shall be the total soil-depleting base which was established for the farm under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program, subject to necessary acreage adjustments based on land measurements made in connection with the 1936 and 1937 Agricultural Conservation Programs, changes in crop classifications, and further adjustments that will result in a soil-depleting base for the farm which is comparable with soil-depleting bases for other farms in the same community which are similar with respect to size, type of soil, topography, production facilities, type of farming, and farming practices.

B. On farms for which no work sheet was executed under the 1936 Agricultural Conservation Program, the soil-depleting base shall be the acreage of all soil-depleting crops seeded for the 1936 harvest subject to the following adjustments:

1. Where, because of weather conditions, the number of acres of soil-depleting crops seeded for harvest in 1936 was greater or less than the acreage of such crops usually seeded on the farm, such number of acres shall be decreased or increased to an acreage which is comparable to the acreage of such crops seeded on such farm under normal conditions in past years.

2. Where the acreage of soil-depleting crops seeded for harvest in 1936 for any farm, adjusted if necessary as heretofore indicated, is materially greater or less than the acreage of soil-depleting crops seeded for harvest in 1936 on farms in the same community which are similar with respect to size, type of soil, topography, production facilities, and farming practices, such adjustment shall be made as will result in a soil-depleting base for such farm which is equitable, as compared with the soil-depleting bases for such other similar farms.

C. A county limit for the farms participating in the program in Pondera County will be established by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the aggregate of the soil-depleting bases established in each county shall not exceed the county limit for such county unless a variance therefrom is recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration. In establishing county limits, the Agricultural Adjustment Administration shall consider the ratio of all acreage of soil-depleting crops in the county to all cropland in the county, the ratio of the soil-depleting bases established in a county to the acreage of cropland on all farms for which such bases have been established, and any other pertinent information which is available.

SECTION 2. Soil-Conserving Base.—The soil-conserving base shall be equal to the total acreage of cropland less the soil-depleting base.

SECTION 3. Establishment of Grazing Capacity.—There will be established a grazing capacity for each ranching unit for which an application for determination of grazing capacity is received. Such grazing capacity shall be based upon the report submitted by the range examiner, who, in examining the range and making his report thereon, will take into consideration the following: (a) composition, palatability, and density of growth: (b) climatic fluctuations; (c) distribution and character of watering facilities; (d) topographic and cultural features; (e) classes of livestock; (f) presence or absence of rodents and poisonous plant infestations; and (g) previous use. The average of the individual grazing capacities established for all ranching units in a county shall not exceed the county average grazing capacity limit for such land.

Part VIII. Classification of Land Uses

Farm land, when devoted to the crops or uses indicated hereinafter, shall be classified as follows, except for such additions or modifications as may be recommended by the State Committee or the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and approved by the Secretary.

SECTION 1. Soil-Depleting Crops.—Land devoted to any of the following uses or seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops; and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to summer fallow, and emergency forage crops:

a. Small grains, including flax.
b. Corn (field, sweet, and popcorn).
c. Potatoes.
d. Sugar beets.
e. Root crops grown for feed.
f. Cultivated sunflowers.
g. Mustard (commercial).
h. Rape.
i. Truck and vegetable crops and their seed; melons, and strawberries.
j. Grain sorghums, sweet sorghum, broom corn and Sudan grass, harvested for seed, grain, or hay; or pastured.
k. Millets.
l. Soybeans, field beans, canning beans, cowpeas, field peas, seed peas, and canning peas, harvested for grain, seed or hay.
m. Cultivated fallow (summer fallow) unless otherwise provided.

SECTION 2. Soil-Conserving Crops.—Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937, excluding such cropland upon which no stand of a soil-conserving crop is secured in 1937, shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop, except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1, Part VIII of this bulletin) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year and except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to the seeding of perennial or biennial legumes or perennial grasses following summer fallow:

a. The following legumes and perennial grasses, and such other legumes and grasses as may be approved by the Director of the Western Division, when seeded without a nurse crop or when seeded with a nurse crop if such nurse crop is not harvested for grain or hay:

1. Legumes: alfalfa, sweet, red, alsike, white, strawberry, Ladino, Mammoth, crimson, bur and sour clover, Austrian winter peas, serices, kudzu.

2. Grasses: bluegrass, orchard, brome, wheat grasses, rye grasses, timothy, redtop, bent grasses, fescues, tall oat grass, Reed's canary grass and velvet grass.

b. Green manure crops on irrigated land only, including annual legumes when turned under in 1937 after attaining at least two months' growth, when not followed by summer fallow.

c. Forest trees planted on cropland since January 1, 1934.

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:

a. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, bush fruits, hops, and perennial vegetables, regardless of the use of the land between the rows.

b. Idle cropland.

c. Bulbs and nursery stock.

d. Any acreage on which perennial or biennial legumes or perennial grasses have been seeded following summer fallow when no soil-depleting crop has been seeded on such land for harvest in 1937.

e. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, sorghum, winter rye, corn, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936; provided, such use of land shall have been approved by the county committee prior to July 15, 1937.

f. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and December 31, 1933.

Part IX. Appeals

SECTION 1. Appeals from Determinations of County Committee.—Any person who has reason to believe that any base, productivity index, grazing capacity, or any division of payment, determined for his farm or ranching unit by the county committee is not equitable, may request such committee to reconsider its determination. If no agreement is reached between such person and such committee, an appeal may be taken in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed by the Secretary.

Part X. Diversion and Farm Allowance Rates

SECTION 1. For any individual farm the rate of payment for diversion set up under Practice T of Part III and the rate to be used in computing the farm allowance with respect to acreage of cropland under Section 2 of Part III shall be determined by multiplying the applicable average rate per acre by the productivity index established for the farm and by dividing the result by 100.

The productivity index for the farm shall be determined on the basis of the farm yield as compared with the county yield of a crop which is generally grown throughout the county or, on such other basis as the Director of the Western Division may authorize for the purpose of obtaining an accurate reflection of the productivity of the cropland on the farm. The average of the productivity indexes for all farms for which work sheets are filed in the county, weighted by the respective crop acreages for such farms, shall not exceed 100, unless a variance therefrom is recommended by the State Committee and approved by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration because of the fact that the average productivity of all farms participating in the program is found to be higher than the average productivity of all farms in the county.

Part XI. Multiple Farm Holdings

SECTION 1. Determination of Soil-Building Payments.—The amount of soil-building payment to be made to any person for carrying out approved soil-building or soil-conserving practices shall be computed on all farms owned or operated by such person in the county as follows:

A. For each farm multiply the number of acres devoted to an approved soil-building or soil-conserving practice by the rate specified for such practice; multiply this result by the percentage to which the applicant is entitled, and total the amounts thus obtained.

B. For each farm compute the applicant's share of the farm allowance (without regard to the minimum farm allowance) and total the amounts thus obtained.

C. The amount obtained under A, above, or the amount obtained under B, above, whichever is the smaller, shall be the amount of soil-building payment to the applicant.

SECTION 2. Adjustment in Payments.—In the event that any person who makes application for payment with respect to any farm has an interest as owner or operator in another farm or farms in the same State upon which the aggregate 1937 acreage of soil-depleting crops exceeds the soil-depleting base acreage for such farm or farms, the applicant's share of any payment may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be adjusted to offset such increase in soil-depleting acreage.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—Nevada, Supplement 2 Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—NEVADA, SUPPLEMENT 2

Amendments to WR B-101—Nevada as Amended

Part IV, Section 1, Practice D: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payments Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B–1: Clarifies definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Nevada, as amended by Supplement 1, is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part IV, Section 1, practice D is amended to read as follows:

D. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than three binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3.—Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program:

No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, section 8, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops.

Part XI, Section 3, subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

WR—B-101—New Mexico, Supplement 4 Issued July 23, 1937

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR BULLETIN NO. 101—NEW MEXICO, SUPPLEMENT 4

Amendments to WR—B-101—New Mexico as Amended

Part III, Section 3, Subsection C: Clarifies Classification of Designated Wind-Erosion Acreage

Part III, Section 3, Subsection F: Extends Date for Carrying Out Wind-Erosion Control Practices With Respect to Preliminary Payment

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payments Restricted to Effectuate the Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of a Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Base and Deletes Reference to Nurse Crops in Connection With Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 2, First Paragraph: Deletes Reference to Poor Stand of Soil-Conserving Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Rewritten to Show Neutral Classification of Land

Part XI, Section 4: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—New Mexico, as amended by Supplement 1, Supplement 2, and Supplement 3, is hereby further amended:

Part III, section 3, subsection C, is amended to read as follows:

C. Wind-Erosion Control Practices.—Payment will be made for the carrying out on designated wind-erosion acreage in 1937 such of the following practices as are approved by the county committee for the farm prior to their institution, without such practices, when carried out on designated wind-erosion acreage, being regarded as in any way effecting the prior classification of such acreage.

Part III, section 3, subsection F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Preliminary Application for Payment.—By preliminary application made on the prescribed form, any 1937 owner or operator, who has carried out before July 1, 1937, such wind-erosion control practices as are provided for in this section, may receive a preliminary payment amounting to 85 percent of the amount of payment computed in accordance with the provisions of subsection C above. Such preliminary payment shall not be in excess of 85 percent of the additional soil-building allowance provided for in subsection B above. The amount of such preliminary payment will be deducted from the total amount computed as due such 1937 owner or operator under the complete and final application made by him for payment under the provisions of the 1937 agricultural conservation program. In connection with such complete and final application, appropriate deductions shall be made for administrative expenses.

Part IV, section 1, practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, poles, rails, logs, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program:

No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, section 8, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, section 8, is amended by the addition of subsection D to read as follows:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in section 2 of this part VIII with respect to nurse crops and green manure crops, as provided in section 3 of this part VIII, with respect to pastured winter cover crops, and emergency forage crops; and as provided in part III, section 3, subsection C, with respect to sorghums, Sudan grass, or millets grown in 1937 on designated wind-erosion acreage.

Part VIII, section 2, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop, except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of section 1 of part VIII) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year.

Part VIII, section 3, is deleted in its entirety and the following is substituted in lieu thereof:

SECTION 3. Neutral Uses.—Land devoted to the following uses or crops shall be regarded as devoted to neutral uses:

a. Orchards, vineyards, nut trees, bush fruits, hops, and perennial vegetables, regardless of the use of the land between the rows.

b. Idle cropland.

c. Cultivated fallow.

d. Bulbs and nursery stock.
e. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.
f. Small grains seeded as a winter cover crop and pastured, but not harvested for grain or hay.
g. Any acreage devoted in 1937 to the production of emergency forage crops consisting of millets, Sudan grass, rape, oats, barley, and annual legumes or mixtures of such crops which the county committee determines is equivalent to the acreage of soil-conserving crops on the farm which was winter-killed or destroyed by drouth in the period beginning July 1, 1936; provided, such use of land shall have been approved by the country committee prior to May 1, 1937.

Part XI, section 4, subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Part VIII, Section 3, Item (d): Item (d) is Deleted and A New Item (d) is Substituted in Lieu Thereof to Classify Cropland Planted to Forest Trees Between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B-1: Clarifies definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Oregon, as amended by Supplement 1, is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part III, section 1, subsection U, item 2 is amended to read as follows:

2. 100 pounds per acre, containing 20 percent available sulphur or its sulphur equivalent, on land in Benton, Multnomah, Clackamas, Marion, Linn, Columbia, Yamhill, Lane, Washington, Polk, Josephine, Jackson, Douglas and Hood River Counties, $1.00 per acre.

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than 4 logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled, or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than 3 binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails and jacks to be good and sound, $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

Section 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program:
No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 8, subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of subsection D to read as follows:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, Section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land devoted to any of the following uses or seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to summer fallow, emergency forage crops, cover crops, and support crops.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Crop land devoted to any of the following crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1 of Part VIII) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year, and except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to the seeding of soil-conserving crops following summer fallow.

Part VIII, Section 3, is amended by deleting item d and substituting in lieu thereof a new item d, which reads as follows:

d. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class 1 payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection B, of this Part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Land devoted to any of the following uses or seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in Section 2 of this Part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and green manure crops, and as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to soil-conserving crops following summer fallow, emergency forage crops, cover crops, and support crops.

Part VIII, Section 2, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Cropland devoted to any of the following crops in 1937 shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-conserving crop; except that any land devoted to a soil-depleting crop in the same year (within the meaning of Section 1 of this Part VIII) shall be regarded as having been used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for such year; and except as provided in Section 3 of this Part VIII with respect to soil-conserving crops following summer fallow.

Part VIII, Section 3, is amended by deleting item d and substituting in lieu thereof a new item d to read as follows:

d. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 1, subsection D, of this Part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

1937 AGRICULTURAL CONSERVATION PROGRAM—WESTERN REGION

WR—BULLETIN NO. 101—WYOMING SUPPLEMENT 2

Amendments to WR—B–101—Wyoming as Amended

Part IV, Section 1, Practice F: Addition of Poles and Logs as Fencing Material for Range Fences

Part VI, Section 3: Payments Restricted to Effectuate Purposes of the Program

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection D: Establishes Location of a Farm When It Is Divided by County Lines

Part VIII, Section 1, First Paragraph: Clarifies Meaning of Soil-Depleting Crops

Part VIII, Section 3: Classifies Cropland Planted to Forest Trees Between January 1, 1930 and January 1, 1934

Part XI, Section 3, Subsection B–1: Clarifies Definition of Soil-Depleting Base

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under Section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, Western Region Bulletin No. 101—Wyoming, as amended by Supplement 1 is further amended by this supplement as follows:

Part IV, section 1, practice F, is amended to read as follows:

F. Range Fences.—For building cross fences or drift fences, constructed as follows: (a) not fewer than three tightly stretched wires, attached to posts set not more than 20 feet apart, with corner posts well braced, or (b) not fewer than three poles, or rails, nailed, with nails not smaller than 40-penny spikes, to posts or jacks spaced not more than 18 feet apart, or (c) not fewer than four logs laid in worm-like fashion, with corners to be notched and saddled or braced on either side at point of log intersection with two upright poles or other suitable bracing material wired together with not less than three binding wires; all posts, logs, poles, rails, and jacks to be good and sound: $0.30 per rod.

Part VI, Section 3, is amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. Payments Restricted to Effectuation of Purposes of the Program:
No person shall be entitled to receive or retain any part of any payment if such person has adopted any practice which the Secretary determines tends to defeat any of the purposes of the 1937 program, or if such person has offset, or through any scheme or device whatsoever, such as but not limited to operating by or through or participating in the operation of a firm, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, has participated in offsetting, or has benefited or is in position to benefit by such offsetting, in whole or in part, the performance rendered in respect of which such payment would otherwise be made.

Part VI, Section 8, Subsection B, is amended to read as follows:

B. An application for payment may be made by an owner, share-tenant, share-cropper, ranch operator, or such other person as may be designated by the Secretary.

Part VI, Section 8, is amended by the addition of the following subsection D:

D. A farm located in two or more adjoining counties shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling thereon is located, or if there is no such principal dwelling, such farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of such farm is located.

Part VIII, section 3, is amended by the addition of item f as follows:

f. Cropland planted to forest trees between January 1, 1930, and January 1, 1934.

Part VIII, section 1, first paragraph, is amended to read as follows:

Land seeded to any of the following crops shall be regarded as used for the production of a soil-depleting crop for the year in which such crop would normally be harvested; except as provided in section 2 of this part VIII with respect to nurse crops, and as provided in section 3 of this part VIII with respect to emergency forage crops.

Part XI, section 3, subsection B, item 1, is amended to read as follows:

1. Multiply the Class I payment to the applicant for diversion from the general soil-depleting base, determined in accordance with the provisions of section 1, subsection D, of this part XI, by 66.7 percent.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23rd day of July, 1937. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION.

CORRECTED ORDER DIRECTING REPORT OF CONDITION

Paragraph (3) of subsection (k) of Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, provides as follows:

Each insured State nonmember bank (except a District bank) shall make to the Corporation reports of condition in such form and at such times as the board of directors may require. The board of directors may require such reports to be published in such manner, not inconsistent with any applicable law, as it may direct. Every such bank which fails to make or publish any such report within such time, not less than five days, as the board of directors may require, shall be subject to a penalty of not more than $100 for each day of such failure recoverable by the Corporation for its use.

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of subsection (k) of Section 12B of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, it is ordered that each insured nonmember bank, except a District bank, shall submit to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, within ten days after receipt of this Order, a report of its condition as of the close of business June 30, 1937, on Form No. 64, Call No. 7, which is hereby approved. Said report of condition shall be prepared in accordance with the instructions issued under date of June 23, 1937, in Form No. 64a—Call No. 7, which is hereby approved.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation on July 7, 1937.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information given under Division II, Item 20 (b), relative to the percentage of water in fluid produced from the tract involved, is not believed to be correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information disclosed under Division II, Items 18 (a) and (e), and 19 (c) and (e), is not believed to be correct for the reason that it does not agree with similar information disclosed by the plat attached to the offering sheet as Exhibit A;

(2) In that the Commission has information that well No. 4, shown on the plat attached to the offering sheet as a drilling well, is in fact a completed well drilled to a depth of approximately 4,354 feet, which when placed on production was found to be full of salt water, which information was, at the time the offering sheet was filed, known to the respondent herein and should be disclosed to make the information contained in the offering sheet not misleading;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a writtten request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 13-a]

AN ORDER PRESCRIBING AUTHORITY OF EXAMINER TO PRESIDE AT HEARING AT COLUMBUS, OHIO, ON JULY 28, 1937, AS PROVIDED IN ORDER NO. 13

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, by its Order No. 13, has set a public hearing in the Deshler-Wallick Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, on July 28, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Ohio, and the effect of such commerce upon interstate commerce in such coal and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice, will exist between localities in Ohio in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 on the other hand and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act to the end that the Commission may, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and to the provisions of Section 4-A of the Act.

Pursuant to Order No. 13, George Edward Acret has been designated to preside as examiner at such hearing. Said examiner is hereby authorized to adjourn said hearing from time to time, and to administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence, issue subpoenas, require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, contracts, agreements, or other records deemed relevant and material to the inquiry, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law. Upon the completion of the taking of testimony in this matter, the officer conducting such hearing is hereby directed to close the hearing and make a report to the Commission of his findings and recommendations.

By order of the Commission.

[SEAL] F. WITCHER MCCULLOUGH,
Secretary.

Dated this 26th day of July, 1937.

[Order No. 27]

AN ORDER MODIFYING ORDERS NO. 2 AND NO. 13 IN THAT DETERMINATION OF THE EFFECT OF INTRASTATE COMMERCE UPON INTERSTATE COMMERCE IN VARIOUS LOCALITIES SHALL BE MADE PURSUANT TO SPECIFIC HEARINGS TO BE HELD AT VARIOUS TIMES AT DIFFERENT POINTS WITHIN THE UNITED STATES

Pursuant to act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, upon the claims presented to the National Bituminous Coal Commission by certain producers, producers' organizations, and other interested parties, that substantially all transactions in bituminous coal in intrastate commerce within the States of Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wyoming and the Territory of Alaska, directly affect interstate commerce in such coal and cause, and will cause, undue and unreasonable advantage, preference and prejudice as between such commerce in such localities on the one hand and interstate commerce in such coal on the other hand as such interstate commerce is regulated by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, by its Order No. 2, dated June 19, 1937, directed that a hearing be held on the 12th day of July, 1937, commencing at the hour of ten (10) o'clock A. M., in the Hearing Room of the Carlton Hotel, Washington, D. C., for the purpose of determining the nature and extent of intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the localities above named and the effect of such commerce on interstate commerce in such coal, and to determine what, if any, undue or unreasonable advantage, preference or prejudice would exist between localities in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce as regulated by said Act on the other hand, and what, if any, undue, unreasonable or unjust discriminations against interstate commerce in coal have occurred or will occur under the administration of Section 4 of said Act, to the end that the Commission might, after hearing, take such action as is necessary to give effect to the Bituminous Coal Code and the provisions of Section 4–A of said Act. Said order provided further, that following the commencement of the said hearing at Washington, D. C., the Commission would, in its discretion, designate the times and places for further hearings at points convenient to the respective localities named in said order, and that further notice thereof would be duly given to producers of bituminous coal.

It appears from the statements made and data submitted by interested parties at said hearing held in Washington, D. C., on July 12, 1937, and upon investigation by the Commission, that it would be advisable to hold separate hearings in the localities in which it appears that transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal may affect interstate commerce in such coal in such localities, and that separate findings and determinations be made by the Commission with respect to the conditions existing in each locality; now therefore, the National Bituminous Coal Commission, under authority of the provisions of such Section 4–A, hereby orders and directs as follows:

1. That said Order No. 2, dated June 19, 1937, is hereby modified to provide for independent separate hearings in such localities as may be deemed necessary by the Commission. Further hearings shall, therefore, be held by the Commission pursuant to the provisions of said Order No. 2 only for the purpose of determining in what localities separate hearings shall be held. Any provisions in said Order No. 2 inconsistent with this modification are hereby revoked.

2. That notice of further hearings under the provisions of said Order No. 2, as hereby modified, and of hearings in individual localities will be given all interested persons in due course.

3. That Order No. 13 of the Commission, dated July 14, 1937, providing for a hearing to be held at the Hearing Room of the Commission in the Deshler-Wallick Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, on July 28, 1937, with respect to transactions in intrastate commerce in bituminous coal in the State of Ohio shall be subject to this modification.

4. The Secretary of the Commission shall forthwith mail a copy of this Order to each known producer of bituminous coal in each of the localities aforesaid and to the secretary of each district board in each of the aforesaid localities, and shall cause to be published at the expense of the Commission a copy of this Order on three (3) consecutive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of such localities. Each notice published need only contain the name of the particular locality affected in which such publication is made and need not contain this paragraph.

By order of the Commission.

Secretary.

AMENDMENT NO. 2 TO REGULATIONS OF THE SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE FOR WAREHOUSEMEN STORING CANNED FOODS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the United States Warehouse Act, approved August 11, 1916 (39 U. S. Stat. L., pp. 446, 486) as amended, I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do make, prescribe, publish, and give public notice of the following amendment to the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture for warehousemen storing canned foods, promulgated April 29, 1932, and amended July 26, 1933, under said Act, such amendment to be effective immediately.

Amend Regulation 2, Section 3 to read as follows:

SEC. 3. Any warehouseman conducting a warehouse licensed or for which application for license has been made shall have and maintain above all exemptions and liabilities net assets liable for the payment of any indebtedness arising from the conduct of the warehouse, to the extent of at least 20 cents per case of the maximum number of cases that the warehouse will accommodate when stored in the manner customary to the warehouse as determined by the chief of the bureau, except that the amount of such assets shall not be less than $5,000, and need not be more than $100,000.

If such warehouseman has applied for licenses to conduct two or more warehouses in the same State, the assets applicable to all of which shall be subject to the liabilities of each, such warehouses shall be deemed to be one warehouse for the purposes of the assets required under this section. For the purposes of this section only, paid-in capital stock, as such, shall not be considered a liability.

A deficiency in required net assets may be supplied by an increase in the amount of the warehouseman's bond in accordance with regulation 3, section 2, paragraph 2.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be hereunto affixed in the City of Washington, this 26th day of July, 1937.

AMENDMENTS TO OFFICIAL UNITED STATES STANDARDS OF QUALITY AND CONDITION FOR DRY EDIBLE BEANS

CHANGES IN DEFINITION OF DOCKAGE AND IN THE PROVISION FOR THE INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION OF THRESHER-RUN BEANS

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the act of Congress entitled "An act making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, and for other purposes," approved June 29, 1937 (Public No. 173, 75th Congress), I, M. L. Wilson, Acting Secretary of Agriculture, do prescribe and promulgate, effective August 2, 1937, the following amendments to the official standards of the United States for the inspection and certification of dry edible beans approved by the Secretary of Agriculture on June 29, 1935, effective August 1, 1935:

Definition of Dockage

The paragraph on "dockage" under "definitions" shall be changed to read as follows:

Dockage shall apply only to thresher-run beans or beans which have not been recleaned and/or hand-picked and shall include dirt, stones, weed seeds, chaff, cereal grains, and all other matter other than beans which can be readily removed by the use of appropriate sieves or cleaning devices, and all small undeveloped beans and splits or pieces of beans that will pass through a sieve with perforations that will result in the smallest loss of marketable beans applicable to the principal use of beans of the class being tested, such sieve to have perforations of one of the following dimensions:

9/64 inch by ¾ inch.
10/64 inch by ¾ inch.
11/64 inch by ¾ inch.
12/64 inch by ¾ inch.
13/64 inch by ¾ inch.
14/64 inch by ¾ inch.

except that for the classes Lima, Baby Lima, and similar types, the sieve for which shall have round perforations either 20/64 inch, 22/64 inch, or 24/64 inch in diameter.

The quantity of dockage shall be calculated in terms of percentage based on not less than a 1,000-gram portion of the original sample including the dockage. In calculating total dockage fractional percentage of less than 1 percent shall be ignored.

Inspection and Certification of Thresher-Run Beans

The provision for the inspection and certification of thresher-run beans shall be changed to read as follows:

Beans of any class that have not been recleaned and/or hand-picked shall not be graded according to the table of grade requirements applicable to such class but shall be inspected and certificated as to: (1) the class; (2) the percentage of total dockage, if any, with optional statement of the percentage each of small beans, splits, and foreign material which make up the total dockage; (3) the percentage of total defects in the dockage-free beans which shall include the percentage each of splits, damage, other classes, and inseparable foreign material, and, may include the percentage of cracked seed coats; and (4) the general appearance. All factors other than dockage and the analysis thereof shall apply only to, and be based on, the dockage-free sample, except general appearance which shall be based on the sample of beans after the removal of dockage and defects.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of Agriculture to be affixed in the city of Washington, this 26th day of July 1937.

PREPAYMENT CHARGES

The following schedule of charges and regulations governing prepayment of Bank loans which have been in force in excess of five years has been prescribed pursuant to the general authority vested in the Bank:

1. On all loans which have been in force in excess of five years, for a period of thirty days following an installment payment date, interest will be charged only to the date remittance is received on either partial or full payments. On payments received after the expiration of the thirty day period, interest will be charged to the next installment payment date;

2. When funds are received for highway purposes, or from other sources, and the principal payment is involuntary on the part of the borrower, interest will be charged on such principal payment only to the date remittance is received;

3. When funds are received from borrowers for the purpose of paying the principal payments on their loans which have previously been deferred and bringing their loans up to date on the basis of the amortization table, interest will be charged on such items only to the date remittance is received;

4. When funds are received as bonus payments or rentals from mineral leases, no prepayment charge will be made. However, this rule will not apply where an application to the reduction if principal is made from funds received from the sale of royalty, as the procedure will be the same as in any case where a portion of the Bank's security is being released.

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 2 (e), as to whether the interests offered are perpetual;

(2) In that under Division II, Item 13, it is required that the number of drilling wells in the field be stated, which information is omitted;

(3) In that the depths of wells 1, 3, 5, 6 and 8, as set forth under Division II, Item 19 (c), do not appear to be correct for the reason that the figures given do not agree with the figures given for the depths of the same wells in the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A";

(4) In that the text of and answers to Division II, Items 19 (c) to 22, inclusive, are not included in one copy of the offering sheet filed with the Commission:

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the information concerning the number of wells now drilling in the field is not set forth under Division II, Item 13;

(2) In that the percentage of water in fluid produced, as set forth under Division II, Item 20 (b), does not appear to be correct;

(3) In that the estimation of recoverable oil contained in Division III may not be correct for the reason that it appears that 37% of the fluid produced from the tract involved is water; therefore, because of the water situation it is questionable if the amount of oil, as estimated, will be recovered;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

For statutory provisions relating to the Canal Zone Judiciary, see Code, title 7, sections 1 to 62.

SECTION 2. Boundaries of divisions of District Court.—The two divisions of the District Court shall be known, respectively, as the Balboa Division and the Cristobal Division.

The Balboa Division shall include all that part of the Canal Zone which lies easterly of a line extended through the Canal Zone 5-mile boundary monument 40 on the eastern boundary, and monument 148½ (which is also a 100-foot contour monument) on the western boundary. The said line, extending through the monuments 40 and 148½ and bearing S. 39°46' W. (true), crosses the Panama Railroad at a point 11 feet southerly from track-span bridge numbered 22-10, and crosses the Panama Canal at station 1339 plus 13 feet (which crossing point is 2721 feet northerly along the Tabernilla Reach from the Tabernilla P. I.), and is as shown on Panama Canal drawing 6103-35, filed with the records of the Panama Canal in the Canal Zone.

The Cristobal Division shall include all that part of the Canal Zone which lies westerly of the above-described line.

For the purposes of this section the Canal Zone shall be deemed to include all lands and lands under water over which in connection with the construction, maintenance, operation, sanitation, and protection of the Panama Canal, the United States now possesses and exercises, or shall hereafter possess and exercise, sovereign rights, power, and authority.

Cross-Reference

Authority of President to determine boundaries of divisions of District Court, see Code, title 7, section 22.

SECTION 3. Subdivisions of Canal Zone.—The Canal Zone is hereby divided into two subdivisions, one to be known as the Balboa Subdivision and the other as the Cristobal Subdivision.

The Balboa Subdivision shall be coterminous with the Balboa Division of the District Court, and the Cristobal Subdivision shall be coterminous with the Cristobal Division of the District Court.

Cross-Reference

Authority of President to divide the Canal Zone into subdivisions, see Code, title 2, section 4.

SECTION 4. Towns of the Canal Zone.—The town of Balboa shall include the town site of that name at the Pacific terminus of the Canal, and all other settlements within the Balboa Subdivision of the Canal Zone; and the town of Cristobal shall include the town site of that name, and all other settlements within the Cristobal Subdivision of the Canal Zone.

Cross-Reference

Authority of President to determine what towns shall exist, see Code, title 2, section 4.

SECTION 5. Places for holding sessions of District Court.—The Governor shall provide a suitable place in each of the towns of Balboa and Cristobal for the holding of the sessions of the District Court.

SECTION 6. Privileges, allowances, and facilities of District Court and its personnel.—The District Court and its personnel shall continue to receive the perquisites, privileges, and allowances to which they were entitled and were receiving prior to November 4, 1933, the effective date of the transfer from the Secretary of War to the Department of Justice of the function of supervision over the said Court, as provided for by section 6 of Executive Order No. 6166 of June 10, 1933; and The Panama Canal shall continue to furnish as theretofore to the court and to its personnel all necessary office quarters, equipment, and facilities, and all necessary travel facilities within the Canal Zone; and The Panama Canal shall not require payment from the Department of Justice for such quarters, equipment, and facilities.

SECTION 7. Designation of Marshal as disbursing officer; bond.—The Marshal of the District shall disburse all funds under the control of the Department of Justice required for the maintenance and operation of the District Court, and shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in such amount as may be fixed by the Attorney General.

Cross-References

Establishment of office of Marshal of the District, see Code, title 7, section 40.

Powers and duties of Marshal generally, see Code, title 7, section 41.

SECTION 8. Leave of absence of District Judge, District Attorney, and Marshal.—The leave of absence allowed the District Judge, District Attorney, and Marshal by section 42 of title 7 of the Code shall be reckoned by calendar years. If the office involved is held by two or more persons in one calendar year, the leave shall be prorated to such persons in proportion to the time that they have held office during that year. Any portion of the leave of absence accruing in any one calendar year and not used in that year may be accumulated and used in succeeding calendar years: Provided, that leave may not be accumulated in excess of 120 days, and that not more than 120 days of leave may be taken in any one calendar year. The officers concerned shall make applications for leave of absence to the Attorney General of the United States and shall report to him the time of their departure and the time of their return to duty.

SECTION 9. Magistrates and constables; appointment; compensation.—There shall be a magistrate and a constable for each of the towns of Balboa and Cristobal, who shall be appointed, and whose compensation shall be fixed, by the Governor; and in the event of the absence or disability of a magistrate or constable, the Governor may appoint an additional magistrate or constable to serve during such absence or disability.

Cross-References

Appointment, term, and compensation of magistrates, constables, and other employees, see Code, title 7, section 4.

Oath of magistrates and constables, see Code, title 7, section 5.

SECTION 10. Places of holding magistrates' courts.—The magistrates shall hold court at such places in their respective towns as may be designated from time to time by the Governor.

Cross-Reference

Authority of President to prescribe times and places of holding magistrates' courts, see Code, title 7, section 6.

SECTION 11. Bonds of constables.—The constables appointed for the magistrates' courts shall be required before assuming office to execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, or with a corporate surety, to be approved by the Governor, in the sum of $1000, conditioned that the officer executing the bond will faithfully comply with his duties as constable, and will turn over all money, property, and effects coming into his hands by virtue of his office, to the persons entitled thereto in accordance with law. The bond may be sued upon in any court of competent jurisdiction by any person who may be injured by reason of a failure of official duty on the part of the constable. The bond shall not become void upon a first recovery but successive suits may be instituted thereon until the full amount thereof is exhausted.

Cross-References

Authority of President to regulate bonds of constables see Code, title 7, section 6.

For provisions respecting corporate sureties on bonds, see Code, title 4, section 962.

SECTION 12. Duties of constables.—The constables of the magistrates' courts shall:

(a) Attend all sessions of the magistrate's court for the town and subdivision to which they may be assigned by the Governor.

(b) Preserve order in the court.

(c) Receive and receipt for all money collected by them upon any process or paid into or deposited with the magistrate's court as fees, fines, costs, forfeitures, or bail.

(d) Duly account for such money in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Governor.

Cross-References

Authority of President to prescribe the duties of constables and the disposition of fines, costs, and forfeitures, see Code, title 7, section 6.

Payment of all fees over to Collector of Panama Canal, see Code, title A, section 981, as amended by act of May 13, 1936, 49 Stat. 1269.

SECTION 13. Prior orders superseded.—This order supersedes Executive Orders dated March 12, 1914 (No. 1898), August 3, 1914 (No. 2007), February 26, 1924 (No. 3965), May 25, 1927, August 29, 1927 (No. 4711), January 3, 1928 (No. 4792), September 2, 1931 (No. 5704), November 3, 1933 (No. 6390), and all other Executive Orders heretofore issued which relate to the Canal Zone judiciary and are of a permanent and continuing nature.

SECTION 14. Effective date.—This order shall take effect on the thirtieth day after the date hereof.

National Bituminous Coal Commission.

[Order No. 28]

AN ORDER PROVIDING FOR THE DETERMINATION OF THE CHARACTER OF ANY COAL AND THE ISSUANCE OF CERTIFICATES OF EXEMPTION TO PRODUCERS OF COALS OTHER THAN BITUMINOUS, SEMIBITUMINOUS AND SUBBITUMINOUS

Whereas the act of Congress entitled "An Act to regulate interstate commerce in bituminous coal, and for other purposes" (Public, No. 48, 75th Cong., 1st sess.), known as the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, stipulates (section 17 (b)) that "the term 'Bituminous Coal' includes all bituminous, semibituminous and subbituminous coal and shall exclude lignite, which is defined as a lignitic coal having calorific value in British thermal units of less than seven thousand six hundred per pound and having a natural moisture content in place in the mine of 30 per centum or more", and,

Whereas, it is desirable that a method be provided whereby producers of coal may secure a determination of their status under the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 and, if such coal is not bituminous, as defined in said Act, to receive a certificate of exemption:

Now, therefore, to facilitate the administration of said Act and pursuant to its power to make and promulgate all reasonable rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of the Act, the National Bituminous Coal Commission orders and directs:

1. That any producer of coal may, upon application to the Commission and upon presentation of proper evidence in support of such application, if required by the Commission, secure a finding by the Commission as to whether or not such coal is bituminous, as defined in said Act, and if it is not bituminous, secure a certificate from the Commission showing such fact.

2. Each such application shall be filed with the Commission in triplicate, shall be duly verified by affidavit and shall include the following:

(a) The name and post-office address of the applicant and, if said applicant is not the owner of the mining operations or the coal lands involved, the name and post-office address of such owner or owners.

(b) The designation and exact location of the mine or mines where the coal is produced, including the state, county and township and producing field or fields.

(c) A statement showing the tonnage produced in each of the calendar years 1934, 1935 and 1936 and the tonnage by months for the first six months of 1937.

(d) A statement showing the localities in which such coal is being marketed, together with the names and post office addresses of not less than three (3) persons or firms who are substantial consumers of such coal and are familiar with its qualities and characteristics.

(e) A full description of the seam or seams of coal in which mining operations are being conducted and for which exemption is claimed, including analyses of such coal, where available, made by competent persons or authorities satisfactory to the Commission, and such other information as will tend to show the character of the coal as to whether or not it is bituminous, semibituminous or sub-bituminous.

(f) A reference to publications and reports of agencies of the United States or State Governments, describing the characteristics and classification of the coal in question.

3. In the case of any such application the Commission may, in its discretion, require the submission of further data, and may also conduct a hearing upon reasonable notice at which the petitioner may be required to submit additional evidence in support of the claim for exemption.

4. In each such case, if the Commission finds from the evidence that the coal is not bituminous, as defined in the Act, a certificate of exemption may be issued, which certificate shall be proper evidence that the Commission has exempted the petitioner in respect of the coal covered by such certificate from the operation and effect of said Act.

5. Under the direction of the Secretary of the Commission a copy of this order shall be mailed to the Consumers' Counsel, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and to each District Board, and copies hereof shall be made available to all interested persons upon application to the statistical bureaus of the Commission established for the several districts under the provisions of the Act. The Secretary shall also cause this order to be published for three (3) successive days in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the districts created under said Act.

By order of the Commission.

Dated this 27th day of July, 1937.

Bureau of Air Commerce.

DESIGNATION OF THE FEDERAL AIRWAYS SYSTEM AS CIVIL AIRWAYS OF THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Air Commerce Act of 1926, as amended (44 Stat. 570, 49 U. S. C., Sec. 175), I hereby designate the following described air route as civil airway necessary to foster air commerce and suitable for interstate or foreign air commerce.

The civil airway designated herein shall include the navigable air space located vertically above an area on the horizontal plane contained within lines encircling each airport (hereinafter called terminal airport) at the ends thereof, with a radius of 25 miles from the center of said airport and also contained within two lines each parallel to and located 25 miles from the center line connecting the terminal airports thereof with such other points as hereinafter specified, to designate the route of said airway. The civil airway designated herein shall also include the terminal and intermediate airports, emergency landing fields and all other air navigation facilities located or which may be hereafter located and established within the said area.

Provided that the civil airway designated herein shall not include any air space reservations set aside and protected by Executive Orders pursuant to the Provisions of Section 4 of the Air Commerce Act of 1926, or the navigable air space above non-territorial waters or above foreign territory abutting the boundaries of the United States.

CIVIL AIRWAY NO. 100: MIAMI-ST. PETERSBURG

Miami, Florida, Municipal Airport, via Fort Myers, Florida, Municipal Airport; Sarasota, Florida, Muncipal Airport, to St. Petersburg, Florida, Albert Whitted Airport.

Approved, to take effect July 29, 1937.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION.

EXEMPTION FROM THE REQUIREMENT OF A RADIO INSTALLATION UNDER SECTION 352 (B), SUBSECTIONS (1) AND (3), TITLE III, PART 2, OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED

In a regular meeting of the Telegraph Division of the Federal Communications Commission, July 13, 1937:

Whereas, There has been filed with the Federal Communications Commission an application by Lloyd C. Hooks and the Eden Fishing Corporation for exemption, pursuant to the provisions of Section 352 (b), subsections (1) and (3), of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, from the radio requirements of Title III, Part 2, of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for the vessel Edith on voyages not more than five miles from the Florida sea coast and not more than twenty miles north or south of the Miami, Florida, Light-Whistle Sea Buoy; and

Whereas, The voyages in question are within the class of voyages for which an exemption from the requirement of a radio installation as specified in Title III, Part 2 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, may be granted under Section 352 (b), subsections (1) and (3) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended; and

Whereas, From the facts stated in the application and the preliminary investigation of the Commission, it appears that the requirement of a radio installation would be unreasonable and unnecessary in so far as this vessel on the voyages in question is concerned; nevertheless, the Commission desires to afford an opportunity for any person having information bearing upon the route or conditions of the said voyages to present that information to the Commission:

It is ordered, That the vessel, Edith, shall be exempt from compliance with the radio installation requirements of Part 2 of Title III of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, for voyages not more than five miles from the Florida sea coast and not more than twenty miles north or south of the Miami, Florida, Light-Whistle Sea Buoy, pending further order of the Commission and in any event for a period not exceeding thirty days from the date of this order.

Dated this 13th day of July, 1937.

By order of the Commission, Telegraph Division.

ORDER TERMINATING PROCEEDING AFTER AMENDMENT

The Securities and Exchange Commission, finding that the offering sheet described in the title hereof has been amended to cure the objections specified in the Temporary Suspension Order previously entered in this proceeding;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 354 (c) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the amendment received at the office of the Commission on July 24, 1937, be effective as of July 24, 1937.

It is further ordered that the Temporary Suspension Order heretofore entered in this proceeding be, and hereby is, revoked, and said proceeding is terminated as of the effective date of said amendment.

By the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE SIMPSON-FELL-WESTHEIMER-BATES TRACT, FILED ON JULY 21, 1937, BY LOUIS BERNSTEIN, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that the date upon which the effectiveness of the offering sheet will expire, as set forth in Division I, paragraph 5, is not correct;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE CONTINENTAL ET AL.-JANSSEN TRACT, FILED ON JULY 20, 1937, BY ELMER J. COUSINO, RESPONDENT.

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

(1) In that the date upon which the effectiveness of the offering sheet will expire, as set forth in Division I, paragraph 5, does not appear to be correct;

(2) In that the smallest fractional interest offered, as set forth in Division II, Item 1, is not stated in terms of the total production from the entire tract;

(3) In that under Division II, Item 2 (e), no statement is made as to whether the interest offered is perpetual;

(4) In that no statement is made in Division II, Item 13, relative to the number of drilling wells in the field;

(5) In that the legend of symbols shown on the plat attached to the offering sheet as "Exhibit A" is not complete;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.

IN THE MATTER OF AN OFFERING SHEET OF PRODUCING LANDOWNERS' ROYALTY INTERESTS IN THE GALT BROWN ET AL.-BELLE MCGREW TRACT, FILED ON JULY 20, 1937, BY G. E. FISHER, RESPONDENT

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION ORDER (UNDER RULE 340 (A)) AND NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY FOR HEARING

The Securities and Exchange Commission, having reasonable grounds to believe and, therefore, alleging that the offering sheet described in the title hereof and filed by the respondent named herein is incomplete or inaccurate in material respects, or includes untrue statements of material facts, or omits to state material facts necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with the requirements of Regulation B of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, in the respect, or respects, hereinafter enumerated, to wit:

In that it appears that G. E. Fisher, the person filing such offering sheet, is in fact a "dealer", as that term is defined in the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, but that he is not registered as such under Section 15 of such Act. Therefore, under Rule 312 of the General Rules and Regulations of the Commission, it does not appear that the exemption provided by Regulation B is available to the said G. E. Fisher;

It is ordered, pursuant to Rule 340 (a) of the General Rules and Regulations promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the effectiveness of the filing of said offering sheet be, and hereby is, temporarily suspended pending a final hearing thereon for the purpose of determining whether said offering sheet is incomplete or inaccurate in any material respect, or includes an untrue statement of a material fact, or omits to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein contained not misleading, or fails to comply with any requirements of Regulation B of such Rules and Regulations in the respect, or respects, hereinbefore enumerated; and

It is further ordered that respondent be, and hereby is, given notice that respondent is entitled to a hearing before the Commission, or an officer or officers of, and designated by, the Commission, for the purpose of determining such matters; that upon receipt of a written request from respondent, the Commission will, for the purpose of determining such matters, set the matter for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, within twenty days after receipt of such request; and that notice of the time and place of such hearing will thereupon be promptly given by the Commission.
